

One Author, Two Great Events!

Joanna Luloff, author of

The Beach at Galle Road: Stories From Sri Lanka

A Barnes and Noble "Discover Great New Writers" Pick!

Special Talk on the Craft of Fiction Writing

Where: Martin Center Library

When: Thursday, April 18, from 3:30-5pm

Refreshments will be served!

Special Reading, Q&A and Book Signing

Where: Plazas A and B, Quaker Square Hotel

When: Friday, April 19 from 7:30-9pm

Refreshments will be served!

Joanna Luloff received her MFA from Emerson College and her PhD from the University of Missouri. Before all of those years of graduate school, she served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Baddegama, Sri Lanka. Her short stories have appeared in The Missouri Review, Confrontation, Memorious, and New South, and her collection The Beach at Galle Road was published by Algonquin Books in October, 2012. She is an Assistant Professor of English at SUNY Potsdam.