Are You Connected?

It's time for you to start your career - not next year, next month or next week - now! So where do you begin?

How about an internship? This is a great opportunity to get real world experience.

Do you know you have a ZIPProfessional account? The Center posts over 1,700 jobs each year in this database! It's the ultimate source for information regarding the UA Career Fair, new job postings, and on-campus interviews.

Or maybe you have questions about various majors and careers to pursue. If that's the case, then you do not want to miss out on the reverse interviews, a chance for you to ask employers career questions in a one on one environment.

No matter the major or career, the Center for Career Management is your one-stop shop for career success. We are located in Simmons Hall 301.

This fall semester the Center has put together an array of career programs that you do not want to miss highlighted by the UA Career Fair on Thursday, October 25th. The Career Fair will be held in the Student Union Ballrooms and will feature over 100 employers in attendance.

On the back page is a comprehensive list of events that will take place during the upcoming months. Don't miss out!

Did You Know?

Need someone to take a quick look at your resume or do you have a career related questions that needs to be answered? The Center has walk-in hours from 11:00-4:00pm Monday-Friday.
