Background

History

Established by the Ohio Universalist Convention on May 31, 1870, Buchtel College was built on a hill overlooking Akron, a thriving industrial city of 10,000 situated at the summit of the Ohio Canal. The college was named in honor of John R. Buchtel, a farm machinery manufacturer, whose money and spirit sustained the enterprise in higher education. Support also came from local men who pioneered such industries as cereals, clay products, matches, farm implements and rubber.

By 1913 it was apparent that Buchtel College had stronger allegiances with the city of Akron than Universalism, and in that year its assets were transferred to the city as the nucleus of the Municipal University of Akron. The Buchtel name was perpetuated in the Buchtel College of Liberal Arts, and on July 1, 1970, in the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences.

From 1910 to 1920, Akron was America's fastest-growing city, blossoming from 70,000 to 208,000 persons within that decade, and the University grew similarly. In 1914 a College of Engineering was established. Other professional colleges followed: Education (1921), Business Administration (1933), Law (1939), Community and Technical College (1964), Fine and Applied Arts (1967) and Nursing (1967). To make courses available to a broad cross-section of citizens, a comprehensive evening session was established in 1915. Today over 7,800 Evening College students pursue undergraduate and graduate education in every degree program offered by the University.

In undergraduate education, Akron was an early supporter of the free elective idea (1880s) and general education (1895), the latter program being developed into one of the most fully rationalized in the country. Graduate work evolved from awarding of the first master's degree (1929) to the beginning of doctoral work in 1956. Currently, doctoral programs are offered in 14 fields.

Since Buchtel College initiated college courses in rubber chemistry (1908), it is appropriate that the University's first Ph.D. program was offered in polymer chemistry. However, UA's first major research effort was the Guggenheim Airship Institute which flourished in the 1930s and 1940s.

University of Akron scientists participated in the critical development of synthetic rubber during World War II, and today the University's Institute of Polymer Science is now a world leader in polymer research and education. Currently the University's research efforts, totaling approximately $3 million, reach into many phases of research and creative projects.

The 140-acre campus with 66 modern buildings is located in a metropolitan area of 1.5 million persons. The University of Akron now enrolls more than 24,000 day and evening students in credit courses and an additional 7,000 in "informal" noncredit education courses. Its students come from 32 states and 60 foreign countries, and its over 50,000 alumni are situated around the globe in positions of responsibility. The University's long-time leadership in continuing adult education and cooperative town and gown activities has been supplemented by the cultural leadership it has provided in the renaissance of artistic endeavor in Akron.

On July 1, 1967, The University of Akron became a state university. Thus, it secured a base that enabled it to extend its influence far beyond local boundaries. Its first 111 years of service prepared it for a widening role in the future.

Mission and Goals

The major forces influencing The University of Akron's mission are teaching and research goals, location and heritage, and service responsibilities to the local, national and international communities served.

These forces, coupled with the sharing of the national commitment to provide the highest quality educational opportunity to each person regardless of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin or handicapping condition, form the distinctive character of this institution.

The foremost goals of The University of Akron are to foster and maintain high standards of quality in program offerings, teaching methods, research projects and public service. The validity of all existing programs, as well as the need for additional ones, is to be evaluated regularly in light of the University's goals and performance; and achievement standards are to be reviewed carefully to ensure excellence.

As an urban institution, The University of Akron strives to encourage a mutually beneficial relationship between the University and its environment by encouraging the use of the surrounding community as a laboratory for teaching and by structuring courses and research to meet the community's particular needs. In terms of educational needs, the University will continue to build upon its long heritage of serving those seeking either career changes, professional development or self-enrichment in daytime, evening and weekend courses, through off-campus instruction, cooperative education and workshops. The University, once a small, denominational college, has evolved into an urban multi-university with an international responsibility. At The University of Akron the concept of an urban university has broadened from a demographic definition to a philosophical commitment that encompasses educational needs, social goals and community responsibilities. These forces mold the philosophy that shape the Mission and Goals of The University of Akron.

Mission

The University of Akron is a comprehensive state-assisted urban university with national and international influence, sharing the same general mission as the other state universities to:

• Provide learning opportunities for a broad spectrum of students.
• Discover new knowledge through basic and applied research.
• Provide a forum for the examination of ideas and concepts and the generation of scholarly dialogue within the established principles of academic freedom.
• Develop necessary educational services throughout the state of Ohio.
• Plan for continued improvement of the teaching and learning environment.
• Prepare career-oriented persons for professional leadership roles in regional, national and international organizations and institutions.

In addition, The University of Akron's mission has certain distinctive characteristics determined by its location in the service areas of three major urban centers and the Northeastern Ohio regional area. The University's specific mission is to meet the educational needs and develop the cultural interests of students who work in and manage the industries, multinational firms, hospitals, businesses, government and other institutions and agencies in this area by providing:

• Academic programs leading to associate, baccalaureate, master's and doctoral degrees.
• Educational programs which may lead to the awarding of a certificate, continuing education credits or other evidence of personal and professional improvement.
• Consortia with other universities which establish programs such as educational television, the medical school and joint doctoral programs.
• Community and regional commitments and public service which expand educational opportunities.

Goals

The following goals provide further definition of the University's mission and serve as the basis upon which individual colleges, departments, and service units of the University establish program objectives.

Goal I

The University will plan, develop, implement, and measure all of its efforts in light of its primary goal of teaching: to provide optimum learning opportunities for students of varying ages, diverse backgrounds and different needs.

Goal II

The University will continue to develop its faculty resources by emphasizing professional growth through research, publication and creative activities; by encouraging the search for new knowledge; by providing opportunities for faculty to increase their leadership within their academic areas; by fostering faculty awareness of the influence of other disciplines on their own; and by encouraging the integration of public service and appropriate faculty activities.

Goal III

The University programs and the teaching/learning process will be designed to fulfill the students' varied academic needs, to emphasize quality and to reflect the comprehensive role of the urban university in modern society, so as to develop thinking individuals capable of confronting local, national and international problems and thus making a positive contribution to society.

Goal IV

The University will provide public service to the urban community through its programs, faculty, students and graduates.

Goal V

The University will coordinate the growth and emphasis of its programs with long-range plans and needs of the community.

Goal VI

The University will contribute as much as possible within its resources to the development of quality of life for the future of the nation and the world of which the Akron community is a part and upon which its people and economy are dependent.

Accreditation

Accreditation assures that degrees are recognized and approved by select regional and national education associations, societies and councils. The University of Akron has been approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools since 1914 and was recently reaccredited at the highest level as a comprehensive doctoral degree-granting institution. This recognition illustrates the high academic standards maintained at the University. For a student taking pre-professional courses in order to eventually study advanced fields such as medicine, dentistry, law and theology, there is an assurance of sound preparation for acceptance at other graduate and professional schools. There is also security in knowing that the University will honor most credits earned at a similarly accredited college or university. Degrees earned at the University are respected and sought after by prospective employers.

In addition to the recognized regional accreditations, special accreditation for particular programs has been awarded as follows:

- American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business
- American Chemical Society
- American Dietetic Association
- The American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
- Committee on Allied Health Education and Accreditation of American Medical Association
- Council on Social Work Education (candidacy status)
- Engineers' Council for Professional Development
- National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Sciences
- National Association of Schools of Art
- National Association of Schools of Music
- National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education
- National League for Nursing

Ohio Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration
Ohio State Department of Public Instruction

The University also holds membership in the following educational organizations:

- American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education
- American Association of Community and Junior Colleges
- American Association of State Colleges and Universities
- American Council on Education
- American Society for Engineering Education
- American Society for Training and Development
- Association for Continuing Higher Education
- Department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs (National League for Nursing)
- National Association of Summer Sessions
- The School of Law is accredited by:
  - American Bar Association
  - Association of American Law Schools
  - League of Ohio Law Schools
  - Council of the North Carolina State Bar
  - State of New York Court of Appeals

The American Association of University Women grants membership to women graduates with approved baccalaureate degrees from The University of Akron.
Academics

The University of Akron covers a broad educational spectrum academically. Programs are available leading to the associate (two-year), bachelor's (four-year), master's (graduate) and doctoral (graduate or professional) degrees. A student can study in the College of Business Administration, Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, Community and Technical College, College of Education, College of Engineering, College of Fine and Applied Arts, University College, School of Law or College of Nursing.

Associate Programs

In this fast-paced age of technological development, a need has grown for a person trained specifically for work in the semi-professional, technical and highly skilled professions. Most critically needed are laboratory technicians, health technicians, engineering assistants, sales people, supervisors, secretaries and management assistants. The following is a list of our associate degree programs:

Community and Technical College

Arts
Business Management Technology
Banking Option
Chemical Technology
Industrial
Rubber and Plastics
Geology

Baccalaureate Programs

The University of Akron believes that the student should master basic courses in the humanities, social sciences and physical sciences and thus supports the idea of the University College concept. A student seeking a baccalaureate degree and having attained less than 30 college semester credits, studies in the University College before transferring to a degree-granting college. The University College develops the ability to understand and express ideas effectively and to comprehend the processes involved in accurate thinking. After completing the general studies phase, entrance is granted to a degree-granting college, where studies are concentrated around the student's specific academic interest:

University Honors Program

The University of Akron's Honors Program has been designed to recognize and to support the highly motivated and achievement-oriented student in any major program. Emphasizing close student/faculty relationships, honors work offers unique learning experiences which should help the participant to discover the potential, capabilities and sense of direction inherent in the individual.

Participants are eligible for substantial honors scholarships. An honors student completes all requirements for a departmental or divisional major. The student also attends interdisciplinary colloquia in the humanities, the social sciences and the natural sciences which focus on the interrelations of academic studies while exploring significant issues of our contemporary society. An honors student is expected to complete a senior honors project reflecting an interest in the student's major field of study.

Certificate Programs

In order to add to the dimensions of the traditional disciplines, the University has established interdisciplinary and interdepartmental programs of study. In addition to a student's major, pursuit of one of these programs will add a dimension of depth through concentrated work focusing on one of the following:

Afro-American Study
Cartographic Specialization
Computer Science
Environmental Study
Higher Education
Interior Design
Latin American Study
Life-Span Development: Adulthood and Aging
Life-Span Development: Gender Identity and Roles
Linguistic Studies
Mid-Careers in Urban Studies

The School of Law provides legal education through day and evening classes leading to the Juris Doctor degree. An applicant must have an undergraduate degree from an accredited college or university in an appropriate field of study.
Evening College

The Evening College is a year-long, round-the-clock educational endeavor at the University. It provides educational opportunities for the student who is employed during the day. The courses offered in this college are fully accredited, and many faculty teach both day and evening courses. The Evening College enrollment includes more than 7,500 students working toward associate, baccalaureate and advanced degrees or attending for additional education in their chosen profession.

Summer Sessions

The University's Summer Sessions have existed for more than 40 years, serving both the day and evening student. They operate so that a University student's academic progress can be accelerated, or a high school graduate can enter college immediately after graduation. In addition to this, a teacher can work toward additional or advanced degrees as well as renew certification during summer vacation. Also, any credit earned at the University may be transferred back to the transient student's home institution.

Off-Campus Programs

As a metropolitan institution of higher learning, the University clearly identifies and supports its public service role through a variety of off-campus programs. The University has offered special institutes, workshops and courses to professional groups through the academic departments, Institute for Civic Education, Department of Special Programs and Developmental Programs.

Wayne General and Technical College

In order to better meet the needs of citizens in Wayne, Holmes and Medina counties, the Wayne General and Technical College opened its doors in 1972 as a branch campus of The University of Akron. Six technical programs as well as the first two years of a traditional four-year liberal arts program are offered leading to one of the following degrees: Associate in Applied Science in business management technology, electronic technology, mechanical technology, retail management technology, secretarial science or social services technology.
The Campus

The University is located in a large metropolitan area of 1.5 million persons. Although the campus is centrally located within the city, and the student has easy access to retail outlets, transportation and churches, the 140-acre plot is set apart from the downtown district. During recent years, the University campus has undergone many major changes. In 1951, the University's 13 acres encompassed but 10 buildings. Presently, the campus covers 140 acres and includes 66 buildings with plans to renovate and build additional academic recreational and parking facilities. The campus is illuminated at night not only for safety purposes, but also to accentuate the surrounding hub of activity. Security personnel patrol the area hourly.

Location

The location of the University is ideal for travelers. Automobile travelers find Akron only a short drive south of the Ohio Turnpike that ties together the whole eastern half of the nation. The city's suburbs touch on Interstate 77 that stretches from Lake Erie to the gulf coast, Interstates 76 and 80 which link the nation from the east to the west coast, Interstate 77 that links the area with the southeastern coast and interstate 90 that ties in with the New York Thruway. Bus travelers will find the Greyhound station a short walk from the campus. Airline passengers will find Akron abundant in limousine service from the Cleveland-Hopkins International Airport, which is located in Cleveland, Ohio, and the Akron-Canton Airport located south of Akron.

Buildings

Most of the buildings on campus carry the names of prominent persons from the area who are recognized for their contributions in administration, education, business, science or University service. Major buildings are listed below. Dormitories, service, storage or inactive buildings are not listed.

Admissions Building: (166 Fir Hill) This office is located at the corner of Fir Hill and East Buchtel Avenue. Located on the ground floor, the Office of Admissions can assist you with applications, requirements and procedures whether you are an undergraduate, post-baccalaureate, graduate, professional, transient, transfer, auditing or special student. The Institute for Futures Studies and Research, the Office of Team Leadership Development and Institutional Research data analysis are located on the second floor.

Auburn Science and Engineering Center: Named for Norman P. Auburn, 10th president of the University, this complex is one of the largest academic buildings under one roof in the State of Ohio. The center houses the College of Engineering, the Department of Biology, the Institute of Polymer Science (research activities), the Institute for Biomedical Engineering Research, the scientific and engineering holdings of the University Library and the Library for the Division of Rubber Chemistry-American Chemical Society.

Ayer Hall: Named for the first dean of the College of Engineering, Frederic E. Ayer, Ayer Hall provides classrooms and offices for the mathematics and physics departments, and the Counseling and Testing Center.

Ballet Center: (354 East Market Street) This center houses dance studios, a choreography laboratory, faculty offices, the Ohio Ballet studios and offices and the Dance Institute's offices.

Bierce Library: Named for Gen. Lucius V. Bierce, a former Akron mayor, lawyer, historian, state senator, philosopher, investor, philanthropist and soldier, it was constructed at a cost of $8 million. Opened in spring 1973, the University Library has total holdings here and at several other locations of 1,164,375. The facility also houses the University Archives, an audio-visual center, Instructional Media Distribution Center, a microfilm department, a map room, the Archives of the History of American Psychology and the American History Research Center.

Buchtel Hall: Originally built in 1870, this structure was destroyed by fire in 1899 and rebuilt in 1901 (Buchtel Hall II). The administrative center of the campus, Buchtel Hall (III) was completely restored in 1973 following a devastating fire in 1971. It is the University's last remaining link with its predecessor, Buchtel College. It provides office space for numerous administrative officials of the University.

Carroll Hall: Adjacent to the Gardner Student Center, Carroll Hall houses classrooms, laboratories and offices... for the Departments of Counseling and Special Education, Geography, Developmental Programs and Computer Based Education as well as the University's Planning Department, audio-visual services, electronic systems engineering and the Learning Resources Center.

Continuing Education Center: The Lisie Buckingham center was renovated in 1979 at a cost of $2.8 million. The building houses offices for the dean of Continuing Education and Public Services, Adult Resources Center, Equal Employment Opportunity office, Department of Special Programs, Institute for Civic Education, Nursing Home Training Center, as well as a lecture hall and general classrooms.

Crouse Hall: Crouse Hall houses the Department of Geology, classrooms and some offices for the College of Education.

Davis Gallery: Named in honor of Professor Emeritus of Art Emily H. Davis, the gallery opened in November, 1974, at 181 East Exchange Street, to provide cultural programs in the visual arts, a showcase for the artistic achievements of students and faculty and the finest exhibitions available of professional artwork.

East Hall: Located on South Union Street the hall houses the University nursery school, International Students Center, Black Cultural Center and University Honors Program.

Firestone Conservatory: Located on the first floor of Guzzetta Hall, this facility provides classrooms, practice rooms and offices for music.

Gardner Student Center: This complex was named for Donfred H. Gardner who was appointed dean of men in 1926, named the University's first dean of students in 1937, in 1955 named the University’s first dean of administration and later, in 1959, promoted to vice president. He retired in 1962. This facility, which serves as a unifying force in the life of the institution, houses nearly 80 percent of all nonacademic activities on campus. It provides space for bowling alleys, music rooms, lounges, student activity and publication offices and workrooms, game and billiard room, University Bookstore and cafeteria and dining facilities.

Gladwin Hall: Housing the College of Nursing, allied health and biology laboratories, this newly constructed building was named in honor of distinguished alumna, Mary E. Gladwin (1887), who rendered unparalleled service as a war nurse. A $10 million complex opened in 1979, adjacent to Knight Chemical Laboratory, the facility includes a multi-purpose nursing laboratory and simulated six-bed hospital containing surgical labor delivery suite and nursery suite.

Guzzetta Hall: Complementing the Edwin J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall, this facility was constructed directly across from Thomas Hall on Hill Street. The $5.5 million structure dedicated in October, 1976, houses the dean of the College of Fine and Applied Arts, and the Departments of Mass Media-Communication, Music and Theatre Arts and Dance. In addition to providing more than 40 student practice rooms, the complex houses an impressive multi-media center, a small experimental theatre and a 300-seat recital hall.

Hower House: Located on Fir Hill, the 103-year-old mansion has been designated as an Historic Place by the National Park Service.

Knight Chemical Laboratory: This new $10 million complex is named in honor of Dr. Charles M. Knight who taught the first courses in rubber chemistry in Buchtel College as early as 1908. Opened in 1979, the building features numerous innovative laboratories with the latest, most sophisticated, safety equipment along with classrooms and faculty and administrative offices.

Kolbe Hall: Recognized by its colonnade arch, this complex was named for the first president of the Municipal University of Akron, Parke R. Kolbe. It houses the University Theatre, instructional media offices and studios, as well as classrooms and offices for the College of Business Administration and the Departments of Environmental Studies and Social Work.

Leigh Hall (formerly the Business Administration Building): Named in honor of Warren W. Leigh, first dean of the College of Business Administration, the facility located on East Buchtel Avenue houses the entire College of Business Administration. John S. Knight Auditorium, located on the street level, is the site of many programs open to both campus and community.

McDowell Law Center: Named for C. Blake McDowell, prominent local attorney, alumnus and benefactor of the University, the center houses the School of Law. Opened in 1973 at a cost of $2.5 million, it provides space for the 130,000-volume law library, classrooms, moot courtroom, appellate-review office, seminar rooms and faculty offices. The center is located at the corner of East Center Street and Grant Street.
Memorial Hall: Dedicated to the memory of Summit County men and women who died in World War II, this is the center of men's and women's physical education activities. It contains offices of the Departments of Athletics and Physical Education, ticket sales office, two large gymnasiums, a swimming pool, Office of Sports Information and related training and classrooms.

North Hall: Located on South Forge Street, this facility houses the following administrative service departments: duplicating, publications, purchasing, internal communications, public information and staff personnel.

Olin Hall: Named in honor of Professor Oscar E. Olin and Mr. Charles Olin. This facility was completed in May, 1975. The hall houses the dean of Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences and the following departments and institutes: Classics, Economics, English, General Studies, History, Modern Languages, Political Science, Philosophy, Sociology, Center for Peace Studies and Afro-American Studies and English Language Institute. The complex is located at the corner of East Buchtel Avenue and South Union Street.

Edwin J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall: Named for Edwin J. Thomas, prominent industrialist and dedicated member of the University Board of Trustees from 1952 to 1975, this unique cultural center was formally opened in 1973, costing more than $13.9 million. Designed to accommodate concerts, opera, ballet and theatre productions, the hall is a masterpiece in terms of architecture, acoustics and creative mechanisms. It is located at the corner of East Center and Hill Streets.

Physical Plant Operations Center: (146 Hill Street) This building is located on Hill Street adjacent to E.J. Thomas Hall and houses physical plant operations, as well as security, safety, custodial, building and equipment repair and heat and energy distribution.

Robertson Dining Hall: (248 James Street) This building features a cafeteria and dining room for dormitory students as well as the campus infirmary, which provides health services for the University.

Rubber Bowl: This off-campus stadium located at 800 George Washington Boulevard, just four miles from the campus, provides the University with an artificial turf playing field, seating for 35,000, locker rooms, concessions, and press box for athletic events.

Schrank Hall: Named for Harry P. Schrank, long-time member and chairman of the Board of Trustees, this complex which adjoins Auburn Science and Engineering Center is composed of two academic structures and a parking deck. Schrank Hall North provides offices, classroom space and career placement service for the Community and Technical College. Schrank Hall South contains facilities for the Department of Home Economics and Family Eclogy, the Department of Art and the Army and Air Force R.O.T.C. units.

Service Building #1: (194 East Center Street) This building provides commercial art studios for the Department of Art.

Simmons Hall: Named for Hezzelton Simmons, University president from 1933 to 1951, this hall houses the Department of Psychology, the Division of Sciences and Engineering Technology offices and laboratories. The Institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology and the History of American Psychology Archives also occupy a portion of the building. A student interested in employment counseling and assistance will find the Office of Career Planning and Placement conveniently located in this facility.

South Hall: This facility provides additional studios for the Department of Art.

Spicer Hall: This major student contact building had renovations completed in 1975. It houses the Registrar's Office, Academic Advising Services, the Office of Student Financial Aids and Employment, University College, the Evening College and Summer Sessions, the Parking Systems Office and offices for the University auditor, controller, cashier, accounts payable and receivable and the state examiner.

Student Mailroom: Located on central campus, adjacent to the Gardner Student Center, this building contains mailboxes for all students.

The University Club: (105 Fir Hill) Property of The University of Akron's Development Foundation, the club is operated by a private corporation for the use of its members and guests. Two dining rooms and four meeting rooms make the club an ideal location for social, cultural and intellectual activities. The Office of Alumni Relations and the Department of Development are located on the second floor of the building.
West Hall: Located at the corner of East Buchtel Avenue and Grant Street, this renovated structure houses the Center for Urban Studies, the Department of Urban Studies, the Department of Communicative Disorders and the outpatient Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Whitby Hall: Named for G. Stafford Whitby, a pioneer in the development of polymer science, this addition to the Institute of Polymer Science (I.P.S.) was opened in fall, 1975. Housing the academic portion of I.P.S., the hall was purchased, renovated and equipped at a cost of $3.2 million. The institute's research activities continue in Auburn Science and Engineering Center.

Zook Hall: Named to honor George F. Zook, president of the University from 1925 to 1933. He later became U.S. commissioner of education and president of the American Council of Education. This Buchtel Avenue facility houses the College of Education and provides a lecture room that seats 260, general classrooms, a handicrafts room, a teaching demonstration classroom, a microteaching laboratory, Center for Economic Education and the Student Teaching Office.

Facilities, Laboratories and Equipment

While the give-and-take relationships established through personal contact between teacher and student will always remain the keystone of the educational process, numerous studies have established the fact that imparting knowledge through the use of modern technological teaching aids makes most learning situations more effective and efficient.

Allied Health

The College of Nursing, Medical Technology Program and Allied Health Program have modern and innovative equipment housed in the recently opened Gladwin Hall. There is a multi-purpose nursing laboratory (a simulated six-bed hospital) containing a surgical-labor delivery and nursery suite. Additional equipment includes a complex cardiac monitoring system with wall oxygen and suction equipment. The clinical assessment laboratory permits a student to examine well clients in a clinic-like atmosphere. Support facilities feature an independent study laboratory with 36 carrels, a graduate research room, media viewing room and a psychiatric nursing laboratory. This complex also has two microbiology laboratories which are connected to an inoculation room, media-prep room, autoclave and labware washroom. There is also a standard anatomy and physiology laboratory, an audio-tutorial laboratory with 60 audio-visually-equipped carrels and an x-ray room which may include a very low power x-ray machine.

Applied Arts

The Speech and Hearing Clinic, of the Department of Communicative Disorders, functions as both a service and a practicum training component of the traditional academic mission of teaching—service—research. The clients served in the clinic provide the practicum experience needed by student clinicians in training, while receiving critically needed therapeutic service for themselves. The clinic also provides comprehensive case-finding, diagnostic and treatment programs outside the University, i.e., in the community for persons of all ages who may experience communicative disorders resulting from problems in the areas of speech, hearing and/or language. These valuable therapeutic services are rendered using the latest and most modern techniques and equipment. Professionally certified supervisors and teachers from the department staff are used to oversee the student clinicians performing the services. The clinic program is coordinated with other complementary community services in hospitals, rehabilitation centers and community service agencies.

The Department of Home Economics and Family Ecology has food and nutrition laboratories, a commercial food preparation and hospitality center and textiles and clothing laboratories. The Human Resource Center, within the department, is a multi-purpose lecture/laboratory area designed for demonstration and study in the areas of home management, home nursing, consumer education, housing, furnishings and community involvement.

The Department of Modern Languages' two most important resources are the language laboratory and its library holdings. The language laboratory schedules working sessions for all beginning and some advanced language courses as an integral part of the course, as well as individual and voluntary student-study time. The department is currently enlarging its undergraduate holdings in the library to ensure the acquisition of a minimum list of basic bibliographical material requisite for degree programs.

The Department of Geography houses a modern cartographic drawing laboratory, with adjoining darkroom and major equipment rooms, an urban analysis laboratory, a physical geography laboratory and a selected map, air photo and periodicals research collection. Major equipment includes stereo and digital plotters, electronic calculators, ERTS satellite transferscope, overhead map enlarger, field plotters, three-dimensional Perspektomat, headliner and varityper, industrial camera, vacuum frame and map scale changer. A laboratory for cartographic and spatial analysis equipped with a remote computer terminal operates as a part of the department.

Fine Arts

The Department of Art provides a variety of studio environments to study assorted art forms. These include easels and drawing boards, a ceramics studio with pottery wheels and kilns, a metals laboratory, photographic lights, tools and darkroom facilities,
a weaving loom, a printmaking workshop and a sculpture shop with equipment for construction with wood, metal, clay, plaster, stone and foundry work including bronze and aluminum. The Emily Davis Art Gallery houses continuous visual displays.

Guzetta Hall, part of a $20 million complex for the performing arts, houses the Departments of Music, Mass Media-Communication and Theatre Arts and Dance. Located adjacent to the Edwin J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall, it provides all of the vital programs and modern equipment for the fine arts student.

The Department of Mass Media-Communication features color television equipment which is used in the instructional curriculum. The classroom/studio is equipped with color cameras, lights, monitoring and control boards, slide and film chain, audio studio and video tape recorders. Radio facilities are located within the walls of WAUP-FM, which includes audio control boards, turntables, studios and a newsroom, all for student use.

Audio mixing and recording facilities are located adjacent to the recital hall and are used in conjunction with the Department of Music. Audio and video recording equipment is also easily transported to the experimental theatre for experience in conjunction with the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance.

The Department of Music utilizes the recital hall which houses a 45-stop Mohler pipe organ, suitable for both teaching and concert performances. The University has available for student use a number of wind, string and percussion instruments. In addition, some $30,000 worth of equipment is available to complement instrumentation for the marching and symphony bands. The department also owns a Neupert harpsicord, a harp, a nine-stop tracker organ, a Mohler practice organ, computer based instruction laboratory, electrophonic piano laboratory and 11 Baldwin concert grand pianos for the recital hall, classrooms and teaching studios. Forty practice rooms (acoustical sound modules) are available for a student enrolled in music courses and organizations.

The Department of Theatre Arts and Dance finds a teaching and performing center in the experimental theatre complete with support facilities. Kolbe Hall houses a 260-seat auditorium for theatre productions and dance recitals. The theatre student gains technical experience in lighting, stage design, make-up and sound by assisting in actual productions. The Firestone Conservatory houses the dance studios for the ballet program.

Education

The program of study in special education is supported by a new $300,000 counseling and special education complex located in Carroll Hall. This facility contains eight clinic rooms with provisions for observation and a demonstration classroom. The establishment of this facility now makes possible the combining of training experiences of special teachers, school psychologists, speech and hearing therapists and school counselors. A high degree of public school involvement exists with the diagnostic clinic and demonstration classroom.

The Department of Counseling and Special Education operates a well-equipped instructional resource center which is directed by a full-time faculty member.
This facility is affiliated with the National Media Center for the Handicapped. The primary objectives of the intructional materials center are to provide faculty support in teaching; help familiarize a student with materials; evaluate existing instructional materials; and serve as a catalyst for the development of new materials.

The Department of Health and Physical Education makes use of Memorial Hall and Lee Jackson Field.
These facilities provide locker rooms, two gymnasiums,
a swimming pool, weight room, physiology stress-testing laboratory, trainer's room, baseball and softball diamonds, soccer field, track, tennis courts and outdoor basketball courts.

The Microteaching Laboratory facilitates a program designed to give the student a taste of teaching before they enter the field. It is part of a total program in secondary education which helps ease the student into the teaching field without the abrupt change in the role from student to educator. A student is required to teach on four separate occasions in the microteaching laboratory located in the College of Education. They teach students from area high schools. After the 10-minute presentation, the videotape is played back and the teacher's performance is evaluated by the students and a supervisor. Then, in the light of this criticism and evaluation, the teacher retakes the lesson to the students. The program is being used in various teacher education programs all over the country but in no other place is it used on such a wide scale as at The University of Akron.

Engineering and Science Technologies

The College of Engineering maintains some of the most recent equipment and finest facilities available for research and instruction in engineering.

The Department of Chemical Engineering not only features the usual assortment of sophisticated analytical instruments, but also a Wattseng Rheogoniometer, analog computers and a high pressure pilot plant that complements the all-glass distillation absorption unit which is about 30-feet tall. The laboratory is also equipped to investigate basic rubber and plastic processes.

The Department of Civil Engineering staffs four major laboratories. In the environmental engineering laboratory, a student learns to analyze water and wastewater and assess its quality. Laboratory equipment includes ph meters, incubators, analytical balances, distillation and reflux equipment, spectrophotometers, conductivity units, flotation units, carbon absorption columns, refrigerators, autoclaves and thickening tanks.

In the hydraulics laboratory, a student observes the fundamental and practical aspects of fluid mechanics with several sophisticated pieces of equipment; tilting flume enables the student to visualize water flow in streams and rivers. Models of bridges and dams can be studied; the wave tank enables a student to study the effect of waves on lakeshore erosion, harbors, marinas, breakwaters and offshore structures; the mobile bed tank is used to demonstrate erosion and sediment deposition patterns around bridges, piers and culvert and storm drain outlets; with the flow visualization tank, a student can observe velocity profiles within the channels and around models by observing the hydrogen bubbles generated by the system.

In the soil mechanics and foundation engineering laboratory, a student learns how to make various soil analyses by using a variety of tests and machines. These include triaxial cells, direct shear machines and compression machines to determine shear strength characteristics, a nuclear moisture-density device which is used in quality control during embankment construction and seismic and electrical resistivity equipment for geophysical exploration of soil and rock deposits.

In the structural materials laboratory, the student has the opportunity to observe experimental verifications of earlier training on the behavior of structural members subjected to tension, compression, bending and torsion. This is accomplished with the use of two universal testing machines, an MTS closed-loop system which has a loading capacity to 300,000 pounds and a CGS dynamic testing machine which can be used in either uniaxial or torsional loading. The latter two machines are used to study fatigue and crack propagation characteristics of various engineering materials. The laboratory also features a strong room which has a specially stiffened floor which is used for conducting bending tests of large steel and reinforced concrete beams as well as large size wall panels used in prefabricated construction. A student also has the opportunity to utilize modern instruments which include multichannel strain indicators, oscilloscopes, x-y plotters and magnetic amplifier systems.

Facilities in electrical engineering include: laboratories and equipment for the study of propagation, lasers, antennas, microwaves, digital and analog controls, basic electronics and electrical machinery.

The Department of Mechanical Engineering laboratories feature: a stress analysis laboratory equipped with polarisopes, strain gauges, instrumentation for dynamic and static strain measurement and photographic darkroom facilities; a vibration and acoustics laboratory equipped with sound pressure level meters, dynamic shakers, frequency analyzers and an anechoic chamber; a system and control laboratory equipped with fluidic control systems and various other instrument simulation and control devices; a heat transfer laboratory equipped with a Scott Thermal Conduction System, radiation and temperature measurement system and various heat exchangers; a thermal and fluid sciences laboratory equipped with subsonic and supersonic wind tunnels, internal combustion engines, compressors, gas turbine engine and various other devices.

Equipment within the department includes: a two channel constant temperature anemometer (Thermo Systems), a SAICOR correlation and probability analyzer, a high speed movie camera, a nitrogen laser, an Ampex FM tape recorder, several chart recorders and two EAI analog computers.

Natural Sciences

The Department of Biology houses modern laboratories and equipment including advanced light microscopes (phase interference contrast, fluorescence), electron microscope (scanning and transmission), scintillation counters and physiographs; vehicles and boats are available for field work. Advanced equipment is available for use by the undergraduate working on research topics.

The Department of Chemistry is located in the recently opened Knight Chemical Laboratories, one of the safest facilities of its kind for instructional and research laboratory work.

The department is blessed with outstanding instrumentation which is used both in the undergraduate and graduate programs. The undergraduate student will utilize modern and sophisticated instruments such as nuclear magnetic resonances spectrometers, research grade gas chromatographs, infrared and ultraviolet spectrophotometers and other modern research tools for identification and characterization of their compounds. The University's Chemical Stores facility is located in the Department of Chemistry and maintains an inventory of more than 2,500 items including chemicals, glassware and apparatus.

The Department of Geology has rock saws and thin section equipment, a darkroom, a Phillips Norelco x-ray diffraction unit, a geo-chemistry laboratory with a Perkin-Elmer atomic absorption spectrophotometer, two nine-passenger, four-wheel drive field vehicles, research microscopes and auxiliary equipment and geophysical equipment including Worden gravimeter, Scintrex magnetometer, seismic recording truck, phones, instrumentation and playback console.

The Department of Physics offers excellent research instrumentation for studies involving both high-resolution and broadline nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy. The laboratories include experimental facilities for low-temperature solid state physics research. Some notable studies currently in progress include those concerned with quantum size effects, the ShubnikovdeHaas effect and electron tunneling at metal-semimetal junctions. Other research investigations employ nuclear quadrupole resonance, Mossbauer effect and magnetic susceptibility measurements.
Studies of the physical properties of polymeric materials utilize the extensive facilities of the Department of Polymer Science.

Social Sciences

The Department of Psychology laboratory facilities include undergraduate and statistics laboratories and laboratories for the study of human signal detection, auto driving and other motor skills, motion sickness, attention, concept formation, perceptual style and memory. The department carries an inventory of psychology equipment and apparatus worth $130,000 including a mini-computer and a Beckman photographe. The department also houses the Institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology devoted to the study and assistance of the aged.

The Department of Sociology features a large statistics laboratory with electronic calculators and adjoining classroom, a five-room small groups research laboratory for both instructional and research undertakings and an anthropology laboratory for both the storing and the study of archaeological artifacts and materials. These facilities enable the student to learn while doing.

Computer Center

The Computer Center at The University of Akron provides computational support to those academic efforts of research and instruction where such support is feasible, and administrative data processing to assist in the conduct of the business of the University.

The facilities of the center are available to all students enrolled in credit (and certain noncredit) courses at the University on an "as required" basis; they are also available to faculty, staff and administrative officers of the institution. Centrally located on campus, the Computer Center is open seven days a week — day and evenings — while school is in session.

The academic systems section assists the student and faculty in making effective use of the Computer Center. It provides consultation and help in preparing usable computer programs, in analysis and solution of problems where the use of the computer is indicated, and will also acquire and install prepackaged programs for specific departments. For the student who encounters problems in using the computer, assistance is available all week, night or day.

The center is equipped with an IBM 370 model 158 computer with magnetic tapes, disks, remote terminals and a wide variety of peripheral equipment. An Op-Scan optical mark scanner that prepares computer-readable tapes from specially marked forms provides fast and reliable data entry for test scoring services and surveys. The center has available all the widely used computer languages, e.g. FORTRAN, COBOL PL/1, RPG, BAL, BASIC, SPSS, GPSS, APL, as well as some lesser known, e.g. SNOBOL, FORMAC, WATFIV, ASSIST, XPL, ALGOL, COURSE WRITER, SINSRIPT, etc. An extensive library of computer programs covers a wide range of disciplines for research and instructional support. Digital plotting can be provided by high-speed printer or by line drawings from a 30-inch Cal Comp plotting machine. The "open shop" area includes a Digital Equipment Corporation PDP 11/40 minicomputer for "hands-on" programming used in the instructional support of computer programming. Keypunches, sorters and various off-line equipment are available for general use by qualified faculty and students.

Instructional Media

Concern for student learning resulted in the establishment of the Office of Instructional Media — a major step toward the creation of The University of Akron's Learning Resources Center. The Office of Instructional Media incorporates the Departments of Audio-Visual Services, Electronic Systems Engineering and the Instructional Television Center.

Audio-Visual Services contains a centralized collection of instructional materials (filmstrips, slides, etc.) for the purposes of supplementing University professors lectures. An extensive collection of moveable media — hardware and mediated-software is housed in the audio-visual area for faculty and student use.

Audio-Visual Services also has a Materials Production Division which prepares original artwork and photographic materials used by instructors for reinforcement of classroom learning principles.

Electronic Systems Engineering is to complement the degree of sophistication required by the Audio-Visual Services and the Instructional Television Center in the area of facilities planning, installation of satellite learning resource areas and the maintenance of electronics equipment.

The Instructional Television Center functions as an effective teaching tool through continuous production of lectures originating from the University's Instructional Television Center. These are transmitted via 24 video channels and 15 audio channels to most classroom buildings on the University campus from the Instructional Media Distribution Center. This has proved to be a successful means of presenting educational material to an expanding number of students while maintaining the values of traditional professor-student relationships as well as adding new values to the teaching process. Annually, an estimated 7,000 students receive part of their instruction by television.

The University of Akron, together with Kent State University and Youngstown State University, produces learning and information material for Northeastern Educational Television of Ohio, Inc. (NETO) via Channels 45 and 49.

Student Services
and Activities
Student Services

The Office of Student Services is a major division of the University, the purpose of which is to provide the help needed for the student to develop academically, personally and socially. Special services are also available to the non-traditional adult student who wishes to continue studies in higher education. There are several facilities which help to accomplish this objective.

Office of Student Development

Concerned with each student’s University experience, this office provides a wide range of resources, programs and professional counseling to assist the student with individual growth and to assist the student in becoming involved and accepting responsibility within campus organizations. The office provides leadership and skill-building workshops for all students throughout the year. These workshops aid in enhancing the ability of each student to participate effectively.

The office has current information about all campus organizations and the variety of their activities. It will provide assistance to a student wishing to explore the range of opportunities existing at the University which will enrich and expand the person’s individual development and, in turn, University experience.

Office of Student Financial Aids and Employment

This office, a part of the Division of Student Services, provides assistance to people who, without financial aid, might not be able to attend the University. Seven professional staff members are available to provide such assistance.

A detailed statement regarding all financial assistance programs can be found in Section 3 of this Bulletin.

Office of Career Planning and Placement

Career placement assistance is available to the student in business, industry, government, private agencies and education. The office is located in Simmons Hall.

For the graduating student, opportunities are provided for interviews with on-campus representatives of prominent businesses, industries and branches of government, including the military services and education at the primary, elementary and secondary levels. Information on careers in both administration or teaching at the college and university level is available. In addition, direct job referrals are made to registrants; credential files are maintained and mailed upon request; company literature is available; career planning is provided.

The facilities and services of this office are for any student as well as alumni. More than 400 interviewers come to the University each fall and spring to interview degree candidates.

Student Health Services

Due to increased numbers of University students, expanded health service facilities immediately adjacent to the residence halls have developed. First aid services and limited medical care are available in the health services, and an infirmary area is provided for 12 inpatients. A registered nurse is on duty 24 hours a day (except vacations and holidays) and a physician is either on duty or on call.

A residence hall student receives bed care for up to 72 hours, without charge. A student receiving bed care longer will be charged the daily rate which is currently charged by local hospitals for similar services.

The student who becomes seriously ill or suffers a serious injury on campus should be taken to an emergency ward of one of the local hospitals without delay. Whoever is present should call Security or an ambulance immediately in this kind of emergency. The University assumes no legal responsibility or obligation for the expenses of such transportation or for medical services at the hospital.

The University constructs every facility with high safety standards and carries out this principle of maintaining physical security for its students by following stringent accident prevention measures. However, the University assumes no responsibility for student accidents incurred while attending or participating in classroom, gymnasium or laboratory work.

Student health and accident insurance designed specifically for a student is required of all residence hall students and all international students except those who present proof that they already have similar coverage. Other students may purchase this insurance at the annual individual rate. The student insurance provides coverage for such items as hospitalization, surgical benefits and in-hospital medical benefits.

In order to identify existing or potential health problems, a Health History Profile form is included in the packet containing other admission forms and information. Explanations for completion and mailing of this form are included. Completion of this form is essential.

The completed Health form and other health-related records are treated as confidential and are kept in the Student Health Services offices.
Office of Student Legal Programs

This office represents an innovative and unique approach to providing necessary, but limited, legal assistance to the student. While not providing the type of legal counseling that may be considered to be the practice of law, this office does provide assistance, guidance and referral with respect to private rights which a student believes exist.

In addition to limited legal counseling, this office offers programs and activities which expose the student and others to legal concepts which specifically affect the student and which affect citizens generally.

Reports of student misconduct are directed to this office and in all cases of alleged student misconduct this office attempts to guarantee to the student the elements of procedural and substantive due process of law, thereby affording a fair and equitable procedure by which to determine the validity of misconduct charges.

This office also coordinates reference inquiries about a student for purposes of employment, transfer to another university or for other reasons. Since the collection, maintenance, use and dissemination of information concerning a student is a task which must balance the individual's "right to privacy" with the University's and the community's "right to know," this office is sensitive to the concept of confidentiality and the rights of a student with regard to records.

Counseling and Testing Center

The center provides psychological counseling, therapy and testing without charge to any student enrolled for credit as well as to faculty and staff.

Counseling Service

The center's Counseling Service offers assistance in the following areas:

• Career counseling involves discovering one's interests, needs, values, aptitudes, abilities and goals; relating these to the world of work; exploring appropriate major subjects and career fields. A library of occupational information materials is available for use in connection with career exploration.

• Personal-emotional counseling deals with feelings of loneliness, inadequacy, guilt, anxiety and depression; interpersonal relationships especially with the immediate family, dating partners and roommates; personality development, identity and self-esteem.

• Educational counseling relates to educational goals, motivation, attitudes, abilities and the development of effective study habits and skills.

• Group educational programs are offered in such areas as self-awareness and personal growth, improving grades, career counseling, improving relations with others, communications and listening skills, midlife career change and understanding and accepting an individual's sexuality.

• Consulting services deal with concerns of non-traditional students; understanding individual and group behavior; problem-solving and decision-making skills; communication and human relations skills; referral for social, psychological and medical services; and counseling psychology theory and technique.

Testing Service

The center's Testing Service offers a variety of testing programs such as the American College Test, the Admissions Testing Program of the College Entrance Examination Board, foreign language placement testing, Graduate Record Examination, Miller Analogies Test, Law School Admissions Test and the College Level Examination Program (successful completion of C.L.E.P. tests can be substituted for certain course requirements of the University College).

In addition, individual testing is offered in conjunction with counseling. Such tests cover vocational interests, aptitudes, achievement, personality, etc.

The Counseling and Testing Center is located on the third floor of Ayer Hall. Counseling service, individually or in groups, is available by appointment or on an immediate basis, when necessary.

Bierce Library

Bierce Library is divided into two major segments: the main library on East Buchtel Avenue and the Science-Technology Division in Auburn Science and Engineering Center 104.
There are over one million books, pamphlets, pictures, government documents, microforms, maps, records, audio tapes, films, filmstrips, slides and archival materials in the library. In addition, the library subscribes to over 4,800 periodicals. Through the University’s membership in the Center for Research Libraries, interlibrary loan activities and reciprocal borrowing arrangements with other Ohio academic libraries, Bierce Library can provide the student with access to vast resources.

A student identification card serves as the library card. Group study rooms, typing rooms and photocopying services are available.

Residence Halls

The Office of Residence Halls has the responsibility for providing comfortable, safe and healthy living accommodations for the non-commuting student. The residence hall program is committed to providing a living experience which contributes to the educational, social and personal development of each resident student.

The University residence hall program is administered from the Office of Residence Halls located on the first floor of Bulger Residence Hall. Presently the dorm system includes 15 facilities housing approximately 2,000 students from 17 states and several foreign countries.

Living in each hall is a trained head resident and selected returning students who serve as resident assistants. Most of the halls are fully air-conditioned and feature semi-private rooms with bathroom facilities on each floor. Recently acquired residence halls, that were formerly apartments, house more students per unit and include private bathroom facilities. The rooms are furnished with beds, desks, chairs, bookshelves, closets, storage space, lamps, wastebaskets, drapes and pillows. A student is not permitted to bring pets.

The dormitories have coin-operated washers and dryers as well as lounge and study areas. A dormitory resident can have a car on campus but must purchase and display a student parking permit. There are open parking lots adjacent to the halls as well as a deck below the Robertson Dining Hall.

Robertson Dining Hall

A student who lives in the residence halls must participate in the board plan. A residence hall occupant receives a meal ticket entitling the holder to 20 meals per week in the dining hall. Meals are served cafeteria style with an "unlimited seconds" policy. Meals are planned under the supervision of a professional dietitian.

Cost: Room and Board

The current rate for housing accommodations and food service is $1,980 per year ($990 per semester).

Housing accommodations are also available during the summer on a limited basis. The charges are: per night, $5; per session, $160; and for the entire summer school period, $320. These prices reflect the cost of rooms only. A student is responsible for meals.

To the extent that any surplus space should ever become available in University residence halls or housing, the University shall enforce a rule requiring occupancy of such facilities by a student attending the University.

Residence Hall Program Board (R.H.P.B.)

R.H.P.B. provides a series of activities designed to allow development and expansion of a student’s social, cultural and educational interests. It consists of the following committees: movies, media, music entertainment, special features, major events and technical.

The chairman of each committee solicits the participation of interested students so that involvement is increased. More information on dormitory activities is included later in this section.

Residence Hall Student Government (R.H.C.)

R.H.C. functions as a governing body for a residence hall student. It acts as a medium of communication and policy implementation between the director of residence halls and students living in the halls. It maintains its own radio station, WRHA (590 AM). Each residence hall elects its own officers who are responsible for the group activities of that hall. The executive committee, the central legislative body of R.H.C., is the campus-wide voice of the residence hall student and is represented on campus committees by various officers.

Ecumenical Campus Ministry

The Ecumenical Campus Ministry is a cooperative enterprise supported by many Protestant and Roman Catholic churches, working together to proclaim the Christian Gospel to and within the academic community. The church cooperates with the University in shaping values, in creating awareness of self-identity, and in providing intellectual preparedness for tasks relating to God and his children. Thus the campus ministry programs focus on all facets of the academic community — faculty, students, staff — through discussion groups, worship celebrations, retreats, social projects, personal counseling and reflection.

A student is invited to share in this ministry through participation in any of its programs and services. The Catholic campus ministers are available at the Newman Center, 143 South Union Street (north of Olin Hall); and the Protestant Minister is available at the AGAPE Center, 263 East Mill Street.

A priest is available to all of the Eastern Orthodox faith at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation adjacent to the campus at 129 South Union Street.

There are synagogues in the city for the student of orthodox, conservative and reformed Jewish faith. The Akron Jewish Center, located on the west side of the city, provides cultural opportunities for all students and residents of the city.

Many of the extracurricular groups have a faith as a focal point of the organization. These are listed in the student handbook, the A-book.

Hourly Pre-School

The Hourly Pre-School is open to children of a student or faculty member while they are in class or studying. The curriculum covers planned, spontaneous and facilitated experiences for children and is supervised by trained teachers and aides. Opportunities are provided for youngsters to engage in arts, language arts, table toys, socio-dramatic play, rug toys, science exploration, sandbox and water play. Field trips provide real life experiences. Resource people from the community are invited to the school to share their talents and vocations.

The program emphasizes positive self-image, racial awareness and anthropological differences among people. Children must be between the ages of two and one-half through six years, and tuition is $1.10 - $1.35 per hour. Registration is handled on a per-semester basis for all parents and space is allotted hourly on a "first-come" basis.
Extracurricular Activities

As important as research papers, classes or experiments are, what one learns at a University is equally determined by the people one meets. So it is with some pride that the University offers over 180 different student organizations and opportunities for student involvement.

Organizational and activity offerings range from athletics to communications and publications, from recognition societies and honoraries to personal interest groups, from performing arts groups to religious organizations, and from academic department interest clubs to social fraternities and sororities. All have a common goal of providing an opportunity for new acquaintances and contacts with various people in the University and community.

But beyond that, there are other benefits. Extracurricular activities and participation in campus life provide the chance to broaden classroom learning experiences, develop skills that will be marketable in the eventual search for a career position, expand horizons into additional interests and learn leadership and human relations skills.

Listed below are some of the most popular activities. A complete listing may be found in the student handbook, the A-book.

Performing Arts

Opportunities abound for the interested student to develop the ability to face the public through live audience performances such as plays, debates, recitals and dance, as well as through media presentations by way of radio, television and film.

A student who aspires to act, write or produce in theatre is encouraged to attend tryouts and to apply for technical positions. The experimental theatre in Guzzetta Hall is one of the most flexible theatre designs to date. The University Theatre in Kolbe Hall, with its intimate proscenium stage, is the scene for many University productions.

Those interested in mass media-communication will find that Guzzetta Hall contains fully-equipped television and radio stations. A student may participate in the Radio-Television Workshop and broadcast regularly over the 3,000 watt FM station, WAUP (88.1). Also available is experience at the residence hall station, WRHA. To top off speaking and broadcasting opportunities, forensic and debate teams compete locally and nationally.

A University student interested in music may audition for membership in the famous 250-piece Marching Band, the Concert Choir, the Jazz Pops Vocal Ensemble, the award-winning Jazz Ensemble, the University Orchestra, the select Student/Faculty Chamber Orchestra, the Symphony Band, the outstanding Opera Theatre, the Evening Chorus, which performs regularly with the Akron Symphony Orchestra, or any number of other small or specialized musical ensembles or clubs.

A final opportunity in the area of Performing Arts is offered in ballet. The organization is the Experimental Dance Ensemble, which is intimately associated with the world-renowned Ohio Ballet.

Sports Activities

The University aims to provide a broad and diversified program in intercollegiate, club and intramural sports. The student, regardless of athletic success or experience, is urged to take part.

A wide variety of intramurals ranging from flag football to tennis, is offered. On the intercollegiate level, the University participates in 14 intercollegiate sports during the three major athletic seasons. Fall: football, soccer, men's and women's cross country and women's volleyball. Winter: men's and women's basketball, swimming and riflery. Spring: men's and women's track, baseball, golf, men's and women's tennis and women's softball.

Athletic clubs include the nationally acclaimed Karate Club and the Ski Club, among others.

Departmental Organizations

In order to enhance and expand upon classroom learning, many academic departments sponsor organizations which provide social and educational programs in a particular field of study. Speakers, career nights, association with professional societies and projects to sharpen professional skills are but a few of the activities these organizations sponsor.

Personal Interest Organizations

From political organizations to chess tournaments, the personal interest organizations cover a wide range of activities and interests.

