17		The absolute maximum load for any combination of sessions and courses during the summer is 8 credits. More than 3 credits at any one time during the summer is an overload. Any combination of sessions that causes an overload of 4 or more credits is an overload.
18		When a student is in class for more than twelve hours a week, the student may not work more than 20 hours during that given week. This is an ABA restriction that cannot be waived.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Enrollment is limited to a maximum of 4 credit hours per each summer session with a maximum of 8 credit hours for the entire summer.

Exceptions may be made by Assistant Dean in rare and compelling circumstances.

Submit written requests for overload permission to Assistant Dean Lauri S. File via Liz Sauders at email sauders@uakron.edu.

To avoid being closed out of a class, students are permitted to register for classes prior to receiving authorization for an overload. If the student is denied permission for an overload, the student must change his or her schedule immediately upon notification by the Dean's office to receive the maximum refund.
