PRACTICAL SKILLS THAT EMPLOYERS DEMAND.
AND THE SALARY TO MATCH.

GEOGRAPHIC & LAND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

- ASAC of ABET accredited degree programs
- Seamless Associate to Bachelor's Degree pathway
- Flexible day, evening and online classes

uakron.edu/est
GEOGRAPHIC & LAND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Geographic and Land Information Systems (GIS/LIS) Associate Degree program is designed to prepare graduates to enter the job market as GIS/LIS technicians for business and industry. The curriculum emphasizes understanding digital geographic data, hands-on software used in solving geographic problems and graphic communications techniques.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

- Associate of Applied Science in Geographic & Land Information Systems*
- Certificate in Geographic and Land Information Systems
- A.A.S. graduates can follow on and earn a B.S. in Surveying and Mapping

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- Local and National Government Agencies
- County and State GIS and Auditor Offices
- Local and National Mapping, Surveying and GIS Agencies
- Census Bureau
- Land Management
- EPA
- FEMA
- Park Services

* This program is accredited by the Applied Science Accreditation Commission of ABET, http://www.abet.org.

APPLY NOW!

ADMISSIONS:
uakron.edu/admissions

ADVISING:
uakron.edu/cast/advising

Visit uakron.edu/est for more information.