ALERT: 1) By the end of your first 48 credit hours attempted, you should have completed your General Education English, Math, and Oral Communication (Speech) requirements; 2) By the end of your first 48 credit hours attempted, you should have declared a major and transferred to (been accepted by) a degree granting college at The University of Akron.

NOTES:

a. English Composition I, 3300:111 (English Composition I) or 3300:113 (African-American Language and Culture I) are the recommended classes to meet the General Education English Requirement. 2020:121 (English) fulfills the English Composition I requirement. English Composition II, 3300:112 (English Composition II) or 3300:114 (African-American Language and Culture II) are the recommended classes to meet the General Education English requirement. 2020:222 (Technical Report Writing) fulfills the English Composition II requirement.

b. Social Science courses are required. Principles of Microeconomics, 3250:200, fulfills 3 credits of this requirement. Please refer to the General Education Guide or see your advisor regarding acceptable courses to fulfill the rest of this requirement; however, because the degree in Labor Economics requires 9 semester credits of 300/400 level courses in History, Geography, Computer Science, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Philosophy, Anthropology or Business (pre-requisites must be honored), the student should be careful to choose an appropriate 100/200 level social science class so as to meet the required pre-requisite requirement for the upper-division social science classes. Students are encouraged to consider the new MBA minor offered through the College of Business Administration to fulfill this requirement. Also, since the 9 elective credits of 300/400 level courses will most likely be completed in the junior/senior years, the student should complete all required pre-requisites for any of the above-listed electives during the first two years.

c. The Department of Economics STRONGLY RECOMMENDS that a student is enrolled in or have already completed 3450:145, College Algebra, prior to enrollment in 3250:200, Principles of Microeconomics.

d. The Department of Economics requires that a student earn at least a C in 3450:145, College Algebra. It is important that a student take any necessary math prerequisites in a timely manner. Analytical Geometry-Calculus I, 3450:221, is an acceptable option for the 3450:210/215 options.

e. Intermediate Microeconomics, 3250:410, is required along with the following courses: Labor Economics, 3250:333, Applied Econometrics, 3250:426, Labor Market and Social Policy, 3250:430, and Labor Market Analysis and Evaluation, 3250:434.

f. Students may not receive credit for both 3250:244 Introduction to Economic Analysis and 3250:200/201; however, those students who have completed 3250:244 are not required to take 3250:200/201 before beginning upper division work. 3250:100, Introduction to Economics, cannot be used to satisfy the requirements for a major or minor in economics.

g. Free electives can be any course not already required by your major and upper-level (300/400) electives can be any course in or outside your major excluding workshops.

Chair of Department of Economics – Dr. Michael Nelson, CAS 454, 330-972-7546. e-mail: nelson2@uakron.edu