A few of the most prominent, broad-appeal groups are: Associated Student Government — A.S.G. is the representative government for the day undergraduate, providing student input into University governance and recommending budget allocations to campus organizations. Black United Students — Enrichment for the Black student is supplemented through Black History Month, orientation programs for the Black student, African Awareness Week and other cultural programs. Residence Hall Program Board — This group schedules entertaining activities to fill leisure time. Coffeehouses, dances, films and video entertainment are some of the areas handled for a residence hall student by R.H.P.B.

All-Campus Advisory Boards

In addition to organizations, there are opportunities for a student to hold positions on a number of all-campus advisory committees. These groups, while technically not organizations, are open to all interested students and function with the same benefits for their members as organizations.

One of these, the Major Events Board, handles concerts and other large-scale musical presentations, plays, lectures, special events and any other large-production, all-campus, student-oriented program.

For the student interested in helping others, the Orientation Board is committed to assisting the new student adjust to the new roles at the University. Social and educational programs are presented during the course of the year to maintain a continual supportive environment.

The Gardner Student Center presents another opportunity through Student Center Programming (S.C.P.). S.C.P. is an activities board charged with the responsibility of providing social, cultural, educational and recreational activities and programs for all students who use the Student Center.

Student Publications

The Buchtelite is a student newspaper issued twice weekly during the regular academic year. This is the campus "voice" with news, columns and photographs describing campus events. Copies of each edition are distributed to students free of charge at newsstands located in various spots on campus.

The Tel-Buch is a yearbook with comprehensive editorial and photographic coverage of student life at the University. This impressive publication of about 300 pages is free to students in attendance during the school year which the yearbook is capsulizing.

Nite-Life is a monthly publication with news of interest to a student in the Evening College. Each year there are 10 issues distributed free to students at campus newsstands.

Arete is made up of journals and newsletters which are produced by law students to advance the goals of the profession, present opinions of contemporary issues related to law and to facilitate communication among law students.
Admissions

Admission is necessarily limited by the University's capacity to provide for the student's educational objectives. The University reserves the right to approve admission only to those individuals whose ability, attitude and character promise satisfactory achievement of University objectives.

Recommended High School Courses

An applicant, in order to increase the possibility for success, is strongly urged to complete the following preparatory courses while in high school:

- 4 units of English
- 1 unit of mathematics
- 2 units of social studies (including American history)
- 1 unit of natural science
- 2 additional units from any of these

These additional subjects are recommended for a student planning to major in engineering, science and pre-professional:

- 1½ units of high school algebra
- 1 unit of geometry
- ½ unit of trigonometry
- 1 unit of physics or chemistry

It is strongly recommended that applicants in engineering and nursing present additional credits in mathematics and physical science. The student interested in a major in business administration should complete four units of high school mathematics.

Classification of Students

With an enrollment of approximately 24,000, The University of Akron has several classifications of students seeking an education according to their own needs and abilities. Classifications include:

- Undergraduate — A student who has not earned the baccalaureate degree and is eligible to enroll in undergraduate-level credit courses.
- Postbaccalaureate — A student who holds the baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution, who is eligible to enroll in credit courses on the undergraduate level and who has not been admitted to the Graduate School. A postbaccalaureate student applies for admission to the college (Arts and Sciences, Education, etc.) where undergraduate credit is to be earned.
- Graduate — A student who holds the baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution, has been admitted to the Graduate School and is eligible to enroll in graduate-level credit courses.
- Professional — A student who holds the baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution and has been admitted to the School of Law.
- Special Student — A student who does not meet the regular admissions requirement but qualifies by certain abilities or maturity and is admitted by the dean after special petition.
- Auditor — A student who wishes to enroll in a course without obtaining a grade-point value ("A-F") or a grade of no credit or credit. A student must indicate that the student is an auditor at the time of registration. Audit status may be denied if space is not available. An auditor is expected to do all prescribed coursework except the writing of examinations.
- Transient — (from another institution) A student who is regularly enrolled and eligible to continue at another institution, and who desires to enroll at The University of Akron for specified courses.
- (from The University of Akron) A student enrolled at The University of Akron who must obtain written permission from the dean of the student's college before enrolling (transient student status) for credit work at another institution. Credit for such work may be granted at the discretion of the dean.

Admission Procedure

The University of Akron operates under a policy of rolling admissions which means an applicant receives a letter of admission as soon as all credentials are received. There is no set date for notification of admission; it is an ongoing process. However, it is advisable for a prospective student to submit all credentials as early as possible to be assured the best selection of classes and/or a room in the residence halls.

Admission procedures vary slightly for different types of students. The various admissions categories include: recent high school graduate, adult student, transfer student, postbaccalaureate student, special student, transient student and international student. For information on admission to Graduate School, see Section 5 of this Bulletin.

Recent High School Graduates

A recent high school graduate should apply for admission as follows:

- Obtain an application form from the Office of Admissions. If your request is by mail, use this address: Office of Admissions, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325. Fill it out and return it as soon as possible with the non-refundable application fee (a one-time charge). All checks should be made payable to: The University of Akron, and should specify what fees and for which student payment is being made.

- At the time of application, a student transcript must be sent to the Office of Admissions. This record must be received before any admission action can be taken by the University.
- Take entrance tests. Arrangements can be made through the student's high school to take the ACT or SAT. (The University's Counseling and Testing Center serves as a testing center for the ACT test.) These test scores are needed before an applicant is formally admitted to the University.
- A health record will be sent from the Office of Admissions after the student has been admitted. Please complete the form and return it to the appropriate processing agency. This provides the University with the information necessary for a complete health record on every student.
- In the letter of admission to the University, directions for academic counseling will be explained. All new freshmen receive academic advisement through Academic Advising Services of the University College. The evening student at the same level will be advised by the Evening College.

Transfer Students

A student applying for admission who has formerly attended another institution of higher learning is eligible to transfer to the University if the student presents satisfactory scholastic records as judged by The University of Akron officials and if the student is eligible to re-enter the institution from which he desires to transfer.

A transfer student should apply as follows:

- Obtain an application form from the Office of Admissions. If requested by mail, use this address: Office of Admissions, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325. Fill it out and return it as soon as possible with the non-refundable application fee (a one-time charge). All checks should be made payable to: The University of Akron, and should specify what fees and for which student payment is being made.
- If the student is under 25 years of age the student must request a transcript from the local high school. This official record must be received and evaluated before admission action can be taken.
- If the student is under 21 years of age the student must submit results of either the ACT or SAT. (The University of Akron's Counseling and Testing Center serves as a testing center for the ACT test.) These test scores are needed before an applicant is formally admitted to the University.
- A health record will be sent from the Office of Admissions after the student has been admitted. Please complete the form and return it to the appropriate processing agency. This provides the University with the information necessary for a complete health record on every student.
- In the letter of admission to the University, the student will receive directions concerning academic counseling. All new freshmen receive academic advisement through Academic Advising Services of the University College. Evening students at the same level will be advised by the Evening College.

Adult Students

An adult student who has graduated from a regionally-accredited Ohio secondary school or completes the G.E.D. test is eligible to enroll.

The following application procedures should be followed:

- Obtain an application form from the Office of Admissions. If your request is by mail, use this address: Office of Admissions, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325. Fill it out and return it as soon as possible.
addition to a high school transcript or G.E.D. scores. If it appears necessary to validate the transfer credits of a student with more than 12 credits, the appropriate admitting officer may require the ACT battery for this person also. These documents must be received and evaluated before any admission action can be taken by the University.

• A health record will be sent from the Office of Admissions after the student has been admitted. Please complete the form and return it to the appropriate processing agency. This provides the University with the information necessary for a complete health record on every student.

• In the letter of admission, the student will receive directions concerning academic counseling. University College freshmen and some sophomore day students receive academic advisement through Academic Advising Services of the University College. A student in the Community and Technical College or a degree-granting college will be advised by a faculty member in the appropriate department.

• A postbaccalaureate student must request the registrar of the institution(s) from which the student graduated to send an official and complete transcript. These documents must be received and evaluated before any admission action can be taken by the University.

• A health record will be sent from the Office of Admissions after the student has been admitted. Please complete the form and return it to the appropriate processing agency. This provides the University with the information necessary for a complete health record on every student.

• In the letter of admission, the student will receive information on registration and instructions for academic counseling by a faculty member in the appropriate department.

Special Students and the High School/College Program

A special student is one who does not qualify for regular admission to the University or who is participating in a special short-term academic program.

A special student may not take more than 15 credits unless he gains official status as a regular student.

This procedure should be followed:

• Obtain a special student application from the Office of Admissions.
• A student presently enrolled in high school must also submit written permission from either the high school principal or guidance counselor to participate.
• Information regarding registration for classes and academic advisement will be forthcoming in the letter of admission to the special student program.

Transient Students

An undergraduate transient student must apply to the Office of Admissions. A graduate student must apply through the dean's office of the Graduate School.

A transient student may not, as a general rule, attempt more than 15 credits in any semester or session and is subject to all rules and regulations of The University of Akron.

The following procedures should be followed when applying to the University as a transient student:

• Obtain a transient student application from the Office of Admissions, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325. Complete it and return it with the non-refundable application fee (a one-time charge).
• Receive advice and written approval by the home institution of the coursework for which the student plans to enroll.
• After admittance, information regarding registration will be received. The admissions officers act as transient student counselors, and one day of open registration is set apart for transient students to register for classes.

International Student Program

The University of Akron welcomes qualified students from other countries and seeks to make their educational experiences pleasant and meaningful. During the 1980-81 academic year, approximately 500 students with citizenship other than the United States attended the University. These students represent 70 countries and are pursuing studies in a number of major fields.

Admission Procedures

Applicants from abroad can be admitted to the University only in September, the beginning of the academic year. All admission requirements should therefore be completed by July 1 preceding the September in which the student desires to enroll.

In addition to those records mentioned under Admission Procedures — Adult Students, two additional documents are required of the international student:

- Proof of English language proficiency. The University requires each student for whom English is not the native language to participate in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (T.O.E.F.L.). This test is administered throughout the world in major cities. Applications may be obtained from bi-national agencies, U.S.I.S. offices or by applying directly to Educational Testing Service, Princeton, NJ 08540. Because it normally takes six to eight weeks for the University to receive the results of the T.O.E.F.L., the student is encouraged to take the examination in October or January. The University cannot guarantee the student who takes the examination in March that the records will be processed completely before the July 1 deadline. The English Language Institute at the University also offers a program in English for the student who has not reached the level of proficiency required for full admission. A student who has not yet taken or passed the T.O.E.F.L. can still enroll in the English Language institute.

- Proof of adequate financial support. An international student is requested to submit a Declaration and Certification of Finances showing that the student has sufficient funds to cover the cost of the student's education while attending the University and that these funds will be available to the student in this country. It is estimated that an international student will need a minimum of $5,500 per year for undergraduate and graduate student for tuition and living expenses while attending. Immigration regulations prevent a student from earning any substantial portion of this amount. There are virtually no scholarships available to an undergraduate from abroad, although a graduate student may request and often receives financial aid through fellowships and graduate assistantships. A graduate student interested in applying for this aid should request the necessary forms at the time of application for admission to the Graduate School. Each international student will be held responsible for obtaining and maintaining appropriate health and accident insurance coverage while enrolled at this institution. This insurance coverage is mandatory.

Orientation

The international student is required to attend a special orientation program which begins two weeks before classes. The schedule for orientation will be mailed with the Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) from the international student adviser. During orientation, the international student is given an English language placement examination in addition to the proficiency examination oversees. The student may be required to participate in noncredit English classes if it is felt the results of this placement examination warrant such action.

English Language Institute

The University offers an intensive English Language Institute for the international student whose command of the English language has not reached a level of proficiency to enable the student to begin full-time coursework. The English Language Institute operates on a schedule of two 15-week semesters and a summer session. An applicant is required to pass a language proficiency test before the student can be admitted.

Special Note

The University has a director of International Programs, a full-time international student adviser and instructors of English as a Second Language. If an international applicant has questions about housing, climate or immigration regulations, the student is encouraged to contact the international student adviser directly.

The University is a member of The National Association for Foreign Student Affairs.

Special International Education Programs

The University sends students to different parts of the world as part of its continuing program — Classrooms Around the World. This program, offered for graduate or undergraduate credit, began in 1960.
Procedures and Requirements

Orientation

The first major contact the new student has with the University after having been admitted comes during an orientation period held prior to the beginning of each semester. During orientation, the student learns a great deal about the University and about what it expects from the student. The student will meet many of the University's administrative officers and faculty members and discuss particular problems and questions with an upper-college student. In this way, the student will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the University and clear up many of the questions which arise when embarking on a new enterprise.

Counseling

During orientation, and each term thereafter, a student meets with a counselor individually to discuss progress to date and the next logical step in the progression of the academic program. During that session, the counselor and student together review the areas of success as well as the problems which have been encountered in previous terms in order to determine what courses the student's academic record calls for in future terms. During that session the two then plan a schedule of courses to be taken during the next term.

Registration

Each term it is necessary for a student to select courses, complete necessary forms and pay the appropriate fees. This formal process is called registration.

The student may elect to register by mail or in person. Details relative to each of these options is described in the Schedule of Classes published every academic period and available upon request from the student's advising agency: Office of Academic Advising Services, Evening College or degree-granting college. A non-refundable late registration fee is assessed registrants enrolling after the official open registration period.

Class Attendance

A student is expected to attend all class meetings for which registered. A student may be dropped from a course by the dean if absence is repeated and the instructor recommends this action; a student can gain readmission only with permission of both.

Student Schedules

Modification of Student Schedules

A student must register for a course before the end of the first week of the term. Alterations in the schedule of courses registered for can be made only with the permission of the dean or the dean's designate.

A day student in the University College and a first-term student in the Community and Technical College should make all changes through an adviser in the Office of Academic Advising Services, Spicer Hall; an evening student in these colleges should contact the Evening College Office, Spicer Hall.

Withdrawal

A student may withdraw from a course for any reason up to the midpoint of a semester or summer session (the end of the eighth week of a semester and the equivalent point of a summer session) with the signature of the student's adviser.

After the midpoint of a semester or a summer session, a student must have the written approval of both instructor and adviser to withdraw. Such approval must be dated, signed by the instructor, and processed through the Offices of the Registrar and the Cashier prior to the last week of classes. Should either refuse to sign the withdrawal form, the student may appeal to the dean of the college who shall make the final decision. This requirement need not be met when a student is requesting complete withdrawal.

An approved withdrawal will be indicated on the University official academic record by a "W." A student who leaves a course without going through the withdrawal procedure will be given an "F" in the course.

A student may be dropped from a course by the dean if absences are repeated and the instructor recommends this action. A dismissed student may gain readmission only with the permission of the instructor and the dean. A student dropped from a course receives an "F" which counts as work attempted whenever grade-point ratio calculations are made.

A student who leaves a course without going through the withdrawal procedure will be given an "F" in the course.

A student may be dropped from a course by the dean if absences are repeated and the instructor recommends this action. A dismissed student may gain readmission only with the permission of the instructor and the dean. A student dropped from a course receives an "F" which counts as work attempted whenever grade-point ratio calculations are made.

Coursework taken at an institution of higher education in the United States of America which is fully accredited by an appropriate regional accrediting association; or is not fully accredited by an appropriate regional accrediting association but which has a "G," "L," "P," or "I" listing in the Transfer of Credit Practices of Selected Educational Institutions, the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (A.A.C.R.A.O.); will be listed on The University of Akron official academic record. Each course will reflect the course number, title, grade and credit value; no grade-point value will appear on the record and no grade-point average will be calculated for the coursework listed. The name of the institution will be listed on the University official academic record as well as the time period during which the courses were taken.

Credit by Examination

A student interested in earning credits by special examination may do so with the permission of the dean of the student's college and the dean of the college in which a particular course is offered and through payment of the special examination fee. The grade obtained in such an examination is recorded on the student's permanent academic record. This is not permitted in the term before graduation.

Bypass Credit

A regularly enrolled student at The University of Akron shall receive college credit for a course when he demonstrates college-level competence by:

- Successful completion of the course ("C" or above) or its equivalent in an advanced placement program or in an accredited institution of higher learning;
• Successful completion of a special examination given by the University;
• Testing or other means approved by the college faculty and the dean concerned.

Credit for such work shall include credit for all prerequisite college work for the course, as listed by the department or college concerned. Such credits shall be included in the total credits earned, but shall not count in the quality-point ratio or class standing. Courses awarded on a bypass credit basis must be in the same department as the actual course pursued and passed.

Bypass credit may be awarded on the basis of successful completion of a course via credit by examination. In order to graduate from the University, a student must complete at least 48 credits, excluding bypass credit. There is no limit on the number of credits which may be awarded to a student on a bypass credit basis. Such bypass credits will be placed on a student's official academic record only upon recommendation and completion of the appropriate form by the student's dean or dean's designate.

Grade Policies

Credit/Noncredit Option (undergraduate and postbaccalaureate only)

A student who takes a course on a "credit" or "noncredit" ("CR/NC") basis, and who earns a grade equivalent of "A" through "C−," shall receive credit ("CR") for the course and have the grade, "CR", placed on the permanent record; a grade equivalent of "D+" through "F" will be recorded with the noncredit grade, "NC."

A student who has completed 50 percent of the number of credits required for a degree with a grade-point average of at least 2.30, shall be allowed, with the consent of an adviser, to take one free elective (not in major field)* course per term on a "CR/NC" basis.

With the consent of the student's adviser, the first or second year of foreign languages may be taken on a "CR/NC" basis at any time the student is registered, regardless of the grade-point average.

No more than 16 credits of non-language courses and no more than 20 credits in total, including language courses, may be taken on a "CR/NC" basis for an associate degree, half this number is permitted.

The election to take a course on a "CR/NC" basis can be made only at the time of registration for that course. A student who elects to take a course on a "CR/NC" basis cannot withdraw and register to take that course for a letter grade after the first week of that term. The registrar will notify the instructor by means of the final class list of students who have elected to utilize the "CR/NC" option.

Courses for which "CR" is awarded will be counted as hours completed only; courses for which "NC" is awarded shall not be counted as hours attempted; in neither case shall "CR" or "NC" be considered in calculating grade-point average, but in both instances the course shall be entered on the student's official academic record.

A student may repeat a course for credit ("CR"), or a grade ("A-F") after receiving a grade of "NC."

A college may, due to a closed class problem, designate in the printed schedule, on an annual basis, a course as not available to be taken on a "CR/NC" basis. A student taking a course on a noncredit basis is expected to meet the full requirements of the course as required by the instructor.

Re-Examination

A student may not request re-examination in order to raise a grade.

Repeating Courses

Any course may be repeated as many times as necessary by an undergraduate student subject to the following conditions:

• In order to secure a grade ("A-F") or a grade of "NC," "CR" or "AUD," a student may repeat a course in which the previously received grade was "D+," "D," "D−," "F," "AUD" or "NC." Registrations under the "CR/NC" option are subject to the restrictions in the "CR/NC" policy.

*Free electives are defined for the present purposes as courses other than those required for all undergraduate students for graduation by their respective colleges, or by their major department.
• The student must repeat the same course within 12 months of the completion of the prior attempt unless given special permission by the student's dean to extend this period or substitute another course if the previous course is no longer offered. Such courses must be repeated at The University of Akron.
• Grades for all attempts at a course will appear on the student's official academic record.
• Only the grade for the last attempt will be used in the grade-point average.
• All grades for attempts at a course will be used in the grade-point calculation for the purpose of determining graduation with honors and class standing.
• For purposes of this section, credit for this course or its equivalent will apply only once toward meeting degree requirements.

Academic Reassessment

An undergraduate student who has not attended an institution of higher education* for at least three calendar years, enrolls at The University of Akron and maintains a grade-point average of 2.50 or better for the first 24 credits may petition the dean to delete from the grade-point average the credits attained under a previous enrollment at the University. If the student qualifies, all previous grades will be deleted from the grade-point average up to the maximum allowed.

The number of credits deleted from the grade-point average shall not exceed 30 percent of the credits required for the degree objective of the student. If the number of credits earned before the three year interval exceeds 30 percent of the student's degree requirements, the 30 percent factor will apply to the first credits earned.

This policy is to apply only to the grade-point average. All grades will remain on the student's official academic record. A student may utilize this academic reassessment policy only once.

In the determination of graduation with honors and class standing, all grades obtained at the University shall be used in the calculations.

Discipline

Continuation as a student of the University is dependent on the maintenance of satisfactory grades and conformity to the rules of the institution.

Grades and the Grading System

A student will receive grades on various types of classroom performance during the process of most courses and a final grade at the end of the term. At the end of the term, the Office of the Registrar mails grade reports to a student's home address; summer grade reports are mailed for both summer sessions at the end of the second summer session.

Individual tests are usually graded with percentage or letter marks, but official academic records are maintained with a grade-point system.

This method of recording grades is as follows:

The following grades may also appear on the term grade reports or on the official academic record. There are no grade points associated with these grades.

I — Incomplete: Indicates that the student has done passing work in the course but that some part of the work is, for good and acceptable reason, not complete at the end of the term. Failure to make up the omitted work satisfactorily by the end of the following term, not including summer sessions, converts the "I" to an "F." When the work is satisfactorily completed within the allotted time, the "I" is converted to whatever grade the student has earned.

IP — In Progress: Indicates that the student has not completed the scheduled coursework during the term because the nature of the course does not permit completion within a single term, such as work toward a thesis.

PI — Permanent Incomplete: Indicates that the student's instructor and the instructor's dean have for special reason authorized the change of an incomplete ("I") to a permanent incomplete ("PI").

W — Withdraw: Indicates that the student registered for the course but withdrew officially sometime after the second week of the term.

NGR — No Grade Reported: Indicates that, at the time grades were processed for the present issue of the record, no grade had been reported by the instructor.

INV — Invalid: Indicates the grade reported by the instructor for the course was improperly noted and thus unacceptable for proper processing.

Importance of Grades

A student becomes either eligible or ineligible to remain at the University, according to the grade-point value of each grade for each course the student has

* If instructors wish to extend the "I" grade beyond the following term for which the student is registered, prior to the end of the term they must notify the Office of the Registrar in writing of the extension and indicate the date of its termination. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements to make up the incomplete work. The faculty member should submit the new grade to the Office of the Registrar in writing.
completed A student who maintains specified levels of scholastic achievement receives privileges to participate in extracurricular activities.

On the basis of grades, a student receives opportunities to take additional courses in order to accelerate academic progress.

A student must maintain a grade-point average of at least 2.00 ("C") and complete approximately 30 credits to be eligible to transfer to a degree-granting college from the University College. Acceptance is dependent on the approval of the dean of the college which the student chooses to enter and on academic performance to date.

To receive a degree, each student must have attained a grade-point average of at least 2.00 for all work taken at The University of Akron.

Finally, high grades are essential for a student who intends to go on to graduate work.

Probation-Dismissal

A student who fails to maintain a grade-point average of 2.00 ("C") is placed on academic probation and may be subject to a change of courses, suspension or some other form of discipline. Academic discipline is determined by the dean of the college in which the student is enrolled. Reinstatement of a student is determined by the dean of the college from which the student was dismissed.

Once dismissed from the University, a student is not eligible to register for credit courses until readmitted.

Graduation with Honors

For a student who is being awarded an initial baccalaureate degree and who has completed 30 or more credits at the University, the degree will be designated if the overall grade-point average is

Graduation

Requirements for Baccalaureate and Associate Degrees

A candidate for the baccalaureate or the associate degree must:

- File an application for graduation with the registrar. If the candidate plans to complete degree requirements at the end of fall semester, submit an application by or before May 15, if the plan is to complete degree requirements at the end of spring semester, submit an application by or before September 15.
- Earn a minimum 2.00 grade-point average as computed by the Office of the Registrar for work attempted at the University consistent with the Repeating Courses policy. The grade-point average achieved at the time of completion of requirements for a degree will be used to calculate rank in class and honors.
- Meet all degree requirements which are in force at the time a transfer is made to a degree-granting college. If the student should transfer to another major, then the requirements should be those in effect at the time of the transfer. For a student enrolled in an associate degree program in the Community and Technical College, the requirements shall be those in effect upon entrance into the program.
- Be approved for graduation by appropriate college faculty, University Council and Board of Trustees.
- Complete the requirements for a degree in not more than five calendar years from the date of transfer, as defined below. In the event the student fails to complete the degree requirements within five calendar years from the date of transfer, the University reserves the right to make changes in the number of credits and/or courses required for a degree.
- The date of transfer for a student in a baccalaureate program will be the date that the student is accepted by the degree-granting college. For a student enrolled in an associate degree program in the Community and Technical College, the date of transfer refers to the date of entrance into the program.
- Earn the last 32 credits in the baccalaureate degree total or 16 credits in the associate degree total in residence at The University of Akron unless excused in writing by the dean of the college in which the student is enrolled.
- If a student who has transferred from another institution wishes to present for the student's major, fewer than 14 credits earned at The University of Akron, written permission of both the dean and head of the department concerned is required.
- Discharge all other obligations at the University.

Requirements for Additional Baccalaureate and Associate Degrees
- Meet requirements given in Section 3, Requirements for Baccalaureate and Associate Degrees.
- Earn a minimum of 32 credits which have not counted toward the first baccalaureate degree or 16 credits which have not counted toward the first associate degree.
- Earn the above credits in residence at the University.

Change of Requirements
To better accomplish its objectives, the University reserves the right to alter, amend or revoke any rule or regulation. The policy of the University is to give advance notice of such change, whenever feasible.
Unless the change in a rule or regulation specifies otherwise, it shall become effective immediately with respect to the student who subsequently enters the University, whatever the date of matriculation.
Without limiting the generality of its power to alter, amend or revoke rules and regulations, the University reserves the right to make changes in degree requirements of the student enrolled prior to the change by:
- Altering the number of credits and/or courses required in a major field of study.
- Deleting courses.
- Amending courses by increasing or decreasing the credits of specific courses, or by varying the content of specific courses.
- Offering substitute courses in same/or cognate fields.
The dean of the college, in consultation with the department or division head of the student's major field of study, may grant waivers in writing, in the event a change in rules affecting degree requirements operates with undue hardship upon a student enrolled before the change was effective. The action of the dean of the college in granting or refusing a waiver must be reviewed by the senior vice president and provost on his own motion, or at the request of the dean of the college of the student affected or at the request of the student affected.

Course Numbering System
Each course at the University has two numbers. One designates the college and department of which it is a part; one specifies the subject matter of the particular course. For instance:
3300-220 English Literature
In the above example, the first four digits of the number (3300) indicate the college and department. In this case, 3000 represents the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences; 300 refers to the Department of English. The second set of digits (220) following the colon, indicates exactly which course in the Department of English is being specified. The course number also indicates the level at which the course is being taught and the point at which the student is ready to take the course.
An explanation of that numbering system follows:
100-199 First-year-level courses
200-299 Second-year-level courses
300-399 Third-year-level courses
400-499 Fourth-year-level courses
500-699 Master's-level courses
600-799 J.D.-level courses
700-899 Doctoral-level courses
When approved 400-level undergraduate courses are taken for graduate credit, they become 500-level courses. A student must apply for and be admitted to the Graduate School to receive graduate credit.
Fees and Expenses

Fees subject to change without notice.

Despite the willingness of taxpayers and generous friends of the University to help support higher education, some portion of this total expense must be borne by the student. Typical costs for one year (September through May) based on an average academic load of 32 credits for the two semesters are:

Following are comprehensively outlined fees for the student at the University who is studying for credit and noncredit in all areas of instruction. Included also are the additional expenses required for special academic services available to a student such as private music lessons, thesis-binding, etc.

It is the responsibility of the student to know the correct amount of all fees including the non-Ohio resident surcharge.

In any question concerning fees, surcharge or residence, it is the responsibility of the student, parents or court appointed guardian, to furnish such proof as may be required by The University of Akron. A student who is in doubt about residency status should consult with the University registrar.

It is the responsibility of the registrar to assess fees and surcharges at the time of registration; information given by the student at that time is used in the assessment. Each registration is later audited by the University auditor, and appropriate additional charges or refunds will be made.

All fees and surcharges are due at the time of registration or on the specified fee payment deadline. The status of the student as of the opening day of the semester or session for which registered, will determine the final correct amount of fees and surcharges.

Veterans’ Expenses
A disabled veteran who is eligible for admission to the University may register for courses without payment of fees if the disabled veteran has been authorized for training by the V.A. If the disabled veteran has not been authorized, payment of all fees is required. However, the University will return to the veteran the payment made when the official authorization is received.
A non-disabled veteran must pay fees at the time of registration. The non-disabled veteran will receive direct payment from the V.A. after enrollment has been certified under the provision of USC Title 38.
An Ohio Veterans Bonus Commission recipient may arrange with the Accounts Receivable Office to have the Ohio Bonus Commission billed directly for tuition charges only.
Dependents of a veteran covered under other provisions of USC Title 38 must pay fees at the time of registration. The V.A. will make direct payment to the payee.

Auditors
The fees for an auditor in any course or group of courses are the same as if taken for credit.

Student Health and Accident Insurance
Student health and accident insurance designed specifically for a student of The University of Akron is required of all resident hall students and all international students except those who present proof that they already have similar coverage. Other day students carrying nine or more credits, graduate students carrying six or more credits may purchase this insurance, at the same annual individual rate, through the Student Health Services Office.

The University of Akron Residency Requirements
Payment of non-resident tuition surcharge is required of any student who does not qualify as a permanent resident of Ohio as defined by one or more of the following sections:
3333-1-10. Ohio Student Residency for State Subsidy and Tuition Surcharge Purposes

Intent, Authority and Definitions
It is the intent of the Ohio Board of Regents in promulgating this rule to exclude from treatment as residents, as that term is applied here, those persons who are present in the state of Ohio primarily for the purpose of receiving the benefit of a state-supported education while insuring that the same benefit is conferred on all bona fide domiciliaries of this state whose permanent... residence and legal citizenship is in Ohio, and whose actual source of financial support is subject to Ohio taxation. This rule is adopted pursuant to Chapter 119 of the revised code, and under the authority conferred upon the Ohio Board of Regents by section 3333.31 of the revised code.

For purposes of this rule a “Resident of Ohio for all other legal purposes” shall mean any person who maintains a 12-month place or places of residence in Ohio who is qualified as a resident to vote in Ohio and receive state welfare benefits, and who may be subjected to taxation. Provided such person has not, within the time prescribed by this rule, declared himself or herself to be or allowed himself or herself to remain a resident of any other state or nation for any of these or other purposes.

“Financial Support” as used in this rule, shall not include grants, scholarships and awards from persons or entities which are not residents of Ohio.

An “institution of higher education” as used in this rule shall mean any university, community college, technical institute or college, general and technical college, medical college or private medical or dental college which receives a direct subsidy from the state of Ohio.

General Residency for Subsidy and Tuition Surcharge Purposes

The following shall be classified as residents of the state of Ohio for subsidy and tuition surcharge:

• Dependent students, at least one of whose parents or legal guardian has been a resident of Ohio for all other legal purposes for 12 consecutive months or more immediately preceding the enrollment of such student in an institution of higher education.

• Persons who have resided in Ohio for all other legal purposes for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding their enrollment in an institution of higher education and who are not receiving and have not directly or indirectly received in the preceding 12 consecutive months, financial support from persons or entities who are not residents of Ohio for all other legal purposes.

• Persons who are living and are gainfully employed on a full- or part-time and self-sustaining basis in Ohio and who are pursuing a part-time program of instruction at an institution of higher education.

Specific Exceptions and Circumstances

• A person on active duty status in the United States military service who is stationed and resides in Ohio and his or her dependents shall be considered residents of Ohio for these purposes.

• A person who enters and currently remains upon active duty status in the United States military service while a resident of Ohio for all other legal purposes and his or her dependents shall be considered residents of Ohio for these purposes as long as Ohio remains the state of such person’s domicile.

• Any alien holding an immigration visa or classified refugee shall be considered a resident of the state of Ohio for state subsidy and tuition surcharge purposes in the same manner as any other student.

• No persons holding a student or temporary visa shall be eligible for Ohio residency for these purposes.

• A dependent person classified as a resident of Ohio for these purposes shall continue to be considered a resident during continuous full-time enrollment and until his or her completion of any one academic degree program.

• In determining residency of a dependent student, removal of the student’s parents or legal guardian from Ohio shall not, during a period of 12 months following such removal, constitute relinquishment of Ohio residency status otherwise established under item (C) (1) of this rule.

• Any person once classified as a non-resident, upon the completion of 12 consecutive months of residency in Ohio for all other legal purposes, must apply to the institution he or she attends for reclassification as a resident of Ohio for these purposes. If such person in fact wants to be reclassified as a resident. Should such person present clear and convincing proof that no part of his or her financial support is or has been provided directly or indirectly by persons or entities who are not residents of Ohio for all other legal purposes, such person shall be reclassified as a resident.

• Evidentiary determinations under this rule shall be made by the institution which may require, among
Procedures

Institutions of higher education charged with reporting student enrollment to the Ohio Board of Regents for state subsidy purposes and assessing the tuition surcharge shall provide each individual student with a fair and adequate opportunity to present proof of Ohio residency for purposes of this rule. Such institution may require the submission of affidavits and other documentary evidence which it may deem necessary to a full and complete determination under this rule.

Note

The registrar shall classify a student as a bona fide resident or non-resident student at the time of registration for each semester or session. The registrar may seek the advice of the Committee on Residence Status. The committee is comprised of the director of Institutional Research and Systems Development who shall act as chairman, the University registrar, the dean of the School of Law and the University auditor.

A student may appeal to the committee from a classification by the registrar that the student does not qualify as a bona fide resident, by executing and filing with the registrar a form entitled "Application for Residence Status." The registrar may transmit this form to the chairman of the committee who shall conduct a hearing on the merits of the application. The student may request on this form to appear personally before the committee on residence status. The student may thereafter appear and may employ counsel at his expense. The decision of the committee shall be final.

A student has the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing proof that the student qualifies as a bona fide resident. The committee may require the student to submit evidence in support of the statements made on the student's Application for Residence Status. The committee shall not be bound by the usual common law or statutory rules of evidence nor by any technical or formal rules of procedure. The committee may admit any relevant evidence in support of the student's claim or in opposition to it, and may exclude evidence that is irrelevant, cumulative or is lacking in substantial probative effect. The committee may make rules of procedure consistent with this regulation.

If a student's proper status is that of a non-resident, he shall pay non-resident tuition and interest at the rate of six percent per annum on the unpaid balance. A student who knowingly submits a false claim or knowingly gives false evidence in support of a claim commits an offense against The University of Akron and may be subject to disciplinary procedures.

For purposes of residency determination only, enrollment of 12 credit hours or more will be considered full-time.

Regulations Regarding Refunds—Credit/Noncredit

Registration does not automatically carry with it the right of a refund or reduction of indebtedness in cases of failure or inability to attend class or in cases of withdrawal. The student assumes the risk of all changes in business or personal affairs.

Fees Subject to Refund—Credit

Certain fees are subject to refund:

- Instructional and non-resident surcharge.
- General fee.
- Parking (only if permit is returned).
- Student teaching.
- Laboratory breakage and late service deposit.
- Residence hall fees (note: subject to special policy).

Amount of Refund—Credit

Amount of refund is to be determined in accordance with the following regulations:

- In full
  - if the University cancels the course;
  - if the University does not permit the student to enroll or continue;
  - if the student dies before or during the term or is drafted into military service by the United States; or
  - if the student enlisted in the National Guard or Reserves prior to the beginning of the term called to active duty, presents notice of induction or order
A student who enlists voluntarily for active duty should see "in part" below.

- In part
  - less $5 per enrolled credit to a maximum of $50 if the student requests in writing to the dean or designate official withdrawal from all credit courses on or before the second day of the enrolled term.
  - if the student requests in writing to the dean or designate official withdrawal after the second day of the fall or spring semesters, the following refund percentages apply:
    - 3 through 12 calendar days*: 70%
    - 13 through 24 calendar days*: 50%
    - 25 through 33 calendar days*: 30%
    - Thereafter: 0%
  - if the student requests in writing to the dean or designate official withdrawal after the second day of any Summer Session the following refund percentages apply:
    - 3 through 7 calendar days*: 60%
    - 8 through 15 calendar days*: 40%
    - Thereafter: 0%

- Refunds for course sections which have not been scheduled consistent with either the standard 15-week fall/spring semester or the five-week summer term scheduling pattern will be handled on a pro rata basis according to the number of days the section (class, institute or workshop) has been attended compared to the number of days said section has been scheduled to meet.
- Refunds will be determined as of the date of formal withdrawal unless proof is submitted that circumstances beyond control of the student prevented the filing of the formal withdrawal earlier, in which case the refund will be determined as of the last day of attendance. The student assumes responsibility for filing for a refund.
- Refunds will be mailed as soon as possible. Refund checks are subject to deduction for any amount owed to The University of Akron by the student.
- No refund will be granted to a student dismissed or suspended for disciplinary reasons.

Amount of Refund—Noncredit

- In full less $5
  - upon written request of the student who is officially withdrawn from any course before the first class meeting.
- In part
  - Courses of 6 to 11 weeks:
    - After the first class meeting: 60%
    - After the second class meeting: 30%
    - After the third class meeting: 0%
  - Courses of 12 weeks or more:
    - After the first class meeting: 60%
    - After the second class meeting: 45%
    - After the third class meeting: 30%
    - After the fourth class meeting: 0%
- No refund on courses of less than six weeks.
  - Refunds will be determined by the date (postmark of written request) of formal withdrawal, unless proof is submitted that circumstances beyond the control of the student prevented filing of the formal withdrawal earlier. In this case, the refund will be determined from the date of the last attendance in class. Refunds will be mailed within six weeks after the beginning of the session.
  - The University reserves the right to cancel a course should there be insufficient enrollment. A full refund will be mailed to the student within four to six weeks when a course is cancelled.

Residence Hall Refunds

Refund/Release and Forfeiture Policy

A contract for housing accommodations and food services at the University upon being breached by the student, or otherwise terminated by the University, is subject to the following refund provisions.

A full refund of any prepaid fees (including the advance $100 rental payment) and release of other financial liability therefore under the following circumstances: graduation of the student from the

*If the 7th, 8th, 15th, 22nd, or 33rd day falls on Friday, Saturday or a holiday, the deadline will become the next business day.

Advance rental payment NOT refundable to freshmen
University; academic dismissal of the student from the University; non-attendance or complete withdrawal by the student from the University prior to the start of the contract term; in the event mandatory or recommended participation in academic programs of the University require the student to commute regularly beyond the Akron metropolitan area (i.e., student teaching or co-op engineering assignments).

A partial refund of prepaid fees will be made (including the advance $100 rental payment*) according to the refund schedule below, and release of financial liability for subsequent terms covered by the contract term, in the event the student completely withdraws from The University of Akron after the start of the contract term. In such instances, the student shall not be liable for damages.

A partial refund of prepaid fees will be made (including the advance $100 rental payment*) in accordance with the refund schedule below:

- In the event the University, in its sole discretion, terminates the contract for reasons related to the orderly operation of the residence halls, or for reasons relating to health, physical or emotional safety and well-being of the student, or for reasons relating to the health, safety and well-being of the person or property of other students, faculty, staff or University property. In such instances, the student shall not be liable for damages and shall be released of further financial liability beyond the date of termination.
- In the event the student breaches the contract prior to the end of the term thereof but continues to be enrolled as a student at The University of Akron. In addition, if the student has contracted for subsequent terms beyond that term in which the contract is terminated, the student shall pay as damages for breach of the term of the contract an additional amount of $100.

In the event that the student is dismissed or suspended from The University of Akron for disciplinary reasons in accordance with law or rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees; or, if the student is placed on terms of disciplinary probation in accordance with law or rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees, whereby such terms of probation prohibit the student from residing in University housing accommodations.

These conditions do not release the student from financial liability for any fees which are due not later than the effective date of such termination, dismissal, suspension or probation.

Refund Schedule

Beginning with the first day of the fall and spring semesters, the following refund percentages shall apply for all contracts for housing accommodations and food services.

Notice Requirements

All notices of intent to break this contract must be submitted in writing to the Office of Residence Halls. If the student is a minor (under the age of 18 years), the written notification of termination must be co-signed by the student’s parent or legal guardian.

* Advance rental payment NOT refundable to freshmen.
Financial Aid

Financial aid programs were developed by the federal and state governments as well as by institutions of post-secondary education to assist a student from a family with limited resources to meet educational expenses. The primary purpose of financial aid is to insure that no one is denied the opportunity of a college education because of economic background.

When applying for financial aid at The University of Akron, the Office of Student Financial Aids and Employment determines a budget that best suits the student's needs. The budget includes direct costs that must be paid to the University (instructional and general fees and room and board in the residence halls) and variable expenses such as transportation and personal expenses.

Generally, financial aid is provided in three forms: gift aid, loans and work. It is not unusual for a student to have all three forms of aid. This is called a "financial aid package." If a person receives a proper financial aid package, it is assumed that the family will not be expected to contribute more than is reasonable for a family member's education. The word "family" is crucial because the financial aid system assumes that the family will work together to assist a family member pay for college.

Sources of Aid

In order to meet the needs of the financial aid applicant there are a number of sources from which aid can be received. The following programs represent those sources of aid for which The University of Akron selects recipients and/or distributes the funds. The application(s) for these programs can be obtained at the Office of Student Financial Aids and Employment.

Federal Programs

Pell Grant*

The Pell Grant is the foundation of student financial aid. It is a grant which the student does not have to repay. The grant is awarded to the student by the federal government. After applying for the grant, the student will receive a Student Eligibility Report (S.E.R.) which must be taken to the school which the student will attend. The office will then calculate the amount of the grant that will be received. The grant amount is based on the costs of the school the student attends.

Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant

The Supplemental Grant (S.E.O.G.) is a federal grant that is awarded by the school the student attends. The amount of the grant is determined by the school attended, and is based on the need and the costs at that school. Entering freshmen must have a 1.75 grade-point average to be eligible for the S.E.O.G. The following minimum grade-point averages must be maintained in order to be eligible for the S.E.O.G. as a continuing student: 1.75 at the end of the first year and 2.00 at the end of the second and third years.

College Work-Study Program

The College Work-Study Program (C.W.S.P.) is a jobs program that provides an eligible student with a job on the campus or in a non-profit off-campus agency. Eligibility for C.W.S.P. is determined on the basis of need. The office determines the amount of money that can be earned, and places the student in a suitable job. The student and job supervisor adapt working hours to meet the student's class schedule.

National Direct Student Loan

The National Direct Student Loan (N.D.S.L.) Program offers low interest, long-term loans to an eligible student. Eligibility and loan amounts are determined by the office on the basis of need. This loan must be repaid, beginning six months after ceasing to be at least a half-time student. Interest at four percent is calculated at the time repayment of the loan begins. If the student is teaching in certain fields or locations after graduation, eligibility for cancellation of all or part of the amount that was borrowed is possible. Entering freshmen must have a 1.75 grade-point average to be eligible for the N.D.S.L. The following minimum grade-point averages must be maintained in order to be eligible for the N.D.S.L. as a continuing student: 1.75 at the end of the first year and 2.00 at the end of the second and third years.

*Formerly Basic Educational Opportunity Grant (B.E.O.G.)
Guaranteed Student Loan/Federally Insured Student Loan
This program offers low-interest, long-term loans to an eligible student. In Ohio, it is called the Ohio Student Loan. Application for the loan can be made at a bank, savings and loan or credit union. This loan must be repaid to the lender beginning six months after ceasing to be at least a half-time student. The interest on the loan is nine percent, and it is paid by the federal government while the student is in school.

Nursing Student Loan/Scholarship
Low-interest loans and grants are available to an eligible student who is pursuing the Bachelor of Science in Nursing. These are based on need, and the amounts are determined by the Office of Student Financial Aids. These programs are generally reserved for a student who has been accepted by the College of Nursing.

State Programs

Ohio Instructional Grant (O.I.G.)
The O.I.G. is available to an eligible student who is an Ohio resident and is attending college in Ohio or Pennsylvania. Eligibility is based on family income. The grant is awarded by the Ohio Board of Regents. If eligible, the student will receive an award certificate which is taken to the school that the student will attend.

Ohio Academic Scholarship
The state of Ohio each year awards scholarships to a graduating senior from each high school in Ohio. The scholarship must be used at a college in Ohio. The amount is $1,000 and is renewable for four years.

Ohio National Guard Scholarship
This scholarship is available to the student who enlists in the Ohio National Guard. Contact a local recruiter for information.

Ohio War Orphans Scholarship
Scholarships are available to a student whose father or mother was disabled or killed in a war. For information contact the Ohio Board of Regents.

University Programs

Scholarships
The University offers scholarships to the student with high academic achievement. Academic scholarships are awarded to the continuing student as well as the outstanding high school student who plans to enroll. These academic scholarships are renewable each year based on continued high academic performance. A University scholarship/financial aids application must be submitted, but a need analysis form is not required. The majority of awards for the 1981/82 academic year ranged from $200 to $400.

The Presidential Scholarship Program was initiated for the 1975/76 academic year. At the present time, approximately 20 scholarships are awarded each year to new freshmen. For the 1981/82 school year, the scholarship amount was $900. This scholarship is considered to be most prestigious.

The Honors Program at the University awards a number of scholarships each year to new freshmen. In 1981/82, the scholarships ranged from $500-$800. This combination scholarship/academic program is also considered to be a most prestigious program.

Loans
The University offers short-term loans to the student who needs temporary help in paying tuition. These loans must be repaid in full before the end of the term for which the money was borrowed. Information and applications are available at the Student Loan Office (Spicer 105).

Special long-term loans are available to selected students in certain fields who need partial help.

Application for Financial Aid

• To apply for the Pell Grant, National Direct Student Loan, Nursing Student Loan and the College Work-Study Program, the student must complete and submit the Financial Aids Form (F.A.F.) to the College Scholarship Service. In addition, the student must complete a financial aid/scholarship application.
• To apply for the Ohio Instructional Grant, a student must complete and submit the Ohio Instructional Grant application to the Board of Regents.
• The Guaranteed Student Loan application is secured through lending institutions such as the local bank, savings and loan associations or credit unions.
• The information sent to the College Scholarship Service through the Financial Aids Form is used to determine eligibility for: Pell Grant, National Direct Student Loan, Nursing Student Loan, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Nursing Scholarship Grant and College Work-Study Program.

Computation of Financial Aid
The College Scholarship Service determines what the family may be able to contribute toward the student's education; this amount is called the family... contribution. Some of the key factors involved in computing the family contribution are:

- Family income.
- Family assets.
- Family size.
- Number in college.
- Medical bills.
- Unusual expenses.

The difference between the cost of education and the family contribution is called the unmet need. The unmet need is the amount the Office of Student Financial Aids attempts to cover through various financial aid programs to assist a student in meeting educational costs.

Independent Students

An independent student is one who:

- Has not or will not be claimed as an exemption for federal income tax purposes by either of the student's parent(s) or adoptive parent(s) for the school year in which aid is received as well as the prior calendar year.
- Has not or will not live with one or both parents or adoptive parent(s) for more than six weeks in the calendar year in which aid is received as well as the prior calendar year.
- Has not or will not receive financial support of more than $1000 from one or both of the student's parents or adoptive parent(s) in the calendar year in which aid is received as well as the prior calendar year.

The University requires that the independent student (and spouse) complete the student's section of the Financial Aids Form (F.A.F.). In addition to completing the F.A.F., if the independent student is 25 years of age or under, the student's parents must complete a Non-Support Statement to document the student's self-supporting status. If the student is over the age of 25 years, the student may complete this form. Non-Support Statements may be obtained through the Office of Student Financial Aids. This form must be completed each year for which aid is desired.

Distribution of Aid

Financial aid is disbursed by vouchers. The vouchers are based on full-time enrollment (12 semester credits). If the student is not taking at least 12 credits, contact the Office of Student Financial Aids so that financial aid may be adjusted. A voucher is produced for each program the student is receiving.

The student is awarded aid for the entire academic year; however, the aid is disbursed proportionately each semester. A student receives financial aid for fall semester by mail during July. For spring semester, a student must pick up the aid in the office after mid-November. The aid will be issued through vouchers.

The voucher(s) are used to assist in paying for the invoice for instructional fees; if the aid is substantial, the student can apply it toward the residence hall bill.

If the student's aid exceeds the direct costs, the difference is refunded to the student at various time periods during the semester to assist with such other educational expenses as transportation, housing, etc.

A student may request a bookstore voucher to assist in purchasing textbooks. This voucher is an advance on the expense check. It is available one week before classes begin.

The remainder of the expense money is issued to a student during the third and eighth week of the semester. The expense check is picked up in the office. The student must maintain satisfactory enrollment status to be eligible for the expense check.

Revision of Awards

After receipt of the financial aid award, situations may arise which may necessitate a revision in the aid package. A revision may result from receipt of an outside scholarship; a dramatic change in the family income such as unemployment of a parent or a divorce, etc.
If family circumstances alter, contact the Office of Financial Aids so the aid package can be reviewed.

Eligibility for Aid as it Applies to Certain Classifications of Students

Transfer Students

A student transferring to The University of Akron at the beginning of fall semester must have the previous college complete a financial aid transcript and send it to the Office of Student Financial Aids and Employment.

If a student is transferring to the University during the academic year and has received a Pell Grant and/or O.I.G. the previous session, the student must:

- Have a duplicate Student Eligibility Report for the Pell Grant mailed to the office. This Student Eligibility Report must be received before any funds can be disbursed to the student. Instructions for receiving a duplicate Student Eligibility Report can be obtained from the office.
- Have the former Financial Aid Office provide a transfer of remaining funds request to have the remaining O.I.G. transferred to The University of Akron.

National Direct Student Loans, College Work-Study Programs, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants and scholarships do not automatically transfer. The student must reapply for these programs at The University of Akron.

Graduate Students, Law Students and Postbaccalaureate Students

A student who has already received a bachelor’s degree is eligible for National Direct Student Loans and/or College Work-Study Programs. The Pell Grant, Ohio Instructional Grant and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant may not be received.

A graduate assistantship is available through various graduate departments. A graduate fellowship and other graduate awards are distributed by the Graduate School; therefore, a separate application is required.

Transient Students

A transient student is not pursuing a degree at The University of Akron, and is not eligible for financial aid through the University.

International Students

A student in the United States on a student or other temporary visa is not eligible for any state or federal financial aid. Application for scholarships, short-term loans and some types of employment may be made.

Veterans

A veteran may be eligible to receive educational benefits through the Veterans Administration and should contact the Veterans Office at the University for details.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

A financial aid recipient has various rights and responsibilities. He has the right to expect confidentiality regarding his financial aid as well as a response in a reasonable amount of time after submitting applications.

- Outside scholarships received must be reported.

A National Direct Student Loan and Nursing Student Loan recipient has the responsibility of informing the Office of Student Financial Aids of changes of address, graduation plans, etc.

Probably the most important responsibility the student has is to meet the requirements of the “standards of progress.” The “standards of progress” states that the student must make progress toward a degree. To make progress, the student must maintain full-time status if the aid was based on full-time status; if the student’s aid was based on less than full-time status, the student must maintain at least half-time status to meet the “standards of progress.”

Inquiries

Since the process of applying for financial aid may at first seem complicated, it is suggested that families contact a high school counselor or a University financial aid officer for additional information. Direct inquiries to:

Objectives

The Community and Technical College helps to further the goals and purposes of the University by emphasizing the following objectives:

- Consistent with the philosophy of learning as a lifelong experience, the college provides educational opportunities for the student no matter the age, background and need; full- or part-time, day or evening.
- The college provides for industry, business, government agencies, health-care establishments and human service occupations; the pre-service and in-service manpower training for entry-level positions or advancement in employment.
- The college serves the student by providing the means to examine academic and career opportunities considering interests, abilities and achievements.
- The college provides quality instruction with the qualified and experienced teacher who is encouraged to use the community as a "laboratory" for achieving educational goals.

