SPRING 2010 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
- E N D N O T E S -
*1	602, 604, 606, 615, 617	All students must register for the same section (001,002 or 801) as you successfully completed (achieving a D- or higher) in the Fall.
*2		Grade Method: E= exam; P=papers; O=other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, in the students' final grades.
*3	696,697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact Director of Placements to set up a placement no later than November 2, 2009 . Clinical Seminar I and II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required, but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*4	607	The Dean's Office will register all first year students into the correct sections of Criminal Law for the Spring 2010 semester.
*5	656	This course cannot be repeated. Course work will span Spring and Fall Semesters. Completion of First Year and invitation by Law Review. See Law Review Editor-in-Chief for further details.
*6	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students.
