5. Pay close attention to the Show Week Of – the view is based upon this date. The date defaults to the current week. Therefore, if the current date is 8/19/2008 and you wish to view your Fall schedule (which begins 8/25/2008) you must change the date to 08/25/2008 in order to see your Fall 2008 schedule for that specific week. Keep in mind, some classes do not run the entire semester so they will only appear on the schedule for a specific time frame.

You may also change the Start Time and End Time. For example, if you are taking evening classes beginning at 6:00 PM, you might want to specify the Start Time as 6:00 PM since you will have no classes prior to that time.

After making any changes to the Show Week Of, Start Time, or End Time, click the Refresh Calendar button to refresh the view.