The college recommends each student for the appropriate degree in accordance with the level of accomplishment.

The college offers both pre-service and in-service training: pre-service for the recent high school graduate who can receive an associate degree upon the satisfactory completion of two years of full-time studies; and in-service through the Evening College where employed persons may pursue the same degrees while working full time.

College Requirements

Baccalaureate Degrees

The baccalaureate-level programs in engineering technology are intended to fill the widening gap in modern industry between the professional engineer and the engineering technician. The graduate of a program works in close support of engineers, translating conceptual ideas into functioning systems and providing supervisory direction for the implementation of these ideas by technicians and craftsmen.

These programs are designed as transfer programs to permit the qualified engineering technology student to continue education to the baccalaureate degree. During the first and second years, a student follows an associate degree program in the corresponding engineering technology. The third and fourth years provide the additional study required for the baccalaureate degree. Emphasis is placed on advanced training in the student's field of specialization, broadened knowledge of related technical fields, extended general education and basic management training.

The programs are available in electronic technology and mechanical technology. It is intended that a graduate will find employment in manufacturing, technical sales and service, application engineering, inspection and testing and the more standardized aspects of engineering design.

The requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Electronic Technology degree or the Bachelor of Technology in Mechanical Technology degree are:

- Compliance with the general University requirements for a baccalaureate degree as listed in this Bulletin.
- Compliance with the requirements of the general studies program as outlined in this Bulletin.
- Completion of the requirements for the associate degree in a related engineering technology at The University of Akron or other accredited institution.
- Successful completion of a minimum of 135 credits including associate degree program, general studies courses and the following course requirements.

Bachelor of Science in Electronic Technology
(an ABET accredited engineering technology curriculum)

2100: Associate of Individualized Study Program

The Associate of Individualized Study (A.I.S.) degree at the Community and Technical College of the University has been designed to enable the student to plan an individualized program of study. The intent, however, is not to prepare the student for a specific career. A student may apply for the A.I.S. degree only if personal

See "The University College:" Section 4 of this Bulletin for alternate course options.
2200: Educational Technology

This program prepares the individual for employment in any one of three options: elementary aide, assists the teacher; library aide, assists the librarian; child development, works in a variety of staff positions, either in a day care center or a nursery school.

2220: Criminal Justice Technology

This program prepares the young person seeking a career in criminal justice and provides additional education to the student employed in criminal justice areas. The curriculum includes the technical functions of criminal justice and courses to develop a better understanding of our rapidly changing society.

Certain courses in the criminal justice technology program require permission of the instructor. Consequently each criminal justice technology student must meet with an adviser at the start of the program of study at the University.

Certificate Program in Secretarial Science

A certificate program is offered in secretarial science. A full description of this program may be found in "Interdisciplinary and Certificate Programs," Section 4 of this Bulletin.

2550: Office Services Technology

The office services technology career program emphasizes the development of skills for clerical and record-keeping occupations and prepares the student to perform the various services that are a vital part of the modern business office. Studies include operating office machines and systems, records management and personnel supervision.

2560: Transportation

This program provides qualified personnel for the field of transportation in such areas as sales, traffic and operations, personnel management and public relations. It includes courses in traffic practices and procedures, rate theory, and terminal management and supervision as they pertain to the movement of goods and people by rail, highway, water and air. A commercial aviation option emphasizes the movement of material by the various methods of air transportation.

2760: Radiologic Technology

The University has cooperated with area hospitals by offering credit courses to provide instructional support for their Schools of Radiology. Although the University has been authorized to offer the associate degree in radiologic technology, this degree program is not fully operational on campus at this time.

A student who satisfactorily completes an accredited program in radiologic technology at a hospital school having an affiliation with the University may earn the associate degree by completing additional courses at the University. The student will then receive a block of credit for the hospital program that is applicable only to the associate degree in radiologic technology.

The degree requirements for the student are:

Radiologic schools at the following hospitals are affiliated with the University:

- Akron City Hospital
- Children's Hospital Medical Center of Akron
- Akron General Medical Center
- Barberton Citizens Hospital
- St. Thomas Hospital Medical Center (Akron)
- Robinson Memorial Hospital (Ravenna)

Applications for admission to these programs should be made directly to the hospital school.
2770: Surgical Assisting Technology*

This program prepares the graduate to assist with patient care and related services in a hospital operating room as a member of the surgical team.

2840: Chemical Technology

This program prepares the student for a technical position in chemical and chemistry-related laboratories and manufacturing plants. The curriculum includes the fundamentals of chemistry, physics and mathematics and stresses modern instrumental methods. The five areas of emphasis listed below provide additional job opportunities to the graduate.

2880: Manufacturing Technology

This program prepares the student for an entry-level position in the field of industrial management and engineering. In addition to basic technical subjects, study is concentrated on work measurement, plant layout and quality control.

Diploma Nursing Program

The University, in cooperation with the hospital schools of nursing at Akron City Hospital, Akron General Medical Center and St. Thomas Hospital Medical Center in Akron, provides a program of studies basic to a diploma in nursing.

Nursing students must meet the University entrance requirements and are enrolled in regular credit courses. Applications for this program are handled through the hospital schools of nursing which award the diploma.

The programs for the three schools of nursing differ slightly in regard to courses taken and their sequence. The following courses are offered:

Wayne General and Technical College

Tyrone M. Turning, Ed.D., Dean
Robert M. McElwee, Assistant Dean

Philosophy

The Wayne General and Technical College is located on 163 acres of land one mile northwest of Orrville, Ohio. It was founded in 1972, culminating ten years of effort on the part of local citizens to establish a permanent facility for a branch campus of a major university. The Wayne College, allied with The University of Akron for administrative and academic support, provides the first two years of general college education and selected technical programs. The college has the following purposes:

- To provide the first and second years of instruction integral to a variety of pre-professional and professional programs in the arts and sciences, education, business administration, fine and applied arts and nursing.
- To provide collegiate technical education programs enabling the student to develop skills which will lead to employment and advancement in specific fields.
- To provide programs of community service, adult education and cultural enrichment designed in cooperation with local community interest groups, labor and business organizations as well as other educational institutions.

Overall, the college endeavors to provide an educational experience charged with excellence and challenge, an experience which demands intellectual awareness and criticism, which encourages growth and which fosters an appetite for life-long learning.

Admission

Admission applications are available at the Office of Admissions on the main campus of The University of Akron or at Wayne College in Orrville (375-7356).

Programs of Instruction

Wayne General and Technical College offers programs in two major classifications.

The college transfer program is a replication of the first two years of most college programs. It is designed for the student who chooses to take the first two years of college study near home.

The two-year technical program is designed to provide an individual with the skills and specialized knowledge to meet the needs of employers in Wayne, Holmes and Medina counties.

These programs lead to the following degrees: Associate of Arts or the Associate in Applied Science in business management technology, retail management technology, secretarial science or social services technology. Additional information regarding Wayne College may be secured from the Wayne General and Technical College bulletin, Wayne College, 1981-83.

The student enrolled at Wayne College may also take courses at the main campus of The University of Akron while attending Wayne. A student enrolled on the main campus of The University of Akron also may take courses at Wayne College concurrently with campus courses.

Wayne General and Technical College is fully accredited at the associate degree level by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
University College

Marion A. Ruebel, Ph.D., Dean

Academic Advising Services
Martin Mckoski, Ph.D., Director, Developmental Programs
David C. Riede, Ph.D., Head, Department of General Studies
Thomas Vukovich, M.Ed., Assistant to the Dean.

Objectives

The purpose of the University College is to further the objectives of The University of Akron by providing a quality program of general collegiate education and to pursue the following aims:

• To offer the student a basic program of general studies and the prerequisite courses for advancement to the degree-granting colleges.
• To counsel the student with respect to adjustment to the collegiate environment and to academic, personal and occupational objectives.
• To direct the student to the proper curricula so that the student will enter the degree-granting colleges prepared to undertake advanced work.

The college recommends the student for advancement to the degree-granting colleges upon satisfactory completion of the appropriate requirements.

1100: General Studies

The Department of General Studies of the University College provides a student with courses aimed at developing ability to understand and express ideas effectively, to comprehend the processes involved in accurate thinking and to learn the responsibilities of an educated member of society. Also, these courses help a student gain knowledge which helps to develop intelligent behavior patterns, self-understanding and the recognition of individual abilities.

The General Studies program provides a wide foundation of general knowledge to serve as the structural basis for the development of the student's intellectual abilities to their cultural or professional height. This foundation includes English composition, literature, speech, mathematics, natural science, social science, western cultural traditions, eastern civilizations and physical education. The General Studies program as it is now presented is the fruit of a half century of planning, revision and developing.

A student, well-grounded in the General Studies, is academically prepared to continue into realms of higher education; this curriculum has proved the most advantageous starting point for a student, no matter the student's eventual scholastic goal. It is equally valuable to the enrollee who is indecisive about a professional future and to the enrollee who arrives at the University convinced of what the enrollee wishes to become.

A student who completes 30 semester credits and achieves a grade-point average of 2.00 ("C") or better is eligible for transfer to a degree-granting college. A student should always check with the adviser to determine specific requirements for transfer to the programs of the student's choice.

Acceptance of a student in a degree-granting college is the responsibility of the respective collegiate dean, the dean of the University College and heads of departments concerned.

Program of Instruction

The required General Studies courses are:

*The six credit requirement in the social science area may also be met through one of the following options:
A. Completion of a minimum of two courses totaling at least six credits selected from two of the following four sets of course offerings:
   - 3250:244 Introduction to Economic Analysis, three credits. (A student majoring in engineering is advised to take this as one of the student's selections;)
   - 3250:201 Principles of Economics, three credits. (A student majoring in business, economics, etc., is advised to take this as one of the student's selections. A student doing so should plan to take 3250:202, three credits;)
   - 3250:100 Introduction to Economics, three credits.
   - 3400:201 United States History to Civil War, four credits.
   - 3400:202 United States History since Civil War, four credits.
   - 3730:100 Government in United States, four credits.
   - 3850:100 Introduction to Sociology, four credits.
   - 3870:150 Cultural Anthropology, four credits.

B. For a Community and Technical College major only, completion of the following three courses (total of nine credits):
   - 2020:240 Human Relations, three credits.
   - 2020:247 Survey of Basic Economics, three credits.

 An engineering student is only required to take two credits; all other students must take four credits.

Minimum of six credits of science. This requirement may be met either by taking courses in the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Geology or Physics, or by any combination of two out of the natural science courses: 1100:221, 222, 223 and 224 (three credits each).
Academic Advising Services

This office is responsible for the academic counseling and advising of all freshman- and sophomore-level students. The advisers are professionally-trained counselors and are prepared to help a student through academic and personal counseling on an appointment or walk-in basis.

Academic counseling helps the student adjust to the requirements of the curriculum and utilize course offerings that will better prepare the student for the future. Sensible course loads, proper choice of subjects, scholastic achievement, study habits, outside work loads and other circumstances have an effect on successful work and can all be matters for concern in this kind of counseling.

Personal counseling is the type of counseling which aids when problems of a personal nature seem to be obstructing academic careers or personal lives.

Developmental Programs

The Department of Developmental Programs provides academic support for all University students, especially those who wish to strengthen their educational preparation in specific areas or who have been out of school for a number of years and feel the need for remediation. Through developmental courses, individual tutoring and work in the writing and reading laboratories, such a student can develop the skills necessary for acceptable performance at the college level.

Developmental courses are offered in English, reading, college reading and study skills, mathematics and chemistry. Classes are small to provide maximum time for individual help. Peer-tutoring is provided for most subjects taught in the first two years and is free.

The writing and reading laboratories are open to all undergraduate students without charge and provide professional diagnosis and remedy of weaknesses in these vital skills.
Reserve Officers' Training Corps

1500: Aerospace Studies

The Department of Aerospace Studies provides the student with the opportunity to pursue a commission in the United States Air Force while qualifying for graduation from The University of Akron. The United States Air Force has been in the forefront of contributions to flight, research and development, effective management of resources and people and education largely because of the existence of a well-educated, versatile and professional officer corps. The primary source of these officers is the Air Force R.O.T.C.

The program is designed to prepare the student to become an officer who is dedicated and responsible; critical and creative in thinking; able to communicate clearly; and skilled in effective management.

Both the four- and two-year program are open to the full-time male and female student who will have completed at least a baccalaureate degree at commissioning.

Programs

The Four-Year Program

A full-time day student of The University of Akron may pursue the four-year program. Enrollment procedures for the first two years of Air Force R.O.T.C., known as the general military course (G.M.C.), are the same as for any other university courses. The G.M.C. consists of one hour of classroom work and one hour of Aerospace Studies Laboratory (Leadership Laboratory) each week and provides 1.5 semester credits.

Credit for portions of the G.M.C. may be given for completion of two or more years of high school junior R.O.T.C., participation in Civil Air Patrol, military school training or prior service in any branch of the United States Armed Forces.

Upon completion of the G.M.C. requirements, the cadet who wishes to compete for the last two years of the program, the Professional Officer Course (P.O.C.), must meet the qualifications for that program.

The Two-Year Program

The basic requirement for entry into the two-year program is to have two academic years remaining, either at the undergraduate or the graduate level, or a combination of the two. Entry into the P.O.C. is competitive in nature. A two-year program applicant must meet the qualifications described below. A student in the P.O.C. receives a non-taxable monthly subsistence allowance of $100. Applications for the two-year program should be made as early in the academic year as possible so that all requisites may be completed in time for summer field training. The P.O.C. consists of three hours of classroom work and one hour of Aerospace Studies Laboratory (Leadership Laboratory) each week, and provides 3 semester credits.

Field Training

In the summer prior to entering the P.O.C., all four-year program A.F.R.O.T.C. cadets and student applicants for the two-year program must attend field training at an Air Force base where they will learn and make use of training and leadership techniques in close contact with other cadets.

The four-year program student spends four weeks at an encampment, while field training for the two-year program applicant lasts six weeks. The additional two weeks for the two-year program applicant are used to cover the academic work taken by the cadet who completed the General Military Course (G.M.C.). Uniforms, lodging and meals are provided without charge, and travel pay is authorized to and from the individual's home or school. The cadet and applicant receive pay at approximately half the rate of a second lieutenant.

Flight Training

As a pilot-qualified student enrolled in the Air Force R.O.T.C. Flight Instruction Program (F.I.P.) the student can get an important start on an Air Force flying career.

When enrolled in F.I.P., the student will receive up to 25 hours of flight instruction at an F.A.A. approved civilian-operated flying school near the campus. Approximately 18 hours will be dual instruction and the other seven will be solo flying. In addition to the flight training, the student will participate in a ground school covering the rules and regulations pertaining to flying.

The Air Force pays for flight instruction, textbooks, navigational equipment and transportation to and from the flying school.

Base Visits

Classroom instruction is made more meaningful for the cadet through visits to Air Force bases. To bring the scope of Air Force operations into a clearer perspective, Air Force R.O.T.C. strives to enable every cadet to make at least one such visit each year. Many cadets have the opportunity to make more.

- Agree to accept, if offered, a commission in the United States Air Force.

- Agree to serve for a period of not less than three years on active duty after commissioning; or, if accepted for a flying training program, agree to serve for five years after navigator training or six years after pilot training.

Scholarships

Air Force R.O.T.C. college scholarships are available to a qualified applicant in both the two- and four-year

A.F.R.O.T.C. programs covering periods of four, three and two years. Each scholarship provides full tuition, laboratory and incidental fees and full reimbursement for curriculum-required textbooks. In addition, all scholarship cadets receive $100 monthly non-taxable subsistence allowance.

Four-year scholarships are available for an applicant in pilot, navigator and scientific/engineering career fields. An applicant will be evaluated on the basis of:

- C.E.E.B., Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Test (ACT) results.

- High school academic record.
- Extracurricular and athletic activities.
- Air Force Officer Qualifying Test scores.
- Passing an Air Force medical examination.

All three- and two-year scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis and an applicant is evaluated on:

- Air Force Officer Qualifying Test.
- Collegiate grade-point averages.
- Extracurricular and athletic activities.
- Screening and nomination board rating.
- Academic major and potential active duty career.

Scholarship information may be obtained by contacting the Department of Aerospace Studies.

Financial Allowances

A cadet enrolled in the P.O.C. will receive a non-taxable subsistence allowance of $100 per month.

Uniforms and Textbooks

All A.F.R.O.T.C. uniforms and textbooks are provided by the Air Force both for on-campus courses and at field training.

1600: Military Science

The University's Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (R.O.T.C.) was established in 1919, making it one of the oldest in the country. The main goal of the Army program is to provide both the active Army and Army Reserve and National Guard with commissioned male and female officers whose civilian education and attitudes contribute to the development of a military defense structure which reflects as well as defends our society. The graduate perpetuates and strengthens the tradition of our nation's citizen soldier concept.

A student enrolled in Army R.O.T.C. has an unusual opportunity to study and participate in leadership and management experiences which are unique to the college curriculum. Leadership, self discipline, responsibility and physical stamina are stressed as the student learns to plan, organize, motivate and lead others. Program goals are to develop decision-making capabilities through detailed examination of leadership factors; expand oral and written communication arts; provide some technical training in basic military skills; and develop an understanding of the relationship between the student's basic degree field and its application in one of 47 management fields in the United States Army.

Programs

Four-Year Program
A full-time student enrolled in The University of Akron or Wayne General and Technical College may enroll in the Army four-year program. Freshmen and sophomores enroll in the basic military course Military Science I and II (MS I, MS II) of the four-year program for 1.5 credits per semester. MS I and II are held two hours each week and include studies in: national security affairs, marksmanship, leadership fundamentals, backpacking, rappelling, cross-country skiing, small unit operations and Army organization. Enrollment in MS I or MS II constitutes no obligation to military service or continuance into the advanced course; there is no requirement to wear a uniform, and the credits received can be applied toward elective requirements. A student who completes the basic course, (MS I and MS II) is qualified and may apply for enrollment in the advanced course which is described below.

Two-Year Program
A student can enter the advanced course by completing MS I and MS II, by attending a basic military skills summer camp at Ft. Knox, KY or by having prior military service or training. Course studies are held four hours per week for three semester credits. The material includes: advanced leadership, application of tactics, methods of instruction, resource management, military history and the responsibilities of an officer. The advanced course includes a six-week paid summer camp attended usually between the junior and senior year. A student in the advanced course is paid $100 per month or approximately $1000 per school year. Upon graduation, the student will serve either with the Reserves, National Guard or on active duty.

Cadet Activities
The Department of Military Science offers numerous activities to enrich classroom instruction; provide a better understanding of the military and military life; and improve technical skills. These include:
• Military post orientation visits (at least one per year).
• Adventure training: marksmanship, rappelling, backpacking, cross-country skiing and survival training.
• Social organizations.
• Fraternal organizations.

Requirements for Admission
Qualifications for Enrollment
• United States citizenship (an alien student may be enrolled under special circumstances).
• Full-time student (an advanced course student must be enrolled in baccalaureate degree course).
• Good moral character.
• Age requirements as follows:
  — be at least 17 for enrollment in the basic course;
  — be under 30 years of age by the time of commissioning (may be waived);
  — a scholarship student must be under 25 by commissioning date.
• Be mentally and physically fit.

Qualifications for Advanced Course
• Basic qualifications for enrollment above.
• Completion of basic course, basic summer camp, veteran or 90 hours campus seminar.
• Qualify on the Army physical evaluation.
• Permission of the professor of military science.
• Be in good academic standing with the University.

Requirements for Commissioning
• Completion of a baccalaureate or advanced degree.
• Completion of the advanced R.O.T.C. course (MS III and IV).
• Completion of advanced summer camp.
• Agree to fulfill a service obligation as follows:

</tbody>
</table>

Scholarships
The Army R.O.T.C. has four-year scholarships available to high school seniors. Additionally, there are three, two and one year scholarships available on a competitive basis to men and women enrolled in the R.O.T.C. program. Additionally, some scholarships are available to a student interested in enrolling in R.O.T.C. These scholarships provide tuition, fees, text materials and a $100 per month allowance to the student for the period of the scholarship. All scholarship students must agree to spend four years on active duty.

Uniform and Textbooks
Textbooks for all courses and equipment for adventure training are provided free by the Department of Military Science. Uniforms are issued free to the advanced course student while in the program.
Financial Allowances

An advanced course member and all scholarship students are paid a non-taxable allowance of $100 per month while in the program. A student attending basic summer camp or advanced camp is paid for travel expenses, meals, housing and a salary.

Special Reserve and National Guard Programs

Reserve and National Guard Early Commissioning Program

The student who enters the advanced program may be commissioned in the Reserve or National Guard upon completion of advanced R.O.T.C. and prior to receiving a baccalaureate degree. Upon completion of a baccalaureate degree the officer may apply for active duty.

Simultaneous Membership Program (S.M.P.)

A member of the Reserves or National Guard, who is enrolled full time in the University, may enroll in advanced R.O.T.C. if he applies for S.M.P. membership through his unit, is accepted by the Professor of Military Science, and meets all other admission requirements for the advanced course (MS III and MS IV). Commissioning may occur upon completion of the advanced R.O.T.C. course, and the member will serve as an officer in the Reserves or National Guard. An S.M.P. member receives $100 tax free per month while in R.O.T.C., is promoted to an E-5 officer trainee in the reserve/guard unit and gets paid as such.

Aviation

A qualified student pursuing a degree in aviation-related areas or other technical fields which can be related to aviation may apply for the Guaranteed Aviation Specialty Program. Upon graduation and commissioning the student will attend flight school and serve on active duty as an Army aviator. To be accepted, a student must pass a flight physical and the Flight Aptitude Selection Test.
Objectives

The Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences serves the objectives of the University, which exist that learning may be procured, preserved and enlarged. More particularly, the college seeks to foster:

- The commitment to humanity — that loyal devotion to the heritage contained in those disciplines growing out of the ancient, liberal arts which teach man both his limitations and potentials. The college seeks to provide an appropriate environment for a student to acquire an ability to evaluate, integrate and understand the conditions of man’s existence, to understand himself in the natural world and in a particular civilization or society. No course or combination of courses can insure such understanding, and there is no schooling that can guarantee wisdom. Therefore, the college requires the student to study ideas and experiences that are the subject matter of a variety of disciplines:
  - the nurture of civility — those actions whereby virtue, the advancement of society and wise and humane government are encouraged;
  - the advancement of learning — that substantive knowledge discovered and cultivated by critical curiosity, tested by experimentation, propagated by instruction and capable of affecting the life of man so that he may in a free society exercise a responsible liberty. The most enduring contribution which the college can make is to help the individual acquire the skill, motivation and breadth of knowledge to continue his intellectual development throughout his life.

The college recommends each student for the appropriate bachelor’s, master’s or doctoral degree in accordance with the level of accomplishment.

Buchtel College is one of eight degree-granting colleges at the University. Its name truthfully implies that its traditions date back farther than those of the other undergraduate colleges, since the University itself is an outgrowth of Buchtel College, a liberal arts institution founded in 1870.

When Buchtel College became the Municipal University of Akron the original name was retained in the College of Liberal Arts which was subsequently renamed the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences. Then, and now, the liberal arts goal has been to offer broad training to the college student so that the student can prosper in life and sustain a creative appreciation of the arts and sciences.

The college is composed of the following three administrative divisions.

Humanities Division

It is concerned with the intellectual traditions that have formed man and with their application to the present and future growth of the human being by affording insights into contemporary life and by promoting the development of the individual as a creative, critical and articulate person through the study of the classics, languages, literature and philosophy.

Natural Sciences Division

It is the most professionally-oriented division in this college, with the highest number of graduates continuing their education in specific areas of advanced study. In undergraduate years, a natural sciences student has a course of study with a strong emphasis in biology, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, physics or statistics.

Social Sciences Division

It stresses intelligent participation in community affairs through education in economics, geography, history, political science, psychology and sociology.

College Requirements

Requirements for Admission

To be admitted to the college the student must have completed 30 credits of work and have the approval of the dean of the college.

Degrees Awarded

Humanities Division: Bachelor of Arts
Natural Sciences Division: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology
Social Sciences Division: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science in Labor Economics, Bachelor of Science in Political Science/Criminal Justice.
Requirements for Baccalaureate Degrees

A student transferring into the college must have completed the equivalent of, or taken, 1100:111-112 English Composition, three credits of Modern University Mathematics and the remainder of the lower-division General Studies program.

Requirements for the bachelor’s degree include:
- Completion of the General Studies program.
- A minimum of 47 credits consisting of either:
  - 300/400-level courses both in and outside the student's major;
  - any courses outside major department as specified in and approved by the student's major adviser and the department or division head (permission should be obtained prior to enrollment);
- Demonstration of ability to use two languages:
  - if the candidate is a native-born speaker of English, this ability will be shown by the completion of a second year of an approved foreign language on the University level;
  - if the candidate is not a native-born speaker of English, this ability will be shown by the completion of the General Studies sequence of 1100:111-112 English Composition.
- Completion of requirements in a major field of study (see Programs of Instruction) and the recommendation of the student's major department.
- Attaining a minimum grade-point average of 2.00 in all work in the major field.
- Fulfilling the University requirements for a baccalaureate degree set forth in Section 3 of this Bulletin.

Any student who wishes to receive a second baccalaureate degree must complete 32 credits of coursework in addition to the 128 credits necessary for the first degree; 16 of these credits must be 300/400-level courses or other approved courses.

Major Field

To qualify for graduation, a student must concentrate or major in the work of either a department or a division of the college. Part of all of these credits may be taken in specifically required courses depending upon the major chosen. The longer and more professionally-oriented majors should be started during the first year when the student is still under the guidance of the Office of Academic Advising Services.

Ordinarily a student will select a department in which to major. The exact requirements for each such major will be found on the following pages. Some departments offer more than one type of major. No minor is required; but in some cases, the major includes certain courses in other departments. As soon as the student is transferred to the college, the head of the student's major department becomes the academic adviser.

A student who desires a broader education than the departmental major offers may elect a divisional major and qualify in the general area of the humanities or the natural sciences. The exact requirements for these majors will be found on the following pages. As soon as the student contemplating a divisional major is transferred to the college, the chairman of the student's major division becomes the academic adviser.

Preparation for High School Teaching

A student interested in a teaching career on the high school level may qualify for secondary school certification by the Ohio State Department of Education while enrolled in the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences. Generally the arts and sciences major subject will also constitute a teaching major, although a second teaching field usually is required. The education and psychology courses required for the secondary school teaching certificate may be taken as electives toward the arts and sciences degrees. Additional elective credits will generally enable the student to meet the requirement of a second teaching field, without exceeding the 128 credits necessary for graduation.

The number of credits in a teaching field required for certification can be determined by referring to "Teaching Fields," College of Education, Section 4 of this Bulletin.

In addition to meeting the requirements in a teaching field, a student must also take the following courses:

A minimum of 36 credits in biology is necessary to qualify for a Bachelor of Science degree. Additional courses in biology or other sciences are usually necessary to satisfy the admission requirements of graduate and professional schools for advanced work and professional studies.

All majors for a Bachelor of Science degree in biology take the sequence of courses listed above which will provide an understanding of the fundamentals of modern biology. During the first year, a student intending to major in biology should consult a member of the biology faculty.

Bachelor of Science in Cytotechnology
A foreign language is not required.

The first three years of instruction are given in the University. The senior year consists of a minimum of 32 credits in the 3130 series. These courses are available only to the student selected for the clinical experience portion of the B.S.C.T. program in a C.A.H.E.A. approved school. Normal tuition will be charged. The student must apply for separate admission to an approved school. The University will assist in the process but cannot guarantee admission.

The University grants the B.S. in Cytotechnology after receipt of satisfactory completion of the hospital instructional program.

Cooperative Education Program — Chemistry

Qualifications

Arrangements for student entry into the program are on an individual basis, and are initiated by the student during the second year of undergraduate study. The cooperative education program is an optional program available to all full-time B.S. chemistry majors at the University who have met the following requirements:

- satisfactory completion of 60 credits with a grade-point average of at least 2.00 ('C') in the major requirements;
- be on schedule in the student’s curriculum;
- received acceptance by a cooperative education coordinator or director following a series of interviews.

A transfer student may also be considered for the cooperative education program if his background is equivalent to the minimum requirements for a University of Akron student. At least one semester of full-time study at The University of Akron is required before a transfer student can be eligible for the Cooperative Education Program.

A part-time student, having completed 60 credits with a "C" average and on schedule in the curriculum, is also eligible for the program. However, once having entered, the student is expected to be a full-time student while not on his co-op job.

It should be noted that placement in an industrial or other position is not guaranteed, and that the foreign student should recognize that many companies require United States citizenship or possession of a permanent visa. In any case, final acceptance for any position is, of course, the decision of the employer.

Mechanics of Operation

The work-study schedule for a student in the co-op program is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Fall</th>
<th>Spring</th>
<th>Summer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>School</td>
<td>School</td>
<td>Vacation/School</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Admission to the Program

A Personal Data form must be filled out and submitted to the department head. The student will then meet with a member of the cooperative education staff to discuss the availability of prospective employers. During this interview, the student will be asked to sign a Cooperative Education Agreement and a grade release form which will become effective upon employment. Employment must be coordinated or have approval of the department and the cooperative education director. The University does not guarantee employment for the student. A student will be expected to remain with the employer for all co-op work periods in order to provide a progression of experience and responsibility.

Registration

While no academic credits are assigned, each student must register for cooperative work periods in the same manner that a student registers for any other course. The courses are:

3150:300 Cooperative Education Work Period
3150:301 Cooperative Education Work Period
3150:302 Cooperative Education Work Period
3150:403 Cooperative Education Work Period

A certificate is awarded upon completion of the program. Courses required for certification are 3150:301, 302 and 403; 3150:300 is optional.

A registration fee for each work period is charged to cover the expenses of administering the program. Upon completion of a work period, a statement will appear on each student's official transcript listing the course number, title and name of the employer. In the place of a grade, “credit” or “no credit” will be given, depending upon the student's satisfactory or unsatisfactory completion of the following:

• Work performance as evaluated by the employer.
• A written work report and its approval by the department head and the cooperative education staff.
• Cooperative Work Period Summary form.

3400: History

Bachelor of Arts

- The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language (French, German or Russian suggested).
- A minimum of 30 departmental credits including:
  - 3400:405 Historical Methods
  - History Electives* 28

  Of the 28 remaining history credits a student must take some distribution of the courses in American and European history. A suitable pattern would be:
  - 3400:201,2 United States Survey (eight credits); 3400:207,8 Modern Europe (eight credits).

  - 3450:421,2 Advanced Calculus I and II 6
  - 3450:445 Introduction to Topology 3
  - Mathematics Electives 10

  (Elective credits must be approved 300/400-level courses in the department.)

- For the Bachelor of Science degree: complete 18 credits of coursework outside the department and beyond the General Studies in a suitable area of concentration as approved by the department.
- For the Bachelor of Arts degree: complete 18 credits of humanities or social sciences beyond the General Studies. The 18 credits are to be from more than one department.
- Electives — 17 credits.

3460: Computer Science

Bachelor of Science

- The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.
- At least 37 credits in computer science.
- Core curriculum:
  - 3460:201 Introduction to Fortran Programming 2
  - 4450:206 Fortran (Science and Engineering) 2
  - 3460:210 Introduction to Computer Concepts 3
  - 4450:306 Assembler Programming 3

  - 3460:203 Introduction to APL Programming 2
  - 3460:204 Introduction to PL/I Programming 2
  - 3460:205 Introduction to Pascal Programming 2

- Other required courses:
  - 3460:307 Applied Systems Programming 3
  - 4450:407 Systems Programming 3
  - 3460:416 Introduction to Data Structures 3
  - 3460:418 Introduction to Discrete Structures 3
  - 3460:420 Structured Programming 3
  - 3460:425 Introduction to Software Systems 3

- Electives — Computer Science — 12 credits.

Mathematics Option

At least 21 credits to include:

<table>

Admission to the Program

Arrangements for student entry into the program are on an individual basis, and must be initiated by the student during the second year of undergraduate study. The Cooperative Education Program is an optional program available only to full-time mathematical sciences' students at The University of Akron who have satisfactorily met the following requirements:

- Sixty credits with a grade-point average of at least 2.00 out of a possible 4.00 in the program of mathematical sciences curriculum and be on schedule in the curriculum.
- Acceptance by a cooperative education coordinator or director following interviews.
- A transfer student must:
  - Complete 16 credits of academic work at The University of Akron with a grade-point average of at least 2.00 out of a possible 4.00. Be on schedule in the mathematical sciences curriculum.

A student who desires to participate in the program will fill out a Personal Data form and submit it to the department head. The student will then meet with a member of the cooperative education staff to discuss the availability of prospective employers. During this interview, the student will be asked to sign a Cooperative Educational Agreement and a grade release form which will become effective upon employment. Employment must be coordinated or have approval of the department and the cooperative education staff. The University does not guarantee employment for the student. The student will be expected to remain with the employer for all cooperative work periods in order to provide a progression of experience and responsibility.

Registration
While no academic credits are assigned, each student must register for cooperative work periods in the same manner that a student registers for any other University course.

The courses are as follows:
3480:300 Cooperative Education Work Period
3480:301 Cooperative Education Work Period
3480:302 Cooperative Education Work Period
3480:303 Cooperative Education Work Period

A cooperative program fee for each work period is charged. Upon completion of a work period, a statement will appear on each student's official transcript listing the course number, title and name of the employer. In the place of a grade, "credit" or "no credit" will be given, depending upon the student's satisfactory or unsatisfactory completion of the following:
• Work performance as evaluated by the employer.
• Written work report as approved by department head and cooperative education staff.
• Cooperative Work Period Summary form.

Normally, work progresses satisfactorily on the job and a grade of "credit" is assigned at the end of the semester. If all the above conditions are not met, a change of grade to "no credit" will be submitted.

3500: Chinese, Hebrew, Modern Persian, Polish; 3520: French; 3530: German; 3550: Italian; 3570: Russian; 3580: Spanish.

Bachelor of Arts
• The General Studies.
• Completion of 24 credits above the second year (200 level): six credits in literature, six credits in culture, six credits of electives in the major language and six credits in composition and conversation.

3600: Philosophy

Bachelor of Arts
• The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.

• A minimum of 30 departmental credits including:

- 3600:101 Introduction to Philosophy 3
- 3600:120 Introduction to Ethics 3
- 3600:170 Introduction to Logic 3
- 3600:211 History of Ancient Philosophy 3
- 3600:212 History of Medieval Philosophy 3
- 3600:313 History of Modern Philosophy 3

(Of the additional credits, six must be earned in 300/400-level courses.)

• Electives (selected concentration) — 12-16 credits.
• Electives — 29-33 credits.

3650: Physics

Bachelor of Science
This degree is intended for the student seeking the most detailed and quantitative preparation in physics available in an undergraduate curriculum. A student preparing for graduate study in physics or another physical science should usually satisfy all the requirements for the degree.

• The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.
• A minimum of 40 departmental credits including:

- 3650:291.2 Elementary Classical Physics I and II 8
- 3650:301 Elementary Modern Physics 3
- 3650:406 Waves 3
- 3650:407 Quantum Physics 3
- 3650:410 Electronics 3
- 3650:411.2 Intermediate Laboratory I and II 4
- 3650:430 Statistical Physics 3
- 3650:431 Mechanics 3
- 3650:436 Electricity and Magnetism 3
- 3650:451.2 Advanced Laboratory I and II 4
- Electives 3

(Additional physics courses are usually necessary to satisfy the admission requirements of graduate schools for advanced work in physics or certain other physical sciences.)
(Courses 1100:224, 3650:130, 133, 137 and 141 are not applicable toward the required 40 credits of physics courses.)

• Mathematics:
- 3450:235 Differential Equations 3
- 3550:221.2,3 Analytic Geometry-Calculus I, II and III 12

• Chemistry:
- 3150:132,3 Principles of Chemistry I and II 7

• Computer Science:
- 4450:206 Fortran (Science and Engineering) 2
• Electives — 20 credits.

Bachelor of Arts
This degree is primarily for the student desiring a useful background in physics, but whose professional objectives may not require graduate study in physics or a related physical science.

• The General Studies program and the second year of a foreign language.
• At least 24 departmental credits including:

The preceding requirements specify the minimum curriculum for the B.S. and B.A. degrees with a major in physics. The student expecting to specialize in a particular professional area should consider utilizing part or all elective courses toward one of the important program areas of specialization listed above. These programs are intended to be illustrative only; considerable flexibility is possible, depending upon the needs and interests of the individual student.

The physics student may consider it important in the bachelor's degree programs to prepare in greater depth in other science areas (besides physics and mathematics) than may usually be possible within the traditional four-year departmental degree curricula. This student may therefore prefer to work toward the Bachelor of Science in natural science degree which in effect allows the substitution of 16 credits of science courses (either in one additional scientific discipline, or equally in two additional scientific disciplines) for the two-year foreign language requirement. For further information, refer to Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, "Natural Sciences Division Major," Section 4 of this Bulletin, or contact the Department of Physics.

Cooperative Industrial Employment Plan

For the academically qualified undergraduate student majoring in physics, an optional cooperative plan is available which provides a scheduled sequence of professionally-oriented industrial employment (totaling a full calendar year) alternating with periods of on-campus classroom instruction. This cooperative plan requires a five-year period for the completion of the bachelor's degree program in physics, with the spring term of the third year plus the fall and summer terms of the fourth year typically spent off campus with a participating industrial employer.

Arrangements for entry into the plan are on an individual basis and must be initiated by the student during the second year of undergraduate study. For further information, contact the department.
3700: Political Science

Bachelor of Arts

• The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.
• At least 30 credits in the department including:

(Electives must include at least one 400-level course in political science.)

• Electives — 45 credits.

Bachelor of Science in Political Science/Criminal Justice

• Completion of all requirements for the Associate Degree in Criminal Justice Technology established by the Community and Technical College.
• Completion of General Studies requirements.
• Completion of at least 47 credits of 300/400-level courses and the General Studies requirement.
• At least six credits of coursework which will introduce the student to a foreign culture. Such courses shall be selected by the student with the approval of the adviser in the Department of Political Science. Courses may be chosen from any of the following departments: Classics, Modern Languages, History, Political Science, Anthropology and Geography.
• At least 30 departmental credits including:

<table>

If the student is unable to take any of the aforementioned courses as a result of problems in scheduling, the head of the department may permit the substitution of appropriate departmental courses.

Special Curricular Tracks in Political Science

The department offers three special tracks for the student interested in pre-law, the international service or national, state or local government service. In addition to the requirements for the major, each of these tracks includes electives appropriate for preparation for careers in law, government service or international service.

Information about these curricular tracks may be obtained from the head of the department.

Humanities Division Major

The humanities division consists of the departments of Classics, English, Modern Languages and Philosophy. The disciplines of history and the creative and dramatic arts (art, music, theatre arts) are included. The divisional major must include the following:

- The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.
- A minimum of 54 credits, at least 24 of which must be in courses at the 300/400 level. The 54 credits must include 18 credits in each of any three of the following six fields: classics, English, history, modern languages, philosophy and the creative and dramatic arts.
- The first two years of any language in either classics or modern languages will not be included in the 18-credit requirement for those disciplines.

By field, the 18-credit requirement must include:

- Classics:
  - 3200:181, 2 Comparative Literature 6
  - 3200:189 Classical Mythology 3

- English:
  - 300/400 level, including at least two courses at the 400 level (minimum) 9

- History:
  - 300/400 level (minimum) 10

- Modern Languages:
  - Composition and Conversation 6
  - Literature 6
  - Any combination of linguistics and culture-civilization 6

- Philosophy:
  - 3600:101 Introduction to Philosophy 3
  - 3600:120 Introduction to Ethics 3
  - 3600:170 Introduction to Logic 3

- Creative and Dramatic Arts:
  - 3700:100 Introduction to Drama 3
  - 3700:120 Introduction to Theatre 3
  - 3700:130 Introduction to Dance 3
  - 3700:140 Introduction to Music 3
  - 3700:150 Introduction to Theatre Arts 3
  - 3700:160 Introduction to Music 3
  - 3700:170 Introduction to Dance 3

Courses for the humanities division major must be selected with the approval of the division adviser. For further information, please contact the Office of the Dean, Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences.

Social Sciences Division Major

The social sciences division consists of the departments of Economics, Geography, History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology and Urban Studies (graduate program only). The divisional major must include the following:

- The General Studies and the second year of a foreign language.
- A minimum of 54 credits, at least 24 of which must be in courses at the 300/400 level. The 54 credits must include a minimum of 15 credits in each of any three of the following six fields: economics, geography, history, political science, psychology and sociology-anthropology.

By field, the 15-credit requirement must include:

- Economics:
  - Any except 3250:100 Introduction to Economics * (must include 3250:201, 2 Principles of Economics) 15

- Geography:
  - Any credits 15

- History:
  - Minimum of seven credits at the 300/400 level 15

- Political Science:
  - At least seven credits at the 300/400 level
  - 3700:100 Government and Politics in the United States 15
  - 3700:201 Introduction to Political Science 15

- Each student shall take at least one course in two of the four areas (American government and politics, comparative politics, international politics and political theory) shown below:

  - American Government and Politics:
    - 3700:210 State and Local Government and Politics 3
    - 3700:340 American Political Parties and Interest Groups 3
    - 3700:341 The American Congress 3
    - 3700:342 Minority Group Politics 3
    - 3700:350 The American Presidency 3

*Course will not apply toward 54 credits in the major.

Natural Sciences Division Major

The natural sciences division consists of the departments of Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematical Sciences, Computer Science, Physics and Polymer Science. The divisional major must include:

- The General Studies.
- At least 24 credits from one of the departments of the natural sciences division.
- At least 16 credits from another of the following disciplines: biology, chemistry, engineering, geology, mathematics or computer science or statistics, physics, polymer science.
- At least 16 credits from a third of these disciplines; or alternatively, at least eight credits in each of two other of these disciplines.
- A foreign language is strongly recommended.

The courses for the natural sciences division major must be selected from those courses eligible for inclusion in the major of these disciplines. For further information, please contact the Office of the Dean, Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences.
Bachelor of Science/Doctor of Medicine Degree (B.S./M.D. Program)*

Introduction
The Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine is a consortium composed of The University of Akron, Kent State University, Youngstown State University and the College of Medicine that will offer a six-year B.S./M.D. degree program.

Each university admits a student into Phase I (years one and two) and recommends the successful student to Phase II (years three through six) medical study at the College of Medicine at the Rootstown campus. The Phase II student completes the undergraduate degree program during the summer of years three through five.

At The University of Akron, a student pursues a B.S. in the natural sciences division in the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences.

Objectives

The purpose of the College of Engineering is to further the objectives of the University by providing a quality program of engineering education with the following aims:

- To offer sound basic instruction in engineering.
- To develop the ability to apply engineering principles to economic and technological progress of society.
- To promote in the student a high sense of ethics and professional responsibility.
- To foster an appreciation of the need to further the role of the engineering profession in society.

The program of study at the undergraduate level is principally the five-year cooperative plan. While this plan is optional, by far the greater number of students elect the co-op method of obtaining a bachelor’s degree.

Along with the emphasis on preparation for professional practice within the college, University policy assures that each student obtains a substantial exposure to the humanities.

A graduate is prepared for study on the master's and doctoral level in engineering or for employment in the engineering profession directly upon receipt of the baccalaureate degree.

Requirements for Admission

In addition to the general requirements for admission to the University, a student must present the following secondary school credits:

- Algebra 1½ units
- Plane Geometry 1 unit
- Chemistry or Physics 1 unit
- Solid Geometry or Trigonometry ½ unit

Additional credits in mathematics and physical science are strongly recommended.

The beginning student must register in the University College. Those admitted to engineering will be eligible for transfer to the College of Engineering after satisfactory completion of 30 credits of work and the approval of the dean.

No undergraduate student shall be eligible to enroll in any 300/400-level course offered by the college unless: the student has been admitted into the College of Engineering; or the student has the permission of the head of the department offering the course; or the course has been exempted from this rule.

Degrees

The college offers curricula leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science in Chemical, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering; Bachelor of Science in Engineering; and Bachelor of Construction Technology.

Requirements for Graduation

- Compliance with University requirements, Section 3, of this Bulletin.
• Completion of the requirements in the appropriate list of courses.
• Recommendation of the student's department.
• Any junior or senior engineering student with a grade-point average of 2.50 overall and 2.75 or better in engineering may substitute not more than two approved upper division courses in mathematics, science or engineering for an equal number of certain required engineering courses.

4200: Chemical Engineering

The goal of chemical engineering education is the development of the student's intellectual capacity and ability to apply the principles of transport phenomena, equilibria and kinetics, involving chemical and physical transformations, to the creative resolution of technological problems.

The chemical engineer, like all other engineers, is trained in mechanics, materials and their properties, economics, systems and their controls, etc. The chemical engineer differs from all other engineers because the chemical engineer is responsible for materials separations and the conversion of matter — separations such as air into components of oxygen, nitrogen, argon and conversions such as natural gas into plastics and coal into liquid fuel.

The chemical engineer finds careers mainly in the chemical process industries, usually becoming involved with inorganic and organic chemicals, rubber and plastics, detergents, petroleum products, metals, pharmaceuticals, dyestuffs and food products.

The chemical engineer will usually be employed in one or more of the following activities: research and development, plant design and construction, process control, plant operations, sales and management. In addition to the processing industries, the chemical engineer is increasingly in demand in such areas of current interest as water and air pollution, biological engineering and energy engineering.

4300: Civil Engineering

The civil engineer is dedicated to planning, designing and building to make our environment more attractive. Civil engineers help to renovate urban areas, to develop new housing systems; to plan community facilities; to build new water storage systems; to design new systems for waste disposal; to expand airport and harbor facilities; to build and maintain local streets and inter-city highways; to design all types of buildings and bridges; to build dams, reservoirs and flood control systems; to build tunnels; and to design foundations.

The civil engineering curriculum at the University is divided into two options: design and construction. The design option allows specialization in environmental engineering, foundation engineering, hydraulic engineering, structural engineering and transportation engineering. The construction option includes introductory work in the five areas above but specializes in the engineering and financial aspects of construction. Each option contains a group of elective courses.

The civil engineering graduate works for consultants, manufacturers, construction companies, utilities and for government bodies of all levels. Many civil engineers own their own businesses.

Credits are listed below by design (D) and construction (C) options.

4400: Electrical Engineering

The many branches of electrical engineering include: production and distribution of electrical energy; research, development, manufacture and operation of electrical and electronic products; and systems for instrumentation, automation, tracking and telemetry.

The growth of electronic research and manufacturing has been accelerated by the space age. There is hardly a segment of the economy which has not been influenced by electronics. The high speed digital computer has found its way into virtually all aspects of modern life. A student wishing to specialize in computer engineering will find appropriate electives available.

The wide use of electrical means for measurement, control and computation has resulted in the need for electrical engineers in all types of industries. Varied employment opportunities are available.

A student wishing to continue education in graduate school, law school or medical school will find specialized programs of preparation are available within the framework of the Department of Electrical Engineering.

4600: Mechanical Engineering

The mechanical engineer designs and analyzes physical systems. A high level of professional competence in this field can only be achieved through an extensive study of mathematics, mechanics, fluid flow and the thermal sciences. Among the many subtopics included in these major headings are stress analysis, vibrations, compressible and incompressible fluid flow, thermodynamics, energy conversion, environmental control, heat transfer and automatic controls. The typical mechanical engineering design problems may involve any one or possibly all of these areas in the design of a complex system.

The mechanical engineer is employed in a variety of industries in different capacities. Specific positions include management, design, analysis, safety, production and plant engineering. The types of companies include automotive, petroleum, energy generation, aerospace, tire, consulting, publishing, insurance and manufacturers in general.

The curriculum is designed to emphasize fundamentals which will place the graduate in a strong position to either pursue further education, formally or informally, or to begin a career in government or industry.

4980: Construction Technology

The curriculum in construction technology is designed to produce a graduate with a strong fundamental knowledge of technology, combined with management ability and a familiarity with business, economics and personnel management. The program is designed to provide graduates for employment at all levels of the construction industry and allied support industries. The program is a "two-plus-three" arrangement with the Community and Technical College and includes one full year of on-the-job experience. All students must meet the requirements of both the associate and baccalaureate programs. Transferees from other two-year programs where the course content compares favorably may be admitted to the program.

When the eight semester credits of English are met either by transfer credits, courses taken as part of the associate degree program or by examination the credits shall be technical elective credits so that the program total of 68 credits is satisfied.
Bachelor of Science in Engineering

This degree program was established to introduce flexibility into the College of Engineering. Within the 68 credits of the option portion of the program, a student can pursue courses in business administration, industrial management, environmental science, pre-medicine or any other field along with engineering studies. The program of study may be very narrow as in the case of a student wishing to specialize in structural design, foundations and soil mechanics. For another student interested in patent law, the program may be broad, touching on chemical, mechanical and electrical engineering subjects. The individual’s program is designed to meet each student’s announced goals.

Entrance to this program is restricted. A student requests admission by letter to the dean of the College of Engineering, outlining in some detail the particular objective and how the B.S.E. program may enable the student to prepare for career goals. The mathematics, physics and chemistry requirements are identical to those of the four departments of the college.

Objectives

The purpose of the College of Education is to further the objectives of the University by providing quality programs for the student of education and by helping the student attain the following:

• Special experiences, knowledge and skills particularly useful for teaching in urban and inner-city educational institutions, in keeping with the urban mission of the University.
• A knowledge of a major field and related fields of inquiry and the ability to use this knowledge in explaining the realities of life today.
• A knowledge of instructional materials and new technology and skill in recognizing and utilizing instructional tools most suitable for specific purposes.
• A knowledge of the social issues relevant to education and living in a pluralistic society and the competence to translate implications of changes in society into instructive action as teacher-citizens as well as teacher-scholars.
• An understanding of the learner and the learning processes and the ability to translate these into appropriate teaching behaviors in acting and reacting with students.
• Skill in the acquisition of inquiry techniques appropriate to generalizing knowledge and choices, and practice in using them to inquire into educational problems in rational, defensible ways.
• Human relations skills, including an appreciation of the values and feelings essential for working with young people and with adults, and the ability to develop relationships in a wide variety of professional and social roles in an educational or community setting.

To accomplish these objectives, this college offers programs for the preparation of elementary and secondary teachers, counselors, school administrators and other educational personnel. The Bachelor of Arts in Education, Bachelor of Science in Education, Bachelor of Science in Technical Education, Master of Arts in Education, Master of Science in Education, Master of Science in Technical Education and Ph.D. and Ed.D. degrees are offered.

Programs include a balanced offering of a foundation in general education, an intensive study in depth of the teaching and/or administration area and those professional courses and other learning experiences which attempt to combine theory and practice.

In addition to the regular degree programs, special courses and related services such as institutes and workshops are regularly offered with the planning assistance of school personnel.

Educators in surrounding school districts cooperate in advisory capacities with the college. Their schools are used widely for observation and for the assignment of student teachers. Approximately one-half of the teachers in the Akron Public Schools are former students of the University.

College Requirements

Admission

To be admitted to the College of Education, the student must be able to meet the following criteria:

• Completion of at least 30 credits with at least a 2.00 grade-point average. *
• Demonstration of those qualities of character and personality deemed essential for a professional person in education. This determination is made by instructors conducting the education courses in the University College, by the staff in Academic Advising Services, and if necessary, by measuring performance through standardized evaluation instruments.
• Demonstrated evidence of the ability to attain a 2.50 grade-point average in a choice of major fields.

