

BINDING YOUR THESIS OR DISSERTATION

Library Copies

Library copies are no longer required or accepted. However, some departments may request a bound copy for their records. Students should check with their departments to see if a thesis or dissertation needs to be bound for the department.

Personal & Departmental Copies

Should students want or need to have additional copies of a thesis or dissertation bound, they may submit manuscripts to a professional bindery or printing service.

The University of Akron has a contract with The HF Group that allows students to submit manuscripts for binding at a discounted rate. Should students wish to use The HF Group, they will submit directly to the bindery.

See the following page for the The HF Group.
