FALL 2006 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
- FOOTNOTES -
*1	696*697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact Professor Carro to set up a placement before enrolling. Clinical Seminar I, NBLC & II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*2		Grade method: E=exam; P=paper; O=Other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, exams, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, into the students' final grades.
*3		Students must successfully complete Part I before enrolling in Part II
*4	610	All students must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to their final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific details. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR and ISR at the Receptionist's Desk.
*5	629	NOTE: Secured Transactions is a prerequisite for Commercial Paper. Both are BAR courses.
*6		All students must register for the same section (001, 002 or 800) in the Spring semester
*7		The following courses are credit/non recredit: 609, 610, 618, 656, 657, 658, 659, 696, 697
*8	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at the Receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement but only with the Associate Dean's permission.
*9	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 modules hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www.uakron.edu/law/library/alr.php .
*10	695	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694 and 695 not to exceed 4.
*11	609	Introduction to Law & Legal Systems is a one-credit hour class, which is graded credit/non-credit, and will apply toward the 88 credit hours required to earn the Juris Doctor degree. Failure to attend this weeklong program will preclude admission to law school. Both day and evening students (all session sections) are required to enroll in the evening section. This class will meet Monday, August 21, 2006 - Thursday, August 24, 2006.
*12	656,657,658	Only December graduates and evening staff members are eligible to register for Law Review credits in the Fall semester. Please provide verification of Law Review participation to Liz Saunders for registration permission. These sections cannot be repeated. Intern/staff position (9200:656) requires completion of first year courses and invitation by Law Review. Successful completion of 9200:656 is a prerequisite for continuing with the Law Review. Only those students elected to the Editorial Board are permitted to register for 9200:658.
*13	703, 705	Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*14	659	Negotiations will meet during four consecutive Saturdays in October, 2006. October 7, 14, 21 and 28. This class will meet from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. on October 7, 14, and 21st and 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. on October 28th. This class is graded on a credit/non-credit basis. Attendance is required at all sessions to obtain credit for the course .
*15	696-004&005	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits, Basic Business Associations (626) OR Corporations (633) AND permission of NBLC Director, Stephen R. Cook. Maximum enrollment for both sections is 10 students.

*1	696*697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact Professor Carro to set up a placement before enrolling. Clinical Seminar I, NBLC & II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*2		Grade method: E=exam; P=paper; O=Other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, exams, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, into the students' final grades.
*3		Students must successfully complete Part I before enrolling in Part II
*4	610	All students must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to their final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific details. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR and ISR at the Receptionist's Desk.
*5	629	NOTE: Secured Transactions is a prerequisite for Commercial Paper. Both are BAR courses.
*6		All students must register for the same section (001, 002 or 800) in the Spring semester
*7		The following courses are credit/non recredit: 609, 610, 618, 656, 657, 658, 659, 696, 697
*8	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at the Receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement but only with the Associate Dean's permission.
*9	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 modules hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www.uakron.edu/law/library/alr.php .
*10	695	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694 and 695 not to exceed 4.
*11	609	Introduction to Law & Legal Systems is a one-credit hour class, which is graded credit/non-credit, and will apply toward the 88 credit hours required to earn the Juris Doctor degree. Failure to attend this weeklong program will preclude admission to law school. Both day and evening students (all session sections) are required to enroll in the evening section. This class will meet Monday, August 23, 2004 - Thursday, August 26, 2004.
*12	656,657,658	Only December graduates and evening staff members are eligible to register for Law Review credits in the Fall semester. Please provide verification of Law Review participation to Liz Saunders for registration permission. These sections cannot be repeated. Intern/staff position (9200:656) requires completion of first year courses and invitation by Law Review. Successful completion of 9200:656 is a prerequisite for continuing with the Law Review. Only those students elected to the Editorial Board are permitted to register for 9200:658.