All students preparing for certification may be evaluated by the college undergraduate committee, subject to review by the dean. Such evaluation will occur whenever there is reason to believe the student does not measure up to criteria for professional development established by the faculty of the college. This committee can recommend to the dean of the college any one of the following actions:

• That the student's admission to or retention in the program for certification be confirmed with no other action suggested.
• That the student's admission to or retention in the program for certification be confirmed but that the student be apprised that certain weaknesses must be corrected before student teaching is approved.
• That the student's final admission to or retention in the program for certification be denied because of certain weaknesses which the committee believes are not correctable.

* The secondary education student also must have eight credits in teaching field with a 2.50 average.
Student Advisers

A student should confer with the following persons depending upon the field in which teaching is anticipated. A student should also feel free to consult with the dean or assistant dean of the College of Education.

Bachelor's Degrees

A student prepares to teach any one of the following areas or fields: nursery school, kindergarten-primary, elementary; the conventional academic fields found in junior and senior high schools; the special fields of art, business, home economics, music, physical education, slow learners, and speech and hearing therapy; and post-secondary technical education. A minimum of 128 credits with a grade-point average of 2.00 must be completed to qualify for the bachelor's degree.

The specific subjects required for degrees in certain fields are set forth in subsequent pages. In all cases, the requirements include courses in the General Studies, subject matter areas and professional sequences.

The Bachelor of Arts in Education degree is granted to those whose major is in the academic fields or in elementary education. The Bachelor of Science in Education is granted to those whose major is in the other special fields or in elementary education. The Bachelor of Science in Technical Education is awarded to those who complete the requirements of that program.

Clinical and Field-Based Experiences

Each teacher education student is required to satisfactorily participate in clinical and field-based experiences for a minimum of 600 hours prior to recommendation for certification for teaching in Ohio. The total hours will be accounted on the EDATA-1 system.

Through clinical experiences under the direction, evaluation and supervision of faculty, the student shall be involved in the use of diagnostic testing instruments and observational techniques to enable an analysis of pupil-learning progress or difficulties, on both an individual and group basis, and prescriptions of instructional strategies, educational media and materials to maximize pupil-learning outcomes.

Field-based experiences are a series of planned, supervised and evaluated off-campus activities for which specific learning objectives have been set to assure increasing proficiency in performing the various teaching responsibilities under actual school conditions. Field-based experiences shall be completed under a variety of urban and suburban or rural settings. The clinical and field-based experiences are components to the developmental course programs.

Clinical and field-based hours are listed under the Section 7 of this Bulletin.

Student Teaching

Student teaching is done in the public schools under the direction of supervising teachers and a representative of the College of Education faculty.

In order to quality for student teaching, a student must maintain a 2.60 average in the teaching field. Satisfactory work also must be done in other teaching fields and in professional education to warrant recommendation for a teaching certificate.*

Certification

Every teacher in Ohio public schools is required to have a certificate covering the fields in which teaching is being done. This certificate is issued by the Ohio State Department of Education upon recommendation of the dean of the college. The student must fill out an application form obtained in the office of the dean. This form should be completed about one month before the student plans to finish all requirements for teaching.

The student is expected to receive recommendations for certification from the institution granting the degree. A student who expects to receive degrees from other institutions but who wishes to qualify for certification at The University of Akron will be expected to meet all the certification requirements of the University.

*Music majors, before assignment for student teaching, are required to pass the General Musicianship Examination described in the music section of the College of Fine and Applied Arts. To avoid possible delay in graduation, it is necessary for the student to take the examination six months prior to the anticipated assignment for student teaching.
Students Enrolled in Other Colleges at The University of Akron

A student who receives degrees from other colleges in the University also may wish to qualify for teaching. They will be recommended for certification after completing respective major and minor requirements and the pre-professional and professional courses included in the Recommended Sequence for Secondary Education listed in this section. Such students must be closely advised during the last two years.

Any student not enrolled in the college who wishes to teach should register with the dean by completing the form, Admission to Teacher Education at the time of transfer to a degree-granting college or two years prior to eligibility to teach.

Teaching Fields

Each student preparing for senior high school teaching must have at least two academic teaching fields. One field shall be at least six credits greater than the minimum required by the Ohio State Department of Education, except where the state requirement in the teaching field is 30 credits or more. However, if a student chooses one of the special teaching fields, as listed below, preparation in a second field will not be required.

For selection of required courses and the recommended sequence for a teaching field, the student should consult the head of the Department of Secondary Education who will appoint an adviser.

The Department of Health and Physical Education offers an alternative curriculum in athletic training for a student choosing not to do student teaching and receive a teaching certificate. A student interested in this alternative should contact the department.

5400: Technical Education

The undergraduate program in technical education is designed to prepare instructors and including personnel for post-secondary educational institutions, industry and public and private agencies engaged in the education and training of technicians. The program is divided into the following major classifications: business technologies, engineering technologies, health technologies, natural science technologies and public service technologies. The baccalaureate program is intended to produce instructors primarily for teaching subjects within a technical specialty and is not intended to produce post-high school teachers in mathematics, physics, chemistry, English or other general education offerings. Graduates of this program would be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Technical Education.

A student may elect other areas when the courses are available and the adviser approves.

The technical education program includes work in four areas: General Studies; the technical specialty; professional education; and occupational experience. Specific course requirements may be secured from the Department of Secondary Education or from the advisers in technical education.

Requirements for Graduation

In addition to the general requirements of the College of Education, a student in technical education must obtain at least a 2.00 average in all major departmental professional courses (5400), all professional education courses and a 2.50 average in all technical courses directly related to the student’s teaching field.

5610: Special Education

This program involves in-depth preparation in the areas of mental retardation, learning disabilities and orthopedically handicapped. The program incorporates courses from secondary education, elementary education, counseling and educational foundations. Components include the General Studies, general professional education, special education studies (the major field), student teaching and related competency studies. Completion of this program enables one to be certified in special education at both elementary and secondary levels for each of the areas of preparation.

Comprehensive Programs

- Plan A: Dual Certification — learning disabilities and educable retarded.
- Plan B: Dual Certification — educable and moderately-severely-profoundly retarded.
- Plan C: Dual Certification — educable retarded and orthopedically handicapped.

*Many fields require more than the minimum. Please see the department for specific program.
All three plans require the completion of:

- General Studies — 39 credits.
- Professional education:

Combination Special Education — Elementary Education Program

The addition of 18 to 33 special education credits, including student teaching, to the standard elementary education program in lieu of elementary education elective credits will provide the student a special area of preparation in the form of a non-certification minor, or certification minor in the areas of mental retardation, learning and/or behavioral disorders or in the area of teaching orthopedically handicapped children. Completion of any of these latter minors in the elementary program will lead to a teaching certificate valid in the regular and in a specified special classroom.

Special Education as a Secondary Teaching Field

The addition of 31-36 special education credits, including student teaching, to the professional education courses required of secondary teachers may comprise a second teaching field in mental retardation, learning disabilities or orthopedically handicapped.

Specific program details for the above combinations with elementary or secondary can be obtained from the Department of Counseling and Special Education.

Speech and Hearing Therapy

A baccalaureate degree certification program in the area of speech and hearing therapy is available to the student desiring to function in this capacity in the public schools. Specific program details can be obtained from the Department of Counseling and Special Education and/or the Department of Communicative Disorders.

*Final course before student teaching, advanced permission required.

College of Business Administration

James W. Dunlap, Ph.D., Dean

Objectives

The College of Business Administration is a professional college of the University that is dedicated to teaching, business research and public service. The college, a member of the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business, the national accrediting agency for colleges of business administration, offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs during the day and evening.

The purpose of the College of Business Administration is to further the objectives of The University of Akron by providing a quality program of collegiate education in business to prepare the student for a professional career in commerce, industry and government. This is to be secured with the following aims:

• To instill in the student the competence in the basic functional areas of business enterprise.
• To develop in the student an analytical ability and balanced judgment in the solution of business problems.
• To promote in the student an understanding of human behavior and the impact of social, political and economic forces in the decision-making process.
• To cultivate in the student a facility for the use of management tools of accounting, quantitative techniques and communications.
• To encourage in the student the development of a business code of ethics.
• To foster in the student a desire to continue the pursuit of knowledge and the achievement of excellence in the area of administration.

Additional objectives of the college are to act as a service division by offering courses in another college; to serve the business community of the state and region by sponsoring conferences, short courses and management development programs; to foster and encourage research in business; to offer graduate instruction and opportunities for research to the student at the master’s level; to prepare the student for entering law school; and to prepare the student for advanced research and study in business and economics.

At The University of Akron there has been a long and eventful history of education relating to the field of commerce and industry. Beginning in 1919, courses were offered in the Department of Commerce. Eventually the department became the nucleus of the College of Business Administration, which was established in 1953.

Since its inception, the college curriculum has been designed with equal emphasis on broad basic principles as well as immediate practices. Classroom knowledge is consistently made more significant by field trips and inspection tours to witness business operations.

Similarly, the college maintains a sound balance between education in the arts, humanities and sciences and professional business courses. Half of the courses of study at the undergraduate level are in the areas of liberal arts and sciences; the remaining courses are divided between general business subjects and the student’s indicated area of specialization.

College Requirements

Requirements for Admission

The college will accept the student who has completed sufficient coursework to indicate possession of the necessary ability and desire to earn a business administration degree. The number of credits to have been completed will vary from student to student, but will be at least 30 credits at the time of acceptance.

Enrollment in upper college business courses is limited to a student who has:

• Applied for transfer to the college.
• Successfully completed at least 60 credits.
• Earned at least a 2.00 overall grade-point average and at least a 2.00 grade-point average in business administration and economics courses.

Transfer of Courses and Advanced Standing

In order for courses taken outside of the University College or the College of Business Administration to be accepted as part of an approved program of study in lieu of college and departmental requirements, the courses to be transferred must be of an equivalent level. The College of Business Administration will consider the following in granting credit: the content, complexity and grading standards of courses taken elsewhere and the suitability of courses taken elsewhere for the program of study chosen here. Subject matter reserved for junior- and senior-level courses in this college will not be transferable through courses taken in any two-year institution. All work transferred may be subject to examination to validate credits.

*Exceptions to any of all of these may be granted by the dean.
Requirements for Graduation

To receive a baccalaureate degree from the College of Business Administration, a student must meet the following requirements:

- Complete a minimum of 128 semester credits with a minimum 2.00 grade-point average. Not more than one credit of physical education may be included.
- Obtain at least a 2.00 grade-point average in all courses in the major as well as in all courses in business administration and economics.
- Obtain the recommendation of the department head.
- Complete other University requirements listed in Section 3 of this Bulletin.
- General Studies—36 credits.*

6200: Accounting

The functions of accounting are essential to the decision-making process in commerce, industry and government. Because of the important role it plays in economic affairs, accounting has attained the professional status of law and medicine.

Three major fields of employment for accountants are public, private and governmental accounting. Regardless of the areas of concentration, standards, ethics and the mastery of accounting concepts and procedures are essential. An accounting graduate who chooses public accounting may become a senior, manager, principal or partner in public accounting firms. A student who chooses an accounting career in private industry may hold the position of accountant, senior accountant, budget director, internal auditor, treasurer or controller. Federal, state and local governments provide a wide variety of job opportunities at the professional level for well-educated accountants. There are exceptional opportunities for professional advancement regardless of the type of institution a graduate may choose.

The accounting curriculum is designed to prepare the student for professional service, including sitting for the uniform certified public accounting examination and other professional accounting examinations and to prepare the student to undertake advanced study. To receive the Bachelor of Science in Accounting degree, a student must complete the college requirements and the following departmental requirements:

Communication skills are vital, so a major is urged to take 3300:275, Specialized Writing in Business, and to participate in the Student Toastmasters organization.
Because of the increasing demand for accountants with a knowledge of computer usage, additional courses in mathematics and computer science are strongly recommended. A major preparing for an industrial accounting career should take electives in management.

6400: Finance

Courses in the Department of Finance are designed to develop a student's ability to gather, organize, analyze and utilize financial data. This requires that the student be familiar with the institutional setting in which firms operate, and, within this framework, they must understand the present state of financial theory, its uses and limitations. When a student majors in finance, the goal is not a specific entry job but rather a state of readiness to provide flexible response to new areas of opportunities in the financial area.

Career opportunities exist in three major fields. The financial management of non-financial institutions area offers employment in profit as well as non-profit firms where the emphasis is on the uses and sources of financial funds. The area of management of financial institutions offers opportunities to those who choose careers in commercial banking and other credit-granting institutions. Those interested in investments management find opportunities with brokerage firms and specialized departments in many financial as well as non-financial organizations. In most cases it is not possible to select direct entry at a level one desires; on-the-job training is required in allied fields. It is for this reason our suggested preparation is broad in scope.

6500: Management

The University of Akron was one of the first institutions of higher learning to establish an industrial management curriculum. Important factors in the decision to establish such a program were the location of the University in a major industrial area and the recognition of an emerging educational need.

The emphasis on education for management is the result of several factors. First, managers are becoming increasingly aware that a professional approach to management requires understanding of quantitative methods and the behavioral sciences. Second, the management task is becoming much more complex in terms of the number of activities, volume of work and the broader impact of managerial decisions. Third, the practice of management in any setting requires a measure of specific preparation and qualification.

Events of the past several years have brought about a rapid and sweeping change in the business and industry of our society. The major in industrial management recognizes the unique directional problems of the firm involved in manufacturing producers' goods.

The graduate with an industrial management degree finds many employment opportunities with industrial firms in staff, supervisory and other management positions. The graduate possesses, in addition, the required basic understanding for effectively managing facilities, equipment and personnel in a variety of activities such as transportation, warehousing, research or institutional management. Also, the graduate has the fundamental preparation to undertake advanced study leading to a master's degree.

Departmental philosophy decrees that the student entering the field of management will have a solid basic liberal background within the framework of the management curriculum.

To receive the Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management with a major in management, a student must complete the college requirements and an option. The common departmental requirements are as follows:

<table>

Industrial Accounting Emphasis

The industrial accounting emphasis jointly administered by the Department of Accounting and the Department of Management is designed to benefit the student who may wish to pursue a career in the field of accounting, but who does not wish to become a C.P.A. The courses selected are those which will furnish the student with a background in the operational management of production activities as well as in the accounting and budgeting procedures utilized in the control of these activities. The curriculum leads to the Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management degree.

The student selecting the industrial accounting emphasis must successfully complete the college requirements and the following courses:

6600: Marketing

The chief marketing executive in the firm is responsible for sustaining customer acceptance of the firm's products and services, and for finding new opportunities for the firm through the development of new and improved products and services, effective advertising and other communications programs; efficient physical distribution of the firm's products and services so that they are accessible to present and prospective users; and pricing of the firm's offerings. The marketing executive is also responsible for organizing the various functions involved in the marketing effort. The executive attempts to allocate the resources of the firm for maximum impact in the markets which the executive feels are most profitable in order to provide the firm with a high and continuing flow of money income.

The marketing curriculum is designed to provide the student with the basic understanding and insight required for the successful performance and management of the marketing activities of either profit-making or non-profit organizations. It is also organized to provide the student who has an interest in a specific area of marketing study with alternative approaches to marketing knowledge by means of five specific marketing tracks and one general marketing studies option. The marketing tracks are:

- Industrial Marketing
- Retail Marketing
- International Marketing
- Marketing Communication
- Physical Distribution

The general marketing studies option allows the student to tailor make the curriculum to individual needs, to engage in an exploratory study which will provide the basis for future studies, to facilitate access to a wider range of entry-level employment opportunities or to enable the student to relate the curriculum to the needs of a small or family business.

To receive a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration/Marketing the student must successfully complete 18 credits in one of the five marketing tracks or the general marketing option as follows:

Industrial Marketing Track

Required:
- 6600:360 Industrial Marketing 3 credits
- 6600:370 Purchasing 3 credits
- 6600:380 Sales Management 3 credits
- 6600:460 Marketing Research 3 credits

Electives:
- 6600:320 Physical Distribution 3 credits
- 6600:330 Management of Marketing Channels 3 credits

College of Fine and Applied Arts

Gerard L. Knieter, Ed.D., Dean
Kelvie Comer, Ed.D., Assistant Dean

Objectives

The purpose of the College of Fine and Applied Arts is to further the objectives of the University by providing a quality program of undergraduate and graduate education in the artistic, technological, clinical and studio experience in speech, the dramatic arts, music, social welfare, the visual arts and the family life arts, as well as:

- To maintain curricula for the preparation of a student majoring in these areas.
- To prepare a student for graduate study and career opportunities on a professional competence level.
- To provide instruction designed to meet specific curricular needs of all the colleges of the University.
- To serve the elective interests of the student seeking diversity; enrichment in academic programs.
- To encourage the development of technical knowledge and professional skills which underlie the communicative functions of human expression.
- To nurture and expand, through this congregation of the arts, not only a knowledge of man's creative and cultural heritage but also a perceptual and aesthetic awareness of direct sensory experience through creation and performance.

The college recommends each student for the appropriate bachelor's or master's degree in accordance with the student's specialization.

College Requirements

Requirements for Admission

To be admitted to the College of Fine and Applied Arts, the student must have completed at least 30 credits of work with at least a 2.00 grade-point average or above and have the approval of the dean. A student transferring to the Department of Art from another institution must submit a portfolio of his work for approval before admission. A student transferring from another college or institution into the Department of Music must submit to a departmental placement examination.

Requirements for Baccalaureate Degrees

- University requirements in the section on "Requirements for Graduation," Section 3 of this Bulletin.
- Departmental requirements listed below.
- Electives which may consist of any courses offered for credit in the University's four-year degree programs, provided that the prerequisites as set forth in this Bulletin are met, and further provided that not more than two credits of physical education activities, eight credits of applied music or four credits of music organizations are included. (Credit limitations on applied music and music organizations do not apply to the Bachelor of Music degree.) While credits from another institution or college may be accepted, application toward graduation will depend upon the nature of the student's program of study.
- The recommendation of the head of the student's major department.
- Demonstrated ability to use English. One other language depending upon the degree program.

Degrees

The following baccalaureate degrees are granted in the College of Fine and Applied Arts:

Bachelor of Arts
Bachelor of Arts in Dietetics
Bachelor of Arts in Foods and Nutrition
Bachelor of Arts in Textiles and Clothing
Bachelor of Arts in Family and Child Development
Bachelor of Arts in Communicative Disorders
Bachelor of Arts in General Speech
Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts
Bachelor of Arts in Mass Media-Communication
Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Rhetoric
Bachelor of Arts in Ballet
Bachelor of Arts/Social Work
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Fine Arts

Major Field

To qualify for graduation, a student must earn a major in the work of a department of the college. The major consists of from 24 to 62 credits in addition to the required General Studies and, in the case of the Bachelor of Arts degree, foreign language courses. Part or all of these credits may be taken in specifically required courses depending upon the major chosen. The longer and more professionally-oriented majors should be started during the first or second year when the student is still under the guidance of the Office of Student Services. The shorter majors need not be declared before the student is ready for transfer to the college.

The exact requirements for each major will be found on the following pages in the section headed "Programs of Instruction." Some departments offer more than one type of major. No minor is required, but in some cases the major includes certain courses in other departments. At the time of admission to the college, the student is assigned an adviser by the department head.

Bachelor of Arts in Dietetics

Both the Coordinated Undergraduate Program (C.U.P.) in general dietetics and the traditional program in general dietetics lead to a Bachelor of Arts degree. The traditional program requires an approved internship following graduation (or an advanced degree) to become eligible for membership in the American Dietetic Association (A.D.A.) and for the registration examination. C.U.P. integrates clinical experiences within the junior and senior years, allowing A.D.A. membership and registration after graduation from the four-year program. Information regarding applying to the C.U.P. in dietetics is provided in 7400:281 Introduction to Dietetics.

Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Rhetoric
- General Studies — 39 credits.
- Departmental core curriculum — 12 credits.
- Concentration in general speech, mass media-communication or communication and rhetoric — 24-26 credits.
- A related sequence either from departmental offerings or offerings of other departments, approved by the student's adviser — 14 credits.

Areas of Concentration

General Speech
This program is designed for the student who wishes to become a speech communication "generalist," pursue a secondary school teaching career or is initially uncertain about a more specialized concentration.
In addition to the core curriculum (12 credits), the student must complete a minimum of 26 credits in a speech distribution requirement. At least six of those credits must be earned in each of the following three areas: (1) the departmental concentration in communication and rhetoric, (2) the departmental concentration in mass media-communication, and (3) the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance.

Mass Media-Communication
This program introduces the student to the theory and production techniques and capabilities needed to pursue a career in radio or television broadcasting, film or print or electronic journalism. The skills learned may be applied to related fields, including an emphasis within the department on organizational communication.
In addition to the core curriculum (12 credits) the student must complete a minimum of 24 credits within the department. The following are suggested:

Other recommended courses include:
- 7600:384 Speech-Communication Research I 2
- 7600:392 Speech in America 3
- 7600:483 Survey of Broadcast Station Departments 3
- 7600:484 Regulations in Mass Media 3

Electives should include at least 12 credits in a related field.

Communication and Rhetoric
This program provides training in all aspects of the theory and practice of oral communication. Coursework is available in communication theory, group dynamics, interpersonal communication, persuasion and propaganda analysis, classical through contemporary rhetoric, argumentation, the history of public discourse and public address. Many majors prepare for careers in teaching, public administration, public relations, politics, law, business or industrial/organizational communication.
In addition to the core curriculum (12 credits) the student must complete 26 credits from departmental offerings. The following are suggested:
7600: Mass Media-Communication
effective fall 1982

Bachelor of Arts
- General Studies and second year of a foreign language — 53 credits.
- Departmental core curriculum — 18 credits.

- Bachelor of Arts in Ballet

- General Studies program and second year of a foreign language — 53 credits.††
- Departmental core curriculum — 10 credits.
- Core curriculum:
  - 7800:124 Introduction to Theatre
  - 7800:126 Oral Interpretation
  - 7800:261 Introduction to Theatre
  - 7800:372 Acting

Areas of Concentration

Ballet

The ballet major is designed for the student who wishes to continue professional training in dance with the Bachelor of Arts degree. It is expected that the student will be able to work as a performer or teacher on a professional level upon completion of the degree.

Admission to the program is by audition only. Every student must pass a sophomore jury in ballet technique at the end of two years' study in order to be admitted to upper-division standing in the ballet area. All students are required to study ballet technique every semester they are enrolled in and to complete two semesters of Ballet Technique IV for graduation.

Upon entering the program, the student is placed at that level of ballet technique the faculty feels will ensure progress. In some cases, a student may be required to audit the level below the one in which he is placed in order to do remedial work on those aspects of basic technique that need attention.

Depending on progress and previous training the time needed to complete the degree may be longer or shorter than four years. Please see the area director of ballet for further explanation.

A minimum of 63 credits should be earned in the first two years. The following courses should be completed by the end of the sophomore year.

- General Studies (lower division) — 27 credits.
- Major field:
  - 7800:115 Dance as an Art Form
  - 7800:116,7 Ballet Analysis I and II
  - 7800:122,2 Ballet Technique I and II
  - 7800:229,329 Contemporary Technique
  - 7800:316 Choreography I
  - 7800:317 Choreography II
  - 7800:416,7 Choreography: Sound and Movement

†† The student in Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts and Bachelor of Arts in Ballet program substitutes a related sequence of 14 additional credits either from departmental offerings or offerings of other departments, approved by the student adviser for the second year of a foreign language.
Sophomore jury taken by all majors at the end of two years' study.

Must be completed during the last two years:
• General Studies (upper division) — 12 credits.
• Major field:

Theatre Arts

The concentration is designed to prepare the student for competency in all areas of theatre — acting and directing, theatre history and criticism and technical theatre — in order that the student can acquire the skills to teach theatre courses, to undertake graduate work in theatre or to undertake professional postbaccalaureate work hoping to enter professional theatre.

In addition to the core of 10 credits, the student must complete 45 credits from departmental offerings including the following:

Electives (in consultation with the student's adviser) 16

Through consultation with an adviser, the student may wish to follow a program in acting/directing, technical theatre or history/criticism.

*Introduction to Music Theory is not counted towards credits in a degree program for course majors. However, a student has the option of taking an entrance test to be exempted from it.
A student with no voice training or background should take voice credit in the class voice. Those with some training or background should take applied voice (check department for audition for placement in either 024 or 124).
College of Nursing

Lillian J. DeYoung, R.N., Ph.D., Dean

Philosophy

The College of Nursing,* an integral part of The University of Akron, accepts the responsibility for promoting the general mission of the University, which is the dissemination and pursuit of knowledge, the nurturing of intellectual curiosity, the search for truth and a conscious effort to serve the (nursing) student in the urban community.

The primary focus of professional nursing is man; a complex, holistic being having physiological, psychological, social, spiritual and cultural dimensions. Man is unique and universal. Man is further defined as a thinking, interacting, adapting, valuing being constantly in the process of becoming and whose goal is self-actualization. Man is an ecological being who affects and is affected by the total environment. The individual is a part of a diverse and dynamic society which possesses structure. As such, man functions as a facilitator of thoughts, values, beliefs, attitudes and actions which affect the health care system.

Health is viewed as a purposeful adaptive response to internal and external stimuli in order to maintain stability. Diminished health is viewed as a disturbed adaptive response which results in disequilibrium and inability to utilize effectively the usual health-promoting resources. Health and the various degrees of health are viewed as a continuum. Quality health care is the right of individuals, families, groups and communities. Consumers of health care are participants in the decisions which affect their status on the health/diminished health continuum.

The goal of the professional nurse is to assist individuals, families, groups and communities to attain, maintain and/or regain an optimal level of health and to be supportive when optimal levels of health cannot be achieved. Professional nursing practice is germane to any setting where health maintenance or support is a goal.

The professional practitioner utilizes the nursing process as a series of progressive steps which unite nursing action with critical thinking, integration of knowledge and decision making. This process is a dynamic methodology which is scientifically based and goal-directed with feedback mechanisms in the form of continuous evaluation and modification. The professional nurse utilizes theories and research from nursing and other disciplines to add to the body of nursing knowledge and to improve health care services to clients. The professional nurse is accountable to clients and colleagues in the health professions and accepts responsibility for quality nursing care in any environment.

The emerging role of the professional nurse includes the exercise of social responsibility and independence in decision making processes which affect the delivery of nursing care within the existing and changing social system. An important dimension of the emerging role of the professional nurse is to support the client who assumes the responsibility for making those decisions necessary for optimal health.

The faculty views general education at the baccalaureate level as the base for rational thinking, which provides the student with an inquiring approach to life and self with an opportunity to become a contributing member of the community.

Baccalaureate nursing education provides opportunities for a student to apply concepts, knowledge and skills from the biologic, social, behavioral sciences and nursing science to professional practice. This education prepares a generalist who is capable of practicing in any environment and provides a foundation for research, continued study and leadership. Research is viewed as a quest for new knowledge pertinent to an identified area of interest through the application of the scientific process. Leadership is viewed as the ability to facilitate the movement of a person, group, family or community toward the establishment and attainment of a goal.

The faculty defines education as a life-long process which implies that the concept of learning is an essential part of the educational process. The student and faculty work in concert to achieve learning goals. The student is self-directed in meeting learning goals. Both faculty and students have a responsibility to collaborate in the planning, implementation and evaluation of the education program.

It is the faculty's responsibility to facilitate an environment conducive to learning. A student has varied experiences and needs, therefore, the educational program must make provisions for the learner's individuality which includes variable progression and opportunities to practice new behaviors. The faculty recognizes that positive reinforcement motivates learning and, therefore, endeavors to design experiences with expectations for success.

Objectives

The undergraduate program in nursing is designed to prepare the graduate to do the following:

• Utilize the nursing process to move the client toward a higher level of functioning, to maintain stability, to restore equilibrium and/or to be supportive when optimal levels of health cannot be achieved.

• Initiate and/or adapt to changes affecting the health care system.

*The basic collegiate program is approved by the State of Ohio Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration and is accredited by the National League for Nursing.
• Accept responsibility for own nursing interventions and be accountable to clients and colleagues in the health professions for nursing practice.
• Demonstrate personal growth by participating in self-directed learning activities.
• Utilize relevant nursing theories and concepts from the physical, biologic, social and behavioral sciences in the application of the nursing process.
• Utilize political, cultural and social processes to affect the health of man and his environment.
• Utilize research findings to promote the practice of nursing and to extend nursing research.
• Utilize leadership skills for the advancement of professional nursing and health care.
• Share in the responsibility for optimal health care of clients by collaborating, consulting and coordinating with clients and members of the health team.
• Clarify own values in relation to nursing practice.
• Utilize concepts from human ecology in the practice of nursing.

Admission

Four classifications of students will be considered for admission to the College of Nursing: a) the generic student (entering freshman), b) the registered nurse, c) the postbaccalaureate student and d) the transfer student from other colleges and universities. A transfer student may receive credit for work earned in approved colleges. Enrollment of a transfer student is contingent upon availability of University facilities.

A registered nurse (R.N.) who receives preparation in hospital or associate degree programs is evaluated individually. An R.N. student is expected to meet the same course requirements as the generic student and those of The University of Akron. It is expected that the registered nurse will want to challenge by examination and receive credit for selected nursing courses.

A student who wishes to be considered for admission must meet the following requirements.
• Complete all University College requirements and College of Nursing prerequisites (see program of studies for freshman and sophomore year of the College of Nursing).
• Have a 2.50 grade-point average or better.

All applicants will be considered at once and will be selected each spring. Applicants will be rank ordered from the highest grade-point average (G.P.A.) to 2.50. Therefore, it cannot be assured that having a G.P.A. of 2.50 will guarantee admission to the college. A student will be notified of provisional admission to the College of Nursing prior to fall scheduling requirements and will be given final approval at the end of spring semester.

The top 180 students will be selected, 90 of whom will begin in the summer and 90 in the fall. An alternate list of 20 students will be selected to take the place of students who choose not to continue at The University of Akron College of Nursing. All remaining applicants will be rank ordered for an inactive alternate list. Applications for the College of Nursing are only effective for the current academic year.

Acceptance of the student into the College of Nursing is the responsibility of the dean in consultation with the dean of the University College and the Admissions Committee of the College of Nursing. Admission to the program in nursing does not guarantee the student's placement in the nursing courses at the time the student may wish to pursue them. The college reserves the right to approve admission to those individuals whose abilities, attitudes and character promise satisfactory achievement to the college objectives.

Reapplying to the College of Nursing

Any student not enrolled in nursing courses for one or more semesters may request re-entry by the mid-term prior to the semester desired by writing to the Student Admissions, Promotion and Retention Committee. The letter must include the student's social security number, the reasons for the drop out and the date of desired re-entry. The committee will meet, will evaluate the situation and communicate the decision to the student by letter.

Probation and Retention

A student must achieve and maintain a grade-point average of 2.50 or higher on a 4.00 scale in the nursing major. A student who fails to maintain the 2.50 average will be placed on probation. Failure to raise the average to 2.50 in a period of two terms will result in dismissal from the program.

A student receiving a "D" or "F" in any clinical nursing course (theory and/or practice) will be required to repeat the course. A student may repeat the course only once.

Upon completion of the repeated course, the student shall withdraw from the College of Nursing if a grade of 2.50 is not attained. The student may not apply for re-admission for at least one semester.

A student may be on probation only twice in the College of Nursing, and each academic probation period is to be no longer than one semester.
Requirements for Graduation

- Complete all University requirements as listed in Section 3 of this Bulletin.
- Complete a minimum of 131 semester credits toward the degree and earn a minimum of 2.50 grade-point average in the nursing major and a 2.00 grade-point average for all collegiate work attempted at The University of Akron.
- Complete all courses required in the Program of Study for Nursing Students.

Northeastern Ohio Universities
College of Medicine

William A. Rogers, Ed.D., Liaison Officer

History and Purpose of the College of Medicine

The Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine was created by an act of the 110th General Assembly of Ohio and was officially established as a new public institution of higher learning on November 23, 1973. The College of Medicine is governed by a board of trustees appointed by the boards of trustees of The University of Akron, Kent State University and Youngstown State University. All three universities are accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The College of Medicine is presently classified as a "Medical College of Development" by the Association of American Medical Colleges and the Council on Medical Education of the American Medical Association. The college was established to provide new opportunities in medical education by preparing well qualified physicians who are oriented to the practice of medicine at the community level, especially primary care and family medicine.

Admission

High school seniors and recent high school graduates, having demonstrated appropriate academic competence and motivation toward a career in medicine, will be considered for admission into year one of the program. These students, who have not attended college, should write to the Office of Admissions, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325 for application forms. Complete application indicating interest in the Phase I, B.S./M.D. Program and return prior to December 31.

Other applicants with a conventional college background, including premedical requirements and at least three years of college-level work, will be considered by the College of Medicine for admission to Phase II (year three of the program). These students should contact the College of Medicine, Rootstown, OH 44272, for application to Phase II, or year three of the six-year program. Applicants to Phase II should have taken the new M.C.A.T. test by May.

Program

The curriculum* requires that the student be enrolled for 11 months in each of six academic years. The first two years (Phase I) are spent on one of the university campuses. The coursework during this period focuses chiefly on studies in the humanities and basic premedical sciences but will also include orientation to clinical medicine. Progress through Phase I will be based on academic performance and development of personal maturity appropriate to assumption of professional responsibility. The Phase I Academic Review and Promotion Committee, including University and College of Medicine faculty, will assess these factors and will recommend the Phase I student for promotion and formal admission to Phase II, or the third year of the program.

The third year of study is devoted primarily to the basic medical sciences, e.g., anatomy, physiology, microbiology, etc., and will be conducted at the Basic Medical Sciences Campus in Rootstown.

In years four, five and six, the student will develop competence in the clinical aspects of medicine through instruction provided principally at one or more of the associated community hospitals. The student will return to the University campus for part of one term in each of these last three years to complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree at that university by enrolling in courses in the humanities and social sciences.

Successful completion of the six-year program leads to the award of the Bachelor of Science degree by one of the universities and the Doctor of Medicine degree by the College of Medicine.

Cost

Normal undergraduate fees will be assessed for years one and two. Fees for years three through six are set by the College of Medicine Board of Trustees and are commensurate with those at publicly supported medical schools elsewhere in this state.

Location

The Northeastern Ohio Universities Basic Medical Sciences Building is located on S.R. 44 in Rootstown just south of the I-76 intersection, across from the Rootstown High School.

*See B.S.M.D. Program, Section 4 of this Bulletin for a description of the requirements for the Bachelor of Science part of this program.
University Honors Program

Arno K. Lepke, Ph.D., Master

Introduction

The University of Akron's Honors Program is designed to recognize and to support the highly motivated and achievement-oriented student in any major program. In order to help the participant discover the inherent potential, capabilities and sense of direction this unique learning experience emphasizes a close student-faculty relationship.

Admission

The requirements for admission to the University Honors Program are:

• A high school grade-point average of 3.50 or better.
• Scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Test (ACT) which place the applicant in the 90th percentile or higher of freshman college norms in the field of interest.
• An interview with a member of the University Honors Council.
• Enrollment in a baccalaureate degree program.

For information on the annual deadline for applications call (216) 375-7423 or the Office of Admissions (216) 375-7100.

Program

General Studies

An honors student is not required to complete the General Studies except for physical education. Instead, each student completes an individualized distribution requirement which includes a balanced amount of diversified coursework in the humanities, the social sciences and the natural sciences. The major objective of this requirement is to expose the student to a broad spectrum of knowledge which is both reasonable and appropriate to the student’s major field. The student and preceptor plan the components of this requirement which is subject to the approval of the Honors Council.

Colloquia

Beginning at the sophomore level, an honors student attends one colloquium per year: one in the humanities; another in the social sciences; the third in the natural sciences. These one-semester, two-credit lecture and discussion sessions are interdisciplinary in scope. They provide an opportunity for all honors students to meet together and to explore the breadth and the interrelations of academic studies. The intent of these colloquia is to provide significant insights, especially in areas which lie outside the student’s major field and may have been excluded from the previous sphere of intellectual curiosity.

Major Requirements

An honors student completes all requirements for a departmental or divisional major. If honors work exists in the major department, at least one of the contributing honors courses must be completed.

A faculty preceptor serves as a special adviser for the student in each department. The preceptor assists in the development of the student's major program, the selection of courses which are appropriate for the distribution requirement and in all other aspects of academic and professional planning.

Senior Honors Project

The honors student is expected to complete a senior honors thesis, an original or creative work which reflects the student’s area of interest in the major field. This senior project may well become the basis for a future master’s thesis in graduate school. Study abroad or field experience may be recognized as part of the project.

The citation “University Scholar” will appear on the diplomas and the transcripts of the student who completes the University Honors Program. At commencement exercises, they will be properly recognized as University Scholars.
Other Features

Scholarships

An honors student who maintains a minimum 3.25 cumulative grade-point average is eligible for substantial honors scholarships which are renewable annually.

Acceleration

To meet degree requirements, an honors student may use credits awarded for satisfactory achievement on Advanced Placement high school tests (A.P.), the College Level Examination Program (C.L.E.P.) and/or other approved placement procedures — including bypass credits — to a maximum of 20 credits. Credits may also be earned through “credit by examination” when approved by the department in which the examination is to be administered.

Open Classroom

An honors student may attend undergraduate classes or lectures for which the student is not formally enrolled. Free access is available.

Access to Graduate Courses

With the permission of the student’s preceptor and the instructor, an honors student may be enrolled in graduate courses for either undergraduate or graduate credit. This provision applies especially to graduate courses which may be of immediate benefit to the completion of the senior honors project and/or the specific requirements for a given research paper.

Credit/Noncredit Option

Upon completion of one-half of all degree requirements, an honors student may enroll in one course per semester on a credit/noncredit basis. All elective credits thus earned are not considered in calculating grade-point average, but they count as credits completed toward graduation requirements.

University Honors Council

Seven faculty members representing the degree-granting colleges and two honors students serve on the University Honors Council which regularly reviews existing policies and introduces such additional and/or innovative options as may be desirable in response to manifest needs.
Interdisciplinary and Certificate Programs of Study

Overview

In order to add to the dimensions of the traditional disciplines, the University has established 17 interdisciplinary and interdepartmental programs of study. In addition to a major, the student may elect to pursue one of these programs which will add a dimension of depth through concentrated work focusing on Afro-American studies, cartographic specialization, environmental studies, peace studies, planning, Latin American studies, Soviet area studies, computer science, real estate, mid-careers in urban studies, life-span development: adulthood and aging, public policy, interior design, linguistic studies or life-span development: gender identity and roles.

Upon completion of any of these programs, a statement will be placed on the student's permanent record indicating the area of concentration. The certificate indicating the area of concentration will be awarded when the student completes requirements for a degree.

All programs are open to undergraduates except those so noted. Further information may be obtained from the following:

- Afro-American Studies, Mr. Neal Holmes, Assistant Director of Afro-American Studies
- Cartographic Specialization, Dr. Allen Noble, Head, Department of Geography
- Computer Science, Dr. William Bayer, Head, Department of Mathematical Sciences
- Environmental Studies, Dr. James Jackson, Director of Environmental Studies
- Interior Design, Mrs. Carolyn Albarese, Assistant Professor of Home Economics
- Latin American Studies, Dr. Hugo Lijeron, Program Coordinator of Latin American Studies
- Linguistic Studies, Dr. Arthur Palacas, Assistant Professor of English
- Peace Studies, Dr. Warren Kuehlt, Director, Center for Peace Studies
- Planning City or Regional Resource Studies, Dr. Allen Noble, Head, Department of Geography
- Real Estate, Mr. James Nolte, Coordinator of Real Estate Program
- Secretarial Science, Mrs. Anne West, Coordinator of Secretarial Science
- Soviet Area Studies, Dr. Theodore Mackow, Program Coordinator of Soviet Area Studies
- Life-Span Development: Adulthood and Aging, Dr. Harvey Sterns, Director
- Life-Span Development: Gender Identity and Roles, Dr. Harvey Sterns, Director and Mrs. Faye Dambrot, Assistant Professor of Psychology and Administrative Assistant
- Public Policy, Dr. Carl Lieberman, Chairman, Coordinating Committee, Public Policy

Afro-American Studies

Requirements

To satisfy the requirements for the certificate in Afro-American studies, a student at The University of Akron must complete at least 11 semester credits and four courses with a 2.00 grade-point average or better from the list of acceptable courses and from other courses identified by the director of Afro-American studies as appropriate to the subject. Among these four courses must be the following:

Research Paper

The research paper will be written under the direction of a faculty member most suitable to the area of concern of the student's research interest; shall be one semester in duration; and shall be approved by that faculty member. The director of Afro-American Studies, in consultation with the faculty member, will approve the topic for the research paper.

A student undertaking the Afro-American Studies Certificate Program must have prior consultation with the director of Afro-American Studies.

*Undergraduate and graduate.
Graduate only.
Cartographic Specialization

This program of professional and scientific education is intended to enhance cartographic training in data handling, analysis and graphic communication of simple and complex geographic data and information. The program is not limited to geography majors and is designed to introduce automated and traditional cartographic skills to the student in a wide spectrum of disciplines offered through the laboratory for cartographic and spatial analysis housed in the Department of Geography. These training opportunities provide for specialized study in the rapidly changing and significant area of cartography as a method of graphic communication. The program is flexible in order to meet the varied backgrounds and interests of the individual student.

In addition to cartographic courses in the Department of Geography, many useful courses are found in other departments. The program is designed to permit the student to combine interesting and useful elements of art, science and technology.

Cartography has a very long and rich history and, while it is eminently practical, has a strong component of theory. For this reason, a student may elect to take cartographic courses simply because they are focused on an interesting and exciting liberal arts subject. Other students choose cartography courses with the thought of increasing their potential of finding a position subsequent to graduation. There is a well documented need for persons trained in cartographic awareness and skills in business, industry and government, as well as the academic community.

Elective Courses

Each student must complete at least seven credits distributed between professional, technical and research offerings in departments other than the Department of Geography. These courses will be selected in consultation with the program’s director. Similar courses completed at other universities, up to five years prior to admission to candidacy, may be approved by the director.

The electives help develop a diverse cartographic skill and perspective which is significant and useful for persons working with data systems management, urban planning and environmental impact studies. To be truly effective and comprehensive in a career, the student must know a variety of professional and technical approaches in order to cope with social, economic, political, geographical, physical design and governmental problems. Selection of courses which duplicate or continue topical interests already well established in a particular student’s background will be discouraged.

Internship

Internship in an agency, firm or office engaged in related graphic and cartographic work; or an internship in the University’s Laboratory for Cartographic and Spatial Analysis.

Final Examination and Defense of Cartographic Works

After the completion of coursework each student undergoes an oral examination covering samples of the student’s cartography, conducted by two members of the department and one from the elective area. Questions cover the specific projects and topics covered in the coursework completed specifically for the program. One week before the scheduled examination, the student submits samples of cartographic work.

The works must be acceptable by the examination committee and reduced photographic copies will be kept for permanent record in the laboratory’s file. After passing the oral examination and the acceptance of the samples of cartography, the student is considered to have completed the program.

A minimum grade of “C” is required in all elective courses taken as part of the certificate program. In the five core courses, an average grade of “B” is required.

Computer Science

Entrance Requirements

To qualify for the Computer Science Certificate Program, a student must be in good academic standing in the major department, must have completed three credits of mathematics in the Department of Mathematical Sciences and must submit to the director of the program a written request for admission to the program. The request will outline the student’s reasons and goals for enrolling in the program. A student undertaking the program must have prior consultation with the director. The area of concentration adds a further dimension of both mathematics and computer science to the student’s major in one of the traditional academic disciplines.
Environmental Studies

Requirements

To qualify for the certificate program, a student must be in good academic standing with the major department and submit to the director a written request for admission. The request will outline the student’s reasons and goals for enrolling in the program.

The student will take a minimum of six courses from a list approved by the committee on environmental studies. Two of these courses will be:

1830:201 Man and the Environment 2
1830:401 Seminar in Environmental Studies 2

The student will be required to select courses from areas other than the major since the purpose of the program is to broaden the student’s background. It is expected that courses from at least two disciplines will be selected.

The student’s plan of study for this certificate will be developed in consultation with an environmental studies adviser; the adviser, if other than the environmental studies director, will be approved by the director.

Interior Design

This certificate program represents a concentration of study in interior design emphasizing an interdisciplinary approach between the Department of Home Economics and Family Ecology and the Department of Art. The program is designed to add another dimension to the four-year baccalaureate degree in clothing and textiles and the four-year baccalaureate degree in graphic design. The certificate program is open to undergraduates in other disciplines as well as persons with baccalaureate degrees from the University or other accredited institutions. The certificate must be issued simultaneously with a baccalaureate degree or to those already holding a baccalaureate degree. The following requirements must be met:

7100:121 Three-Dimensional Design 3
7100:244 Color Concepts 3
7100:282 Architectural Presentations 3
7400:321 Applied Home Furnishings 3

Peace Studies

Requirements

To satisfy the requirements for a certificate in peace studies, an undergraduate student at The University of Akron must complete at least 15 credits from the list of acceptable courses. These must be distributed so that work will be included from three separate departments. The student will major in one of the traditional disciplines, but the area concentration is meant to add a further dimension of depth through concentrated work focusing on peace studies. Where specialized training is relevant to a particular student's interest, alternatives to those on the list of acceptable courses may be approved by the director. A paper or project is to be completed in conjunction with one of the 300/400-level courses chosen and in consultation with the instructor involved. The student undertaking the Peace Studies Certificate Program must have prior consultation with the director of the Center for Peace Studies.

The following two courses are required for everyone in the program:

- 1860:301 Value Concepts on Peace and Mankind | 3
- 3400:340 Peace, War and Mankind | 3

Acceptable Courses

- 1860:300 Special Topics in Peace Studies | 1-3

Planning with an Emphasis on City or Regional Resource Studies

This program is intended to enhance understanding of the planning function and to increase the research and analytical abilities of the person preparing for work in, or who is currently engaged in city, urban, regional, environmental and resource planning. The program is open to the undergraduate, as well as a person with a baccalaureate degree, employed in local agencies doing related work, e.g., urban renewal, community redevelopment, community action, environmental protection and private industry. The person with a degree can enroll as a post-baccalaureate or special student.

Requirements

- Employment or internship in a planning agency or in an office engaged in related work; or a sincere intention to pursue a professional career in some aspect of government work or planning after graduation.
- A statement by the applicant giving reasons for wishing to participate in the planning certificate program.

Electives

Each student's program (subject to the program director's approval) is to include six elective courses distributed between professional, technical and research offerings. Three courses will be from the professional listing and three from the technical-research listing. In consultation with the program director, elective courses will be selected from University offerings either in the city planning or regional resource planning emphasis areas. Similar courses completed at other universities, up to five years prior to admission to candidacy, may be approved by the director.

The intent of the elective requirements is to facilitate the development of a diverse perspective which is significant for a person who will be or is already engaged in planning for present and changing future urban, regional, environmental, resource, energy and societal needs. The truly comprehensive planner must have academic acquaintance with a variety of professional and technical approaches in order to cope with social, geographical, physical design, economical and governmental problems. Selection of courses which duplicate or continue interests already well established in a student's background will be discouraged.

Project

Upon completion of the core and elective course requirements, the student will take 3350:385 Planning Seminar (one credit). In this seminar the student will produce a final paper covering a city or regional resource planning topic chosen by the student and approved by the director of the program. Each project will be presented to the seminar class and critically analyzed.

A grade of "C" or better is required in all courses undertaken as part of the certificate program. In the five core courses an average grade of "B" is required.

Real Estate

Requirements

The certificate program in real estate augments the business management technology (real estate) associate degree program. It is a professional education program designed to enhance the student's understanding of real estate as a product, a process and a profession. The certificate program is open to the person actively engaged in the real estate profession as well as to the graduate and undergraduate at The University of Akron or other accredited institutions.

Core Courses

To satisfy the requirements for a certificate in real estate, a regularly enrolled student at the University must complete the following requirements:

A grade of "C" or better is required in all courses undertaken as part of the program. This certificate does not require the completion of a baccalaureate degree.

Secretarial Science

Administrative Secretarial

Requirements

The administrative secretarial program provides intensive administrative secretarial training in two 15-week semesters. It is designed for the individual who has completed at least two years of college and who wishes to add administrative secretarial skills to enhance career opportunities. Training is provided to type at 50-65 net words-a-minute and to transcribe accurately business correspondence dictated at 70-90 net words-a-minute. The student will develop effective letter writing ability, use new office machines and correlate secretarial skills and administrative ability.

To enroll in this option, a student must have completed at least two years of college.

Word Processing

Requirements

The word processing option is designed to enable the student who has some beginning typing skills to prepare for an entry-level job in word processing. The program is a study of the applied use of word processing procedures and equipment in a simulated word processing office environment. The total work flow of office communications will be covered from input through output. Using automated typewriting equipment, the student will produce office documents from machine transcription, handwritten copy and typed written copy. All courses taken may be applied toward an associate degree in secretarial science.

Soviet Area Studies

Requirements

The student in this program will major in the respective disciplines (economics, geography, history, philosophy, political science and Russian).

In addition to the requirements for the major, the student will take 12 credits in three or more separate disciplines with a concentration in the area of Soviet studies.
Life-Span Development: Adulthood and Aging

This certificate represents a concentration of study involving current knowledge and research in adulthood and aging. It adds another dimension to the knowledge and skills a student is able to offer in the many professions that are becoming specialized in adapting the student's training, research and service to the needs of adults and older adults. This program coordinates the training of personnel in adult development and aging and helps to meet the critical shortage of trained manpower in the field of gerontology.

Admission

To participate in the program, a student should:

- Be formally admitted to The University of Akron as an associate, undergraduate, postbaccalaureate or graduate student.
- Receive permission from the faculty adviser.
- Have an interview with a designated graduate faculty member of the institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology.
- Make formal application to the program.

Program

Graduate*

- Required courses:
  1850:460  Interdisciplinary Seminar in Life-Span Development and Gerontology  1
  1850:695  Practicum/internship  3

- Electives:
  3100:686  Research in the Biology of Aging  3
  3750:620  Methods and Theories of Human Development  4
  3750:727  Psychology of Adulthood and Aging  4

  7750:550  Social Needs and Services: Aging  3
  8200:580  A Survey: Health Care and the Aged  3

Certificate

The certificate will be awarded by the University upon successful completion of the program's requirements together with the appropriate degree. If a student has an acceptable graduate degree, the certificate received at the completion of the program is to be commensurate with the degree held. The graduate curriculum committee of the institute will oversee this certificate program and certify through the director of the institute that all requirements for the certificate have been completed.

Seventeen credit minimum.

*Twelve credit minimum.

†Select a minimum of three courses. A student is required to take two of the three electives outside their major or degree department.
Life-Span Development:
Gender Identity and Roles

This program centers on investigating the origins and functions of gender — the designations male and female — in human life. The primary objective is to provide the student with the opportunity to do multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary investigations of this fundamental aspect of human development. The student examines gender as a biological, psychological, political, sociological, historical and intellectual phenomenon; the biological roots of sexual and gender differences; the ways societies mold these differences into the division between male and female; and the historical changes gender definitions have undergone and their functioning in the contemporary world. By looking at gender, the student looks at human society in a new way. This specialized area of study enriches the student’s major and aids those preparing for human service careers.

Admission

To participate in the program, the student must:

- Be formally admitted to The University of Akron as an undergraduate seeking a baccalaureate degree or as a postbaccalaureate student.
- Make written application to the program after consulting a representative of the major department.
- Receive notification of admission from the director of the institute.
- Have an interview with a faculty member to formulate program. The faculty member thus designated will continue to act as the student’s certificate program adviser until the student has completed the program.

