SPRING 2007 SEMESTER SCHEDULE

- E N D N O T E S -

*1	602, 604, 606, 615, 617	All students must register for the same section (001,002 or 801) as you successfully completed (achieving a D- or higher) in the Fall.
*2		Grade Method: E= exam; P=papers; O=other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, in the students' final grades.
*3	696,697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact Mr. William Rickett, Director of Placements to set up a placement no later than November 1, 2006 . Clinical Seminar I and II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required, but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.

SPRING 2005 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
- FOOTNOTES -
*1	602, 604, 606, 615, 617	All students must register for the same section (001,002,003 or 801) as you successfully completed (achieving a D- or higher) in the Fall.
*2		Grade Method: E= exam; P=papers; O=other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, in the students' final grades.
*3	696,697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Clinical Seminar I and II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required, but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*4	607	All students must register in the same section (001,002,003 or 801) as you are enrolled for your other first-year courses.
*5	656	This course cannot be repeated. Course work will span Spring and Fall Semesters. Completion of First Year and invitation by Law Review. See Law Review Editor-in-Chief for further details.
*6	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at receptionist's desk. This course may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement only with the Associate Dean's permission..
*7	629	Formerly Commerical Law I. Must have taken Secured Transactions (629) to enroll.
*8		Please contact Professor Carro prior to registering for this course.
*9	692-080	Class will meet on weekends; dates and times will be determined with the class registrants before the end of the Fall Semester.
*10	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 module hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www.uakron.edu/law/library/alr.php
*11	694	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694, 695 not to exceed 4. Registration will be completed by the Dean's Office.

SPRING 2004 SEMESTER SCHEDULE
*1	602, 604, 606, 615, 617	All students must register for the same section (001,002,003 or 080) as you successfully completed (achieving a D- or higher) in the Fall.
*2		Grade Method: E= exam; P=papers; O=other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, in the students' final grades.
*3	696,697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Credit for 696/697 not to exceed 6 credits. Clinical Seminar I and II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required, but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*4	607	All students must register in the same section (001,002,003 or 080) as you are enrolled for your other first-year courses.
*5	656	This course cannot be repeated. Course work will span Spring and Fall Semesters. Completion of First Year and invitation by Law Review. See Law Review Editor-in-Chief for further details.
*6	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at receptionist's desk. Effective Spring 1994 semester, this course (with the Associate Dean's permission) may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement.
*7	629	Formerly Commercial Law I. Must have taken Secured Transactions (629) to enroll.
*8		Please contact Professor Carro prior to registering for this course.
*9	692-080	Class will meet on weekends; dates and times will be determined with the class registrants before the end of the Fall Semester.
*10	618	The ALR course consists of a series of required and elective modules. A total of 14 module hours must be completed to earn credit for this required course. Students must take the two required modules the semester they initially register for ALR. Elective modules can be taken any semester after registering and before graduation. Modules will be offered at different times as posted. Additional information about ALR is available at http://www2.uakron.edu/law/library/alr/index.html .
*11	694	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694, 695 not to exceed 4. Registration will be completed by the Dean's Office.
*12		The following are credit/non-credit courses: 610, 618, 656, 657, 658, 694, 696, 697.
*13	657	This course cannot be repeated. Prerequisite is Law Review Internship/Staff, 9200:656.
*14	658	This course cannot be repeated. Prerequisite is Law Review Internship/Staff, 9200:656 and election to Editorial Board.
*15	610	Each student must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to his or her final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific deadlines. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Instructor of Record. Obtain information packets for GWR & ISR at the receptionist's desk.
*16	684-002 & 003	Successful completion of 28 credit hours, Basic Business Associations (626) OR Corporations (633) AND permission of NBLC Director, Stephen R. Cook. Maximum enrollment for both sections is 6 students.
*17	684-005	This course will be taught by faculty in areas of expertise.
*18	690-001	The entire class will attend the first 1-1/2 hour session on Tuesday. For the Friday session, the class will be split in half. Half of the class will meet from 9-10:30 a.m. and the other half will meet from 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
Students may not register for more than one class for any given class period. Failure to comply with this policy will result in the administrative withdrawal from ALL conflicting classes. Re-registration for dropped courses will be based on seat availability only.

