Interested in Start-ups? Entrepreneurship?
The Student Venture Fund at The University of Akron is seeking applicants.

The NEO Student Venture Fund at The University of Akron is seeking a variety of qualified, enthusiastic graduate students for the upcoming school year. If you have interest or experience in starting a business or community project, working for a nonprofit organization, or learning the process of evaluating and investing in young companies, we’d love to talk to you.

We are a student-run, nonprofit, evergreen fund providing pre-seed validation to high potential start-ups in NE Ohio.

We support interaction between the university, local business communities, and entrepreneurs for the purpose of education and economic development in the region.

To Apply: If you have any questions or would like to be considered for a position with the 2013-14 Student Venture Fund at the University of Akron, please submit your questions and/or resume to uasvfund@gmail.com.