Program

Requirements

- Minimum credits: 16 semester credits.
- Required courses:
  - 1850:300 Perspectives on Gender Identity and Roles 3
  - 1850:493 Independent Study in Gender Identity and Roles 3
- Electives: 12 semester credits.

No more than one course can come from courses offered by a single department including the student’s major department. Only one course of 200-level work will be permitted for elective credit toward the certificate. A course not included in the suggested list may be used for elective credit if the course is appropriate and if the student obtains prior approval from the faculty adviser and the Curriculum Committee of the Institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology.

Certificate

The undergraduate certificate in Life-Span Development: Gender Identity and Roles will be awarded by the University when a student has completed the certificate program requirements and has also completed the requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

Public Policy

This program will assist the person in understanding, formulating and implementing decisions in the public realm. A person who is interested in government service, administration of publicly-supported institutions and the teaching of government at the college level should find such an interdisciplinary program to be of great value.
Admission

A person is eligible for admission to the Graduate Certificate Program in Public Policy if the person has been admitted to graduate study and is pursuing a master’s or doctoral degree in the Departments of Economics, Political Science or Sociology. A student who is pursuing a graduate degree in any other department at The University of Akron may be admitted upon the recommendation of the head of the department in which the student is enrolled.

A student may seek admission to this program by filing an application with the economics, political science or sociology departments. The student schedules courses with the assistance of an adviser in the department where the application has been made.

Requirements

Core:

3700:541 The Policy Process 3 or
3700:670 Seminar in the Administrative Process 3

Four courses from the areas listed below (one course must be in economics and one in sociology):

Economics

3250:531 Labor and Government 3
3250:606 Public Finance 3
3250:616 Economics of Regulation 3
3250:617 Anti-trust Economics 3

3850:650 Research in Community and Area Problems 3
3850:679 Political Sociology 3
3850:686 Population 3
3850:687 Social Change 3

• The student must successfully complete an interdisciplinary seminar in public policy. Each student shall write and present a paper dealing with public policy during the seminar. Faculty members and other persons who have a knowledge of the policy-making process shall make appropriate presentations regarding the formulation and implementation of public policy.

• All persons enrolled in the Graduate Certificate Program in Public Policy must successfully complete 3750:691 Internship in Political Science, a course which will permit a student to gain experience working with public officials, government agencies, political parties or interest groups. A student will normally enroll in this course after having completed at least 12 semester credits of work relating to public policy. A person with extensive administrative or governmental experience may be permitted, with the approval of the student’s adviser, to substitute another course dealing with public policy in place of the Internship in Political Science.

• At least two-thirds of the credits earned for this certificate must be in 600- or 700-level courses. No more than three courses in which the student enrolls, of the seven required for the Graduate Certificate in Public Policy, may also apply toward meeting requirements for a graduate degree at The University of Akron.

• The student must maintain at least a “B” (3.00) average in coursework for the certificate.

Certificate

Upon completion of all requirements for this program and for the graduate degree which each student is pursuing, a participant will be awarded a Certificate in Public Policy from the Graduate School of The University of Akron, and a note of the receipt of this certificate shall be entered on the student’s transcript upon request.

Administration of the Program

The Departments of Economics, Political Science and Sociology shall each annually select a representative for a coordinating committee from among those members of the graduate faculty who have special knowledge or expertise in the area of public policy. The committee shall each year elect one of its members as chairperson. The chairperson shall be responsible for disseminating information about the certificate, certifying that a student has met requirements for the completion of the program and convening members of the coordinating committee whenever appropriate.
Mid-Careers Program in Urban Studies

The program will require the completion of 16 graduate credits in a single area or in several areas in the urban field. Upon the completion of the program, a certificate will be granted.

Admission

A student must satisfy the requirements for entrance in graduate programs or have a bachelor's degree and the equivalent of five years' experience in a professional, administrative or leadership position, in which case the student shall be admitted as a special non-degree student. A student may wish to pursue additional electives. However, a student admitted to this program will be limited to 20 credits. If the student wishes to pursue more than 20 credits, the student must be admitted to the M.A. program in urban studies.

Program

The Mid-Careers Certificate Program in Urban Studies will require the successful completion of a plan of study which must include a minimum of 16 credits of work in existing courses offered by the Department of Urban Studies. The core program and areas of study are listed below. Electives will be chosen in consultation with the adviser from the approved list of courses. Courses offered by other departments will be accepted if they are urban-related and will specifically contribute to the student's objectives.

Higher Education

This certificate program in higher education requires a minimum of 15 credits. The program of studies has been designed to serve the practicing or prospective college or university administrator or instructor.

Admission

All applicants to the program must have previously earned a master's degree. The person wishing to pursue a doctorate in an academic department and concurrently undertaking the certificate program as a cognate or minor must apply to the Graduate School for admission to the academic department and also apply directly to the Center for the Study of Higher Education and must be admitted to both programs. Applicants wishing to pursue only the certificate program must apply to the Graduate School for admission to the Higher Education Certificate Program as a Special Non-Degree student.

Program

Courses and internships in Higher Education are directed toward the study of administrative and academic operations of colleges and universities. Specific program options include: administration, student services, curriculum and instruction. Each of the options requires an internship. In the case of the curriculum and instruction option, a higher education teaching internship developed in conjunction with the student's major academic adviser and the center staff may be anticipated. Internships may be completed at the University or at one of several cooperating institutions.

Evening College

The University of Akron has a rich and historic tradition of service to the student who attends classes after 5 p.m. Evening class offerings run the full range from the Community and Technical College through the Ph.D. level. Through evening and Saturday credit courses, the Evening College keeps its doors open throughout the year.

The Evening College is a continuation of daytime college campus life. Credit courses taken in the evening have the same high academic value and full-time faculty members teach and are available to the student in the evening. Part-time faculty are engaged to augment the full-time faculty; these part-time teachers represent a complete array of academic backgrounds and practical experiences to enrich the quality of coursework.

The president and his top-level administrators and the collegiate deans are vitally concerned and supportive of our effort to serve the needs of the evening student — some 7,500 strong.

Evening Student Council coordinates the extracurricular activities of the Evening College, which are similar to those of the day college and sometimes are part of the daytime activities. Organizations established for the Evening College student include Alpha Sigma Lambda, Scholastic Honorary; Gamma Beta, Evening College Social Sorority; Chi Sigma Nu, Evening College Social Fraternity; Alpha Epsilon, a service honorary dedicated to giving recognition to evening students who have made significant contributions to campus and community; A.W.A.R.E. (Association of Women for Awareness, Recognition and Enterprise); and Nite Life, the publication of the Evening Student Council.

Summer Sessions

The Summer Sessions reemphasizes the urban nature and mission of The University of Akron and the total involvement with our community. Curricular patterns reflect the vibrant interaction between “Town and Gown.”

Summer study satisfies a myriad of student appetites and needs: the regular full-time student accelerating a program, a recent high school graduate, a transfer student from other institutions of higher learning, an older person with life-long learning interests, the part-time student and, equally important, those who rejuvenate their intellectual energies in summer study only.

Summer Sessions serve over 18,000 students, young and old, local and commuting, at all stages from noncredit avocational courses to the professional and Ph.D. levels. Faculty, students, administration and the community each contribute talents and resources to further the dynamics of the academic and cultural process.

Objectives

The purpose of the Graduate School is to provide a quality program of education by the following means:

- Advanced courses in various fields of knowledge beyond the baccalaureate level.
- Opportunities to develop and apply research techniques and to use the resources appropriate to various graduate programs.
- Advancement of knowledge for the student for the benefit of mankind through the efforts of its faculty and students.

The Nature of Graduate Education

The Graduate School provides a qualified student with education which may be required for the full development of scholarly and professional capacities, subject to the criteria developed by graduate departments.

Graduate education involves the extension of knowledge. However, it is by no means a mere continuation of undergraduate study. At its best, graduate education is characterized by an able and enthusiastic advanced student who joins faculty leaders to form a community of scholars dedicated to the common pursuit of truth. Critical analysis, independence of thought, originality of method, intensity of purpose, freedom from bias, thoroughness of inquiry, keenness of perception and vital creativity combine to produce in the successful student both the professional competence and the breadth of understanding essential to leadership in many areas of human endeavor.

History of the Graduate School

Graduate study began a few years after Buchtel College opened its doors, and the first earned master's degree was conferred in 1882. The College of Education awarded its first master's degree in 1924, the Colleges of Engineering and Business Administration in 1959, the College of Fine and Applied Arts in 1967 and the College of Nursing in 1979. The Department of Communicative Disorders (previously the Department of Speech), now housed in the College of Fine and Applied Arts, was formerly a part of the Buchtel College and conferred a master's degree in 1963. The first earned doctoral degrees were conferred in 1959. Professor Charles Bulger was appointed first dean of Graduate Work in 1933, and he continued in that capacity until 1950. Professor Ernest H. Cherrington, Jr. served as director of Graduate Studies from 1955 to 1960 and as dean of the Graduate Division from its establishment in 1960 to 1967. Dr. Arthur K. Brin tall was appointed dean of Graduate Studies and Research in 1967, being succeeded in 1968 by Dr. Edwin L. Lively. Dr. Claibourne E. Griffin succeeded Dr. Lively in 1974 and served in that capacity until 1977. Dr. Joseph M. Walton, associate dean of Graduate Studies and Research, was administrative head of the Graduate School during the 1977-78 academic year. Dr. Alan N. Gent is now dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

The administrative functions of the Graduate School include establishment of suitable entrance requirements, admission of a qualified student, maintenance of high-quality instruction and approval of graduation requirements for advanced degrees.

Graduate Program

A qualified student who has completed the baccalaureate program with sufficiently high grades may continue studies through the University's Graduate School in a program leading to the master's degree as well as to the doctor's degree. An undergraduate student who qualifies may enroll in certain graduate-level classes and apply the credits earned to the total required for the baccalaureate degree. To receive graduate credit for the courses, however, the student must first be admitted to the Graduate School.

The Graduate School offers programs of advanced study leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in chemistry, history, polymer science, psychology, sociology, education (elementary, secondary and guidance and counseling) and engineering. The Doctor of Education degree is offered in educational administration. The Doctor of Philosophy program in sociology is a joint program with Kent State University.

The school also offers programs of study leading to the master's degree with majors in the following areas: accounting, biology, business administration (accounting, finance, international business, management, marketing and taxation), chemical engineering, chemistry, civil engineering, communicative disorders, earth science, economics, education (educational foundations, elementary, secondary, multicultural education, physical education, elementary or secondary school principal, school supervisor, local superintendent, counseling, special education, visiting teacher, reading specialist and school psychology) electrical engineering, engineering, English, French, geography, history, home economics and family ecology, management, mass media-communication, mathematics, mechanical engineering, music, nursing, philosophy, physics, politi-
Graduate Faculty and the Graduate Council

The graduate faculty is comprised of those members of the faculty who hold appointments at the rank of assistant professor or above and teach graduate courses, supervise theses and dissertations and are generally responsible for the graduate program in the University. They are appointed by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research after recommendation by the department, college dean and Graduate Council. Guidelines for recommendation and appointment include:

- Quality and experience in upper-level and graduate-level teaching.
- Possession of terminal degree in field.
- Scholarly publication record.
- Activity in research.
- Activity in profession or discipline.

The purpose of the graduate faculty is to encourage and contribute to the advancement of knowledge through instruction and research of highest quality, and to foster a spirit of inquiry and a high value on scholarship throughout the University.

The graduate faculty recommends a student who has been nominated by the student's college faculty for the appropriate master's or doctoral degree.

Graduate Council is elected by the graduate faculty. Membership in the council presently includes two members from the College of Engineering, two members from the College of Business Administration, two members from the College of Education, four members from the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, two members from the College of Fine and Applied Arts, one member from the College of Nursing and one student member elected yearly by the Graduate Student Council. Members serve three-year terms and may not succeed themselves. The dean of Graduate Studies and Research serves as chairman of both the graduate faculty and the Graduate Council.

The functions of the council include examination of proposed graduate programs and course offerings, recommendation of policy for all phases of graduate education, recommendation of persons for membership in the graduate faculty and advising and counseling the dean in administrative matters.

Graduate School Regulations

Student Responsibility

A student assumes full responsibility for knowing the regulations and pertinent procedures of the Graduate School as set forth in this Bulletin. Normally, the degree requirements in effect at the time a student is admitted to a program will apply through graduation. However, if existing programs are revised, the student has the option of pursuing the revised program as long as all requirements in the revised program are met. Additional information pertaining to programs can be obtained from the appropriate department head.

Admission

Every person who desires to enroll in or audit any graduate credit must be first admitted or approved by the Graduate School.

Applications for admission to the Graduate School should be filed in the Office of the Dean at least six weeks before registration (except for applications to the nursing and school psychologist programs, which must be submitted at earlier dates. These two programs have restricted admission; the department heads should be consulted for further information). Each application must be accompanied by an application fee of $20* (unless previously paid). This fee is not refundable under any circumstances. Payment should be made by check or money order payable to The University of Akron.

An official transcript from each college or university attended must also be received by the Graduate School before the application will be processed. This applies to the complete academic record, both undergraduate and graduate. Transcripts should be sent from the institutions attended directly to the Graduate School. The applicant is responsible for seeing that the above conditions are met by the deadlines for filing of application.

All records, including academic records from other institutions, become part of the official file and cannot be returned for any purpose.

An offer of admission will normally be made to an applicant who meets all admission requirements. However, it must be recognized that staff, facilities and other resources are limited, so the number of students accepted will vary among departments and from term to term. An accepted applicant may begin graduate work in the fall, spring or summer semester. The offer of admission is void, however, if the applicant does not register for courses within two years from the time of admission. An individual whose offer of admission has lapsed must submit a new application to be reconsidered.

The student is admitted only for the purpose or objective stated on the application for admission. A new request for admission must be filled when the original objective has been attained or when the student wishes to change objectives. The admitted status terminates when the time limits have been exceeded or other conditions for continued admitted status have not been met.

No student will be admitted without approval and acceptance by a department within the University, but admission to a department does not necessarily imply admission to or candidacy for any graduate degree program in that department. Admission for graduate study in any program can only be granted by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research and staff.

Classification

A student is identified by the Graduate School as being in one of the following categories. Any change must be arranged through the Graduate School.

- Full Admission may be given to any applicant who desires to pursue a graduate degree and has a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with an overall grade-point average of 2.75 or better or 3.00 for the last two years (64 semester credits or equivalent), or holds an advanced degree from an accredited college or university in or appropriate to the intended field; or holds a baccalaureate or master's degree from a foreign college or university with first class standing or its equivalent, plus satisfactory evidence of competence in English. Full admission may also be granted to applicants to the College of Business Administration who meet the college's admission requirements.

- Special Non-Degree Admission may be granted to a person who has not met all of the requirements for full admission, or to a person who wishes to take particular courses but who is not working toward a graduate degree. This admission permits a student to enroll in up to 15 semester credits of graduate coursework. In some cases, it is limited to one semester. Graduate courses taken under this admission status may be applied later to a graduate degree program but only when the requirements for full admission have been met.

- Special Workshop status is for a person permitted to take workshops for graduate credit without being admitted to Graduate School. Such permission is granted by the workshop director upon receipt of a signed statement of possession of a baccalaureate degree by the applicant, and terminates upon completion of this workshop. A student admitted to special workshop status must apply through regular channels for any other category. A maximum of six workshop credits may be applied to degree work at a later date if the applicant is given full admission to the Graduate School.

- Transient status may be given to a person who is a regularly enrolled graduate student in good standing in a degree program at another accredited university and has written permission to enroll at The University of Akron. Such permission is valid only for the courses and semester specified, with a maximum of 10 semester credits allowable, and is subject to the approval of the instructor, department head and Graduate School. A transient student is subject to the same rules and regulations as a regularly enrolled student of the University.

- Undergraduate status is for an undergraduate student at the University who may be granted permission to take one or more graduate-level courses if all the following conditions are met:
  - Senior standing;
  - overall grade-point average of 2.75 or better through preceding term (if a student does not have a 3.00 or better in the major field, special justification will be required);
  - written approval is given by the instructor of the course and the student's adviser. These courses may later be applied to a degree program if not used to satisfy baccalaureate degree requirements. The maximum number of graduate credits that may be taken by an undergraduate and applied later toward a graduate degree is 12.

- Post-Doctoral status is divided into three categories:
  - a Fellow is a person holding an earned doctorate who is engaged in advanced research. A fellow shall be considered a guest of the University and provided space and use of facilities within limits of practical need of the undergraduate and graduate programs. Tuition and fees shall be collected if allowed under sponsoring contract for any courses the fellow may choose to take;
  - a Special is a person holding an earned doctorate's degree who desires an additional graduate degree. A special may be admitted to any program upon submission of application forms, application fee (if new student) and an official transcript from the institution awarding the doctorate. This student will be treated as a regular student subject to registration fees and program degree requirements;
  - a Guest is a person holding an earned doctorate who desires to attend courses and seminars relevant to his work or interests without registering or receiving grades. A written application should be submitted to the dean of Graduate Studies and Research for each course taken, and approval of the instructor, department head and college dean shall be obtained. A guest is welcome to any course or seminar provided space is available. Normally, space and facilities for research cannot be provided for a post-doctoral guest but special requests will be considered. Requests should be submitted, in writing, to the dean of Graduate Studies and Research who will review such requests with the appropriate college dean and department head.

Standards: International Students

An international student is normally admitted only in the fall, and all credentials must be received by the Graduate School by June 1. Inasmuch as The University of Akron, as a state institution, has an obligation to the residents of Ohio, only the best-qualified international applicants can be admitted. An international student seeking admission should not plan to leave the home country until notice of admission has been received from the Graduate School.

An entering graduate student from a country other than the United States and one in which English is not the major language in daily life is required to demonstrate high-level competence in the use of the English language, including reading, writing, speaking and listening. This competence can best be established by achieving a score of at least 550 on the T.O.E.F.L. (the Test of English as a Foreign Language) and submitting it by June 1 for September admission. Because the T.O.E.F.L. is given only four times a year in various parts of the world, an applicant should make arrangements to take the test as soon as he contemplates study at The University of Akron. (T.O.E.F.L. is administered by Educational Testing Service, Box 699, Princeton, NJ 08540; U.S.A.). If the T.O.E.F.L. is not available, the applicant should contact the international student adviser, The University of Akron, for other arrangements. Personal letters certifying English competence are not acceptable as substitutes for test scores.

The completion of an English placement test after admission will also be required. Based on the results of this test, a student may be required to take an English language course for credit.

An international student, coming to The University of Akron in good standing from an accredited American college or university, may have the English proficiency requirement waived upon written request.

Non-Accredited American School Graduates

A student holding a baccalaureate degree from a non-accredited American college or university, if otherwise qualified, is normally required to complete at least 10 semester credits of postbaccalaureate work at a 3.00 level before being considered for admission to the Graduate School. The accreditation status of the school at the time of the student's graduation shall apply. A student should consult with the department head in the major field to develop a postbaccalaureate program.

Grades

A student admitted to graduate study under any status at The University of Akron is expected to maintain a minimum 3.00 average (4.00 = "A") at all times. A grade-point average of 3.00 or better is required for graduation. Any student whose average falls below 3.00 is no longer in good standing in the Graduate School and considered on probation. In computing cumulative averages, "D" grades are treated as "F" grades. The dean of Graduate Studies and Research, with the approval of the department head, may dismiss anyone who fails to make satisfactory progress toward declared goals or who accumulates six semester credits of "C" or below. The accumulation of six semester credits of "F" will result in mandatory dismissal. A student dismissed from the Graduate School for academic reasons may not be readmitted for one calendar year, and then only if evidence for expecting improved performance is submitted and found acceptable.

The grade of "I" (Incomplete) may be given when work required in a course cannot be completed within the semester and there is a good reason for such failure. An "I" must be completed during the next semester a student is enrolled or it is converted to an "F" grade. The grade "IP" (In Progress) is given in research, thesis, master's problems and other courses where work is on a continuing basis. At the time work is completed the "IP" is changed to a letter grade. An "I" or "IP" may, upon application by the student or the instructor, be changed to a "PI" (Permanent Incomplete) when the instructor is satisfied that for reasons beyond the student's control the course cannot be completed. The change from "I" or "IP" to "PI" must be approved by the department head and the dean of the college.

Transfer Students

A graduate student matriculated in the Graduate School of another college or university who wishes to transfer to the University to continue his graduate education must be in good standing at the other school.

---

Course Load

A full load of coursework at the graduate level is normally 9-15 semester credits including audit. A student who is employed should reduce the load in proportion to the extent and obligations of such employment.
Registration

The responsibility for being properly registered lies with the student, who should consult with the assigned adviser in preparing a program of courses and/or research. A schedule of courses, hours, class location and registration procedures is obtainable from the registrar.

Entrance Qualifying Examinations

The use of examinations to determine admisibility to enter a graduate program or eligibility to continue in one is the prerogative of the departments offering graduate programs. The department has the right to select the examination and minimum acceptable level of performance. Information and procedure may be obtained from the head of the appropriate department.

Graduate Fees

All fees reflect charges in 1980-1981 and are subject to change without notice.

Refunds

Regulations regarding refunds are the same as for an undergraduate student.

Commencement

A student earning a graduate degree is expected to participate in the Commencement exercises. A degree candidate who has legitimate reasons for graduating "In Absentia" should make a written request to the registrar within the established dates and pay the designated fee.

Financial Assistance

The University awards a number of graduate assistantships to qualified students. Assistantships are normally awarded for up to two years of master's study and up to four years of doctoral degree study. These assistantships provide a stipend of $3,600 — $5,600, plus remission of tuition and fees, and are available in all departments with graduate degree programs. A graduate assistant renders service to the University through teaching, research and other duties. For information and/or applications, contact the head of the department.

A number of fellowships sponsored by industry and government agencies are available in some departments. Stipends range up to $10,000. For information contact the head of the department.

Information about student loans can be obtained from the Office of Student Financial Aids.

Master's Degree Requirements

Admission

When a student is admitted to graduate study, an adviser is appointed by the head of the major department. A student who is academically qualified in general but deficient in course preparation may be required to make up the deficiencies at the postbaccalaureate level. This may be recommended prior to beginning graduate work, or in some cases, can be done simultaneously.

Residence Requirements

There are no formal residence requirements for the master's degree. A student may meet the degree re-requirements of the Graduate School and the department through either full- or part-time study.

Time Limit

All requirements must be completed within six years after beginning graduate-level coursework at The University of Akron or elsewhere. Extension by up to one year may be granted in unusual circumstances by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research upon written request by the student and recommendation by the adviser and department head.

Credits

A minimum of 30 semester credits of graduate work is required in all master's degree programs. This includes thesis credit. Some departments require more (see departmental requirements). A minimum of two-thirds of the total graduate credits required in any master's program must be completed at the University. A maximum of six workshop credits may be applied to a master's degree. Such credits must be relevant to the degree program, recommended by the student's adviser and approved by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

It should be noted that the requirements listed by department elsewhere in this section refer to the minimum necessary for a degree. It is entirely within the prerogative of the department to assign additional credits of coursework or other requirements in the interest of graduating a fully-qualified student.

No graduate credit may be received for courses taken by examination or for 500-numbered courses previously taken at the 400-number course level as an undergraduate without advance approval from the dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

Transfer

Up to one-third of the total graduate credits required may be transferred from an accredited college or university. All transfer credit must be at the "A" or "B" level in graduate courses. The credits must be relevant to the student's program and fall within the six-year time limit. A University of Akron student must receive prior approval for transfer courses taken elsewhere.

A student seeking to transfer credits must have full admission and be in good standing at The University of Akron and the school in which the credits were achieved. Transfer credit shall not be recorded until a student has completed 12 semester credits at The University of Akron with a grade-point average of 3.00 or better.

Optional Department Requirements

Each department may set special requirements with regard to entrance examinations, qualifying examinations, foreign language, required courses and thesis. Details are available from the head of the major department.

Advancement to Candidacy

A student should apply for Advancement to Candidacy after completion of one-half of the credits required for the degree in the student's program but no later than September 15 for Commencement. Advancement to Candidacy forms are available in the Graduate School or from the department head. Advancement to candidacy will not be granted to a student who is not in good standing.

Graduation

To be cleared for graduation, a candidate must have completed coursework with a minimum average of 3.00; have been advanced to candidacy; filed an application for graduation with the registrar; paid all applicable fees; and met any other department and University requirements applicable.

If a thesis is required, two copies, properly prepared, are due in the Graduate School at least two weeks prior to commencement. These copies must be signed by the adviser, faculty reader, department head and college dean prior to submission to the dean of Graduate Studies and Research. A manual entitled "Preparing a Thesis or Dissertation" is available in the Graduate School and all copies of the thesis must conform to these instructions.

Doctoral Degree Requirements*

A master's degree is not a prerequisite for the doctorate; however, the first year of study after the baccalaureate will be substantially the same for both the master's and doctoral student. No specific number or sequence of courses constitutes a doctoral program or assures attainment of the degree. A formal degree program consists of a combination of courses, seminars and individual study and research that meet the minimum requirements of the Graduate School and those of the committee for each individual student.

*The doctoral program in engineering is an interdisciplinary program offered on a collegiate basis. In the descriptions of University doctoral degree requirements on the following pages, citations of department or departmental faculty should be interpreted as citations of college or collegate faculty with specific reference to the doctoral program in engineering.
Admission

Normally, a student is not officially considered as a doctoral student until completion of a master's program or its equivalent and approval for further study. Departments offering doctoral degree programs review each candidate carefully before recommending admission.

A minimum grade-point average of 3.00 is required for graduation of a candidate for all doctoral degrees.

Residence Requirements

A doctoral student may meet the degree requirements of the Graduate School and department by full-time study or a combination of full- and part-time study.

The minimum residence requirement for a doctoral candidate in all programs is at least two consecutive semesters of full-time study and involvement in departmental activities. Full-time study is defined as 9-15 semester credits, except for graduate teaching and research assistants for whom full-time study is specified by the assistantship agreements. No student holding a full-time job is considered as fulfilling the residence requirement. The summer sessions may count as one semester, provided that the candidate is enrolled for a minimum of ten consecutive weeks of full-time study and for a minimum of six semester credits per five-week session. Programs vary in their requirements beyond the minimum, e.g., credits or courses to be completed, proper time to fulfill the residence requirement and acceptability of part-time employment.

Before a doctoral student begins residency, the student's adviser and the student shall prepare a statement indicating the manner in which the residence requirement will be met. Any special conditions must be detailed and will require the approval of the student's committee, the departmental faculty members approved to direct doctoral dissertations, the collegiate dean and the dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

Time Limit

All doctoral requirements must be completed within 10 years of starting coursework at The University of Akron or elsewhere. This refers to graduate work after receipt of a master's degree or the completion of 30 semester credits. Extensions of up to one year may be granted by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research under unusual circumstances.

Credits

A doctorate is conferred in recognition of high attainment and productive scholarship in some special field of learning as evidenced by the satisfactory completion of a prescribed program of study and research; the preparation of a dissertation based on independent research; and the successful passing of examinations covering the special field of study and the general field of which this subject is a part. Consequently, the emphasis is on mastery of the subject rather than a set number of credits. Doctoral programs generally encompass the equivalent of at least three years of full-time study at the graduate level. A minimum of 50 percent of the total credits above the baccalaureate required in each student's doctoral program must be completed at The University of Akron. A maximum of six workshop credits may be applied to a doctoral degree. Such credits must be relevant to the degree program, recommended by the student's adviser and approved by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

No graduate credit may be received for courses taken by examination or for 500-numbered courses previously taken at the 400-number course level as an undergraduate without advance approval from the dean of Graduate Studies and Research.

Transfer Credits

Up to 50 percent of the total graduate credits above the baccalaureate required in a doctoral program may be transferred from an accredited college or university. All transfer credit must be at the "A" or "B" level in graduate courses. The course must be relevant to the student's program and fall within the ten-year limit if beyond the master's level. A student already admitted to The University of Akron must receive prior approval for transfer courses taken elsewhere.

A student admitted with a master's degree or equivalent will have work evaluated in relation to the student's program to determine transfer credit. Credits transferable for a master's degree holder may be up to 30 semester credits.

A student seeking to transfer credits must have full admission and be in good standing at the University and the school in which the credits were achieved. Transfer credit shall not be recorded until a student has completed 12 semester credits at The University of Akron with a grade-point average of 3.00 or better.

Language Requirements

There is no University-wide foreign language requirement for the Ph.D. The student is required to demonstrate one of the following skills depending upon the particular program.

- Plan A: Reading knowledge, with the aid of a dictionary, of two approved foreign languages. At the discretion of the major department an average of "B" in the second year of a college-level course in a language will be accepted as evidence of proficiency in reading knowledge for that language; English may be considered as one of the approved foreign languages for a student whose first language is not English; and demonstrated competence in a research technique (e.g., statistics and/or computers) may be substituted for one of the two foreign languages. Under the last option, each department should define competence and publicize.

- Plan B: Comprehensive knowledge of one approved foreign language, including reading without the aid of a dictionary and such additional requirements as the department may impose.
- Plan C: In certain doctoral programs (counseling and guidance, elementary education, engineering, psychology, secondary education) the demonstration of competence in appropriate research skills may serve as a substitute for the foreign language requirements.

Optional Department Requirements

Each department may determine requirements for a doctoral student with regard to entrance examinations, qualifying examinations, preliminary or comprehensive examinations and course sequences.

Advancement to Candidacy

A student must apply for Advancement to Candidacy by September 1 for Commencement. Applications for Advancement to Candidacy will not be accepted by the dean of Graduate Studies and Research until a substantial portion of the degree requirements have been completed. A student must be in good standing to be advanced to candidacy.

Dissertation and Oral Defense

The ability to do independent research and demonstrate competence in scholarly exposition must be demonstrated by the preparation of a dissertation on some topic related to the major subject. It should represent a significant contribution to knowledge, be presented in a scholarly manner, reveal the candidate's ability to do independent research and indicate experience in research techniques.

A doctoral dissertation committee supervises and approves the dissertation and administers an oral examination upon the dissertation and related areas of study. This examination is open to the graduate faculty. The dissertation and oral examination must be approved by the committee before the student is submitted to the Graduate School. Two copies of the dissertation are due in the Graduate School at least two weeks prior to Commencement. These copies must be signed by the adviser, faculty reader, department head and college dean prior to submission to the dean of Graduate Studies and Research. A manual entitled Guidelines for Preparing a Thesis or Dissertation is available in the Graduate School and all copies of the dissertation must conform to these instructions.

Graduation

To be cleared for graduation, a candidate must have completed the academic program with a grade-point average of at least 3.00; have been advanced to candidacy; submitted an approved dissertation and passed an oral examination; filed an application for graduation with the registrar; paid all applicable fees; and met any other department and University requirements.
Doctor of Philosophy in History

The Doctor of Philosophy degree in history is granted primarily for high scholarly achievement in four fields of study selected by the student and for demonstrated ability to pursue independent research. Each student must:

- Fulfill admission requirements of the School.

Admission will not usually be considered unless the applicant has a master's degree, or the equivalent, with a grade-point average of "B" from an accredited institution. Those holding master's degrees from The University of Akron or other accredited institutions should not assume automatic permission to pursue doctoral studies. Prior to admission to the doctoral program, the applicant must present evidence of the likelihood of success in advanced study. A personal letter from the applicant and three letters of recommendation from former professors are required to support an application for admission to the doctoral program. Special admissions examinations may also be required.

Prior to admission to doctoral study, the applicant must present evidence of a reading knowledge of one relevant foreign language, or knowledge of another research skill such as statistics or computer techniques. Those whose native tongue is not English must demonstrate proficiency in English.

After a student has completed at least 12 credits beyond the master's degree at the University, he must apply to the Department of History for qualified status provided that his grade-point average in all graduate work is better than "B." If any doubt exists about the student's ability at this time, the department may require an examination.

After advancement to qualified status, the student, in consultation with the director of Doctoral Studies in history, will reach a final decision upon the fields the student wishes to offer for the comprehensive examinations and any additional research skills needed. At this point assignment of a major professor who shall direct the student's dissertation shall be made. The student's doctoral committee, to be chaired by the major professor, will also be appointed.

- Complete studies selected by the student in consultation with an advisory committee, including:
  - completion of 60 credits beyond master's degree requirements, including dissertation credit;
  - demonstration of competency in four fields of study selected from the following areas: ancient, medieval, modern Europe to 1815, modern Europe since 1789, England and the Empire, United States to 1865, United States since 1865, Latin America, Far East, (one of the four fields may be in the cognate area outside of history);
  - satisfactory performance in written and oral comprehensive examinations;

Doctor of Philosophy in Chemistry

In addition to satisfying the general requirements of the Graduate School, a student working toward the Doctor of Philosophy degree in chemistry must meet the following requirements:

- Take proficiency exams in organic, inorganic, physical and analytical chemistry. Results of these exams will be used for diagnostic purposes.
- Complete a course of study designed and accepted by the student's advisory committee. This course of study shall consist of a program deemed suitable to prepare the student in a designated area of chemistry and shall consist of a minimum of 24 credits in graduate courses. Eight credits per semester shall be considered a normal load. At least 12 credits of graduate coursework and all dissertation credits must be completed at the University.
- Earn credit for a dissertation, to be established by enrollment in 3150:899, such that course credits plus dissertation credits total at least 84 credits (exclusive of Master of Science credit).
- Pass cumulative examinations given approximately monthly. The candidate is urged to begin to take these examinations early in the graduate program and must pass seven cumulative exams, six written and one oral to meet the degree requirement.
- Pass an oral examination upon completion of the research dissertation.
- Pass the general requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree.
Doctor of Philosophy in Polymer Science

An interdisciplinary program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy in polymer science is administered by the Department of Polymer Science. Graduates from the three main disciplines (chemistry, physics and engineering) are guided into the appropriate courses of study and research in that field under the supervision of a staff member. Research facilities of the Institute of Polymer Science are available for thesis research.

In addition to satisfying the general requirements of the Graduate School, a student working toward the Doctor of Philosophy degree in polymer science must meet the following requirements:

- Complete a course of study prescribed by the student's advisory committee, based on the committee's judgment of the student's background and on the result of any special examinations they might impose. This course will consist of a minimum of, but usually more than, 36 credits in graduate courses, as outlined below, or their equivalent. At least 12 credits of graduate coursework and all dissertation credits must be completed at the University.
- Credit for a dissertation, to be established by enrollment in 3940:899 such that course credits plus dissertation credits total 84 credits (exclusive of Master of Science thesis credit).
- Pass eight cumulative examinations which are given at intervals during the academic year. The candidate is urged to begin these examinations early in the graduate program.
- Pass an oral examination upon completion of the research dissertation.
- Pass the general requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology

The Department of Psychology offers a doctoral degree in psychology with specialization in industrial/organizational psychology, developmental psychology, industrial gerontological psychology or counseling psychology.

A degree will be awarded to a student who, besides fulfilling the general requirements, has met the following specific requirements:

- Fulfill admission requirements of the Graduate School and department requirements.
- Completion of master's degree including 30 graduate credits.
- Completion of master's core courses or equivalent.
- Attainment of a graduate grade-point average (G.P.A.) of 3.25.
- Completion of Graduate Record Examination Aptitude and Advanced Psychology Test.
- Completion of Miller Analogies Test (M.A.T.).
- Securing of three letters of recommendation.
- Successful performance on Department of Psychology first-year examination.

- Major field: A minimum of 90 graduate credits including a 30-credit master's program. A student may be required to complete additional credits beyond the 90 minimum credit requirement.
- Completion of Ph.D. core courses in industrial/organizational, developmental, industrial gerontological psychology or counseling psychology. Core courses are specified in the Department of Psychology Graduate Student Manual. The student is required to maintain at least a 3.00 G.P.A. in core courses.
- Completion of additional required and elective courses to be planned in conjunction with the student's faculty adviser and subject to approval by the department industrial/organizational, developmental, industrial gerontological or counseling psychology committees.

- Written comprehensive examinations:
  - Satisfactory performance on doctoral written and oral comprehensive examinations in the major area of industrial/organizational psychology, developmental psychology, industrial gerontological psychology or counseling psychology (refer to the department's Graduate Student Manual).

- Dissertation research:
  - Completion of 3750:899 Dissertation Research.
  - Satisfactory performance on final oral examination and defense of dissertation research.

- Other requirements:
  - Refer to the department's Graduate Student Manual for other requirements or guidelines.
  - Complete and fulfill general doctoral degree requirements of Graduate School.
Doctoral language requirements or appropriate alternative research skills and techniques may be prescribed by the student's advisory committee, depending upon the career plans of the student and upon the academic and/or scientific requirements of the dissertation.

Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology
Akron-Kent Joint Ph.D. Program

The University of Akron and Kent State University Departments of Sociology offer a joint program leading to the Ph.D. degree. Faculty and students engaged in the joint doctoral program are for all intents and purposes involved in a single graduate program. Coursework is offered at both campuses and faculty and students interchange freely.

The general objective of the Akron-Kent Ph.D. program is to train sociologists whose specialty also includes emphasis on urban processes.

Admission to the Program

A student may apply with a completed master's degree or equivalent; or apply to the doctoral program after at least one year of full-time coursework or equivalent (18 credits) in the sociology Master of Arts program at Akron. The coursework must include the Master of Arts core sequence. This type of admission is limited to students whose records clearly indicate both scholarly and research potential.

Degree Requirements (for a student admitted with the master's degree or equivalent)

In addition to meeting the general requirements of the Graduate School, a student working toward the Doctor of Philosophy degree in sociology must meet the following requirements:

• Take 3850:656 Seminar in Urban Processes.
• Take two doctoral-level courses in theory. These courses are to be selected from the predetermined group of courses (see Department of Sociology Graduate Student Handbook).
• Complete two doctoral-level courses in methods/statistics. These courses are to be selected from the predetermined group of courses (see the department's Graduate Student Handbook).
• Complete a specialty of at least 15 credits.
• Complete a minimum total of 30 credits (semester) in coursework.
• Pass the doctoral comprehensive examination. This examination is given in the specialty area and will include an evaluation of methodology, theory and urban process relevant to the specialty area.
• Fulfill residency requirement of the Graduate School.
• Complete foreign language requirement by one of four sequences as detailed in the department's Graduate Student Handbook:
  — foreign language;
  — computer science;
  — statistics;
  — philosophy.

• Register for a minimum of 30 credits of dissertation credit, complete a dissertation and successfully defend it in an oral examination.

Degree Requirements (for a student admitted without the master's degree)

In addition to meeting the requirements for a student admitted with the master's degree, the student must meet the following requirements:

• Completion of the Master of Arts core coursework.
• Completion of a research practicum (3 credits). This may be waived for the student who already has sufficient research experience.
• Completion of a minimum of 60 credits of graduate-level (600 or higher) coursework beyond the bachelor's degree.

Master's Degree

Programs of advanced study leading to the master's degree are offered by the Departments of Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Economics, English, Geography, Geology (Earth Science), History, Mathematical Sciences, Modern Languages, (French and Spanish), Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Polymer Science, Psychology, Sociology and Urban Studies. Before undertaking such a program, the student must show that the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School have been met; and the standard requirements for an undergraduate major in the area of the proposed graduate specialty have been met or that the student has performed work which the department approves as equivalent to an undergraduate major.

Biological Sciences

Master of Science

Thesis Option

The program is primarily for the student who will pursue a research career, including the student who intends to enter a doctoral program in the biological sciences.

• Coursework in addition to the master's research (must be approved by the student's advisory committee) — 24 credits.
• Research and thesis — minimum of 6 credits.
• Participation in seminars — 2 credits.
• The student's advisory committee may require the demonstration of reading proficiency in a foreign language appropriate to the field of study.
A minor may be taken in approved graduate courses including education. Summer study at a biological station is available.

Non-thesis Option

The curriculum is oriented to the needs of the student for whom the Master of Science degree will probably be the terminal scientific degree and who does not need extensive research experience.

The requirements are the same as the research option except that no thesis and research is undertaken, but a total of 36 credits of approved coursework is required.

For additional details concerning admission standards, degree requirements, and selection of options, refer to the Department of Biology Graduate Student Guide.

Chemistry

Master of Science

• Chemistry coursework — with the approval of the adviser, up to 12 credits may be taken in related areas — 24 credits.
• Research and thesis — 6 credits.
• Participation in departmental seminars.
• Demonstration of reading proficiency in a foreign language appropriate to the field of study prior to the last semester of enrollment.

Economics

Master of Arts

Thesis Option

A minimum of 30 credits of coursework including a thesis equivalent to six credits of the 30 is required.

Non-thesis Option

A minimum of 30 credits of coursework is required. In addition to a specialization (a list of which is available from the department), at least 21 credits under each option must be at the 600 level in economics. The following courses are required:

<table>

</tbody>
</table>

*These courses may be waived for the student who can demonstrate, in a qualifying exam, an adequate preparation in mathematics and statistics.

Exceptional departures from these requirements may be approved with the permission of the graduate faculty and department head. A comprehensive examination is intended to test the candidate's knowledge of economic theory and the chosen field of specialization.

English

Master of Arts

A minimum of 32 credits is required, of which 17 (exclusive of thesis) must be at the 600 level. Of these 17 credits, 12 must be in literature or literary theory.

Before enrolling in the final semester, a student must demonstrate reading proficiency in a foreign language appropriate to English studies. However, the completion of one junior- or senior-level course in a foreign language will exempt the student from examination, provided that course was taken no more than five years before the student began graduate work.

The student should have a B.A./B.S. degree from an accredited college or university and some background in labor and industrial relations. An interested student who has no background may take the following courses:

<table>

*Unless the student has passed a comparable course at the undergraduate level with a grade of "B" or better.
French

Master of Arts

- Thirty-two credits of graduate work, which may include a thesis amounting to four credits.
- Core requirements:
  - literature — 16 credits;
  - culture — 8 credits;
  - linguistics — 8 credits.
- Admission requirement: proficiency in listening comprehension, speaking, reading and writing French.
- Second language requirement: the candidate will be required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of a modern foreign language other than French. Choice of the second language will be left to the student in consultation with an adviser.
- Final comprehensive examinations: the candidate will be required to pass both a written and oral final examination covering all areas of study included in the candidate's program.

Geography

Master of Arts

Master of Science

- Complete a minimum of 30 credits* (exclusive of research) of which 16 must be in geography courses. A minimum of 12 credits (exclusive of thesis) must be at the 600 level. The 30 credits must include the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3350:581 Geographic Research Methods</td>
<td>3</td>

<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
- Thesis (Master of Arts only) — 4-6 credits.
- Statistics (Master of Science only) — 8 credits.
- Successful completion of a comprehensive examination administered by the departmental committee.

The student who has undergraduate deficiencies in cartography, geographic research techniques and spatial analysis will be expected to remedy these by taking appropriate courses with the advice of the head of the department.

Courses taken outside the department must be approved by the department prior to enrollment.

Geology

Master of Science

- Complete a minimum of 30 credits of which at least 10 credits shall be at the 600 level and no more than two in research problems and six in thesis research.
- Proficiency examination at the beginning of program to determine weaknesses in undergraduate preparation. The student who demonstrates a lack of basic knowledge will be required to take appropriate undergraduate courses. Field camp can be taken for graduate credit, however, it will not count toward the 30 credits for the Master of Science in the geology or geophysics options.

- Pass comprehensive examination after completion of 18 credits. Examination may be attempted twice.
- Oral presentation and defense of thesis.
- General areas of courses:
  - Earth History: 511, 525, 563, 623, 639, 660.
  - Applied Geology: 535, 574, 610, 636, 638, 674, 675, 678.
  - Geophysics: 504, 541, 546, 608, 645, 856.

Degree Specialization

Geology

Equivalents of the geology, cognate science and mathematics requirements for the University's B.S. degree in geology are required. At least one course must be selected from each of the four general areas.

Earth Science

Equivalents of the geology courses for the University's B.A. degree in geology are required. At least one course must be selected from each of the four areas. Those who will be teachers must take 5300:780 Seminar in Secondary Education: Earth Science or equivalent.

Geophysics

Equivalents of the geology, cognate science and mathematics requirements for the University's B.S. degree in geophysics are required. At least two courses must be selected from the general area of applied geology and two from the general area of geophysics.

Engineering Geology

This program is for the graduate engineer and geologist who wishes to broaden his expertise in the other field. The entering student who has some deficiencies in either engineering or geology may have to satisfy one or more of the following requirements while proceeding with graduate studies.

<table>

*In Master of Arts degree, at least 24 credits must be in coursework.
Environmental Geology

Equivalents of the science and mathematics requirements for The University of Akron Bachelor of Science degree in geology are required. A minimum of one course must be selected from the general area of applied geology and one from the general area of physics. (Strongly recommended: 3370:541, 570, 574, 678). As many as eight credits may be selected from engineering, biology and/or geography with the approval of a geology adviser.

- Student programs beyond the stated requirements will be designed in consultation and with the approval of an adviser.

History

Master of Arts

- Admission to the program requires completion of at least 15 semester or 22 quarter credits in history as an undergraduate. Historical Methods or an equivalent should be part of the entering student's preparation. If it is not, this course must be taken at the earliest opportunity but will not be counted toward fulfillment of the graduate credit requirement.
- Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 credits of graduate study in history, of which six may be in individual reading courses.
- Three fields of study, one of which must be unrelated to the other two, and two of which must be chosen from among the following fields:

  | Ancient America to 1865 |
  | Medieval United States Since 1865 |
  | Europe, Renaissance to 1815 Latin America |
  | Europe, 1815 to the Present Far East |
  | England and the Empire History of Science |

The third field may be chosen from the above history fields or from an approved cognate discipline.

The student must pass an appropriate written examination in two of the three fields. The third field requirement will be met by at least seven credits of work at the graduate level. If the student does not pass an examination unconditionally, the examining faculty may reexamine the student orally or require the student to take another written examination after a lapse of three months. No written examination may be repeated more than once.

- A course in historiography (may be waived if such a course has been taken on the undergraduate level).
- An appropriate foreign language or other research skill shall be required by the student's master's committee if it is necessary to a student's program of study. A reading knowledge of a foreign language is desirable and may be necessary for admission to a doctoral program.
- At least 16 hours of 600-level work, exclusive of historiography and individual reading. May be fulfilled in one of the following ways:
  - Option I
    Three reading seminars and one writing seminar, with the seminar paper read and approved by two faculty members.
  - Option II
    Two reading and two writing seminar sequences under different professors with the seminar paper of the student's choice read and approved by two faculty members.
  - Option III
    Two reading seminars, one writing seminar and a thesis read and approved by two faculty members.

Special Summer Program

The department offers a special three-summer M.A. program. Designed primarily for public school teachers, this program makes it possible to schedule the requirement for an M.A. (Option I or Option II) over three summers and the two intervening years.

Mathematical Sciences

Master of Science — Mathematics

- Thirty credits of graduate work.

</tbody>
</table>

In addition, six credits in a single approved area of concentration in mathematics or statistics must be completed.

Thesis Option

In addition to the core requirements, eight credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics and two credits in 3450:699 Research and Thesis must be completed.

- With the consent of the department, up to six credits of approved graduate-level electives outside the department may be substituted in the thesis or non-thesis option.
- A comprehensive examination, taking the form suggested by the department, must be completed in the thesis or non-thesis option.

Non-thesis Option

In addition to the core requirements, 10 credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics courses must be completed.

*Where disagreement occurs between readers in Option I, II or III, the director of Master's Studies will choose a faculty member to arbitrate the disagreement.
Master of Science — Statistics

- Thirty credits of graduate work.
- Core requirements:
  - 3450:610 Matrix Algebra 3
  - 3450:692 Mathematics and Statistics Seminar 2
  - 3470:564 Experimental Design II 2
  - 3470:650 Advanced Probability and Stochastic Processes 3
  - 3470:651 Mathematical Statistics I and II 6
  - 3470:655 Linear Models 3
  - 3470:665 Regression and Correlation 3
  - 3450:610 Matrix Algebra 3

  - 3470:651 Mathematical Statistics I and II 6
  - 3470:655 Linear Models 3
  - 3470:665 Regression and Correlation 3

Thesis Option
In addition, six credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics courses and two credits in 3450:699 Research and Thesis must be completed.

- With the consent of the department, up to six credits of approved graduate-level electives outside the department may be substituted in the thesis or non-thesis option.
- A comprehensive examination, taking the form suggested by the department, must be completed in the thesis or non-thesis option.

Non-thesis Option
In addition, eight credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics courses must be completed.

Master of Science — Applied Mathematics

- Thirty credits of graduate work.
- Core requirements:
  - 3450:610 Matrix Algebra 3
  - 3450:621 Functions of a Real Variable I 3
  - 3450:627 Advanced Numerical Analysis I 3
  - 3450:692 Mathematics and Statistics Seminar 2

  - 3450:635 Optimization 3
  - 3450:636 Advanced Combinatorics and Graph Theory 3
  - 3470:650 Advanced Probability and Stochastic Processes 3

Thesis Option
In addition, five credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics courses and two credits in 3450:699 Research and Thesis must be completed.

- With the consent of the department, up to six credits of approved graduate-level work outside the department may be substituted for elective courses in the thesis or non-thesis option.
- A comprehensive examination, taking the form suggested by the department, must be completed in the thesis or non-thesis option.

Non-thesis Option
In addition, seven credits in 500/600-level mathematics or statistics courses must be completed.

Philosophy

Master of Arts

- Attain a minimum of 2.75 grade-point average in undergraduate work, a minimum 2.75 grade-point average in major area, complete the Graduate Record Examination or Miller Analogies Test and secure three letters of recommendation.
- Have completed at least four quarter or semester courses in undergraduate philosophy or a major in some related area. A student with inadequate background will be expected to make up the deficiency.
- Complete at least 30 semester credits with a 3.00 cumulative grade-point average.

- Complete:
  - 3800:615 Seminar in the History of Philosophy (3 credits) or equivalent in study of three different philosophers
  - 3800:620 Value Theory One course
  - 3800:621 Logic One course

- Pass a comprehensive examination in the history of philosophy and two others from the following fields: — logic, philosophy of science and methodology; — value theory, including ethics, aesthetics and social and political philosophy; — epistemology and metaphysics.
- Demonstrate mastery of a second language by written translation.
- Complete a thesis under departmental supervision after passing the comprehensive examination.

Physics

Master of Science

- Complete 30 credits with a 3.00 cumulative grade-point average.
- Courses normally include:
  - 3850:601.2 Atomic and Nuclear Physics I and II 6
  - 3850:651.2 Theoretical Classical Physics I and II 6
  - 3850:661 Quantum Mechanics I 3

- A comprehensive examination, taking the form suggested by the department must be passed; the fields covered will include classical mechanics, quantum mechanics, electricity and magnetism, atomic and nuclear physics, thermodynamics and optics.
- Graduate research participation is strongly encouraged. Up to five credits may be earned in 3850:697 Graduate Research, upon the satisfactory completion of a graduate research project. One additional credit may, upon approval by the department, be permitted in 3850:699, Master's Thesis Research, for the completion of a master’s thesis based on such research. A successful thesis may thus account for up to six of the total of 30 graduate credits required.
- A student preparing for further graduate work in a physical science or for academic or industrial
Political Science

Master of Arts

- Pass a comprehensive examination covering one field to be determined in conjunction with a departmental adviser.
- Complete 3700:640 Seminar in Political Behavior and at least one graduate seminar in each of the following areas:
  - American Government and Politics:
    - 3700:630 Seminar in National Politics 3
    - 3700:641 Seminar in Intergovernmental Relations 3
    - 3700:660 Seminar in Civil Liberties and the Judicial Process 3
    - 3700:670 Seminar in the Administrative Process 3
    - 3700:680 Seminar in Urban and Regional Politics 3
  - Comparative Politics:
    - 3700:620 Seminar in Comparative Politics 3
    - 3700:626 Seminar in Politics of Developing Nations 3
  - International Politics:
    - 3700:610 Seminar in International Politics 3
  - Political Theory:
    - 3700:600 Seminar in Political Theory 3

In exceptional cases, with the approval of the graduate adviser, and the head of the department, the student may be permitted to omit a graduate seminar in one of these areas and to substitute another graduate-level course in its place.