SPRING 2003 SEMESTER SCHEDULE

- F O O T N O T E S -

*1	602/604/606/615/ 617	All students must register for the same section (001,002,003 or 080) as you successfully completed (achieving a D- or higher) in the Fall.
*2		Grade Method: E= exam; P=papers; O=other. Other may be any combination of assignments, papers, presentations, etc. The professor reserves the right to include other factors, such as participation and attendance, in the students' final grades.
*3	696/697	Successful completion of 28 or more semester credits and permission of instructor. You MUST contact the instructor to set up a placement before enrolling. Credit for 696/697 not to exceed 6 credits. Clinical Seminar I and II may only be taken once each. This is a combination of a clinical work experience and a classroom component. Part I emphasizes legal interviewing, legal drafting, and negotiation. Part II entails a clinical work experience. Part II is not required, but Part II may not be taken unless Part I has been successfully completed.
*4	607	All students must register in the same section (001,002,003 or 080) as you are enrolled for your other first-year courses.
*5	656	This course cannot be repeated. Course work will span Spring and Fall Semesters. Completion of First Year and invitation by Law Review. See Law Review Editor-in-Chief for further details.
*6	698	May be repeated to 6 credits but not more than one section in any one academic term. Student must be in good academic standing. Sections open to both Day and Evening students. Class is controlled. Obtain applications at receptionist's desk. Effective Spring 1994 semester, this course (with the Associate Dean's permission) may be used to fulfill the General Writing Requirement.
*7	629	Formerly Commerical Law I. Must have taken Secured Transactions (627) to enroll.
*8		Please contact Professor Carro prior to registering for this course.
*9	692-080	Class will meet on weekends; dates and times will be determined with the class registrants before the end of the Fall Semester.
*10	618	Students must take the required modules and selected other modules after registering and before graduation for a total of 14 hours of instruction. Modules will be offered at different times, as posted.
*11	694	Open only to members or alternates of one of the advocacy teams representing the law school in intermural regional and/or national competitions. Total credits for 694, 695 not to exceed 4. Registration will be completed by the Dean's Office.
*12		The following are credit/non-credit courses: 610,655,656,657,658,694,696,697.
*13	657	This course cannot be repeated. Prerequisite is Law Review Internship/Staff, 9200:656.
*14	658	This course cannot be repeated. Prerequisite is Law Review Internship/Staff, 9200:656 and election to Editorial Board.
*15	610	Each student must enroll in the GWR and accompanying course at least 1 semester prior to his or her final semester before graduation. See information packet for specific deadlines. The GWR for Individual Studies & Research (ISR) must be authorized, in advance, by the Associate Dean. Obtain information packets for GWR & ISR at the receptionist's desk.
*16		Students are given the option of evaluation by three methods: (1) proctored exam (2) take-home paper or (3) paper. Students will choose the method of evaluation by voting during the semester.
*17	684-002 & 003	Successful completion of 28 credit hours, Basic Business Associations (626) OR Corporations (633) AND permission of NBLC Director, Stephen R. Cook.
*18	684-002 & 003	Maximum enrollment for both sections - 5 students.
*19	684-004	This course will be team taught by Professors Cole, Dessin, Huhn, Jordan, Koosed, Lee, Moriarty, Moritz, Reilly, Rich, & Thomas.

Students may not register for more than one class for any given class period. Failure to comply with this policy will result in the administrative withdrawal from ALL conflicting classes. Re-registration for dropped courses will be based on seat availability only.

NOTE: RIGHT TO ALTER, AMEND OR CANCEL RESERVED.