*13	703, 711	Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*14	659	Negotiations will meet during four consecutive Saturdays in October, 2005. October 8, 15, 22 and 29. This class will meet from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. on October 8, 15, and 22nd and 9:00 -11:00 a.m. on October 29th. This class is graded on a credit/non-credit basis. Attendance is required at all sessions to obtain credit for the course .
*15	696-004&005	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits, Basic Business Associations (626) OR Corporations (633) AND permission of NBLC Director, Stephen R. Cook. Maximum enrollment for both sections is 10 students.
*16	639 & 641	Estate & Gift Taxation and Corporate Taxation I are taught at the Business School and cross-listed here.
*17	684-006	Sem: Comparative Legal Systems will be offered during the first 5 weeks of the Fall session.
*18	684-802	Sem: Advanced Patent Prosecution will meet 3 consecutive Saturdays in late October, early November. Dates and Times to be announced. Attendance is required at all sessions to obtain credit for the course.
Students may not register for more than one class for any given class period. Failure to comply with this policy will result in the administrative withdrawal from ALL conflicting classes. Re-registration for dropped courses will be based on seat availability only.

* FOOTNOTES *
*1	696*697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the Instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Credit for 696/697 not to exceed 6 credits. Clinical Seminar I & II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*2		Grade method: E=exam; P=paper; O=Other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, into the students' final grades.
*3		Students must successfully complete Part I before enrolling in Part II
*4	610	All students must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to their final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific details. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR and ISR at the Receptionist's Desk.
*5	629	NOTE: Secured Transactions (formerly Commercial Law II) is now a prerequisite for Commercial Paper (formerly Commercial Law I). Both are BAR courses.
*6		All students must register for the same section (001, 002, 003 or 800) in the Spring semester
*7		The following courses are credit/non recredit: 609, 610, 618, 656, 657, 658, 659, 696, 697
*8	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at the Receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement but only with the Associate Dean's permission.
*9	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 modules hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www.uakron.edu/law/library/alr.php .
*10	695	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694 and 695 not to exceed 4.
*11	609	Introduction to Law & Legal Systems is a one-credit hour class, which is graded credit/non-credit, and will apply toward the 88 credit hours required to earn the Juris Doctor degree. Failure to attend this weeklong program will preclude admission to law school. Both day and evening students (all session sections) are required to enroll in the evening section. This class will meet Monday, August 23, 2004 - Thursday, August 26, 2004.
*12	656,657,658	Only December graduates and evening staff members are eligible to register for Law Review credits in the Fall semester. Please provide verification of Law Review participation to Liz Sauders for registration permission. These sections cannot be repeated. Intern/staff position (9200:656) requires completion of first year courses and invitation by Law Review. Successful completion of 9200:656 is a prerequisite for continuing with the Law Review. Only those students elected to the Editorial Board are permitted to register for 9200:658.
*13	703, 711	Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*14	659	Negotiations will meet during four consecutive Saturdays in October, 2004. October 9, 16, 23 and 30. This class will meet from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. on October 9, 16 & 23rd and 9:00 -11:00 a.m. on October 30th. This class is graded on a credit/non-credit basis. Attendance is required at all sessions to obtain credit for the course.
*15	696-004&005	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits, Basic Business Associations (626) OR Corporations (633) AND permission of NBLC Director, Stephen R. Cook. Maximum enrollment for both sections is 10 students.
*16	639 & 641	Estate & Gift Taxation and Corporate Taxation I are taught at the Business School and cross-listed here.
*17	684-006	Sem: Comparative Legal Systems will be offered during the first 5 weeks of the Fall session.
Students may not register for more than one class for any given class period. Failure to comply with this policy will result in the administrative withdrawal from ALL conflicting classes. Re-registration for dropped courses will be based on seat availability only.

FALL 2003 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
*1	696&697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the Instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Credit for 696/697 not to exceed 6 credits. Clinical Seminar I & II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*2		Grade method: E=exam; P=paper; O=Other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, into the students' final grades.
*3		Students must successfully complete Part I before enrolling in Part II.
*4	610	All students must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to their final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific details. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR and ISR at the receptionist's desk.