In certain cases, at the discretion of the department head, a candidate may be asked to take undergraduate courses to overcome serious deficiencies.

Thesis Option

Thirty credits of graduate work, at least 16 credits of which (including six thesis credits) must be at the 600 level in political science. Thesis topic and completed thesis must be approved by student's thesis committee.

Non-thesis Option

Thirty credits of graduate work, at least 18 credits of which must be at the 600 level in political science. Each student must submit two high-quality seminar papers for approval by a departmental committee of three persons chosen by the department head.

Polymer Science

Master of Science

- A minimum of 24 credits in appropriate courses in biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics, polymer science and engineering as prescribed by the student's advisory committee.
- Completion of a research project (3940:699) and the resulting thesis — 6 credits.
- Attendance at and participation in seminar-type discussions scheduled by the department.

Psychology

Master of Arts

- Fulfill admission requirements of the Graduate School and the following departmental requirements:
  - equivalent of psychology undergraduate major including a general or introductory course, statistics course and experimental psychology course:
  - G.P.A. of 3.00 in psychology courses;
  - Graduate Record Examination, Aptitude and Advanced Psychology Test;
  - Miller Analogies Test;
  - two letters of recommendation.
- Course requirements:
  - completion of a minimum of 30 credits of graduate psychology courses including the Master of Arts core courses or equivalents, Master of Arts required courses and electives as specified in the department's Graduate Student Manual;
  - a student is required to maintain at least a 3.00 grade-point average in Master of Arts core courses as well as overall.
- Master of Arts examination (first year):
  - thesis option: first year examination covering core course subject area;
  - non-thesis option: written and oral comprehensive examinations in the specialty area.
- Other requirements:
  - refer to the Department of Psychology Graduate Student Manual for additional guidelines;
  - complete and fulfill general master's degree requirements of the Graduate School.

Thesis Option

Completion of a minimum of 30 credits of graduate work including thesis in industrial/organizational or developmental psychology.

Non-thesis Option

Completion of a minimum of 30 credits of graduate work with no thesis required. Completion of coursework, practicum and examinations in either personnel, counseling or developmental psychology.
Sociology

Master of Arts

• Complete three required core courses with at least a 3.00 grade-point average:

<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Thesis Option

This degree option is intended for the student who either plans on eventually pursuing a Ph.D. degree, or whose work will require the ability to conduct evaluation/research.

Completion of 32 credits of which at least 21 must be at the 600 level in sociology or anthropology (excluding 3850:699 Thesis and 3850:697 Readings in Contemporary Sociological Literature.)

Complete at least six credits in 3850:699 Thesis. No more than six credits can count toward the degree.

Completion of master's thesis and oral defense.

Non-Thesis Option

This option is intended for the student who wants intensive substantive training in a specialized area. The option requires completion of 32 credits of graduate work with no more than six credits taken at the 500 level. Completion of at least 15 credits in a contracted specialty area. This area must be defined in consultation with the student's adviser and approved by the graduate studies committee. Courses from other departments may be taken to meet the specialty requirement.

Pass an oral examination on the specialty area.

Anthropology

There is no graduate degree in anthropology. However, there are many graduate courses available. A student interested in taking such courses for graduate credit must be admitted to the Graduate School through an existing graduate program, or they may apply for Special Non-Degree status through the Department of Sociology. The student should enroll in graduate courses only for specific professional preparation or enhancement and with the permission of the instructor. Inquiries should be directed to the graduate director in the Department of Sociology.

Spanish

Master of Arts

• Core requirements:
  - Thirty-two semester credits of graduate work, which may include a thesis amounting to four credits:
    - literature — 16 credits;
    - culture — 8 credits;
    - linguistics — 8 credits.

• Requirement: proficiency level in listening comprehension, speaking, reading and writing Spanish.

• Second language requirement: the candidate will be required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of a modern foreign language other than Spanish. Choice of the second language will be left to the student in consultation with an adviser.

• Final comprehensive examinations: the candidate will be required to pass both a written and oral final examination covering all areas of study included in the candidate's program.

Urban Studies

Master of Arts

Courses may be taken outside the Department of Urban Studies for the purpose of fulfilling any of the requirements listed below but must be approved by the department prior to registration.

Each student will, upon entering the program and in consultation with a faculty adviser, plan a complete course of study.

• Core requirements:
  - 3860:600 Basic Analytical Research
  - 3860:601 Advanced Research and Statistical Methods
  - 3860:602 American Urban Development
  - 3860:690 Urban Studies Seminar

Basic Program

Complete 34 credits of coursework as follows:

• Core requirements — 12 credits.
• Selection of recommended courses — 6 credits.
• Urban related courses — 16 credits.

Public Administration Option

Forty credits of coursework (plus internship where applicable) as follows:

• Core requirements — 12 credits.
• Other urban studies required courses in public administration — 15 credits.
• Selection of recommended courses — 13 credits.
• Internship for the student without professional public employment experience — 1-3 credits.

Urban Planning Option

Forty-eight credits of coursework (plus internship where applicable) as follows:

• Core requirements — 12 credits.
• Urban studies required courses in urban planning — 17 credits.
• Selection of recommended courses — 19 credits.
• Internship for the student without professional planning experience — 1-3 credits.
College of Engineering

Louis A. Hill, Jr., P.E., Ph.D., Dean
Joseph A. Edminster, M.S.E., J.D., Assistant to the Dean

Doctor of Philosophy in Engineering

Interdisciplinary programs in environmental engineering, materials science, mechanics, systems engineering and transport processes are offered through the College of Engineering. In addition to the general requirements of the Graduate School, a student must hold a bachelor's degree in a curriculum accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development at the time of his graduation, or provide evidence of an equivalent academic background* to the satisfaction of the dean of the College of Engineering and the department head. An applicant must have completed the equivalent of Differential Equations, Elementary Classical Physics, Principles of Chemistry and demonstrate proficiency at the undergraduate level in courses related to the area of intended study. The student must also:

• Successfully complete a qualifying examination before completing either 10 credits of coursework after admission in the program or within two semesters after admission into the program. The examination shall cover graduate courses that the student has completed and basic undergraduate topics.

• Complete courses in the plan of study developed by the student advisory committee on the basis of the qualifying examination. A minimum of 60 credits of graduate work, generally 60 for coursework and 30 for dissertation, must be earned.

• Pass a candidacy examination which may be taken after 90 percent of the coursework specified in the plan of study has been completed.

• Register for dissertation credits according to the schedule available from the dean of engineering.

• Pass an oral examination in defense of the dissertation.

The student advisory committee shall specify the student's language requirements. The appropriate language is selected on the basis of the student's area of specialization and intended research. A foreign language is not required for all students.

A copy of the Ph.D. in Engineering Program Procedures is available from the dean of engineering.

Master's Degree

The degrees Master of Science in Chemical Engineering, Master of Science in Civil Engineering, Master of Science in Electrical Engineering, Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering and Master of Science in Engineering are offered.

Master of Science in Electrical Engineering

After completing one semester of coursework, a student is required to take a comprehensive proficiency examination on six undergraduate topics covering circuit theory, circuit applications, electronics, electromagnetic fields, machines and power and controls. A student who demonstrates a lack of knowledge in one or more of these areas will be required to successfully complete appropriate undergraduate courses. Topic outlines are available from the departmental office.

Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering

There are three main areas of graduate study in mechanical engineering: systems and controls, engineering mechanics and thermal-fluid sciences. Every student in the Department of Mechanical Engineering will be encouraged to take at least one mechanical engineering course outside the main area of interest. It is the purpose of this course to develop some breadth in his graduate education.

The overall program is administered by the dean of the College of Engineering. A student should declare to the dean of the College of Engineering the intention to study toward the Master of Science in Engineering degree before the completion of 10 graduate credits. Later admission to the program may be granted upon petition to the dean of the College of Engineering.

Upon admission, the dean will appoint an advisory committee consisting of at least two faculty members selected from the faculties of the interdisciplinary divisions of the college. The committee members will be from at least two departments. The special problem section and final report must receive the approval of the advisory committee.

The program is limited to not more than three 500-level courses in engineering. Not more than two of the 500-level courses can be applied to the fifteen credits of mechanical engineering coursework. For a student specializing in systems and controls, and electing the thesis option, six credits of non-mechanical engineering courses in the area of systems and controls may be substituted for six of the required fifteen credits of mechanical engineering courses. Prior written approval from the student's advisor must be obtained. The limitations on 500-level courses still apply in each category for a student in systems and controls.

Doctor of Philosophy Degree

Programs leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree in elementary education, secondary education and guidance and counseling are offered through the College of Education. The degree will be awarded to the student who, in addition to filling the general requirements of the Graduate School, has met the following specific requirements:

- Completion of the Miller Analogies Test.
- A minimum of 90 graduate credits (including a 30-credit master's program where applicable), including the doctoral dissertation. A student considered deficient in any area may be required to take additional courses.
- Completion of a foundation studies program designed to prepare the student before specialization.
- Completion of preliminary examinations on foundation studies and the major field of concentration.
- Successful completion of a test in a language judged not to be the student's native tongue:
  - a student in the Department of Counseling and Special Education may elect to develop appropriate research skills prescribed by the adviser in lieu of the foreign language requirements;
  - a student in the Department of Elementary Education may elect to develop appropriate alternative research skills prescribed by the adviser, subject to review by the department head, depending upon the career goal of the student and upon the academic and/or scientific requirement of the dissertation in lieu of the foreign language requirement;
  - a student in the Department of Secondary Education may elect to develop appropriate research skills prescribed by the adviser, subject to review by the department head in lieu of the foreign language requirement.
- Completion of at least eight credits in cognate area.
- Completion of final written and oral examinations in the student's major field of concentration.
- Completion of a dissertation comprising not more than 20 credits. The oral examining committee must be constituted of at least five full-time staff members, one of whom must be from outside the College.
- Pass the general requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

The doctoral program in counseling has been approved by the Ohio State Board of Psychology "as being a doctoral program equivalent to one in psychology." Candidates completing the program, as approved by the Board of Psychology meet the academic requirement for admission to the examination for a psychologist license.

Doctor of Education Degree

Admission procedures and requirements for this degree are the same as those for the Doctor of Philosophy degree program except for the following: The Bernreuter Scale, Watson-Glaser and Guilford-Zimmerman examinations are substituted for the Miller Analogies Test, and the language requirement is waived.

Programs

Master's Degree

Programs leading to the degree of Master of Arts in education, Master of Science in education and Master of Science in technical education are offered.

The student who wishes to earn the master’s degree for advancement in the field of teaching must meet the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School and must be qualified to hold a standard teaching certificate. Exceptions to this latter requirement will be made for the qualified student who does not wish to teach or perform duties in the public schools provided the student presents or acquires an appropriate background of study or experience. The student who expects to earn the master’s degree in guidance and administration also should have had successful teaching experience. A physical examination may be required if and when indicated. Any student who exhibits a deficiency in English or other skills may be required to correct it before recommendation for an advanced degree.

The student must complete a minimum of nine credits in foundation studies in education:

Elementary Education

Objectives

- Knowledge:
  - the nature of the elementary school;
  - the organization of the school and its curriculum;
  - the application of theory.
- Skills:
  - ability to assess curricular needs;
  - ability to select appropriate materials;
  - ability to develop appropriate learning activities.
- Attitudes and Values:
  - belief in the humanistic approach to education;
  - awareness and concern for the welfare of all;
  - ability to accept those that are different.

Program

Those students seeking a master’s degree in elementary education can follow a 30 semester credit program which includes a master’s problem (two credits) or follow a new option, which calls for the completion of 36 semester credits with a field experience, but no master’s problem. For additional information about the option, an interested student should contact the department head.

- Foundation Studies courses — 9 credits.
- Elementary education:
  - 5200:630 Elementary School Curriculum and Instruction (2 credits)
  - 5200:699 Research in Education (2 credits)
  - 5200:780 Seminar in Elementary Education (4 credits)
- Electives — 9-13 credits

Electives may be any combination of courses to meet the minimum of 30 credits which may include up to 12 credits in pertinent course offerings outside the College of Education. Elective courses should be planned with the graduate adviser.

This program is primarily for the student who expects to progress as a teacher in elementary schools.

*Planned with the student's committee.

Two seminars are required.
Secondary Education

Objectives
This program is intended to prepare the teacher of grades seven through 12 for: master teacher, department head, supervisor and resource teacher. The student planning to major in physical education should consult an adviser for alternate course requirements. This program may also serve as preliminary preparation for the student who wishes to apply for the Doctor of Philosophy degree in secondary education.

Program
- Foundation Studies courses — 9 credits.
- Secondary education:
  5300:780 Seminar in Secondary Education: Improvement of Instruction in the area of concentration 2

Elementary School Principal

Objectives
- Provide the student with an understanding of the elementary school and its history, its present purpose and its future potential.
- Assist the prospective administrator in perceiving the role of the elementary principal and determining whether it is appealing as a career choice.
- Provide the student with the opportunity to experiment with alternate leadership styles in order to determine how the student might best lead.
- Coordinate classroom activities with field experiences in order to exercise the student’s administrative skills and test the student’s ability to relate understandings to performance.

Secondary School Principal

Objectives
- Enable the student to gain a knowledge of the overall curriculum of the secondary school.
- Provide the student with an understanding of successful methods of improving instruction in the secondary school.
- Provide the student with practice in implementing a program to improve instruction.
- Develop within each the ability to communicate successfully with individuals and groups.
- Work with the individual and the group successfully to improve the educational program.
- Implement technical aspects of secondary education.

A program of studies in special education will be selected from the following course listings. A student in special education who holds certification prior to enrollment in Graduate School must choose a program focus emphasizing one of the following areas: supervision, clinical practice, early childhood, developmental disabilities, school educational consultant or some other focus to meet an individual's educational need. Elective options may be utilized to meet state certification requirements for teaching the mentally retarded child, the learning and/or behavioral disordered child or the orthopedically handicapped child. However, the master's degree can be completed with or without meeting requirements for special education certification depending on program selection. Certification as a special education supervisor may also be pursued in combination with other departments.

At least one-half of the master's degree program must be 600-level courses and at least 20 credits must be within special education. The minimum program requirement is 35 credits.

Program
- Foundation Studies courses — 9 credits.
- Departmental core (required of all candidates):
Visiting Teacher or School Social Worker Certification Program

Inquiry related to program requirements and admission standards should be addressed to the Department of Counseling and Special Education.

Multicultural Education

The purpose of the program is to provide the educator with the knowledge, skills and attitudes which will enable the educator to design and implement programs that promote the concept of multiculturalism. Special attention is given to educational programming for the culturally different learner.

Objectives
• To acquire/extend knowledge of:
  — early, recent and current literature and research on multicultural education and the culturally different learner;
  — majority and subculture value systems, family life styles, child rearing practices and language patterns as they relate to educational programming.
• To strengthen/develop skills that show ability to:
  — determine appropriate motivational, instructional and management techniques;
  — construct and adapt materials appropriate to education that is multicultural.
• To express/demonstrate attitudes that:
  — promote the concepts of cultural pluralism and equality of educational results.

Certification as a Reading Specialist

Objectives

- The student will develop an understanding of reading and its relationship to allied areas of study.
- The student will evaluate the reading strengths and weaknesses of children by diagnosing and recommending procedures of remediation.
- The student will write case studies of different types of reading disabilities in a supervised setting.
- The student will investigate the organization of remedial programs in the schools and in reading clinics.

Program

To qualify as a reading specialist, the student must have a minimum of three years of successful teaching experience. The student seeking a master's degree in the field can follow a 30 credit program which includes a master's problem (2 credits) or follow a new option, which calls for the completion of 36 credits with a field experience, but no master's problem. For additional information about the option, an interested student should contact the department head.

Master's Degree

The College of Business Administration (C.B.A.) offers graduate programs which lead to the degrees of Master of Business Administration, Master of Science in Accounting, Master of Science in Management and Master of Taxation in Accounting. The University of Akron has offered programs of study in business since 1919, initially through the Department of Commerce and since 1953 through the College of Business Administration. In 1958, graduate studies in business were begun. Both the undergraduate and master's programs are accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (A.A.C.S.B.).

During its long tradition, the College has sought to fulfill the educational and professional needs of its 450 graduate students, the community and regional business organizations. To meet its urban objectives, the College of Business Administration offers graduate courses only in the evening hours between 5:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. The master's programs are designed to service those who work full-time and wish to pursue a master's program on a part-time basis.

Admission Policy

The applicant must meet one of the following eligibility requirements which are in conformity with the Graduate School and the college's accrediting agency (A.A.C.S.B.):

- Hold a domestic baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university and have a total index score of 1,000 or more points based upon the overall undergraduate grade-point average (G.P.A.) \( A = 4.0 \) times 200 plus the Graduate Management Admissions Test (G.M.A.T.) score.
- Hold a domestic baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university and have a total index score of 1,050 or more points based on the junior-senior (i.e., last 64 semester or 96 quarter credits) G.P.A. \( A = 4.0 \) times 200 plus the G.M.A.T. score.
- Hold a degree from outside the United States and have an academic standing of first or high second class, satisfactory evidence of competence in English (i.e., T.O.E.F.L. score of 550 or above) and a score of at least 450 on the G.M.A.T.
- Take the G.M.A.T. and have the results sent to the director of Graduate Programs in Business, College of Business Administration, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325 (institution code 1829). Since the G.M.A.T. test is administered worldwide only four times per year, the applicant should register for it sufficiently in advance to the filing of the graduate application, so evaluation for admission will not be delayed. G.M.A.T. registration bulletins can be obtained from the Graduate Programs in Business Office or the Educational Testing Service, Box 966-R, Princeton, NJ 08540. Those who have taken the G.M.A.T. (formerly called the A.T.G.S.B.) more than five years ago are required to retake it.

Comment

Even though an applicant is eligible for consideration, an offer of admission is not guaranteed. Since staff, facilities and resources are limited, a determination must be made as to the number of applicants who can be adequately serviced among those eligible. As a result, offers of admission may be limited to only the most qualified of the eligible applicants as determined by the C.B.A. Graduate Admissions Committee. The committee will consider the following in making decisions: the difficulty of the applicant's undergraduate program; the length of time and activities since graduation; the percentile ranking on the G.M.A.T. Applicants are expected to score at least in the 55th percentile on the G.M.A.T. — approximately 480 — in order for an offer of admission to be extended.

Under the regulations of the Graduate School, eligible applicants who have been extended an offer of admission by the C.B.A. Graduate Admissions Committee are recommended to the dean of the Graduate School for either "full" or "special" graduate status. Those admitted with the classification "special graduate status" who have not attained an overall 3.00 G.P.A. upon the completion of 12 graduate credits will be dismissed from the program.

In rare instances, the applicant who has taken the G.M.A.T. but does not meet requirements may be considered for admission. Also, those who have previously been denied admission may, upon presentation of new information, be reconsidered. In either case, the applicant must petition, in writing, the C.B.A. Graduate Admissions Committee giving those reasons relevant to the situation which demonstrate the likelihood of success — the burden of proof is on the applicant.

All applications and accompanying documentation are evaluated simultaneously by the Graduate Admissions Committee (G.A.C.). The G.A.C. meets only four times approximately four weeks after each G.M.A.T. date. The applicant will be informed in writing of the G.A.C.'s decision after approximately one week.
Requirements

In order to be awarded any master's degree from the College of Business Administration, a student must:

- Meet the time limit and grade-point requirements of the Graduate School.
- Complete the minimum credits indicated in each of the degree descriptions.
- Complete all course requirements in Phase I, II and III of each respective master's program.

In all programs, some or all of the requirements of Phase I may be waived, and the student may be awarded advanced standing depending upon the academic background of the individual. Phase I, II and III courses can be taken concurrently provided that all prerequisites have been met.

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration program is designed to give the student a general knowledge of the functional areas of business and permit the concentration of study in one of the five following areas: accounting, finance, management, marketing or international business. Three phases of coursework are required: Phase I (foundation courses), Phase II (core courses) and Phase III (area of concentration courses). The program consists of 54 graduate credits. Phase I courses may be waived for those who have had previous study in the areas.

Phase III: Area of Concentration Courses

There are five areas of concentration in the M.B.A. program from which the student must select one. Each concentration has a non-paper and master's report (paper) option. Those who elect the paper option are required to register for the seminar course twice (non-concurrently). The required courses and electives for each area of concentration and its paper option or non-paper option are presented below. Elective selection is at the discretion of the student within the specified restrictions provided the course prerequisites have been met.

NOTE: Phase I graduate credits and graduate workshop course credits cannot be used for Phase II, III electives. Also, the student who has taken a 400-level course for undergraduate credit at The University of Akron (or an equivalent course elsewhere) is ineligible to register for and earn graduate credit for the corresponding 500-level graduate course. Examples are Tax I, Auditing, Marketing Research, etc.

Master of Taxation in Accounting

The Master of Taxation program is a professional degree designed to provide intensive training both for those planning to enter the field and for experienced accountants and attorneys.

The program provides a framework of conceptual, technical and professional knowledge which will assist the student in developing the expertise needed to examine and understand the many aspects of the difficult and complex tax structure. Through an integrated curriculum with emphasis on tax concepts, substantive knowledge of federal and state taxation, tax research and communication skills and tax planning, the student develops the ability to identify and solve tax problems.

The Master of Taxation curriculum is structured in three phases of coursework: Phase I: foundation courses; Phase II: required courses; and Phase III: elective courses. A minimum of 30 semester credits is required for the degree.

Phase I: Foundation Courses

All are required except for the student who has earned baccalaureate, graduate or professional; i.e. law, coursework credit which is equivalent in content may be granted by waivers.

Master of Science in Management

The Master of Science in Management program is designed to provide the student with strong quantitative backgrounds an opportunity to pursue advanced study utilizing previously acquired knowledge. The student with undergraduate training in engineering, mathematics and the physical sciences will apply skills to management problem solving and decision making along quantitative lines. Three phases of coursework are required: Phase I: foundation courses; Phase II: selected electives; and Phase III: required courses. Phase I courses may be waived for those who have had previous study in the areas.

Joint Programs

The School of Law and the College of Business Administration offer a joint program in legal and administrative studies (J.D./M.B.A.) and a joint program in legal and taxation studies (J.D./M.Tax.). These combinations are open to the student preparing for a career in such areas as corporate law, tax accounting or legal practice in government. The amount of time required to complete a joint degree program is shorter than the time required to complete both programs independently. In order to pursue either cooperative program, the student must apply to and be accepted by both the School of Law and the Graduate School of the College of Business Administration. The student should contact each school independently for information covering admission, criteria and procedures. (For further information on School of Law admissions, write: Director of Admissions, School of Law, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325). A baccalaureate degree is required.

Degree Requirements

A student is required to fulfill the requirements of the School of Law (74 credits plus 10 credits transferred from the College of Business Administration). The requirements of the College of Business Administration may be met by fulfilling the requirements previously listed which include the common body of knowledge (Phase I) courses (18-27 credits unless waived because of prior undergraduate credits earned) and 24 credits for M.Tax. or 30 credits for M.B.A. of advanced courses in the College of Business Administration plus six hours transferred from the School of Law. The reciprocal acceptance of course credits by each school is the essence of the joint programs. All law courses used to fulfill C.B.A. requirements must be approved by the director of Graduate Business Programs prior to completion of the courses. To earn both degrees, a total of 98 (J.D./M.Tax.) or 104 (J.D./M.B.A.) credits is required, depending on the master’s program pursued. More credits may be required for the master’s degree if courses (Phase I) are required.

Upon the approval of the director of Graduate Programs in Business, 10 credits of School of Law courses may be applied toward the Masters of Taxation degree. No more than six credits from the School of Law may be in non-tax courses. The other four credits taken in the School of Law must be in tax courses which substitute for equivalent tax courses in the College of Business Administration.
A written proposal for either the thesis or internship option must be submitted at the completion of approximately 20 credits of graduate study.

- Pass a written comprehensive examination over major and minor areas after the completion of at least 24 credits of graduate work.
- Apply for Advancement to Candidacy upon successful completion of 25 credits of graduate study, the written comprehensive examination and an approval prospectus for a thesis or internship.
- Pass an oral examination covering the thesis or internship report.

Select from courses within the Department of Home Economics and Family Ecology or from a cognate area outside the department or a combination of the above approved by the student's adviser. formance, composition, theory, music history and literature, and accompanying. Entrance requirements for each program are:

- The standard requirements for an undergraduate major in the area of proposed graduate specialty or performance which the department head approves as equivalent to an undergraduate major.
- The Graduate School's requirement for admission.
- The performance and accompanying options require an audition on the student's major instrument/voice. Please contact the coordinator of graduate studies for an audition time.
- For the performance option in voice, Italian and German are required. If the student lacks background in any of these language requirements, auditing of undergraduate courses is required.
- For the composition option, compositions representing the applicant's techniques are required.
- The options in music education, music theory, and music history and literature require an interview with the coordinator of Graduate Studies and faculty in the appropriate area.

The student should consult with the coordinator of Graduate Studies in Music for additional information regarding the individualized nature of each option.

After completion of all coursework, the student must pass an examination covering the graduate program. This examination is individualized for each candidate's unique program.

Mass Media-Communication

Master of Arts programs are offered in mass media-communication, communication and rhetoric or general speech. Requirements are as follows:

* Meet the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School.

- Have undergraduate coursework required for a major in the chosen area of concentration.
- Complete a written thesis. The student may enroll for thesis credit only after passing all parts of the written comprehensive examination and completing an acceptable thesis prospectus.
- Complete a written comprehensive examination over departmental coursework taken before advancement to candidacy. At the completion of 24 credits of work, the student should contact the director of graduate studies to arrange the examination.
- Earn a minimum of 30 semester credits plus one to six credits for the thesis. A minimum of nine credits must be earned in three of the four tracks described below. Within each track, courses are listed generally in the order in which they should be taken.

Track I — Research

The courses 7600:680 Special Problems in Communication and Mass Media, two credits, and 7600:697 Graduate Research in Mass Media Communication, one to six credits, and any electives taken outside the department may be used to supplement any of these groups after the student has completed six credits in that group.

Theatre Arts and Dance

The following will qualify the student in the field of theatre arts. There is no graduate program in dance.

- Complete the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School.

---

* Required of all graduate students in the department. To be taken the first year.

 Required of all students except those with an emphasis in rhetorical theory and criticism.
• Complete an undergraduate major in the area of proposed graduate work or equivalent work as approved by the head of the department.
• Complete a minimum of 36 credits, including 7800:600 and 7800:699, from the following courses or approved courses in the cognate field.

Arts Management

- Required courses:
  - 7800:600 Introduction to Graduate Studies
  - 7800:665 Audiences for the Arts: Research and Analysis
  - 7800:691 Seminar: The Role of Arts Administrator
  - 7800:692 Legal Regulations and the Arts
  - 7800:698 Arts Management Internship
  - 7800:699 Research and Thesis

- Electives in business:
  - 6200:601 Financial Accounting
  - 6400:602 Managerial Finance
  - 6500:600 Management Concepts, Practices and Theory
  - 6500:652 Organizational Behavior
  - 6600:600 Managerial Marketing

- Electives in urban studies:
  - 3980:610 Urban Politics
  - 3980:611 Urban Administration
  - 3980:640 Fiscal Analysis
  - 3980:680, 1 Topics (such areas as cultural policy and personnel management)
  - 3980:695 Internship

Communicative Disorders

The program of study leading to the Master of Arts in Communicative Disorders may also lead to certification by the American Speech-Hearing-Language Association in speech pathology and/or audiology.

- Complete the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School.
- Hold an undergraduate major in the area of proposed graduate specialty or complete undergraduate work within one calendar year of application.
- Complete a course of study with a minimum of 32 credits, including thesis — or a minimum of 38 credits in the non-thesis option. The student anticipating dual A.S.H.L.A certification — that is, clinical certification in both the areas of speech pathology and audiology — may need to complete eight or more additional credits in the non-thesis option. Academic requirements within the department include:

Two credits must be taken from the following:

- 7700:651 Advanced Clinical Practicum: Voice
- 7700:652 Advanced Clinical Practicum: Fluency
- 7700:653 Advanced Clinical Practicum: Aphasia
- 7700:654 Advanced Clinical Practicum: Audiology

The student must take four credits of 7700:695 Externship: Speech Pathology and Audiology. The audiology major must take four credits in speech pathology. The speech pathology major must take four credits in audiology. It is recommended that the speech pathology major elect 7700:695 Advanced Clinical Testing as the first of the audiology courses.

- The following limitations on work toward the degree may be exceeded only with approval of two-thirds of the graduate faculty of the department:
  - no more than four credits of workshop courses;
  - no more than six credits of directed study course work (including 7700:697);
  - no more than six credits taken in disciplines other than communicative disorders.

Social Work

There is no graduate degree in social work. A student interested in coursework may enroll if admitted to Graduate School through other programs or may apply for "Special Non-Degree" student status through the Department of Communicative Disorders. A student should enroll in graduate courses only for specific professional preparation and with the permission of the instructor. Courses presume a background in social welfare institutions, social work practice, social welfare policy and history. Inquiries should be directed to the coordinator of the Department of Social Work.
Master of Science in Nursing

Philosophy

The philosophy of graduate education in nursing evolves from the undergraduate philosophy. Undergraduate education has as its primary focus, man, the individual within the family. The undergraduate program prepares a nurse generalist who provides health care to individuals, families, and groups in any setting. The focus of graduate education is the family unit comprised of individuals viewed as enfamilied selves. In undergraduate education health is viewed on a continuum of health/diminished health and as a purposeful interaction with ecological variables which seek to maintain a state of well-being. In graduate education health is viewed as an evolving process which occurs throughout the lifespan of enfamilied selves in interrelationship with the ecosystem. Family health is perceived as expansion of consciousness of enfamilied selves.

Undergraduate education prepares a generalist who is capable of practicing in any environment and provides a foundation for research, continued study and leadership. Graduate education prepares a family health nurse specialist who implements the role of family health nurse by assisting families to experience health in any environment and who generates family health nursing knowledge through research. This educational process provides the foundation for doctoral study in nursing. Graduate education prepares this specialist for leadership in administration, education, and/or direct care with families. Undergraduate education focuses on man's interaction with ecological variables whereas graduate education focuses on the family as a unit within an ecological-phenomenological perspective.

Assumptions from theories of ecology and phenomenology provide an ecological-phenomenological perspective. The ecological-phenomenological perspective provides the framework for graduate education to prepare family health nurses to assist families in sustaining that quality of life which enables them to survive and prevail. From an ecological-phenomenological perspective the faculty views families macro-ecosystem, a meta-ecosystem and a micro-ecosystem; and perceives the phenomena of the family ecosystem in terms of the intentionality of consciousness of enfamilied selves as reported by family members.

The faculty believes that family health nurses, using an ecological-phenomenological perspective, evolve a dialectical process of family health. Using an ecological-phenomenological perspective the faculty perceives family health as an expansion of consciousness. Consciousness is viewed as five domains of living: valuing, thinking, feeling, acting, and intuiting. Expansion of consciousness is viewed as a dialectical process which encompasses thesis of being, antithesis of doing and synthesis of becoming. Intentionality is viewed as those motives and goals that lead to expansions of consciousness. Intentionality signifies that enfamilied selves encounter a world that is meaningfully structured. Forms of intentionality include the "we" relationship, a reciprocity of perspectives, and a dynamic of time, space and motion. The faculty believes the family unit is a single entity regarded as a whole and is comprised of kinship ties which act as support system for one or more enfamilied selves. The enfamilied self is viewed as an individual family member who is given personal identity and validation within the family ecosystem. The family unit is perceived as a finite province of meaning.

The faculty believes that family health nursing is a process whereby the nurse and the family co-create a climate for experiencing a dialectical process of health. Family health nurses, using an ecological-phenomenological perspective and evolving a dialectical process of health, view families as a unit and components of families as enfamilied selves. Family health nurses, with families and enfamilied selves, experience the dialectical process of health, through health appraisal, anticipatory dynamics, stress management, health learning, and enfamilied self-care. Leadership in education and direct care with families is a process whereby the family health nurse in interrelationship with others co-constitutes an ecosystem to enable others to sustain a sense of self.

purposes and characteristics

The purpose of the Graduate Program in Family Health Nursing is to prepare career-oriented family health nurse specialists for leadership roles in administration, education, and direct care with families and to provide a foundation for doctoral study. Within this framework, graduates of the program shall be able to:

• Value the ecological-phenomenological perspective, the dialectical process and the concepts health, family, family health, enfamilied self and leadership.
• Evaluate health with families and enfamilied selves through health appraisal, anticipatory dynamics, stress management, health learning and enfamilied self care.
• Actualize the leadership role in administration, education and/or direct care with families.
• Generate family health nursing knowledge through research.
• Pursue doctoral study.
Admission

General Admission Policies

The applicant for admission to the graduate program must:

• Hold a current Ohio state license as a registered nurse.
• Have a baccalaureate degree in upper division nursing from an NLN accredited school of nursing.
• Hold a grade-point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale from the undergraduate program.
• Have satisfactorily completed an undergraduate statistics course, an elementary course in research methodology or equivalent and a basic physical assessment course.
• Have three letters of reference from:
  — a recent employer;
  — a member of the nursing profession who can attest to the applicant's scholarly abilities;
  — a former college or school faculty member.
• Write a 300-word essay describing professional goals and reasons for seeking graduate education.

A registered nurse who has a baccalaureate degree prior to September 1, 1981 in a discipline other than nursing; and a registered nurse with a baccalaureate degree in nursing from a non-accredited baccalaureate program; as well as other persons who do not meet the above criteria will be considered for admission on an individual basis.

Grade-Point Average

• An applicant with a grade-point average of 3.00 or better from the undergraduate program will be granted Full Admission.
• An applicant with an undergraduate grade-point average of 2.75-2.99 will be admitted as Special Non-Degree as defined in the Graduate Bulletin.
• An applicant with an undergraduate grade-point average of 2.50-2.74 will be assigned to Deferred Status and will be advised by the College of Nursing to take postbaccalaureate courses. The number of course credits to be taken is dependent on the applicant's undergraduate grade-point average and will be determined by the use of a "sliding scale." A grade of "B" or better for each course must be attained. Once such work is completed, the student may reapply for a change in status.

Procedures

First, the student secures application for Graduate School from the Office of the Dean of Graduate School, The University of Akron. Criteria for admission, forms for references, etc. may be secured from the director of the graduate program, the College of Nursing. The director of the graduate program along with the administrative assistant will review all applications for completion.

An admissions committee of four will meet and review all applications and make recommendations to the director regarding the status accorded the student.

The director will send recommendation first to the dean of the college, then to the dean of the Graduate School who will notify the student.

Second, the completed application must be in the office of the College of Nursing by March 1 or October 1. The student will be notified of status by April 1 or November 1.

Instructional Program

The program is two academic years in length and provides instruction in nursing practice; research; the functional areas of teaching, administration and nursing practice; and cognate courses.

Nursing Concentration

The program provides opportunities for the student to develop competence in nursing practice. A student admitted will select nursing practice within the framework of family health nursing.

The nursing component is implemented through five courses (23 credits) which span both years of the curriculum. Theoretical content and intensive related and supervised nursing practice is provided.

Theoretical Basis for Family Health Nursing is offered in the first year of the curriculum and is taken by all students regardless of the area of focus. These courses reflect such widely applicable theoretical constructs as: appraisal of physical, emotional, social and cultural needs; nursing diagnosis and the decision-making process; growth and group dynamics; therapeutic communication; cultural needs; health care education through problem solving for families and individuals to encourage self-help; continuity and coordination of nursing care to clients and families; application of research in nursing practice and use of epidemiological methods in identifying researchable problems having implications for nursing. These courses provide the framework for the integration of physiological, psychosocial, economic, political and cultural theoretical concepts applicable to nursing practice.

Research

The research component fosters inquiry directed toward the solution of nursing problems. This component is comprised of one course in Nursing Inquiry taught by the nursing faculty and taken by all students and one statistics course (cognate) provided by other selected University departments.

Functional Area of Nursing

Options are provided for study in a leadership role of either education, administration or direct care of family. There are seven credits allocated to the lead role option which includes the equivalent of two courses and one colloquium in the second year.

Cognates

A student selects courses (nine credits) from natural, behavioral or medical sciences areas. Two courses are related to the functional area and two are nursing electives. The free elective cognate must have the adviser’s approval.

A student is required to take the minimum credits in each component area. Additional electives in nursing will provide opportunities to individualize and strengthen the nursing major.

The following courses are required of all students:

Cooperative Statement

This program is in cooperation with Kent State University, School of Nursing, where a student has the option to take cognate or nursing electives and utilize library facilities.
School of Law

Donald M. Jenkins, B.A.J.D., Dean
Albert S. Rakas, J.D., Associate Dean
Robert C. Sullivan, M.Ed., Assistant to the Dean

History

The School of Law was established on September 1, 1959, as the successor to the Akron Law School. Founded in 1921 as an independent evening law school, the Akron Law School produced two generations of successful members of the bench and bar, as well as leaders in industry and commerce. Recognizing that legal education is best conducted in university-centered programs, and mindful of the need for the continuation of a sound program of legal education in the most densely populated quadrant of the state, The University of Akron accepted an offer of merger and formed the School of Law.

The School of Law, housed in the C. Blake McDowell Law Center on the University campus, has access to countless resources through its proximity to state and federal courts, local law enforcement agencies and corporate headquarters. An integral part of a distinguished University founded in 1870, the School of Law benefits from the nine major divisions of the University, the Graduate School and the more than 24,000 students.

Enrollment in the School of Law is approximately 640. Thus, the opportunity for active student participation in the classroom, consultation with faculty members and extracurricular participation is facilitated.

In addition to being a member of the Association of American Law Schools, The University of Akron School of Law is fully accredited by the American Bar Association, the State of New York Court of Appeals, the Council of the North Carolina State Bar and holds a charter membership in the League of Ohio Law Schools.

The School of Law offers a day program for the study of law with classes scheduled during the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.; an evening plan of the study of law for the working student with classes scheduled primarily between 6:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

The schedule of courses for the day division is designed so that the degree of Juris Doctor may be earned in three academic years consisting of six semesters. Attendance at Summer Sessions is optional.

The schedule of courses for the evening division is designed so that the degree of Juris Doctor may be earned in four academic years consisting of eight semesters and three summer sessions.

Each student is recommended for the degree of Juris Doctor upon satisfactory completion of the requirements.

Objectives

The purpose of the School of Law is to further the goals of The University of Akron by providing a quality program of university education for law and to pursue the following aims:

- To prepare the student for a career in the profession of law by imparting information concerning legal institutions, basic principles of the substantive and procedural law and jurisprudential thought concerning the role of law in society.
- To help to develop in the student an active and critical attitude rather than a passive approach toward the rules of law and their social implications.
- To develop in the student a high sense of professional responsibility in terms of technical competency, appreciation of professional standards and the responsibility of the lawyer to achieve a more nearly perfect system of civil and criminal justice.

The primary purpose of the student enrolling in the School of Law is to obtain a fundamental knowledge of law and the role of law in society, interlaced with a grasp of the public responsibilities of the lawyer. This course of study will enable them to become attorneys- and counselors-at-law and leaders in governmental affairs. The ultimate aim of the school is the development of graduates who will serve society not only through the representation of their individual, corporate or governmental clients, but who will also serve as architects of society's future.

The student is trained to develop powers of legal analysis and synthesis, to develop the technical skills of legal advocacy and legal draftsmanship and to learn practical skills of research and management of litigation.

C. Blake McDowell Law Center

The C. Blake McDowell Law Center is a modern, attractive law school building located on the University campus. The law center is designed to facilitate the study of law both academically and clinically by its proximity to state and federal courts, law enforcement agencies and corporate headquarters.

The law center is named in recognition of Mr. C. Blake McDowell, a practicing attorney and 1911 alumnus of the University. Through his great leadership and interest, Mr. McDowell worked unflaggingly toward the creation of a law school at the University which resulted in the merger of the Akron Law School with the University in 1959.

Admissions Information

Pre-legal Education

A student expecting to enter the School of Law must hold a baccalaureate degree granted by an accredited institution of higher learning. Requirements are flexible for undergraduate study preceding legal education. However, your college record and Law School Admission Test score must demonstrate that you are highly qualified for law study.

A student entering law school must have completed a course of study encompassing a broad cultural background also including intensive work in a selected field of study. The pre-law student must demonstrate the ability to communicate easily, to understand people and institutions; to gather and weigh facts; and to solve problems and think creatively. A mastery of the English language is essential and the entering student should be able to read with comprehension and be able to express clearly and concisely in both oral and in written fashion.

Requirements for Admission

An applicant for admission desiring to become a candidate for the degree of Juris Doctor must be of good moral character. A baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university in a field of study deemed appropriate by the faculty of the School of Law, with an academic average substantially better than the minimum average required for such a degree, must have been earned prior to the time the applicant begins work in the law school.

The school, through an Admissions Committee, is seeking law students of demonstrated academic ability as evidenced in part by L.S.A.T. scores and the undergraduate grade-point average (G.P.A.). The school will be looking beyond the L.S.A.T. and G.P.A. for special qualities in its applicants for 100 day-division openings and 100 evening-division openings.

The law school seeks law students with diverse backgrounds. In this regard, consideration is given to ethnic and economic factors, advanced degrees, significant work experience and extracurricular and community activities during and after the college years. The growth and maturity of the applicants and their commitment to law study are significant concerns.

Admission Procedures

Applicants for both day and evening school should apply and complete applications as soon as possible after October 1 in the year preceding the start of fall classes. Review of completed files will begin in January and students will be admitted until the classes are filled. After that time, acceptable applicants will be placed on a waiting list. The school estimates the day class will be filled by April 1; the evening class by June 1. Because the school considers each application soon after it is completed, there is no way of knowing whether the classes will be closed before or after the above dates. The best policy is to complete one's application as early as possible.

Admission from the waiting list will begin in late July, should vacancies occur.

In cases where specific questions on an application arise, a personal interview with the associate dean may be necessary or may be requested by the applicant.

Letters of recommendation are not necessary. However, if points relevant to academic or personal background are not addressed in the application material, they may be added to the applicant's file for review.

Application Procedures

Submit to the School of Law:

• Application for Admission form (available upon request from the Law School).
• A non-refundable application fee of $20* if never previously enrolled for credit courses at The University of Akron (check or money order payable to The University of Akron).
• A Law School Application Matching form obtained with L.S.A.T./L.S.D.A.S. material.

Submit to Law School Admission Services, Newtown, PA:

• Application to take the Law School Admission Test (L.S.A.T.).
• Applicants are urged to take the L.S.A.T. as early as possible and preferably October or December for day applicants; October, December or February for evening applicants.

If accepted for admission a student must file with the School of Law: a final, official transcript, mailed from the institution awarding the baccalaureate degree.

A Certificate of Completion of Degree Requirements is filed by the student with the School of Law temporarily in lieu of an official transcript for the student satisfactorily completing baccalaureate degree requirements during summer sessions, but the formal award of the degree is conferred after the beginning of the fall term. Such certificate must be executed by an authorized official (usually the Office of the Registrar) of the institution awarding the baccalaureate degree. An official transcript showing award of the baccalaureate degree must be filed by the student with the school at the earliest time such transcript becomes available from the institution awarding the baccalaureate degree.

The official transcript, or, in cases where applicable, the certificate, should be received by the School of Law at least one week prior to the official registration period published in the University calendar.

* $25 effective spring 1982.
A student admitted to the Juris Doctor degree program is requested to file the official transcript only after receiving written notice of admission to Juris Doctor degree candidacy of the School of Law. The unofficial copy of transcript forwarded to the School of Law by the L.S.D.A.S. does not constitute filing of transcript with the School of Law.

All inquiries and correspondence pertaining to admission should be sent to:

Associate Dean
School of Law
The University of Akron
Akron, OH 44325
Phone: (216) 375-7331

Reapplication

Applicants who have previously applied for law school and have not attended must comply with all the above procedures. The L.S.A.T. does not need to be repeated but depending on the test results, you may want to retake the test. In addition to the application and the $25* non-refundable fee, a current L.S.D.A.S. report must be sent to the School of Law.

Admission To Advanced Standing

A law student who has completed part of the law course at a school on the approved list of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association, and who is eligible for readmission to the former law school, may be admitted to advanced standing. A student desiring admission to advanced standing shall: (1) obtain from the dean of the former law school a letter setting forth the fact that the student is eligible for further instruction, and consent to the transfer; (2) submit evidence of meeting the admission requirements (including L.S.A.T./L.S.D.A.S.) of The University of Akron School of Law; (3) present an official transcript of all work completed at the previous law school; (4) submit a non-refundable fee if never previously enrolled for credit courses at The University of Akron. Credit to be given for the prior law school work shall be determined by the dean of the School of Law.

Auditing

Members of the bar and graduates of law schools who are not yet members of the Bar may, with the permission of the dean of the School of Law, enroll for a course without credit. The auditor is required to do all the work prescribed for the regular student enrolled for credit except taking examinations. The fee for the auditor is the same as for a regular student.

Transient Students

A law student who is currently enrolled at a School of Law on the approved list of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, American Bar Association, may enroll for specified courses in the School of Law upon receipt of a completed Transient Application form (which requires written permission of the applicant’s dean) and application fee (if applicable) subject to availability of space in specified classes.

Joint Degree Programs

In order to pursue the J.D./M.B.A. or the J.D./M.Tax programs, the student must apply to and be accepted by both the School of Law and the Graduate School of the College of Business Administration. The applicant is also required to take both the L.S.A.T. and the G.M.A.T. Individuals with baccalaureate degrees in any field of study are eligible to apply for a joint program.

A brochure describing the program in more detail and an application form are available from the School of Law or from the College of Business Administration. A more detailed description of the program can be found in the College of Business Administration, Graduate School in this Bulletin.

Academic Information

Requirements

Requirements for the Degree Juris Doctor

The School of Law offers two programs leading to the degree Juris Doctor. The curriculum for a day student is designed so that the degree may be earned in three academic years consisting of six semesters. Attendance at the Summer Sessions is optional.

The curriculum for the evening student is designed so that the degree of Juris Doctor may be earned in four academic years consisting of eight semesters and three summer sessions. The Summer Sessions are an integral part of the evening program.

Except in certain exceptional cases, the day student is not permitted to take evening class, likewise an evening student is not permitted to enroll in day class without the permission of the dean.

*25 effective spring 1982
In addition, in exceptional cases the dean may authorize a student to take a reduced course load under either curriculum and stretch studies over the time prescribed for each program.

A new student is admitted at the beginning of the fall semester only.

Joint Degree Programs

The School of Law and the College of Business Administration offer a joint degree program in legal and administrative studies (J.D./M.B.A.) and a joint program in legal and taxation studies (J.D./M.Tax). These combinations are of interest to a student preparing for a career in such areas as private practice, corporate law, tax accounting and government. The total amount of time required to complete a joint degree program is less than the time required to complete both programs independently since certain courses in one college fill course requirements in the other college.

Degree Requirements

The degree of Juris Doctor is conferred upon a student of good moral character who has been recommended by the dean and faculty of the School of Law and who has:

• Completed satisfactorily all required courses, seminars and electives to earn at least 84 credits.
• Completion of a program involving extensive research and legal writing.
• Met the residency requirement of 96 weeks for the day division or 144 weeks for the evening division.
• Attained at least a 2.00 average for all courses taken and additionally, at least a 2.00 average for the senior year.
• Spent their last year at the University unless excused by a dean.

Library

The primary tool of the attorney is the written word. Thus, books take on an added importance when one undertakes a study of the law. The incoming student will soon discover that an essential portion of time and energy will be expended within the law school library. The library has a fine collection of over 142,000 volumes in an attractive and pleasant reading room. The library has all the basic legal materials for conducting legal research in all fifty states and in federal practice. Extensive materials are available for research in many subject areas of the law. The library subscribes to the series of records and briefs of the Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court. Audio tapes, video tapes and microforms are also available for use in many related areas of study.

The library is a federal government depository giving the student access to law-related publications of the federal government. The latest addition to the library is an online computer terminal for accessing legal data bases. This tool of the law office of the future is available now.

Five professional librarians (two with both a law degree and a master's degree in library science) five staff and a dozen assistants are available.

To supplement the collection are the University libraries with over one million volumes freely available to all law students and a computer terminal linking the law library to 2,300 other libraries with more than seven million titles which may be borrowed.

Curriculum

The curriculum includes foundation courses of common law origin, public law and those of a procedural nature, as well as perspective and planning courses. Law is studied by the case, problem, seminar and clinical methods. Clinical training is achieved through basic and advanced seminars which involve student participation in the work of the various legal aid, public defender, prosecutor's offices, as well as other agencies. The aim of this program of study, in addition to developing social awareness, is to train the student for technical competency, professional responsibility and for the practice of law in any common law jurisdiction.

The Law School faculty, to assist the student in planning a course selection that may be used to meet individual professional objectives while attending Law School here, adopted a suggested track system. In addition, the primary purpose of the suggested tracks is to identify when courses will be offered in the future. Tracks have been developed for the following: required and bar courses, business, litigation and tax.

Writing Program

The tools of the practicing lawyer are oral and writing skills. As an incoming law student, experience will be gained in using and improving these skills. All first-year students take a course in legal research and advocacy. During the year the student learns to use the specialized research materials of the law, gains experience using the latest computerized legal data bases, is supervised in a writing experience and has a chance to present written and oral arguments before a mock court.

A second year student is enrolled in the appellate advocacy course. There, a student reads a transcript, identifies and briefs the issues and presents oral argument. This exercise closely simulates a true appellate experience. In the final year, the student takes an intensive, advanced legal writing course which concentrates on drafting of statutes, pleadings and other legal documents.

Subsequent experiences in writing are met through seminar, paper assignments for courses, individual studies, moot court briefs, law review or clinical experience. Opportunities are provided to exercise verbal skills thus enabling the student to become a successful advocate.

The Akron Law Review

A board of student editors prepares and edits, with the advice of the dean and faculty, The Akron Law Review, a quarterly legal periodical devoted to legal research and commentary on the law. Membership on the board is limited to the student of superior academic achievement or of demonstrated writing skill who desires to engage in legal research, analysis, writing and editorship. Membership on the board of student editors is indicative not only of scholarship, but of valuable training in skills important to the profession of law.

Standards of Academic Work

Academic averages are computed by dividing the grade points achieved by the credits attempted. When a course is failed and repeated, the credits and the grade points involved each time are included in the computation as if the repeated course were an independent course.

A grade-point ratio of less than 2.00 is unsatisfactory. After the first year, a law student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory will be either placed on probation, suspended for a definite period of time or dropped from the school at any time by the dean. Reinstatement is determined by the dean of the School of Law with advice of the Faculty Academic Committee. Written petition for reinstatement should be addressed to the dean.

If a student withdraws from a course with the permission of the dean, it will not count as work attempted. If a student leaves a course without the permission of the dean or is dropped from any course by the dean, the student is given a failing grade in the course and it is counted as work attempted.

Withdrawal From A Course

A student may withdraw from a course for any reason up to the mid-point of a semester or summer session with the signature of a dean.

After the mid-point of a semester or a summer session, but prior to the last week of classes, a student must have the written approval of both instructor and

* Not calculated in cumulative average.
Withdrawing a student. The student may appeal to the dean of the School of Law who shall make the final decision. For complete withdrawal from the law school, a student must have written permission from a dean.

