Describe your first semester of college in three words:

What is your career goal?

What action on your part is needed on your part to achieve this goal?

What is one of your academic goals for your freshman year?

What action is needed on your part to achieve this goal? Consider the courses in which you excelled and struggled; distractions that may arise (i.e. workload, living arrangements); and study habits.

What is one of your personal/social goals for your freshman year?

What action is needed on your part to achieve this goal? Consider organizations you may want to join; your living arrangements; and the impact of all on your academic goals.