*5	629	NOTE: Secured Transactions (formerly Commercial Law II) is a now a prerequisite for Commercial Paper (formerly Commercial Law I). Both are BAR courses.
*6		All students must register for the same section (001,002,003 or 080) in the Spring Semester.
*7		The following courses are credit/non-credit: 609,610,618, 656,657,658,659,695,696,697.
*8	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement but only with the Office of the Dean of Student Services's permission.
*9	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 module hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www2.uakron.edu/law/library/alr/index.html .
*10	695	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694 and 695 not to exceed 4.
*11	609	Introduction to Law & Legal Systems is a one-credit hour class, which is graded credit/non-credit, and will apply toward the 88 credit hours required to earn the Juris Doctor degree. Failure to attend this weeklong program will preclude admission to law school. Both day and evening students (all session sections) are required to enroll in the evening section. This class will meet Monday, August 18, 2003 - Thursday, August 21, 2003.
*12	656,657,658	Only December graduates and evening staff members are eligible to register for Law Review credits in the Fall semester. Please provide verification of Law Review participation to the Student Services Counselor for registration permission. These sections cannot be repeated. Intern/staff position (9200:656) require completion of first year courses and invitation by Law Review. Successful completion of 9200:656 is a prerequisite for continuing with the Law Review. Only those students elected to the Editorial Board are permitted to register for 9200-658.
*13	703, 704	Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*14	659	Negotiation will meet during two weekends in October 2003: October 4/5 and 11/12. FALL 2002 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
- FOOTNOTES -
*1	696/697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the Instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Credit for 696/697 not to exceed 6 credits. Clinical Seminar I & II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails acinical work experience. Part II is not required but Part II may not be taken unless Part I have been successfully completed.
*2		Grade method: E=exam; P=paper; O=Other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, into the students' final grades.
*3		Students must successfully complete Part I before enrolling in Part II.
*4	610	All students must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to his or her final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific details. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR and ISR at the receptionist's desk.
*5	629	NOTE: Secured Transactions (formerly Commerical Law II) is a now a prerequisite for Commercial Paper (formerly Commercial Law I). Both are BAR courses.
*6		All students must register for the same section (001,002,003 or 080) in the Spring Semester.
*7		The following courses are credit/non-credit: 609,610,656,657,658,695,696,697.
*8	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement but only with the Associate Dean's permission.
*9	618	Students must take the required modules and selected other modules after registering and before graduation for a total of 14 hours of instruction. Modules will be offered at different times, as posted.
*10	695	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694 and 695 not to exceed 4.
*11	639&641	Estate & Gift Tax and Corporate Tax are taught at the Business School & cross-listed here. Corporate Tax will be offered only in the Fall Semester; Estate & Gift Tax may not be offered in Spring.
*12	609	Introduction to Law & Legal Systems is a one-credit hour class, which is graded credit/non-credit, and will apply toward the 88 credit hours required to earn the Juris Doctor degree. Failure to attend this weeklong program will preclude admission to law school. Both day and evening students(all session sections) are required to enroll in the evening section.
*13	656,657,658	Only December graduates and evening staff members are eligible to register for Law Review credits in the Fall semester. Please provide verification of Law Review participation to Jill Painter for registration permission. These sections cannot be repeated. Intern/staff position (9200:656) require completion of first year courses and invitation by Law Review. Successful completion of 9200:656 is a prerequisite for continuing with the Law Review. Only those students elected to the Editorial Board are permitted to register for 9200-658.
*14		Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*15		Negotiation will meet during two weekends in October 2002: October 5/6 and 12/13. This class will meet from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on October 5, 6, 12 and from 9:00 a.m to 11:00 a.m. on October 13. This class is graded on a credit/non-credit basis. Attendance is required at all sessions to obtain credit for this course.
Students may not register for more than one class for any given class period. Failure to comply with this policy will result in the administrative withdrawal from ALL conflicting classes. Re-registration for dropped courses will be based on seat availability only.