An approved withdrawal will be indicated on the University of Akron official academic record by a "W". A student who leaves a course without going through the withdrawal procedure will be given an "F" in the course.

The Honor System

Consistent with the aim of training professionally responsible lawyers, and in recognition of the importance of honor and integrity of the individual lawyer, the faculty has placed the responsibility of honorable conduct on the individual student and the administration of the honor system on a council of students composed of Student Bar Association officers and class representatives. The entering students will receive a copy of the Honor Code.

Faculty Research Assistance

The student showing scholarship is given the opportunity to work with faculty members who are conducting research. This experience improves writing and research skills, gives the student the opportunity to be involved in research on the leading edge of legal knowledge and fosters learning in a non-classroom environment.

Enrollment in Courses in Other Colleges of the University

A student interested in taking courses in other colleges of the University may do so upon written consent of the dean. The study of law is considered a full-time pursuit, so each request is considered on an individual basis and in no case may a student use more than six credits earned outside of the law school for Juris Doctorate degree requirements.

Bar Admission

Each student entering the School of Law is encouraged to read the rules for bar admission for the state in which the student intends to practice law. This information is available from the various state supreme courts. In addition, the information is on file in the library.

For the student interested in practicing in the state of Ohio, the Supreme Court of Ohio requires that each student entering a law school who intends to practice law in Ohio file within 120 days from the beginning day of the fall term after initiating studies:

- An application for registration as a law student.
- Evidence of his meeting the pre-legal educational requirements established by the Rule.
- A legible set of fingerprints on a prescribed form.
- A filing fee of $30.

As a condition for taking the bar examination, the applicant must:

- File an application not less than 90 days prior to the date of the bar examination.
- Present a certificate from the School of Law stating that the student has completed or will complete all courses required by the Rule.
- A filing fee of $60.

The appropriate Ohio forms may be obtained from the School of Law on request.

It is the responsibility of the student to initiate a request for, execute properly and file timely, the requisite forms to the state in which the student intends to practice law.

Clinical Training and Public Services

The University of Akron School of Law, in recognition of the need to adequately prepare the student for future roles as an attorney, has created an urban clinical program, as described below.

Appellate Review Office

The vast bulk of the student-oriented, public service activities offered by the School of Law emanate from the Appellate Review Office. It is staffed by attorneys and six to eight student staff members. The student becomes eligible to work in the office after completion of the first year and receives either an hourly wage or academic credit.

As the office name implies, most of the work done involves postconviction representation. The office staff has perfected appeals in the State Courts of Appeal, the Supreme Court of Ohio, all of the Ohio Federal Courts and the United States Supreme Court.

One unique characteristic of the office is the substantial responsibility each student has for assigned cases. The student is responsible for doing the research, preparing drafts, compiling the final briefs and corresponding with the courts and other attorneys. The school has established this program with the goal of giving the conscientious student the opportunity to experience the practice of law in a supervised environment.

In addition to the Appellate Review Office, there are other associated activities where a student may experience the full gamut of legal problems.
Domestic Relations

Under supervision of a staff attorney, the law student with a legal intern certificate represents indigent persons with domestic relation problems (e.g., dissolutions, divorces, child custody and support). The student has primary responsibility for the gathering of information, drafting of pleadings and court representation of the client.

Landlord-Tenant

Many people are becoming enlightened about their rights as tenants, and the need for quick and effective legal representation in this field affords the student the opportunity to represent clients at the inception of the case. The student has primary responsibility for fact gathering, which may entail on-site investigation, counseling and strategy planning.

Inmate Assistance Project

This is a unique student-run program in the state of Ohio; participants travel to and conduct interviews with prison inmates attempting to resolve their criminal and civil law problems. The student is encouraged to participate in this program from the very beginning of law school. Participation involves travel to either the reformatory for men or women, interviewing of inmates and follow-up on legal problems.

Clinical Seminar

The student interested in experiencing the operations of public agencies may sign up to work in outside agencies, for credit. The student is assigned to various agencies, such as the County and City Prosecutor’s Offices, County Public Defender’s Office and the County Legal Aid Office. At placement, the student is able to see the inner workings of these offices while gaining a rich variety of knowledge. In coordination with this clinic, a course is taught which emphasizes the learning of interviewing and client-counseling techniques.

Moot Court Programs

To develop the dual skills of advocacy: oral prowess and brief writing, the student is encouraged to participate in the several moot court programs within and without the school. These programs enable the student to learn and polish the skills of legal writing and oral advocacy through the vehicle of “moot” or academic problems. The student is encouraged to participate in any of the following programs.

National Moot Court

During the first year of studies, the student is given bids to try out for the law school’s National Moot Court Team, based on that person’s performance in the legal writing and research courses. A student is selected to represent the school in the national and regional competitions during the second and third academic year on the basis of a presentation in an intramural competition.

Voluntary Moot Court

For the student who does not participate in the National Moot Court Program, Voluntary Moot Court is available in the spring of each year. In this activity the student is given a “moot” problem, asked to prepare briefs and present oral argument against fellow students. The highlight comes in the final round when the competitors are evaluated by judges from the State Court of Appeals.

Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition

The student interested in exploring international law on an appellate level competes on a national scale in this competition. Problems are always relevant and timely.

Enrichment Programs

The school is firmly committed to the belief that the quality of legal education, both within the school and in the legal community as a whole, is enhanced by the free exchange of ideas on matters of contemporary importance.

Law Day Speaker Program

The law school has sought to facilitate visits by individuals who may have particular insight into issues facing the local community.

The longest running program is the Law Day Speaker, in which the Student Bar Association and the Akron Bar Association, jointly bring to campus a speaker of national stature to present a public address on an issue of concern to those involved in the study and practice of law.

Annual International Law Symposium

Each year since 1972 the school and the International Law Society have sponsored a two-day International Law Symposium. Participants in the program are internationally known experts within the field. The proceedings are published each year in a subsequent edition of the Akron Law Review.
Special Seminars

In addition, the Student Bar Association has conducted special seminar programs throughout the year. These programs have included:

- American Civil Liberties Union’s involvement in Skokie, Illinois’ march by the American Nazi Party — its first amendment implications and other topics.
- Prisoners’ Rights Seminar.
- Evidence Seminar — hearsay rule, and the art of cross-examination.
- Proposed revisions of the Federal Criminal Code.

The Student Bar Association has also sponsored visits by distinguished lecturers on various political, social and legal aspects of our society.

The BFGoodrich Company Chair of Law

The BFGoodrich Company endowed a Professorial Chair of Law in International Transactions and Relations. Its aim is to assist in the training of a law student as a counselor in business, government and private practice in international business transactions, and education in a global awareness of the economic and political problems of other nations, as reflected in their legal systems. With the cooperation of other academic units of the University, a unique opportunity is provided for an interdisciplinary study of subject matter areas such as in business, economics and government vital to counseling in international transactions and relations. Professor Hamilton DeSausserre is the holder of the BFGoodrich Company Chair of Law.

Honors and Awards

The Akron National Bank provides an annual award of $200 to the graduating senior who excels in the study of the law of trusts and estates, with the selection to be made by the dean.

The Anderson Publishing Company awards the highest ranking graduating student in Corporations each year a copy of Anderson’s Ohio Corporation Desk Book, and to the highest ranking graduating student in Wills a copy of Lynn Will Clauses.

The Banks-Baldwin Law Publishing Company awards annually a two-volume work entitled Jacoby’s Ohio Civil Practice Under the Rules to the graduating law student displaying scholarship in the study of Code Pleading, as determined by the dean, School of Law.

The Bracton’s Inn Award, established by the Law Wives Club of the School of Law, is presented annually in recognition of superior performance in the law school’s moot court program.

The Bureau of National Affairs, Inc. awards a one-year complimentary subscription of The United States Law Week to a graduating student who, in the judgment of the faculty, has made the most satisfactory progress during the senior year.

The Client Counseling Competition, sponsored by Bracton’s Inn and the Student Bar Association, offers an annual prize of a $25 United States Savings Bond and a certificate to the winners of a simulated exercise in lawyer-client consultation and accompanying office memoranda, and an opportunity to compete in regional and national competition.

The Dennis and Company Incorporated Law Book publishers award is presented annually in recognition of superior performance in the Law School’s Moot Court program.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, award to top ranking students in about twenty-four courses a specially bound copy of the equivalent title from their multi-volume publication, as determined by the instructor(s) in charge.

The Judge W. E. Pardee Memorial Award of $300 (established 1963-64) is presented annually to a participant (or team of participants) in Bracton’s Inn (the Case Club of the School of Law) who best displays (display) advocacy skill and professional decorum, as determined by intramural competition.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, Grant Chapter, awards annually the Judge Florence E. Allen Memorial Award of a $50 United States Savings Bond to a graduating law student predicated upon meritorious achievements in scholastics, community service and P.A.D., as determined by a committee chaired by the dean, School of Law.

Prentice-Hall, Inc. provides annually a complimentary subscription to its Federal Tax Guide, edition “A,” to the graduate who has excelled in the study of taxation, as determined by the dean, School of Law.

The West Publishing Company annually awards four titles of Corpus Juris Secundum to students of all classes who have made the most significant contribution to overall legal scholarship, and four titles from the Hornbook Series to students with the highest academic average in each of the classes, as determined by the dean, School of Law.

Scholarships

The Akron Bar Association Auxiliary Scholarship, established by the Akron Bar Association Auxiliary, provides an annual scholarship not to exceed $1,000 to a student in the full-time program of law study. The Akron Bar Association University Scholarship Committee, on the basis of scholarship, legal aptitude, character and need and with the advice of the dean, School of Law, shall make the selection, giving first preference to a resident of Summit County, Ohio. A recipient may apply for an annual renewal of the scholarship.
The Professor Hollis P. Allan Memorial Book Fund was established in 1980 in memory of a beloved law professor and is awarded as determined by the dean, School of Law.

The Evan B. Brewster Book and Scholarship Award is funded by income from an endowment fund established in 1978 by Attorney Evan B. Brewster and is awarded to deserving law students, as determined by the dean, School of Law.

The Briner, Catanzariti and Rakes University of Akron School of Law Taxation Scholarship, established in 1978, is awarded annually in the amount of $1,000 to an entering student in the full-time program of law study, on the basis of merit, who was the outstanding graduate of The University of Akron College of Business Administration, from the finance or accounting department, as determined by the dean, School of Law, upon recommendations submitted by the dean, College of Business Administration. The scholarship is not renewable to the recipient.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company Fund is a fund established in 1969 by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company Fund, of which the principal and income will be used for scholarships and emergency expenses of students admitted to the School of Law under the Legal Education Opportunity Program, on the recommendation of the dean, School of Law. The fund is administered by the University Development Foundation.

The Howland Memorial Fund provides Frank C. Howland Scholarships to deserving law students of demonstrated scholastic attainment, as nominated by the dean, School of Law.

The Judge and Mrs. W. E. Pardee Memorial Scholarship in an amount not to exceed $500 is awarded annually to a deserving, full-time law student of demonstrated scholarship.

The Judge James G. France Scholarship is a fund established in 1979 by Mrs. France in memory of her husband James France, who gave the School of Law 22 years of distinguished service. The scholarship is awarded to a deserving law student demonstrating scholastic attainment as determined by the dean, School of Law.

The Lee Ferbsteln Scholarship Fund established by the Akron Education Association (A.E.A.) in 1979 as a tribute to Lee Ferbsteln, for more than 30 years A.E.A. legal counsel and a former member of the University’s Board of Directors. The scholarship covers tuition, books, fees, room and board, all or in part, for a student enrolled in the School of Law, with primary interest in the field of labor law. The student should be a resident of Akron, Ohio, and a third year law student; otherwise there are no restrictions as to race, creed, color, sex or national origin. Selection of the recipient is determined by the dean of the School of Law, with assistance by the University Relations Committee of the A.E.A.

The Herman Muehlsteln Foundation of New York established a fund to provide scholarships to qualified students from the New York City area, as nominated by the dean, School of Law.

The Matthew 25:31-46 Scholarship Fund is an endowed scholarship fund established in 1981 to provide tuition assistance for nuns enrolled in the School of Law preparing for service as poverty lawyers. Selection of the recipient and the amount of financial assistance is determined by the School of Law.

The Ohio Law Opportunity Fund is provided by members of the Bench and Bar in Ohio to assist Ohio residents from disadvantaged backgrounds as nominated by the dean, School of Law.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, annually makes available nationally twenty-one $50 awards, and loans up to $1,000, to senior students who are members of the fraternity. Application should be made through the faculty adviser of the Grant Chapter, School of Law.

The Judge and Mrs. Charles Sacks Scholarship is a fund established in 1969-70, the Centennial Year of the University, in honor of Judge and Mrs. Charles Sacks by their children, Robert and Naomi Christman, Sy and Laurel Fischer and Harvey and Shirley Friedman, of which the income will be used to provide scholarships to deserving students in the School of Law, on the recommendation of the dean, School of Law.

The Fully R. Spain, Jr., Memorial Fund was established in 1980 by family and friends in loving memory of Fully R. Spain, Jr., a 1973 School of Law graduate. This scholarship provides $1,000 annually for a student enrolled in the School of Law, as determined by the dean.

The Joseph Thomas Memorial Law Scholarship Fund is a fund established in 1976 by the Firestone Foundation in memory of Joseph Thomas, Esquire, the income from which is used to assist a financially deserving student or students of high academic potential and achievement residing in Summit County, on the recommendation of the dean, School of Law. The award may be renewed.

The University Board of Trustees Tuition Remission Scholarships are available for entering and continuing law students on the basis of scholarship and/or need as determined by the dean, School of Law.

For additional information and application forms for the above scholarships, contact the associate dean at the School of Law (216) 375-7331.

Activities and Organizations

ARETE, a student-managed publication, publishes a monthly newsletter intended to serve as a forum for law students, faculty and outside opinions on a wide range of contemporary issues related to law and the School of Law. ARETE is open to students after the first year.

The Black American Law Student Association (B.A.L.S.A.) was accredited as a law student organization in 1974 and is an affiliate of National B.A.L.S.A., Inc. Dedicated to the twin objectives of increasing minority enrollment and retention, B.A.L.S.A. sponsors seminars on subjects such as legal rights of blacks, poor and oppressed people.

Bracton’s Inn, styled after the old English Inns at Court, is a student-run group having primary responsibility for developing student brief writing and oral advocacy programs. A student may become a member of the inn by engaging in any of the various oral advocacy programs offered during the school year. Among the activities sponsored by the inn are: client counseling competition, high school mock trial, voluntary mock trial, and Order of Barristers.

The Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, Seiberling Senate, was chartered in 1973, in honor of Congressman John F. Seiberling. The objective of Delta Theta Phi is to bring together congenial men and women of good will and common purpose who regard the study and practice of law as activities worthy of the highest human endeavor. A law student in good standing is eligible for membership after the first semester.

The Law School Alumni Association was formed in 1974 and has since supported activities and programs which enhance the quality of education at the School of Law. The association operates in conjunction with the Law Placement Office and assists students and graduates in their placement efforts. Members in the association provide support for various school activities and receive a newsletter, alumni directory and other benefits.

Founded in 1971, the International Law Society emphasizes the study of and active participation in, international law. Interested students are encouraged to join to work towards the development of programming, panel discussions and competitive events highlighting this growing and exciting field of law. The International Law Society co-sponsors the annual International Law Symposium.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, Grant Chapter, was established in 1962. Through service to the student, the school and the legal profession, Phi Alpha Delta strives to advance not only the attainment of a high standard of scholarship, but also the development of a spirit of good fellowship among its men and women members. Speakers, workshops, parties, luncheons and the annual used-book sale are among some of the activities sponsored by Grant Chapter. The fraternity welcomes all students in good standing after the first semester.

The Student Bar Association develops innovative educational programming, maintains ties with the legal community through joint ventures and plans the various student social and legal activities throughout the school year. Membership is open to all law school students. The student desiring an opportunity to actively direct the course of student law school involvement is encouraged to seek election to this body.

Law Association for Women’s Rights is concerned with the evolving role of the woman attorney within our legal system, as well as the changing rights of women in the community. This association is of local origin, non-aligned with any national organization. Its membership is comprised of male and female law students and members of the local bar. The group has a multi-faceted approach to achieving its goals, which include providing undergraduate women with law school information, heightening community awareness of women’s rights and problems and providing topical discussion groups.

Alan N. Gent, Ph.D., Dean of Graduate Studies and Research
Joseph M. Walton, Ph.D., Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and Research
Robert G. Corbett, Ph.D., Coordinator of Research

In the past, colleges and universities have been thought of as ivy-covered storehouses of knowledge where neatly packed information was dispensed to eager students. But this has never been true, for it is here that much of the new knowledge developed. And with the accelerating tempo of our times, there is an increased call for the universities to provide more new knowledge to enable society to cope.

The University of Akron is alive to this challenge and has sought to develop its research program with an eye to the needs of the society it serves. Here the emphasis is on work that is relevant, not on mere knowledge for knowledge's sake. One consequence of the University's concern with relevant research has been the number of interdisciplinary teams that have been put together to tackle specific problems. For instance, problems in connection with water pollution have used the services of chemists, biologists, chemical, mechanical and civil engineers. While the planning and organization of a research project is usually carried out by or with the assistance of a faculty member, both the graduate and undergraduate student have the opportunity to participate, depending on the nature of the project and the skills and knowledge required.

Sponsored research activities on campus are coordinated by the Research Council founded in 1962; it also serves as the policy-making body for research. The council consists of the dean of graduate studies and research, the coordinator of research and the directors of the various research institutes.

Institute for Biomedical Engineering Research (I.B.E.R.)
Robert E. Herron, Ph.D., Director

This institute was established in 1979 to promote interdisciplinary studies in the rapidly growing areas of knowledge which overlap the fields of biology and medicine, on the one hand, and engineering and the physical sciences, on the other. It conducts seminars, courses and degree programs in biomedical engineering in association with the College of Engineering and individual departments.

In addition to its research and educational functions, the institute provides a research service to local hospitals and industry, as well as to private and government agencies. The premise for this program is that the combined resources of the University, Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine and affiliated organizations will often permit more cost-effective solutions than would be possible by an individual or group doing the research independently.

The work of the institute is carried out by "members" selected from the faculties of The University of Akron and Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine, as well as from the ranks of area physicians, engineers and scientists. A director appointed by the president of the University coordinates the activities of the institute through the senior vice president and provost.

Institute of Civic and Educational Research
H. Kenneth Barker, Ph.D., Director

Concerned with the increasingly complex human problems facing our society today, this institute is carrying out a number of studies designed to assist government and industry to meet the challenges of the times. In addition to studies whose concern is to improve the educational process, there are a number of programs which aim to improve governmental service, both by devising new solutions to problems and by bringing together experts in various fields to share their expertise with others.

Center for Economic Education
Fred M. Carr, Ph.D., Director

The center exists to improve the economic literacy of individuals in order to help them function competently as citizens, producers and consumers.

The center conducts workshops, seminars and economic programs for teachers, students and interested groups. It provides consulting services in the area of economic education and acts as a clearinghouse for the gathering and dissemination of economic education materials and programs. It also fosters an understanding and appreciation of the American economic system.

Center for Environmental Studies
Jim L. Jackson, Ph.D., Director

The Center for Environmental Studies matches the expertise of 95 affiliates in 33 disciplines with the needs of a student seeking study and research opportunities in complex environmental issues. Since its founding in 1970, the center has sponsored, or in other ways supported, activities appropriate to the goal of attaining a quality environment for mankind.

The center coordinates special forums, workshops and seminars that address major issues. Examples include the National Energy Forum, 1976; the World Food Forum, 1976; and the Application of Geologic and Soils Information, 1979. Teacher workshops on energy, natural history and environmental studies in England also emphasize the interdisciplinary approach to the resolution of issues.

The center is currently working with the National Park Service to provide a program of environmental studies in the Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area (C.V.N.R.A.). These programs are operated through the University’s Oak Hill Center for Environmental Studies. Located in the C.V.N.R.A., the center encourages research and educational opportunities in the park. Oak Hill activities are supported by grants from foundations, the National Park Service, The University of Akron and fees from program participants.

Institute for Futures Studies and Research
Gary Gappert, Ph.D., Director

The Institute for Futures Studies and Research was established in 1978 to provide a focal point, function as a catalyst and assist in establishing curricula, studies and cross-disciplinary activities dealing with the future. Because of its very nature, the institute encourages involvement and cooperation of faculty and students from a variety of disciplines.

Among its major activities, the institute will work with faculty, administration and the University’s standing Commission on Institutional Planning and Development to facilitate integration of futures research and awareness with academic programming, planning and decision making.

The institute also plans to involve local business, industry and local government in futures studies by establishing a local chapter of the World Future Society to encourage interest in forecasting, trends and ideas about the future.

Center for International Programs
Laurence J. C. Ma, Ph.D., Director

The University of Akron serves a community that is very much on the international scene. The world’s major rubber industries that are located here have plants in every part of the globe, as do many of the city’s smaller industries. Our student population includes more than 400 foreign students. The University faculty has wide interests and has traveled extensively to various parts of the world. The various colleges of the University have developed programs to give the student an awareness of the global nature of knowledge. There are numerous courses in non-western studies, area concentrations, programs in international business and various opportunities for students and alumni to travel overseas.

Through its advisory committee, composed of faculty and students of the various colleges, the Center for International Programs attempts to find ways of committing the University to programs that produce a student who will be more knowledgeable about the total world in which we find ourselves. Hopefully, this can be done by increasing the international content of our various courses and finding ways to expose students and faculty to the various cultures of the world.

Learning Resources Center
William Mavrides, M.A., Director

In order to provide opportunities for self-paced learning, the University created the Learning Resources Center (L.R.C.) in 1974. Located in Carroll Hall 200, the L.R.C. is equipped with thirty-six active learning carrels and twenty-four table study stations.

The center is under supervised operations for an average of sixty hours weekly for the student to meet the natural sciences requirement.

Equipment available includes a wide assortment of slide, film and film-strip projectors; audio-cassette-headphone equipped playback units; two- and three-dimensional biological and geological models; maps, charts, etc.: and mineralogical specimens available for “hands-on” experiences. The student choosing this approach is provided with notes and other types of study guides to assist in academic pursuits.

The courses are presented in modularized fashion enabling the student to complete and be tested over one module or unit at a time before proceeding to the next step. Graduate students and teaching assistants from the natural sciences departments are periodically available for personal counseling and advising as are the course instructors when their schedules permit.

Study units are also available in elementary statistics for mathematics, phonetics for speech pathology; financial management for the Community and Technical College student; and calculus of functions of a single variable and partial derivatives.

Institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology
Harvey L. Sterns, Ph.D., Director

The Institute for Life-Span Development and Gerontology was formally established at The University of Akron in February 1976. The statement of purpose of the institute is to bring together disciplines and activities of the University — in training, in research and in public service — so that, in the broad application, we may improve the quality of life for the young, the middle aged and the elderly of our community. Thus, through interdisciplinary involvement, the institute is concerned with research and training in the areas of child and adult development as well as with response to the needs and wants of older adults.

Among the objectives of the institute are: to coordinate a multidisciplinary program in life-span development and gerontology with undergraduate and graduate certificate programs to be received with associate, baccalaureate or graduate degrees in existing academic programs; to provide student placement experience which involves children and older adults in other community agencies and facilities.

Bureau of Organizational Development
Joseph C. Latona, Ph.D., Director

The Bureau of Organizational Development in the College of Business Administration is an outgrowth of the Institute of Business and Economic Research which was one of the four facets of the Research Council established in September 1962 by the University Board of Trustees. The institute was renamed in 1975 as its functions had been expanding to fill a community need. The general goal of the bureau is to update the organizational skills of area managers in all types of organizations and at all levels. The bureau cooperates with business, government, professional and service groups in evaluating and analyzing their specific needs, designing programs and coordinating programs to meet the particular needs of these groups.

Center for Peace Studies
Warren F. Kuehl, Ph.D., Director

The Center for Peace Studies at the University has been established to study the subject of international peace within the threefold framework of the University's goal of education, research and public service. A peace studies certificate program is available for the student who wishes to pursue this course of study and the center sponsors special campus programs, a film series and an international newsletter. It is engaged in research projects and cooperates with organizations in the community interested in peace and with institutes and peace centers on other campuses.

Institute of Polymer Science
Frank N. Kelley, Ph.D., Director

The Institute of Polymer Science carries out basic and applied research in polymer science and the graduate training of polymer scientists and engineers.

Because of its location in the heart of the world's largest concentration of rubber industries, The University of Akron has always maintained a special interest in the science of rubber, dating back to the establishment in 1908 of the world's first course in rubber chemistry by the late Dr. C. M. Knight. During World War II, the research activities were expanded under the impetus of the United States Government Synthetic Rubber Program. After the war, it soon became apparent that the phenomenal rise of the synthetic rubber industry had brought the whole science and technology of rubber into the broader field of polymer science, and the need for polymer scientists was fast outstripping the meager supply. Hence, the establishment of the Institute of Rubber Research in 1956 was accompanied by the inauguration of the University's Ph.D. program in polymer chemistry, the first of its doctoral programs.

Because polymer science and technology seeks ultimately to relate the molecular structure of macromolecules to their physical behavior, it requires the combined efforts of chemists, physicists and engineers. Hence the best trained polymer scientist or engineer is one who has a broad understanding, including areas outside his own specialty. To fill this need, the University, in 1964, broadened its original program into an interdisciplinary program in polymer science, available to chemists, physicists and engineers, and leading to M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in polymer science. This program is administered by the Department of Polymer Science, the academic arm of the institute.

The institute and department occupy the north tower of the Auburn Science and Engineering Center and the adjacent Whitby Hall. It includes both chemical and physical laboratories, the latter devoted to physical measurements on polymers and elastomers. These facilities enable a wide scope of research to be carried out, including organic reactions, polymerization studies, characterization of macromolecules and physical behavior and testing of polymers and elastomers. The well-equipped laboratories, together with the large interdisciplinary group of faculty, staff and graduate students, make the institute a unique facility in this field. It is now comprised of 13 full-time faculty members in various disciplines, a combined technical and non-technical staff of 10 and 65 full-time graduate students, mainly pursuing doctoral degrees. Thus, the institute is the largest academic facility of its kind in the United States.

The basic research work at the institute is performed by graduate degree candidates under the supervision of faculty. The character of this research makes it suitable for use in the graduate thesis or dissertation.

The institute also operates an applied research section which undertakes projects as a service for government and industry, performed by a special staff.

Institute for Technological Assistance
Andrew L. Simon, Ph.D., Executive Director

This institute provides technical assistance nationally and internationally to those seeking to advance their academic status. It assists individual faculty members in their research and educational efforts and carries out various functions as defined by protocols and contracts in this country and with foreign nations.
One of the greatest challenges facing the urban university is that of effectively using its many resources in urban analysis. The Center for Urban Studies at the University was established in 1965 in response to this challenge and is the focus around which the University applies available knowledge to urban problem solution. The center seeks to organize and develop programs and research areas which use and stimulate faculty participation in urban area analysis. The center's objectives are to apply new methods and to experiment with new approaches in solving urban problems. Thus, it strives to stimulate, within the University, creative solutions to urban problems by coordinating the urban perspectives of the various disciplines and professions.

The center provides advisory and research expertise in a wide range of areas to both public and private agencies on all levels. Research covers such areas as urban and regional planning, administrative organization, cost-benefit analysis, community development, housing, intergovernmental relations, urban employment, criminal justice planning, recreation, social services planning and urban education.

The center represents a multidisciplinary approach to the analysis of the urban region. It augments its research capabilities by drawing upon the expertise of the faculties in the various colleges within the University. Through its programs in research, data accumulation and extension, the center provides the setting and facilities through which interested faculty and graduate students can become involved in urban research or public service activities.
Continuing Education and Public Services

William A. Rogers, Ed.D., Executive Dean
Kathryn Vegso, M.S.Ed., Associate Dean

Background

Since 1956, the University has offered special institutes, workshops and courses to professional groups. The University, through its academic departments, Institute for Civic Education, Department of Special Programs and its various institutes and centers will continue to provide "outreach" programs.

As an urban institution of higher learning, the University clearly identifies and supports its public service role. Off-campus programs have been developed throughout the calendar year.

The Urban Commitment

The mission of most universities includes teaching, research and public service. Time and location dictates the varying manner by which institutions of higher education carry out their mission.

The rate of man's knowledge has accelerated at a staggering pace in the past three decades. The University's traditional mission to educate 18 to 22 year olds and reproduce its own replacements in the doctoral format is too limiting a role for an urban institution. A society that supports urban public higher education expects the University to play a wider role and to intersect with almost all segments of its population. There now exists a greater need for continued education.

Some have observed that for the first time in our history, Americans are members of a learning society in addition to the working one. If an urban institution of higher learning is to fulfill its non-traditional role, different administrative structures within the institution are necessary to provide a proper balance among teaching, research and service. At The University of Akron, a variety of such units are dedicated to the support of the urban commitment.

Objectives

The primary objective is to provide University-level continuing education; programs for those beyond college age; and other educational programs for adults interested in non-degree oriented activities. In addition, the establishment and maintenance of an effective liaison with all Akron area agencies responsible for formal and informal post-secondary education is part of the University's urban mission.

Other objectives include the following:

- To offer meaningful learning opportunities to those engaged in the various professions.
- To offer assistance to industry, business, labor, public officials and community leaders in developing staff personnel and programs that will help them function more effectively.
- To offer joint University and community assistance to local, specialized organizations, agencies and other community groups to help them achieve their educational goals.
- To offer a variety of opportunities to adults who wish to increase their personal awareness and insights as individual members of a larger society.
- To serve as a coordinating body for post-secondary activity for the Akron area.
- To support and conduct research directed toward the identification of innovative approaches to continuing education and public service.
- To provide training programs for off-campus clients that will upgrade skills and help organizations improve the quality of their services.
- To motivate continuing education personnel to become sensitive to individual and group, implicit and explicit, needs within the community.

Therefore, Continuing Education and Public Services will cooperate with faculty and all campus offices to develop proposals for outside funds to help the University better serve its many audiences.

Institute for Civic Education

Marvin E. Phillips, M.A., Director
Mary Elizabeth Chesrown, B.A., Assistant Director

The institute for Civic Education is the conference and seminar programming center for the University. Many informal programs are designed for the community, utilizing the resources of the entire University and community. These programs are conducted both on and off the University campus; they vary in length and frequency; many are free.

Universities cannot completely rely on the traditional academic classroom approach to fulfill the requirements of education for public responsibility because learning is a life-long process distilled from varied educational and practical experiences. The institute sees its role as the catalyst for bringing together the skills and expertise of University personnel and community leaders to focus on the issues and problems of the urban society.

The continuing educational services provided by the institute include:
• Conference and seminar planning for organizations both on and off campus.
• Organizing the College Ambassador program.
• Publishing the monthly Civic Educalendar listing events and programs.
• Initiating the weekly Current Issues Forum.
• Coordinating University and community groups in the weekly Akron Area Film Society.

Programs are described in special announcements that are distributed through specialized and general mailing lists.

The institute represents the University in many community, state and national organizations including the Ohio Association for Adult Educators, United Community Council of Executives and Foreign Policy Association.

Department of Special Programs
Richard R. Teaff, Ph.D., Director
Sandra B. Edwards, M.A., Assistant Director

Continuing education is a necessity for many persons wishing to improve work skills. For others, it is a leisure-time avocation for personal enrichment. Since 1937, The University of Akron, through the Department of Special Programs' year-round sessions, has offered courses in both categories for adults who do not require academic credit.

More than 175 classes, based upon the educational needs of the community, are offered each term. There are no requirements for admission to informal courses and any educational background is acceptable. Interest in learning in a relaxed and non-competitive environment is the only consideration.

Permanent student records are kept for all persons enrolled. Homework and examinations may be given; however, certificates of satisfactory completion are awarded based solely on attendance.

Following is a representative though partial listing of types of subjects taught in classes:

• Business and Industry — Accounting, bookkeeping for small business, building trades blueprint reading, diesetting, estimating for construction, federal income taxation, human relations, investing, psychology in business and industry, production and inventory control, quality control, selling, small business management, steam plant operation, supervision, technical drawing.
• Communications Skills, Verbal and Written — Creative writing, effective oral communication, English as a second language — verbal, English grammar, English review for the college bound, practical journalism, reading improvement, skills in listening, speed reading, vocabulary improvement.
• Data Processing — Assembler language, business data processing and computer programming, cobol workshop, fortran, key punching.
• Electronics — Basic electronics, fundamentals of AC-DC circuitry.
• Humanities and Fine Arts — Antiques, glass blowing, interior decorating, Judaism, motion picture production, photography.
• Mathematics — Algebra, math for everyday use, plane geometry, trigonometry.
• Metallurgy — Metal casting.
• Modern Languages and Culture — Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Greek, Italian, Polish, Romanian, Russian, Serbo-Croatian, Spanish, Swahili.
• Physical Education and Recreation — Korean karate, physical fitness for men and women, scuba and skin diving, swimming for women, self-defense for women, yoga.
• Real Estate — Appraising, commercial property, communications, finance, fundamentals I and II, house construction, legal aspects, management and investment, marketing understanding real estate.
• Science — Air pollution, engineering refresher, German, Russian for polymer scientists.
• Secretarial Skills — Business machines, certified professional secretaries review seminar, Gregg shorthand, office receptionist, typewriting.

Courses can be developed to meet special needs of business and industry and may be offered on-site for the convenience of employees.

Adult Resource Center
Kathryn Vegso, M.S.Ed., Director

The Adult Resource Center is a brokerage service which provides educational information, guidance and referral, and reflects a collaboration among the educational, business, governmental and social service units of the community. This community education center provides career/life planning for persons and organizations in the greater Akron area. It also serves as a catalyst for community and University organizations which want to publicize and/or develop information and programming to meet the needs of a broader segment of the population. This brokerage service represents a new network of the community's educational services; a new approach to adults making role changes; a new focus on the adults of this community as prospective learners with unique needs.

To identify the interrelationships between education and work at various stages of life, the Adult Resource Center schedules seminars and workshops to focus on helping persons plan ways to make greater use of their human potential.

For the person who has experienced career/life changes and recognizes the value of continuing to learn over the lifespan, learning consultants, at both the campus and community sites, help the individual identify and gain access to learning opportunities.

"Within each of us there is what we have not yet become."

1020: Developmental Programs

1020:040 BASIC WRITING I
4 credits
Provides basic instruction in composition skills: grammar, sentence structure, sentence combining and punctuation. Develops skills necessary to write expository paragraphs.

1020:042 BASIC WRITING II
Reviews essential areas of sentence structure, sentence combining and punctuation necessary for composition writing, but concentrates on written expository paragraphs.

1020:050 BASIC MATHEMATICS I
4 credits
Introduces the basic concepts of elementary algebra and provides an extensive review of arithmetic operations.

1020:052 BASIC MATHEMATICS II
Designed to review and strengthen skills needed for credit mathematics courses.

1020:060 COLLEGE READING
4 credits
Designed to improve general reading ability and develop effective study strategies with emphasis on vocabulary development, basic comprehension, textbook reading, study and test-taking techniques.

1020:071 DEVELOPMENTAL NATURAL SCIENCE: CHEMISTRY
Review of mathematics as applied in chemistry; fundamental principles in scientific approach to solving problems; basic principles of general chemistry. May enroll for a second semester.

1020:299 SPECIAL TOPICS: DEVELOPMENTAL PROGRAMS
Selected topics and subject areas of interest in developmental education.

Provides intensive instruction in English grammar, with an emphasis on oral skills, for native speakers of languages other than English who are planning to seek admission to a United States university.

1030:094 ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE: LISTENING
Provides intensive laboratory and class instruction designed to improve the English listening skills of native speakers of languages other than English who are planning to seek admission to a United States university.

1030:095 ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE: COMPREHENSIVE Provides intensive instruction in English writing, reading, listening and speaking for native speakers of languages other than English who are planning to seek admission to a United States university. Offered only during the summer.
1100: General Studies

1100:105 INTRODUCTION TO PUBLIC SPEAKING
3 credits
Introduction to principles and practice of speaking by reading examples of speeches, studying techniques and methods employed and applying them in a variety of speaking situations.

1100:106 EFFECTIVE ORAL COMMUNICATION
3 credits
Principles of communication in speaker-audience, group and informal settings, and application of the principles in speeches, group discussions and other oral and written assignments.

1100:111,2 ENGLISH COMPOSITION
4 credits each
Sequential. Proficiency in reading and writing of English is obtained. Reading materials used are literary works of our Western tradition.

1100:115,6 INSTITUTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES
3 credits each
Nonsequential. Descriptive and comparative study of development of modern American institutions. Covers various aspects of growth and elaboration of American governmental, social and economic institutions.

1100:120-81 PHYSICAL EDUCATION
1/2 credit each
Participation in individual and group sports. Individual can acquire knowledge and skill in activities which may be of value and satisfaction throughout life. One-half credit courses are offered one-half semester. Permission of coach necessary for enrollment in varsity sports (1100:170-181).*

1100:221 NATURAL SCIENCE: BIOLOGY
3 credits
Designed for non-science majors to illustrate fundamental concepts of living organisms with emphasis on man's position in, and influence on, the environment.

1100:222 NATURAL SCIENCE: CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Designed for non-science majors. Introduction to chemical principles at work in man and in his environment.

1100:223 NATURAL SCIENCE: GEOLOGY
3 credits
Study of basic principles and investigative techniques in various fields of geology with emphasis on relationship of geological processes to society.

1100:320,1 WESTERN CULTURAL TRADITIONS
4 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 64 credits, or permission. Introduction to human experiences of the past as manifested in the ideas, music and

Prerequisite: 213. Study of agencies regulating banks, bank charters, bank reports and examinations, federal limitations on banking operations and regulation of bank expansion. Supervision of employees to conform with regulations.

2420:225 BUSINESS MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Review of fundamentals of math applicable to business, trade prices, retail pricing, interest and discounts, compound interest and annuities, consumer credit, payroll, income taxes, depreciation methods, financial statements and elementary statistics.

2420:230 PERSONNEL PRACTICES
3 credits
Provides information necessary to develop policies and programs that attract, retain, and motivate employees. Includes staffing, human resources development, compensation plans, sound and management relations, appraisal systems and career planning.

2420:231 BASIC ACCOUNTING I
3 credits
Accounting for sole proprietorships and partnerships. Service and merchandising concerns. Journaling, ledgers, work sheets and financial statements. Includes handling of cash, accounts receivable, notes, inventories, plant and equipment and payroll.

2420:232 BASIC ACCOUNTING II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 231. Study of accounting principles as applied to corporate form of business, and of manufacturing accounting for job order and process costing, budgeting and standard costs.

2420:233 INSTALLMENT CREDIT
2 credits
Prerequisite: 232. Pragmatic course emphasizing evaluation, maintenance of consumer, commercial credit. Covers evaluation, legal as-
2430: Real Estate

2430:105 REAL ESTATE PRINCIPLES
2 credits
Introduction to real estate as a profession, process, product and measurement of its productivity. The student is responsible for reading and discussions relative to real estate and the American system.

2430:115 ELEMENTS OF HOUSING DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Discussions and readings on neighborhoods and sites, details of the interior and exterior of homes, mechanical systems and house construction which help professionals discharge agency responsibilities.

2430:125 ELEMENTS OF LAND AND REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Learning and applying step-by-step processes needed by professional developer in producing real estate for consumption.

2430:185 REAL ESTATE LAW
2 credits
Prerequisite: 105. Contents of contemporary real estate law. The student is responsible for readings covering units on estates, property rights, license laws, contracts, deeds, mortgages, civil rights and zoning.

2430:205 INTRODUCTION TO REAL ESTATE MANAGEMENT
3 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Survey course focusing on application of management process to the specialized field and product of real estate. Discussion and research topics include market analysis, marketing and administration.

2430:215 ESSENTIALS OF REAL ESTATE ECONOMICS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Student learns and applies techniques of analysis found in economics to loca real estate market and to parcels of real estate found within the market.

2430:225 INDUSTRIAL REAL ESTATE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Elements course focusing on functions of industrial real estate broker. Topics of discussion and research include site selection, development, marketin and financing transfer of industrial property.

2430:235 COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Elements course focusing on functions of commercial real estate broker. Topics of discussion and research include site selection, development, marketing and financing transfer of commercial property.

2430:245 REAL ESTATE FINANCE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Study of contents of contemporary real estate finance. Units on reading and discussion include mortgage instruments, financial institutions, mortgage market, governmental influence on finance and risk analysis and mortgage lending.

2430:255 VALUATION OF RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Methods used to estimate value in residential property including cost of reproduction, market data and income approach. Student prepares an appraisal on a residential property.

2430:285 REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 105, 185. Application of management functions of planning, organizing, directing, controlling and staffing to real estate brokerage office. Student activities include reading, discussion and research.

2430:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: REAL ESTATE
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in real estate.

2440: Data Processing

2440:120 INTRODUCTION TO INFORMATION PROCESSING
2 credits
General overview of data processing techniques providing fundamentals necessary for subsequent computer-oriented courses.

2440:131 INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisite: 120. Illustrates basic functions of computers and provides specific information about third-generation computers, including programming in actual and assembly language.

2440:132 ASSEMBLER PROGRAMMING AND JCL
2 credits
Prerequisite: 131. Involves in-depth coverage of basic assembler language including linkage conventions and macro definition. Fixed-point and decimal instruction set included.

2440:133 COBOL PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisite: 131. Introduction to Cobol with specific orientation toward the IBM System/370.
2440:234 ADVANCED COBOL PROGRAMMING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 133. Continuation of 133 including detailed applications in areas such as payroll and inventory. Disk concepts emphasized.

2440:235 CURRENT PROGRAMMING TOPICS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 234. Emphasizes topics varied to fit needs of the student at the time. Such topics as APL, programming, teleprocessing and PL/1 programming may be included.

2440:239 RPG II PROGRAMMING
1 credit
Prerequisite: 133. Report Program Generator (RPG II) programming. Includes training in RPG II coding and logical debugging as well as discussion of applications which lend themselves to the use of RPG II.

2440:241 DATA PROCESSING SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 132. Covers all phases of business systems analysis, design, development and implementation. Such principles as system and program flowchating, and file and document design emphasized.

2440:251 DATA PROCESSING PROJECTS
5 credits
Prerequisite: 241. Provides workshop for the accomplished student to thoroughly apply learned material. Projects involve systems design and implementation using Cobol.

2440:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: DATA PROCESSING
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Seminar in topics of current interest in data processing or special individual student projects in data processing.

2520: Marketing and Sales Technology

2520:103 PRINCIPLES OF ADVERTISING
3 credits
Review of basic principles and functions of current advertising practice. Includes overview of related distributive institutions, media types and economic functions of advertising.

2520:106 VISUAL PROMOTION
4 credits
Studio course in retail display and promotion techniques. Window, interior and point of purchase categories; principles of design as applied to commercial art; function in visual design, elements of design, color theory, lettering, printing process, layout to camera-ready art.

2520:201 PRINCIPLES OF WHOLESALING
2 credits
Examination of wholesaler and wholesaling function. Attention given to buying process and relationship of ultimate consumer to wholesaler.

2520:202 RETAILING FUNDAMENTALS
4 credits
Presents basic principles and practices of retailing operations, including site selection, buying, pricing and promotion practices. Use is made of extensive projects and investigations and actual retail operations.

2520:210 CONSUMER SERVICE FUNDAMENTALS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 2420:101. Discussion of problems facing business today created by social issues in society. Emphasis on understanding viewpoints of all groups involved.

2520:211 MATHEMATICS OF RETAIL DISTRIBUTION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2420:170. Basic course dealing with merchandising mathematics. Includes understanding markup types, retail method of inventory, sales and stock planning and open-to-buy computations.

2520:212 PRINCIPLES OF SALESMANSHIP
4 credits
Study of basic principles of selling, emphasizing individual demonstrations and sales projects. Includes review of sales function as integral part of marketing process.

2520:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: SALES AND MERCHANDISING
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in sales and merchandising.

2540: Secretarial Science

2540:101 BUSINESS ENGLISH
3 credits
Fundamentals of English language with emphasis on grammatical correctness, acceptable usage, spelling and punctuation. Limited writing primarily involves choice of precise words and effective sentence structure with some attention to paragraph development.

2540:121 OFFICE PROBLEMS
3 credits
Introduction to concepts regarding role of office worker, human relations, communications, productivity, reference materials, technological advances in processing information and employment opportunities.

2540:125 BUSINESS MACHINES
2 credits
Basic operations of 10-key electronic calculators. Applied business problems in depreciation, retailing, payroll, interest, taxes, metrics, proportion, expense reports, percentages and basic statistics.

2540:140 TYPEWRITING FOR NON-SECRETARIAL MAJORS
2 credits
Beginning typewriting for the non-secretarial student. Fundamentals in the operation of the typewriter; application emphasis on individual student needs such as resumes, application letters and forms, term papers, abstracting, etc. Video display terminal instruction. Credit not applicable toward Associate degree in Secretarial Science.

2540:150 BEGINNING TYPEWRITING
3 credits
For the beginning student or one who desires a review of fundamentals. Includes basic keyboard, letters, tables and manuscripts. Minimum requirement: 36 wpm with a maximum of 5 errors for 3 minutes.

2540:151 INTERMEDIATE TYPEWRITING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or equivalent. Further development of typewriting. Advanced letter styles, forms, reports and shortcuts. Minimum requirement: 40 wpm with a maximum of 5 errors for 5 minutes.

2540:171 SHORTHAND PRINCIPLES
4 credits
Gregg shorthand theory is taught. Minimum attainments: reading from notes at 100 wpm and taking dictation from new material at 50 wpm for 3 minutes. Credit not allowed if taken after 172.

2540:172 SHORTHAND REFRESHER AND TRANSCRIPTION
4 credits
Accelerated review of Gregg shorthand theory. Minimum attainments: reading from notes at 100 wpm and taking dictation from new material at 60 wpm for 3 minutes. Credit allowed if taken after 171.

2540:173 SHORTHAND AND TRANSCRIPTION
4 credits
Prerequisite: 171, corequisite or prerequisite: 151. Emphasis on developing skill in taking shorthand dictation and transcribing at typewriter. Minimum speed attainment of 70 wpm for 5 minutes on new material required.

2540:241 INFORMATION MANAGEMENT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or equivalent. Study of creation, classification, encoding, transmission, storage, retention, transfer and disposition of information. Emphasis on written, oral and machine language communication media used in business information systems.

2540:253 ADVANCED TYPEDWRITING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 151 or equivalent. To increase student's ability to do office-style production typing with minimal supervision. Minimum requirement: 50 wpm with a maximum of 5 errors for 5 minutes.

2540:254 LEGAL TYPEDWRITING
2 credits
Prerequisite: 151. Develops skill in typing legal documents and printed legal forms from rough draft materials; from straight-copy material.

2540:257 SECRETARIAL MACHINES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 253. Demonstration and laboratory practice in machines used to process data in modern office, including machines used in transcription, duplicating, automated typing and statistical typing.

2540:263 BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 119 and 2200:121 or equivalent. Business writing with emphasis on communicating in typical business situations and expressing ideas effectively to achieve specific purposes. Includes business letters, memoranda, application letters, resumes and a business report.

2540:274 ADVANCED DICTATION AND TRANSCRIPTION
4 credits
Prerequisite: 173 or equivalent. Emphasis on building dictation speed producing readable transcripts, increasing business and shorthand vocabulary and reviewing theory and expert shortcuts. Minimum speed attainment: 90 wpm for 5 minutes.

2540:276 EXECUTIVE DICTATION AND TRANSCRIPTION
4 credits
Prerequisite: 274. Final shorthand course in Executive Secretarial program. Development of skills to level of employability in business office. Emphasis on vocabulary building in specialized areas of modern business and technology. Speed range 100-140 wpm.

2540:277 LEGAL DICTATION AND TRANSCRIPTION
4 credits
Prerequisite: 274. Develops shorthand and transcription skills of legal correspondence, basic pleadings, legal papers, reports and rules of practice. Minimum speed at end of course is 100 wpm.

2540:279 LEGAL OFFICE PROCEDURES
4 credits
Prerequisite: 254. Corequisites: 277. Provides an understanding of various facets of the law, when and how to use documents, important legal procedures and typical office routine.

2540:280 WORD PROCESSING CONCEPTS
3 credits
Modern word processing and administrative management principles and practices in the organization, operation and control of office functions. Special emphasis given to secretary's role as an administrative assistant and corresponding secretary.

2540:280 SPECIAL TOPICS: SECRETARIAL SCIENCE
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics of interest in secretarial science.

2550:115 TRANSPORTATION: COMMERCIAL MOTOR
3 credits
Study of economic characteristics of commercial motor industry with emphasis on problems, practices, rates, regulations, fares, tariffs, operations, equipment and financial aspects.

2550:116 TRANSPORTATION: COMMERCIAL AIR
2 credits
Analysis of economic characteristics of commercial air industry. Study of its problems, practices, regulations, rates, fares, tariffs and services.

2550:117 TRANSPORTATION: COMMERCIAL WATER
2 credits
Theories, practices, regulations of inland and ocean-going water transportation including classification, rates, practices and tariffs.

2560:115 TRANSPORTATION: COMMERCIAL MOTOR
3 credits
Study of economic characteristics of commercial motor industry with emphasis on problems, practices, rates, regulations, fares, tariffs, operations, equipment and financial aspects.

2560:120 TRANSPORTATION TERMINAL MANAGEMENT AND SAFETY OPERATIONS
2 credits
Management problems, practices, decision making, pertaining to location of facilities, personnel programs, operations, organization and control. Attention directed to safety aspects of transportation operations.

2560:221 TRANSPORTATION TRAFFIC PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES
3 credits
Principles and practices applicable to industrial traffic management and factors affecting transportation decisions. Some items analyzed are operations, services, warehousing, privileges and documentation.

2560:222 TRANSPORTATION INTERSTATE REGULATION I
3 credits
Thorough review of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Interstate Commerce Act; their functions with emphasis on their application to each mode of transportation.

2560:223 TRANSPORTATION INTERSTATE REGULATION II
3 credits
Continuing analysis of Interstate Commerce Commission regulations, related acts and practitioner procedure. State regulations, case studies and transportation code of ethics included.

2560:227 TRANSPORTATION: FREIGHT RATES
2 credits
Analysis of freight rates, tariffs and classifications with particular attention to their application in motor transport field and extensive study through progressive problem solving.

2560:228 TRANSPORTATION: FREIGHT RATES
2 credits
Analysis of freight rates, tariffs and classifications with particular attention to their application in motor transport field and extensive study through progressive problem solving.

2740:120 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:206, 2840:100. Vocabulary and terms used by medical personnel. Usage and spelling of medical terms.

2740:130 MEDICAL ASSISTING TECHNIQUES I
3 credits
Corequisite: 120. Theory and practice in medical assisting duties most often performed in physician's office includes medical ethics and law; microbiology; care of instruments; methods of sterilization; surgical and medical asepsis.

2740:230 PHARMACOLOGY IN MEDICAL ASSISTING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 130. Introduction to history of drugs; standardization; legislation; principles of action and classification with emphasis on responsibilities of administration and the metric system.
2740:231 MEDICAL ASSISTING TECHNIQUES II
2 credits
Prerequisite: 130. Laboratory techniques; orientation to urinalysis, hematology, roentgen rays, electrocardiogram, dentistry, blood and radiology. Principles of medical terminology, metric system and administration of injections.

2740:232 MEDICAL ASSISTING TECHNIQUES III
2 credits
Prerequisite: 231. Continuation of 231. Knowledge of diagnoses and disease: special diets; theory and practice in taking vital signs; parenteral injections; orientation to medical examination.

