Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson Photography Scholarship for the Myers School of Art

Student Application Guidelines

In January 2014, Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson generously endowed a scholarship for Photography majors in the Myers School of Art. The Gift Document that defines the Scholarship and its goals reads, in part:

Dr. Olson has ... chosen to assist photography students in the School of Art through the Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson Photography Scholarship. In doing so, he challenges students not only to follow their dreams but, through their art and service to their community, to make a difference so that they too shall not have lived in vain.

The purpose of the Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson Photography Scholarship is to provide an academic scholarship to one or two photography students in The University of Akron's School of Art. In this regard, the Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson Photography Scholarship may be used to help defray the cost of tuition and fees.

In selecting the Dr. Irving J. and Ruth B. Olson Photography Scholarship recipients, consideration will be given to sophomore, junior and senior applicants, who are actively involved in the life of The University of Akron, School of Art, and/or the community, have potential for future success and who are working to help pay for their University of Akron tuition.

The Olson Photography Scholarship one of the most prestigious and valuable awards offered through the Myers School of Art.
