Spend 4 weeks in France and Earn UA Credits
$2000 includes Tuition and Room
Summer I, June 2017

Who can go? Anyone is eligible to apply! Knowledge of the French language is NOT required (classes are primarily taught in English or translation is offered).

What is it? An opportunity to travel to Le Mans, France, and take up to 7 credit hours of classes while exploring major sites like Versailles, and experiencing French culture first hand!

Where? Université du Maine, Le Mans, France (only 1 hour by train from Paris!)

How Much? $2000. Price includes tuition and course fees, a private room (with private bath and shared cooking facilities) on campus, excursion travel (to Versailles, Beaches at Normandy, A Medieval monastery, and a Chateau in the Loire Valley),—students are responsible for their own airfare and meals. Extra opportunities for weekend travel may also be offered.

For more information contact Jana Russ at jana@uakron.edu, or visit our website at http://uahistoryinfrance.blogspot.com
For information on French courses or internships contact Maria Adamowicz-Hariasz at madamow@uakron.edu