2740:240 MEDICAL MACHINE TRANSCRIPTION
2 credits
Prerequisites: 231 and 2540:257. Designed to correlate medical terminology with secretarial skills and includes practice in various machines used in dictation and transcription found in medical offices.

2740:241 MEDICAL RECORDS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 130 and 2540:150. Preparing and handling medical records and reports used in hospitals and physicians' offices; filing procedures and systems; insurance forms; billing.

2740:242 MEDICAL ASSISTING SPECIALTIES
3 credits
Prerequisites: 231, graduate of the program; or special permission. Provides student precise knowledge in medical specialties.

2740:250 SPECIAL TOPICS: MEDICAL ASSISTING
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or workshops of interest in medical assisting technology.

2760: Radiologic Technology
2760:101 INTRODUCTION TO RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY
2 credits
Prerequisite: admission to the program. Introduction to field of radiology including history of medicine and radiology. Ethics and professional responsibilities of radiologic technologist, basic protection and basic skills. Orientation to radiology departments of affiliated hospitals. General patient care.

2760:165, 7 ANATOMY FOR RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY I, II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: admission to the program. Study of human structure and function approached and visualized through the number of imaging techniques and prepared specimens in the laboratory.

2760:180 MEDICAL AND SURGICAL DISEASES, RADIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101 and 161. Fundamental principles of disease processes, functional derangements. Background in pathology needed for radiographer will be provided by lecture and demonstrations.

2760:181 PHYSICAL SCIENCE FOR RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY I
2 credits
Prerequisite: 2020:131 and permission. Introduction to systems of measurement. Matter, force, motion, work, power, energy, basic electricity and magnetism.

2760:185, 6 RADIOGRAPHIC PRINCIPLES I, II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 161. Elementary principles of ionizing radiation and their application in medical setting. Radiographic accessories and chemical processing of exposed x-ray film.

2760:170 RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONING I
3 credits
Corequisites: 101. Introductory course in instructing student in basic positioning nomenclature and radiologic positions. Positioning laboratory experience included.

2760:171 RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONING II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 170. Continuation of 170. Includes additional positioning and refinement of positioning strategies in laboratory.

2760:184 CLINICAL APPLICATION I
4 credits
Corequisites: 101 and 170. Introduction to clinical procedures including clinical experience in hospital radiology departments, lectures and laboratory experience related to clinical experience closely supervised. Film critique stressed. Observation rotation through nuclear medicine, therapy and diagnostic techniques. Largely student observation.

2760:185 CLINICAL APPLICATION II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 184. Continuation of 184 with more involvement by student continuing under close supervision, Special procedures introduced. Student observations and student participation.

2760:230 RADIOGRAPHIC TECHNIQUE AND CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 261. Technique and control as related to basic positioning procedures for various parts of body. Relationship among electricity, time, distance, films and contrast on radiograph. A student performs experiments to demonstrate effects of these factors. Enrolled but not clinical equipment utilized.

2760:231 PHYSICAL SCIENCE FOR RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY II
3 credits

2760:232 RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONING III
3 credits
Prerequisite: 171. Continuation of 171. Includes additional positioning and refinement of positioning strategies in laboratory.

2760:233 RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONING IV
3 credits
Prerequisite: 272. Continuation of 272 utilizing advanced techniques and providing concentration of various age groups in positioning care and special techniques for pediatric and geriatric patients in laboratory.

2760:234 CLINICAL APPLICATION III
5 credits
Prerequisite: 185. Summer clinical internship in which student practices all radiographic procedures under supervision. Some independent performance with minimal supervision.

2760:235 CLINICAL APPLICATION IV
4 credits
Prerequisites: 261 and permission. Clinical performance with supervision of application at an advanced level. Special techniques, nuclear medicine, therapy, medical surgical pathology, film examination and critique. Maintenance of equipment, department administration, ethical, legal and professional responsibilities. Clinical experience in hospital radiology departments.

2760:236 CLINICAL APPLICATION V
4 credits
Prerequisite: 267. Clinical experience and minimally supervised clinical procedures of diagnostic radiology.

2760:237 CLINICAL APPLICATION VI
5 credits
Prerequisite: 265. Continuation of 238; final internship. Terminal course including review, lecture on correlation and interpretation of radiologic technology. Prepares student for certification examination.

2760:238 SPECIAL TOPICS: RADIOLOGIC SCIENCE
1-3 credits
(May be repeated with a change in topic) Prerequisite: permission. More advanced study in one or more topics in radiologic sciences. Emphasis and topics vary from year to year but will be in areas where a formal course is not otherwise available.
2770: Surgical Assisting

2770:100 INTRODUCTION TO SURGICAL ASSISTING TECHNOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: admission to the program. Study of basic principles which underlie patient care in the operating room. Role of operating room technician and legal and ethical responsibilities defined.

2770:121 SURGICAL ASSISTING PROCEDURES I
2 credits
Prerequisite: 100. Didactic and laboratory practice in principles and practices of surgical asepsis, the surgical patient, surgical procedures, care and maintenance of equipment and materials, immediate postoperative responsibilities and emergency situations in operating room.

2770:131 CLINICAL APPLICATION I
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission. Application of learned skills in care of patients in operating room of an affiliated hospital.

2770:222 SURGICAL ASSISTING PROCEDURES II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 121. Continuation of 121.

2770:232 CLINICAL APPLICATION II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 121. Application of learned skills in care of patients in operating room of an affiliated hospital.

2770:233 CLINICAL APPLICATION III
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Application of learned skills in care of patients in operating room of an affiliated hospital.

2770:234 CLINICAL APPLICATION IV
2 credits
Prerequisites: 232 and 242. A student is assigned to surgical services of affiliated hospitals. Assists in surgery and carries out preoperative and postoperative care procedures as assigned by, and under the supervision of, the surgeon or the resident surgical staff.

2770:235 CLINICAL APPLICATION V
3 credits
Prerequisite: 234. A student is assigned to surgical services of affiliated hospitals. Assists in surgery and carries out preoperative and postoperative care procedures as assigned by, and under the supervision of, the surgeon or the resident surgical staff.

2770:236 CLINICAL APPLICATION VI
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. A student is assigned to surgical services of affiliated hospitals. Assists in surgery and carries out preoperative and postoperative care procedures as assigned by, and under the supervision of, the surgeon or the resident surgical staff.

2770:241 SURGICAL ANATOMY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 100 and 3100:106. Surgical anatomy of the human body as it relates to the various surgical specialties.

2770:242 SURGICAL LABORATORY PROCEDURES
3 credits
Prerequisites: 121 and admission to program option; corequisite: 241. Classroom, laboratory instruction in surgical techniques, procedures.

2770:243 INTRODUCTION TO MEDICINE
3 credits
Prerequisites: 241, 242. Pathophysiology, clinical manifestations, therapeutic management of surgically related disorders.

2770:244 MEDICAL HISTORY AND PHYSICAL EVALUATION
2 credits
Prerequisites: 241, 242. Introduction to techniques of obtaining medical histories and physical evaluations. Techniques of interviewing and physical diagnosis.

2770:245 ROENTGENOGRAM ASSESSMENT
1 credit
Prerequisite: 242. Roentgenogram assessment and its use as a diagnostic tool. Recognition of gross abnormalities in roentgenograms of the head, neck, chest, abdomen, pelvis and extremities.

2770:248 MEDICAL LABORATORY PROCEDURES
1 credit
Prerequisite: 242. Introduction of collection, preparation, and analysis of biological fluids and other substances through standard procedures utilized in medical laboratories to aid the physician in diagnosis, treatment and prevention of disease.

2770:247 PULMONARY ASSESSMENT AND ELECTROCARDIOGRAPHY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 242. Oxygen administration, humidity control, breathing exercises, postural drainage, percussion techniques, intermittent positive pressure breathing, management of ventilators and bedside ventilation measurements. Electrocardiogram recording techniques, interpretation of electrocardiographic abnormalities-arrhythmias.

2770:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: SURGICAL ASSISTING
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or workshops of interest in surgical assisting technology.

2780: Allied Health

2780:101 INTRODUCTION TO PHYSICAL THERAPY
2 credits
History of physical therapy. Survey of treatment procedures. Role and rationale for physical therapist assistant. Legal, ethical responsibilities.

2780:230 SPECIAL TOPICS: ALLIED HEALTH
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or workshops of interest in allied health.

2790: Respiratory Therapy

2790:121 INTRODUCTION TO RESPIRATORY THERAPY TECHNOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: admission to program. Basic science and laws governing gases as well as appliances to administer and monitor oxygen. Covers equipment used to generate and give aerosol therapy, including I.P.P.B. therapy. Lecture/Laboratory.

2790:122 PATIENT CARE IN RESPIRATORY THERAPY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 121. Covers basic hospital practices in therapy, suctioning and postural drainage. Lecture/Laboratory.

2790:123 PULMONARY FUNCTION AND VENTILATORS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 122. Introduction to different brands of ventilators and their functions. Airway and airway complications.

2790:131 CLINICAL APPLICATIONS I
3 credits
Prerequisites: admission to program and 121. Introduction to work in hospital and hands-on experience on hospital equipment. Lecture/Laboratory.

2790:132 CLINICAL APPLICATIONS II
2 credits
Prerequisites: 122, 131. First of several rotations through hospitals. Specialty area of each hospital covered at that hospital. Laboratory.
2840:100 BASIC CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Elementary treatment of facts and principles of chemistry emphasizing biological application. Elements and compounds important in everyday life, biological processes and medicine. Introduction to laboratory techniques. Primarily for medical assistant, criminal justice and allied health students. Laboratory.

2840:101 INTRODUCTORY CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Facts and theories of general chemistry. Elements and compounds and their uses. Elementary treatment of atomic structure, gaseous state, periodic table, water, solutions. For chemical technology and Bachelor of Technology students. Laboratory.

2840:102 INTRODUCTORY AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101 or permission. Chemical equilibria, ionization, radioactivity. Properties of selected metals and nonmetals. Introduction to organic chemistry. Basic concepts of qualitative analysis. Identifications of cations and anions. Laboratory.

2840:103 CHEMICAL CALCULATIONS
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Review of mathematics as applied to problems in introductory chemistry and other science courses. Topics include unit conversions, percentages, concentrations, pH, gas laws, chemical equilibria, solubility products. Suitable as a refresher course.

2840:121 ORGANIC PRINCIPLES
4 credits
Structure, nomenclature and classification of simple organic compounds: their physical and chemical properties, methods of separation, analysis and synthesis. Laboratory.

2840:151 BASIC PHYSICS: MECHANICS
3 credits
Corequisite: 2020:131. Principles of mechanics. Topics include force and motion, work and energy, properties of fluids and gases and introduction to atomic physics. Laboratory.

2840:152 BASIC PHYSICS: ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM
2 credits
Prerequisites: 151 and 2020:131. Principles of electricity and magnetism. Electrostatics, basic direct current circuits, magnetism and electromagnetism, alternating currents, basic AC circuits. Laboratory.

2840:153 BASIC PHYSICS: HEAT, LIGHT AND SOUND
3 credits
Prerequisites: 151 and 2020:131. Principles of heat, light and sound. Topics include thermal behavior of matter, wave motion, sound waves, light and illumination, reflection and refraction, mirrors and lenses, interference and diffraction. Laboratory.

2840:201 QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 102. Theory of quantitative analytical chemistry including gravimetric, volumetric and electrochemical procedures. Laboratory.

2840:202 INSTRUMENTAL METHODS
4 credits
Prerequisites: 201 and one year of physics, or permission. Instrumentation employed in qualitative and quantitative analysis. Theory and practice in chromatographic, spectrophotometric and other instrumental methods. Laboratory.

2840:210 SCIENTIFIC GLASS BLOWING
1 credit
Laboratory instruction in art of glass blowing. Fabrication and blowing of scientific glassware and chemical apparatus.

2840:250 ELEMENTS OF PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 102, 153, 2020:132. Physical principles governing behavior of chemical systems. Introductory thermodynamics, solution properties, chemical equilibrium, phase rule, chemical kinetics and structure of matter. Laboratory.

2840:255 LITERATURE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission. Literature of science and technology as used to gather technical information. Techniques of abstracting and the computer search.

2840:260 COMPOUNDING METHODS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 102, 121 or permission. Principles and methods of selecting and compounding rubber for specific end uses. The compounder's art. Processing and testing of basic elastomers and products. Laboratory.

2840:270 NATURAL AND SYNTHETIC ORGANIC POLYMERS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 121 or permission. Structure and properties of macromolecules with particular reference to carbohydrates, proteins, nucleic acids, rubber. Synthetic thermoplastic, thermosetting and elastomeric polymers.

2840:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: CHEMICAL TECHNOLOGY
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits) Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in chemical technology.
2860: ELECTRONIC TECHNOLOGY

2860:120 DC CIRCUITS
4 credits
Corequisite: 2860:131. Nature of electricity, current and voltage, Ohm's Law, network analysis, DC instruments, magnetism, inductance, capacitance, transformers, and time constants.

2860:122 AC CIRCUITS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 120, corequisite: 2860:132. Sinusoidal voltage and current, reactance and impedance, methods of AC circuit analysis, AC power, transformers, resonance, polyphase circuits.

2860:123 ELECTRONICS I
3 credits
Corequisite: 122. Physical theory, characteristics, operational parameters and incircuit consideration of solid-state electronic devices.

2860:225 ELECTRONICS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 123. Linear devices and/or pertinent applications widely used in electronics. Topics include amplifier fundamentals, frequency response, operational amplifiers, special linear integrated circuits and power amplifiers.

2860:227 MEASUREMENTS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 123 or 271. Principles and use of electrical and electronic instruments including moving coil instruments, bridges, oscilloscopes and signal generators. Analysis of measurement errors.

2860:237 DIGITAL CIRCUITS I
4 credits
Prerequisite: 123. Introduction to devices and techniques used in design of combinational logic circuits. Topics include number systems, binary arithmetic, codes, Boolean algebra, Karnaugh mapping, and integrated circuit and its application in combinational solutions such as data selection, bridging, symmetric functions and ROM synthesis.

2860:238 DIGITAL CIRCUITS II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 237. Continuation of combinational logic design plus introduction to sequential logic design and microcomputer. Integrated circuit information extended into MOS and CMOS devices. Microprocessors application.

2860:242 MACHINERY AND CONTROLS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 122 and 123 or 271. Principles, characteristics and applications of DC and AC generators and motors. Basic control circuits for rotating machinery. Principles of industrial electronic devices used in machinery control such as unijunctions, SCRs, triacs, diacs. Laboratory practice with industrial machines in practical industrial circuits.

2860:251 COMMUNICATIONS CIRCUITS
3 credits

2860:255 ELECTRONIC DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 123. General and electronic drafting fundamentals and techniques with emphasis on printed circuit boards. General ship safety practices. Care and use of hand tools and power tools. Chassis and sheet metal layout and fabrication; printed circuit board fabrication; metal finishing and packaging techniques. Performance testing and troubleshooting.

2860:260 ELECTRONIC PROJECT
2 credits
Prerequisite: final semester or permission and 255. Design, construction and test by student of an electronic circuit of choice. Progress reports, oral and written reports required. Discussion of electronic design and fabrication techniques.
2880: Manufacturing Technology

2880:100 INTRODUCTION TO MANUFACTURING MANAGEMENT
3 credits
Introduction to functions of major sections of manufacturing concern. Departmental purposes identified with major emphasis on their sequential relationship with each other. Intended to identify and relate major functions encountered later in individual courses.

2880:130 WORK MEASUREMENT PROCEDURES I
2 credits
Prerequisite: 190. Familiarizes student with procedures for handwork and techniques for choosing the best method for accomplishing such tasks.

2880:141 SAFETY PROCEDURES
3 credits

2880:200 MANUFACTURING PROFITABILITY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 100 and 2420:211. Profit defined. Cost analysis and control studied. Control of price and profit within market limitations discussed.

2880:210 CONTROLLING AND SCHEDULING PRODUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 100. Production order followed from sales order through requisitioning, plant loading, expediting, scheduling and shipping. Also covers material control and inventory record keeping. Critical path, linear programming and EDP techniques discussed.

2880:231 PLANT LAYOUT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 100. Solution of activities for a production facility. Optimum arrangement of factors of production: manpower, materials and equipment.

2880:233 LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 100. Study of historical background of labor movement, management viewpoints, legal framework for modern labor organizations and collective bargaining process.

2880:235 WORK MEASUREMENT PROCEDURES II
2 credits
Prerequisite: 130. Continuation of 130. Work measurement techniques and establishment of production standards for optimization of lowered costs.

2880:241 QUALITY CONTROL PROCEDURES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2020:131. Theory and practice of inspection and sampling techniques for measurement of quality. QC charts, sampling plans, mill specs, checking machine capabilities and setting tolerances.

2880:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in industrial technology.

2900: Instrumentation Technology

2900:121 FUNDAMENTALS OF INSTRUMENTATION
4 credits
Prerequisites: 2840:151 and 2860:123 or 270. Study of variables encountered in process instrumentation, including and recording devices and applications of physical principles affecting measurement and control.

2900:221 CONTROL PRINCIPLES
3 credits

2900:232 PROCESS CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 231. Study of analysis and design of process control systems with emphasis on techniques and instrumentation used in process control. Digital control fundamentals introduced.

2900:239 PULSE CIRCUIT TESTING
3 credits

2900:240 CALIBRATION AND STANDARDIZATION
1 credit
Prerequisite: 231. Laboratory experience in calibration and standardization of electrical, electronic and mechanical systems. Instrument theory, maintenance, troubleshooting, specifications, performance and safe working practices included.

2900:241 INSTRUMENTATION PROJECT
2 credits
Prerequisite: final semester or permission. Design, construction and testing of an approved instrumentation project by an individual student, promoting independent study, relative assumption of responsibility and application of skills attained in related courses.

2900:280 SPECIAL TOPICS: INSTRUMENTATION TECHNOLOGY
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in instrumentation technology.

2920: Mechanical Technology

2920:121 TECHNICAL DRAWING I
3 credits
Lettering, proper use of drawing instruments; freehand sketching; geometric drawing; orthogonal projection; pictorials; introduction to basic descriptive geometry.

2920:122 TECHNICAL DRAWING II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 121. Sections and conventions; dimensioning; allowances and tolerances; threads and fasteners; descriptive geometry; intersections; developments.

2920:242 DESIGN MATERIALS
3 credits

2920:243 KINEMATICS
2 credits

2920:244 DYNAMICS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 243, 2020:233 and 2860:125. Introduction to particle dynamics, displacement, velocity and acceleration of a constrained rigid body in plane motion. Kinetics of particles and rigid bodies; work and energy, mechanical vibrations.
2820:246 MECHANICAL DESIGN I
5 credits

2820:247 TECHNOLOGY OF MACHINE TOOLS
3 credits

2820:248 APPLIED THERMAL ENERGY
2 credits

2820:251 FLUID POWER
2 credits

2820:252 THERMO-FLUIDS LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 249; corequisite: 251. Laboratory experiments in applied thermal energy and fluid power.

2820:260 SPECIAL TOPICS: MECHANICAL TECHNOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in mechanical technology.

2820:310 ECONOMICS OF TECHNOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 64 credits or permission. Economic principles as they pertain to technology. Equivalence, alternatives, costs, depreciation, valuation. Project studies.

2820:335 WELDING, THEORY AND PRACTICE
3 credits

2820:336 WELDING PROJECTS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 335. Individual projects containing elements of analysis, design and laboratory implementation.

2820:339 ADVANCED SHOP METHODS AND PRACTICES
2 credits
Prerequisite: 247; corequisite: 242. Selected topics dealing with sophisticated metal cutting techniques.

2820:346 MECHANICAL DESIGN II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 245. Continuation of design of machine components: Bearings, gears, brakes, clutches, Machine vibrations and dynamic loads.

2820:347 PRODUCTION MACHINERY AND PROCESSES
2 credits

2820:348 INTRODUCTION TO NUMERICAL CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisites: 121, 2020:132. Introduction to numerical control (N/C) of operation of machine tools and other processing machines. Includes programming, types of N/C systems, economic evaluation.

2820:402 MECHANICAL PROJECTS
1 credit
Prerequisite: senior standing. Individual projects emphasizing creative technical design.

2820:448 NUMERICAL CONTROL PROGRAMMING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 348. Introduction to computer-assisted interactive part programming system. Writing of milling and drilling programs.

2820:485 INSPECTION TOURS
1 credit
Prerequisite: senior standing. Trips through area industrial plants and technical facilities.

2820:497 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT IN MECHANICAL TECHNOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program, permission of area honors preceptor and major in mechanical technology. Independent research leading to completion of Senior Honors Thesis or other original work.

2940:140 SURVEY OF ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2020:131. Introductory course in basic concepts pertaining to mechanical, civil and electrical technology. A study of technical terminology, applied mathematics and applied physics. Graphical solutions will be emphasized.

2940:160 MANUFACTURING AND CONSTRUCTION PROCESSES
2 credits
(One hour lecture/three hours laboratory)
Plans and field trips in various technologies to familiarize student with manufacturing and construction processes. Written or oral reports will be required after each film or field trip.

2940:170 SURVEYING DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisite: 2940:140. Provides basic understanding of drafting procedures, techniques and tools required for the various phases of survey office work. Production of topographic maps, plan and profile drawings, cross-section drawings and earthwork calculations.

2940:200 ADVANCED DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisite: 2940:122. Descriptive geometry and geometric dimensioning. Principles of descriptive geometry applied to practical problems pertaining to the civil and mechanical fields of technology. Geometric dimensioning.

2940:210 COMPUTER DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisites: 2940:122 and 2020:131. Provides basic understanding of equipment used in computerized drafting and of numerical control (N/C) concept. Included are definitions of most important terminology and drafting standards relating to N/C.

2940:230 MECHANICAL SYSTEMS DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisite: 2940:122. Familiarizes student with terms and drafting layout for installations of systems concerning plumbing, heating and air conditioning. Also welding, gears, cams and fluid power drawings.

2940:240 ELECTRICAL, ELECTRONIC AND INSTRUMENTATION DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisite: 140 or permission. Familiarizes student with terms and layouts concerning electronic, electrical and instrumentation systems.

2940:250 ARCHITECTURAL DRAFTING
3 credits
(One hour lecture/six hours laboratory)
Prerequisite: 2820:121. Fundamentals of architectural drafting, including projection, sectioning, pictorial drawing, perspective, shading and architectural representation. Emphasis on construction details, interior space use, traffic patterns, exterior materials.
2980: Surveying and Construction Technology

2980:122 BASIC SURVEYING
3 credits
Basic tools and computations for surveying; measurements of distance, elevations and angles; traverse surveys. Field practice.

2980:123 SURVEYING FIELD PRACTICE
2 credits
Prerequisite: 122. Practical experience in use of surveying equipment and methods of surveying. Provides student with responsibility for making decisions and planning and directing complete project.

2980:125 STATICS
3 credits

2980:222 CONSTRUCTION SURVEYING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 122. Methods and procedures for establishing line and grade for construction. Circular, spiral and parabolic curves. Cross-sectioning methods and earthwork. Field practice.

2980:224 LAND SURVEYING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 122 or permission. Historical development of boundaries, rectangular system of public land survey, systems used to describe property, working and interpretation of deed descriptions, surveyor's rights, duties and responsibilities.

2980:225 ADVANCED SURVEYING
4 credits
Prerequisite: 122. Introductory to theory of errors, precise leveling, baseline measurements, triangulation, trilateration and bearings from celestial observation. Photogrammetry. Field practice.

2980:230 SUBDIVISION DESIGN
2 credits
Prerequisite: 222; corequisite: 224. Site analysis, land use controls and plotting procedure. Laboratory includes preparation of various types of projects leading to a complete subdivision.

2980:231 BUILDING CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
Materials and types of construction used in heavy construction. Encompasses buildings constructed with heavy timber, steel, concrete or a combination of these materials.

2980:232 CONSTRUCTION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222 or permission. Planning of construction operations. Construction equipment and selection for typical jobs. Emphasis on heavy construction.

2980:233 CONSTRUCTION ADMINISTRATION
2 credits

2980:234 ELEMENTS OF STRUCTURES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 241. Principles of stress and structural analysis, members in steel, timber and concrete connections.

2980:237 MATERIALS TESTING I
2 credits
Laboratory testing of soils with emphasis on physical properties of soil. Laboratory and field procedures used for quality control. Testing of concrete mixes.

2980:238 MATERIALS TESTING II
2 credits
Corequisite: 241. Mix design of concrete. Laboratory testing of ferrous and nonferrous metals, woods and concrete. Experiments demonstrate physical properties as related to design.

2980:241 STRENGTH OF MATERIALS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 125. Stress, strain and stress-strain relationships. Tension, compression, torsion, beams. Shear and moment diagrams.

2980:245 COST ANALYSIS AND ESTIMATING
3 credits
Quantity surveys in construction. Elements of cost in construction, determination of unit costs, analysis of cost records.

2980:250 STRUCTURAL DRAFTING
2 credits
Prerequisite: 2920:121. Duties of structural draftsman in preparation of detailed working drawings for steel, concrete and wood members. Emphasis on portrayal, dimensions and notes on a working drawing.

2980:290 SPECIAL TOPICS: SURVEYING AND CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in surveying and construction technology.
3100: Biology

3100:100 NATURE STUDY: PLANTS
3 credits
Identification and biology of common plants of this region. Recommended for teachers of nature study. Not available for credit toward a degree in biology. Laboratory.

3100:101 NATURE STUDY: ANIMALS
3 credits
Identification and biology of common animals of this region. Recommended for teachers of nature study. Not available for credit toward a degree in biology. Laboratory.

3100:103 INTRODUCTION TO MICROBIOLOGY
3 credits
Basic microbiology; destruction, removal and inhibition of microorganisms; immunity and allergy; common pathogens. Not available for credit toward a degree in biology. Laboratory.

3100:104 ECOLOGY AND BIOLOGICAL RESOURCES FIELD LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 105. Short field trips and laboratory studies illustrating natural and man-modified characteristics of selected local ecosystems.

3100:105 ECOLOGY AND BIOLOGICAL RESOURCES
2 credits
Basic principles governing structure and function of natural ecosystems. Various options for managing natural resources, human populations, biotic communities and industrial technologies at global level emphasized. Not available for credit toward a degree in biology.

3100:111 PRINCIPLES OF BIOLOGY
4 credits
Molecular, cellular basis of life; energy transformations, metabolism; nutrient procurement, gas exchange, internal transport, homeostatic mechanisms, control systems in plants and animals. Laboratory.

3100:112 PRINCIPLES OF BIOLOGY
4 credits
Cell reproduction, genetics, development, evolution, classification, behavior, ecology of plants and animals. (111-112 are an integrated course for majors in biology and related fields.) Laboratory.

3100:130 PRINCIPLES OF MICROBIOLOGY
3 credits
Basic principles and terminology of microbiology; cultivation and control of microorganisms; relationships of microorganisms to man and his environment; microbial pathology. Laboratory.

3100:190,1 HEALTH CARE DELIVERY SYSTEMS*
1 credit each
Health care principles and practices. Restricted to the student in N.E.O.U.C.O.M., six-year B.S.M.D. program. Graded credit/noncredit. Not available toward credit as major in biological sciences. Some field trips.

3100:192 BIOLOGY OF AGING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112 or 265 or equivalent. Introduction to anatomical and physiological changes occurring in organ systems of man during aging process. Cellular basis for these changes; biological theories of aging. This course will not satisfy the Natural Science requirement.

3100:206,7 ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits each
Sequential. Structure, function of human body with emphasis on physiological processes. Background of high school chemistry or equivalent strongly recommended. No biology or B.S.M.D. majors. Laboratory.

3100:211 GENERAL GENETICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Principles of heredity, principles of genetics.

3100:212 GENETICS LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisite or corequisite: 211. Fundamental principles of genetics illustrated by experiments with Drosophila and other organisms.

3100:215 ORGANIC EVOLUTION DISCUSSION
1 credit
Corequisite: 218. Formal discussions of various aspects of organic evolution of general or special interest.

3100:218 EVOLUTION-ECOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and 211. Early concepts of evolution, mechanisms of evolution, evolutionary trends and a study of ecological interrelationships between organisms and their environment.

3100:234 ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY OF SPEECH AND HEARING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 265. Study of anatomy and physiology of organs directly and indirectly responsible for sound perception and production of speech. Laboratory.

3100:265 INTRODUCTORY HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY
4 credits
Study of physiological processes in human body, particularly at organ systems level. Not open to preprofessional majors. Laboratory.

3100:290,1 HEALTH CARE DELIVERY SYSTEMS
1 credit each
Health Care principles and practices. A continuation of 190,1 for a second year student in N.E.O.U.C.O.M. six-year B.S.M.D. program. Graded credit/noncredit. Not available toward credit as major in biological sciences. Some field trips.

3100:311 CELL BIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and 3150:202 (organic and biochemistry). Study of structure and function of cells using microbial and animal cells for demonstration of common processes.

3100:331 MICROBIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and 3150:222 or equivalent. Survey of protists with emphasis on the bacteria. Their morphology, cultivation and chemical characteristics. Relationships of microorganisms to man and his environment. Laboratory.

3100:332 MICROBIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 331 or equivalent. Basic elements of microbial genetics, and temporary variation in the bacteria. Classification and identification of major groups of bacteria. Laboratory.

3100:341 FLORA AND TAXONOMY I*
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Collection-identification of autumn-flowering plants, their family characteristics and discussion of methods used to determine their relationships. Plants used by man discussed and plant collection required. Laboratory.

3100:342 FLORA AND TAXONOMY II*
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Classification systems, international rules governing application of names and collection-identification of spring-flowering plants. Family characteristics. Plant collection. Laboratory.

3100:351 INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY*
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Invertebrate groups, their classification, anatomy and life history of representative forms. Laboratory.

*Field trips involved; minor transportation costs.
3100:333 GENERAL ENTOMOLOGY*
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Structure, physiology, life cycles and economic importance of insects; survey of orders and major families. An insect collection is made. Laboratory.

3100:355 PARASITOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Principles of parasitism; survey of the more important human and veterinary parasitic diseases. Laboratory.

3100:358 ORNITHOLOGY*
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Introduction to biology of birds: classification, anatomy, physiology, behavior, ecology, evolution, natural history and field identification. Laboratory.

3100:381,2 HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: one year of college chemistry. Study of structure and function of the human body. Laboratory.

3100:385 HISTOLOGY I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311. Microscopic study of animal tissue preparations and histochecmical stains. Emphasis on functional differences. Laboratory.

3100:386 HISTOLOGY II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 385. Cellular structure of organs in relation to their functional activity, life history, comparative development. Laboratory.

3100:388 HISTOLOGY III
3 credits

3100:428/528 APPLIED AQUATIC ECOLOGY*
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Methods for assessing quality of natural waterways. Emphasis given to use of benthic invertebrates as indices of water quality. Laboratory.

3100:431/531 BACTERIAL PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 332 and 3100:202 (organic and biochemistry). Biochemical activities in bacterial cell, emphasizing enzymatic mechanisms of metabolic transformations. Energy relationships in catabolic and biosynthetic pathways stressed.

3100:432/532 PATHOGENIC BACTERIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 332. Study of major groups of bacteria which produce infections in man. Biochemical properties of microorganisms which engender virulence and nature of host resistance. Laboratory.

3100:435/535 VIROLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 332. Physical, chemical and biological properties of viruses including mechanisms of infection, genetics and tumor formation; methods of cultivation and identification. Laboratory.

3100:437/537 IMMUNOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 332. Recommended: 433. Nature of antigens, antibody response and antigen-antibody reactions. Site and mechanism of antibody formation, hypersensitivity, immunologic tolerance and immune diseases considered. Laboratory.

3100:438/538 HEMATOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 437/537 or permission of instructor. Quantitative and qualitative evaluation and interpretation of formed elements of blood including study of hereditary, metabolic, nutritional, inflammatory, immunologic and neoplastic diseases encountered in field of hematology. Lecture/Laboratory.

3100:440/540 MYCOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Structure, life history, classification of representative fungi with emphasis on the importance of fungi to man. Laboratory.

3100:441/541 PLANT DEVELOPMENT
4 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and one year of organic chemistry. Embryology and morphogenesis of plants in relation to physical, chemical, genetic and spatial factors. Laboratory.

3100:442/542 PLANT ANATOMY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Structure and development of cells, tissues, organs and organ systems of seed plants. Laboratory.

3100:443/543 PHYCOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Examination of the major groups of algae with emphasis on life histories and their relationship to algal form and structure. Laboratory.

3100:445/545 PLANT MORPHOLOGY*
4 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Structure, reproduction, life cycles, ecology, evolution, economic significance of land plants-bryophytes, club-mosses, whisk ferns, horsetails, ferns, seed plants. Laboratory.

3100:447/547 PLANT PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112 and one year of organic chemistry. Water, soil and mineral requirements of plants, and their metabolism, growth and response to internal and external stimuli. Laboratory.

3100:449/549 PLANT BIOSYSTEMATICS
2 credits
Prerequisite: four credits of botany at 400 level. Current research methods and theories in plant systematics and taxonomy. Includes study of original publications, discussion of experimental methods and use of herbarium in research.

*Field trips involved; minor transportation costs.
310:458/558 VERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 218 or permission. Biology of vertebrates, except birds — evolution, ecology, behavior, systematic and anatomy. Laboratory with field trips.

310:461,2581,2 HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY
4 credits each
Prerequisite: senior or graduate standing. Detailed study of function of the human body with special emphasis on neuromuscular, cardiovascular, respiratory, renal and endocrine physiology. Laboratory.

310:484/544 GENERAL AND COMPARATIVE PHYSIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and one year of organic chemistry. Study of cellular, respiratory, vascular, cardiovascular, endocrine and neural mechanisms involved in understanding physiology of variety of invertebrate and vertebrate animals. Laboratory.

310:485/585 ADVANCED CARDIOVASCULAR PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 462 or 562 or permission. Study of biological mechanisms involved in heart attack, stroke, fluid balance, hypertension and heart disease. Controversial issues in each area will be examined and current research presented.

310:486,7/586,7 DEVELOPMENTAL ANATOMY
4 credits each
Prerequisite: 112. Sequence designed to introduce process of vertebrate development. Lecture and laboratory work includes descriptive and experimental embryology, phylogenetic development of major vertebrate orders and individual study research. Laboratory.

310:490/590 RADIATION BIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Principles of radiobiology, interaction with matter, particularly its effects on biological systems. Detection devices, radiation safety and dosimetry, use of radioiodinated compounds in laboratory. Laboratory.

310:491 ADVANCED GENETICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 211. Nature of the gene; genetic code; hereditary deter-minants; mutagenesis and genes in population. Lecture and seminar.

310:484/584 PHARMACOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 112. Recommended: college-level physiology. Interactions of drugs and living systems with emphasis on molecular and and cellular mechanisms of action, drug metabolism and excretion, and selected aspects of environmental toxicology. Clinical aspects and specific drug therapies not considered in detail.

310:485/585 LABORATORY ANIMAL MANAGEMENT
3 credits
Prerequisites: 112 and permission. Principles involved in maintaining laboratory animals. Emphasis on selection of animal models, proper care, nutrition and legal aspects of animal use. Laboratory.

310:489/594 WORKSHOP IN BIOLOGY
2-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Group studies of special topics in biology. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in biology. May be used for elective credit only.

310:495 SPECIAL TOPICS: BIOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Special courses offered once or only occasionally in areas where no formal course exists. A maximum of six credits may be applied to requirements for a major.

310:497,8/597,8 BIOLOGICAL PROBLEMS
1-2 credits each
Prerequisite: permission. Honors-level work, usually consisting of laboratory investigations.

310:499 SENIOR HONORS PROGRAM IN BIOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of five credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program and approval of honors preceptor. Open only to biology majors in Honors Program. Independent study leading to completion of approved senior honors.

Graduate Courses
370:621 EXPERIMENTAL BACTERIAL PHYSIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 531 or permission of instructor. Basic techniques peculiar to study of microbial physiology and modification of selected biochemi-tical techniques for application to microbial systems. Laboratory.

310:680 ENVIRONMENTAL PHYSIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 561,2. Study of physiological reactions of healthy mammals to natural changes or extremes of physical environment.

310:687 EXPERIMENTAL EMBRYOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Principles and experimental methods of developmental biology. Practical application to oncology, drug interaction and inductive mechanisms. Laboratory.

310:688 CYTOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311. Structure and functional organization of cells at ultra-structural level. Three lecture hours a week.

310:685 ANIMAL TISSUE CULTURE
3 credits
Prerequisite: 332. Tissue culture techniques; biology and physiology of animal cells and tissues under in-vitro conditions; application of these techniques to radiobiology, cancer chemotherapy and animal cell research. Laboratory.

310:686,7 RESEARCH IN THE BIOLOGY OF AGING
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: graduate standing in biology, or by approval in related fields. Introduction to research techniques in study of biological aspects of aging and experience in special research project in the field.

310:688 PRINCIPLES OF TRANSMISSION ELECTRON
MICROSCOPY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311 or 681 or equivalent. Modern cytological methods using transmission electron microscope. Portfolio required to demonstrate proficiency in fixation techniques, use of ultramicrotome, light and electron microscopes and darkroom techniques.

310:689 PRINCIPLES OF SCANNING ELECTRON MICROSCOPY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311, 681 or equivalent. Introduction modern cytological methods using the scanning electron microscope. A portfolio is required to demonstrate proficiency in fixation techniques, the use of supplemental equipment such as the critical point drying apparatus and the sputter-coating apparatus and the efficient use of the scanning electron microscope.

310:695 SPECIAL TOPICS: BIOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Special courses offered once or only occasionally in areas where no formal course exists.

310:697,8 SEMINAR IN BIOLOGY
1 credit each
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Attendance at all departmental seminars and presentation of seminar based on original research. Required of all thesis option students who shall present their thesis research.
3100:899 MASTER'S RESEARCH
1-6 credits
(May be repeated)
A minimum of six credits is required for thesis option student.

3110: Biology/N.E.O.U.C.O.M.

3110:820 MICROSCOPIC ANATOMY
4 credits
Prerequisite: graduate standing, permission and cell biology: histology suggested. Morphological basis for normal and disturbed functions: structure-function relationships in human microscopic anatomy. Lectures, special laboratory, learning techniques using human tissues.

3110:830 HUMAN GROSS ANATOMY AND EMBRYOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate standing and permission. An intensive survey of human macromorphology.

3110:831 HUMAN GROSS ANATOMY AND EMBRYOLOGY LABORATORY
3 credits

3110:841 FUNCTIONAL NEUROANATOMY
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission or graduate standing. Study of structure and function of mammalian nervous system with emphasis on human brain and human behavior. Laboratory.

3110:843 NEUROPHYSIOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 641. The relation of aspects of the neurosciences to the fundamental properties of nervous tissue, establishing a firm base in experimental neurobiology. Laboratory.

3110:880 RADIOISOTOPES IN MEDICINE
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission or graduate standing. A survey of the use of radioisotopes in medicine and research. Successful completion of this course qualifies the student for approval by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission for use of radioisotopes in research. Laboratory.

3120: Medical Technology

3120:401 SPECIAL TOPICS LABORATORY MANAGEMENT, EDUCATION AND SAFETY
1-4 credits
Seminars, lectures, workshops in medical technology not included in formal clinical courses. Minimum one credit required for graduation.

3120:410 CLINICAL ANALYSIS OF URINE AND OTHER BODY FLUIDS I
1 credit

3120:411 CLINICAL ANALYSIS OF URINE AND OTHER BODY FLUIDS II PRACTICUM
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3100:361, 362 or equivalent. Renal function tests to include chemical and microscopic examination of urine. Methods of detection of chemical and cellular elements of other body fluids.

3120:420 CLINICAL CHEMISTRY AND BIOCHEMISTRY I
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:383, 384 or equivalent; 3150:201, 202, 335, 336 or equivalent. Concepts of clinical biochemistry: identification and quantification of specific chemical substances in body fluids in normal and disease states; principles of instrumentation and quality control.

3120:421 CLINICAL CHEMISTRY AND BIOCHEMISTRY II PRACTICUM
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:383, 384 or equivalent; 3150:201, 202, 335, 336 or equivalent. Clinical application by various analytical techniques; clinical correlation of results with disease states.

3120:430 CLINICAL HEMATOLOGY I
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:311 and 3100:361, 362 or equivalent. Theory of blood cell formation; identification of blood and bone marrow cells; differentiation of erythrocytes, leukocytes, morphology.

3120:431 CLINICAL HEMATOLOGY II PRACTICUM
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:311 and 3100:361, 362 or equivalent. Clinical application and practice of blood cell mounting procedures using automated and manual techniques.

3120:432 CLINICAL COAGULATION
1 credit

3120:440 CLINICAL IMMUNOHEMATOLOGY I
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:437, 311 and 211 or equivalent. Theory of principles of immunology applied to blood grouping, cross matching; blood components; transfusion; blood collection, processing, and preservation.

3120:441 CLINICAL IMMUNOHEMATOLOGY II PRACTICUM
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:437, 311 and 211 or equivalent. Clinical application of theory: crossmatching; blood donors; blood bank management.

3120:450 CLINICAL IMMUNOLOGY I
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3100:437 or equivalent. Antigens and antibodies and their interaction in disease states.

3120:451 CLINICAL IMMUNOLOGY II PRACTICUM
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3100:437 or equivalent. Qualitative and quantitative serological laboratory procedures in immunology.

3120:460 CLINICAL MICROBIOLOGY I
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:331, 332 or equivalent. Theory of diagnosis of medical microbiology with emphasis on pathogenic bacteria and their relationship to disease.

3120:461 CLINICAL MICROBIOLOGY II PRACTICUM
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3100:331, 332 or equivalent. Isolation and identification of pathogenic bacteria, media making, sensitivity and antimicrobial agents, principles of sterilization and asepsis.

3120:462 CLINICAL MYCOLOGY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3100:355 or equivalent. Study of pathogenic fungi, basic methods of cultivation and identification, treatment and safety precautions.

3120:463 CLINICAL PARASITOLOGY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3100:355 or equivalent. Study of parasites common to man, life cycles, and relationship to man, procedure for handling and examining, identification by morphological characteristics.

3130: Cytotechnology

3130:401 INTRODUCTION TO CYTOLOGY
1 credit
A brief course in which by means of lecture and demonstration the student becomes familiar with the cytotechnologist’s role and with cytology laboratory. Areas covered include historical background of clinical cytology, microscopy and basic histology.
3150: Chemistry

3150:121,2 INORGANIC CHEMISTRY I, II
3 credits each
Sequential. Designed primarily for a student in medical technology. Fundamental laws and theories of chemistry; the more important elements and their components. Laboratory.

3150:124 CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Fundamentals of organic, inorganic and physiological chemistry. Discussion.

3150:129,30 GENERAL CHEMISTRY I, II
4 credits each
Sequential. Introduction to principles of chemistry and fundamentals of inorganic and biochemistry. Structure and chemistry of carbohydrates, lipids, proteins; biochemistry of enzymes, metabolism, body fluids and radiation effects.

3150:132 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY I
4 credits
Introduction to basic facts and principles of chemistry including atomic and molecular structure, states of matter and thermodynamics. For chemistry major, premedical student and most other science majors. Laboratory.

3150:133 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 132. Continuation of 132, including aqueous solution theory, chemical kinetics, equilibrium, electrochemistry and nuclear chemistry. For chemistry major, premedical student and most other science majors.

3150:134 QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS
2 credits
Corequisite: 133. Laboratory course applying principles of chemical equilibrium to inorganic qualitative analysis.

3150:201,2 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY AND BIOCHEMISTRY I, II
4 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 122. Designed especially for student in medical technology. Principles of organic chemistry with emphasis on biological systems. Laboratory.

3150:203 NUTRITIONAL BIOCHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 122 or 130. Catabolic processes for energy production and nutritional requirements in liver, heart and skeletal muscle and adipose tissue. Biochemistry of diabetes, heart disease, obesity, atherosclerosis, and dietary treatment of these diseases. May not be used to meet undergraduate major requirements in chemistry.

3150:253,4 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY LECTURE I, II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 134 or permission. Structure and reactions of organic compounds, mechanism of reactions.

3150:265,8 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY LABORATORY I, II
2 credits each
Sequential. Corequisites: 263, 264. Laboratory experiments to develop techniques in organic chemistry and illustrate principles.

3150:300,1,2 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credits each
For cooperative education student. Work experience in industry and business. Written reports of the work experience required.

3150:303,4 ELEMENTARY PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY I, II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 264, 3650:232, 262 or 292, 3450:222 or permission of instructor. Chemical thermodynamics and kinetics I and molecular structure and spectra (II). Not accepted for credit toward B.S. degree in chemistry or chemical engineering.

3150:313,4 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY LECTURE I, II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 264, 3650:235, 3650:292 or permission of instructor. Gases, thermodynamics, thermochemistry, solutions,
3150:315.8 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY LABORATORY I, II
2 credits each
Sequential. Corequisite for 315 is 314. Laboratory designed for illustrating techniques and equipment used in physical chemical investigations.

3150:335.6 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY FOR LABORATORY TECHNICIANS I, II
4 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 133 and 134 or 122. Intended primarily for preparing to become a laboratory or hospital technician. Theory and calculations in qualitative and quantitative analysis, laboratory, methods used in hospital laboratories.

3150:401/501 BIOCHEMISTRY LECTURE I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 264. Biochemistry of amino acids and proteins; enzymes, role as biocatalysts; structure, biochemistry of nucleotides, nucleic acids, carbohydrates and lipids; energy storage, utilization.

3150:402/502 BIOCHEMISTRY LECTURE II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 401/501. Carbohydrate, lipid and amino acid metabolism, protein, nucleotide and nucleic acid biosynthesis and gene function.

3150:403 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credits
For the cooperative education student only. Work experience in industry and business. Comprehensive written reports of the work experience are required.

3150:404/504 BIOCHEMISTRY LABORATORY I
1 credit

3150:405/505 BIOCHEMISTRY LABORATORY II
1 credit
Prerequisite: 404/504; corequisite 402/502. Biological synthesis and degradation; role of enzymes, their characteristics and utilization of energy released during oxidation of biological compounds.

3150:408/508 THE PROFESSIONAL CHEMIST IN INDUSTRY
2 credits
Prerequisite: senior year or degree in chemistry or chemical engineering or permission. Business, legal, societal, economic and other non-chemical aspects of a chemist’s profession.

3150:411/511 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY FOR BIOLOGY MAJORS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 266 and 3450:148 and permission. Gases, thermodynamics, electrochemistry, chemical kinetics, macromolecules and colloids; special topics in biochemistry, biophysics and molecular biology.

3150:415/515 CHEMICAL INSTRUMENTATION
3 credits
Prerequisites: 424, 426 or permission. Principles and applications of electrical and electronic devices and various transducers for chemical analysis. Laboratory.

3150:418/516 INSTRUMENTAL METHODS OF ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 415/515. Principles and applications of analytical chemical techniques based on physical measurements. Laboratory.

3150:421/521 QUALITATIVE ORGANIC ANALYSIS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 266. Identification and characterization of organic substances, separation and identification of components of organic mixtures. Laboratory.

3150:423 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY LECTURE I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 134. Theoretical principles of quantitative analysis. Techniques and calculations, gravimetric and volumetric methods.

3150:424 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY LECTURE II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 304 or 314, 316 or permission. Instrumental analysis with emphasis on newer analytical tools and methods.

3150:425 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY LABORATORY I
2 credits
Corequisite: 423. Laboratory techniques employed in gravimetric, volumetric and instrumental analysis.

3150:426 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY LABORATORY II
2 credits
Corequisite: 424. Laboratory techniques employed in gravimetric, volumetric, instrumental analysis; emphasizes instrumental analysis.

3150:483/563 ADVANCED ORGANIC CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 264, 304 or 314 or permission. Introduction to study of mechanisms of organic reactions.

3150:472/572 ADVANCED INORGANIC CHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 304 or 314. Concepts of atomic structure integrated in systematic classification of elements. Periodic table. Chemistry of the representative elements. Transition elements including coordination compounds, organometallics and metal carbonyls.

3150:490/590 WORKSHOP IN CHEMISTRY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in chemistry. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in chemistry.

3150:498 SPECIAL TOPICS: CHEMISTRY
1-3 credits

3150:499 RESEARCH PROBLEMS
2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of eight credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Assignment of special problems to student, designed as an introduction to research problems.

Graduate Courses

3150:601.2 CHEMISTRY OF POLYMERS I, II
2 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 264 and 266 or permission of instructor. History, classification and nomenclature, natural polymers. Types and methods of polymerization. Ring vs. chain stability. Natural and synthetic polypeptides, nucleic acids.

3150:604.6 CHEMISTRY OF POLYMERS LABORATORY I, II
2 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 264, 266. Preparation, identification of polymers to illustrate polymerization methods in 601, 602, 649.

3150:699 MICROQUANTITATIVE ORGANIC ANALYSIS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 266, 426 and permission. Microquantitative analytical methods for determination of carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen, sulfur and halogens in organic substances. Laboratory.

3150:610 BASIC QUANTUM CHEMISTRY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 314. Quantum mechanics with applications to molecular systems. Include angular momentum, molecular hamiltonians, variation and perturbation methods and molecular orbital theories.

3150:611 CHEMICAL BONDING AND SPECTROSCOPY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 610. Application of quantum chemistry to elucidation of chemical bonding, structure and interpretation of molecular spectra.

3150:613 SYNTHETIC METHODS OF ORGANIC CHEMISTRY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 264. Discussion of synthetic organic chemistry. Standard synthesis of organic compounds as well as newer techniques.

Sequential. Prerequisites: 314, 472 or permission. Detailed treatment of chemistry of transition elements. Group theoretical applications, ligand field theory, kinetics and mechanism, magnetism, electronic spectra, molecular orbital theory.

Prerequisite: 635. Applications of statistical thermodynamics to chemical systems in equilibrium. Theories of rate processes. Fundamentals of chemical kinetics; methods of investigation and interpretation of data.

Prerequisite: 264, 266, 314, 316 or permission. Stereochemistry and its application to reactions of diastereomers, complexes, photochemistry. NMR and infrared spectroscopy; stereochemical aspects of organometallic compounds, photochemistry; hydration and redox reactions; chemistry of cofactors; enzyme catalysis and models.

Prerequisites: 313, 314, 402 or permission. Energy production, utilization in living systems: historical aspects, thermodynamics, glycolysis, phosphorylation, citric acid cycle, respiratory chain, electron transport, metabolic control, active transport and muscle contraction.

Prerequisites: 402, 405, 426 or permission. Advanced analytical course in biochemistry laboratory; purification and characterization of D.N.A., R.N.A. and chromatin; study of metabolic pathways in bacteria using advanced biochemistry techniques.

Prerequisite: 462 and permission. Microscale titrations, physical measurements; phase studies; identifications; microchemical procedures.

Prerequisite: permission. Methods of differential thermal analysis, thermogravimetry and related techniques and methods of programming, recording, data treatment and effects of atmosphere and aero parameters described with applications.

Prerequisite: 264. Stereochemistry and its application to reactions of organic chemistry.

Prerequisites: 316, 426. Theory and application of instrumental analysis. Interpretation of data.

Prerequisite: permission. Modern instruments.

Prerequisite: permission. Topics in advanced organic chemistry such as naturally occurring compounds, homologous series, nonaqueous solvents, organometallic compounds, homogeneous catalysis.

Prerequisite: permission. Topics in advanced analytical chemistry. Electroanalysis, activation analysis, atomic absorption spectrometry, mass spectrometry, liquid-liquid, liquid-solid and gas chromatography, ion exchange, thermoanalytical methods, separations, standards, sampling, recent developments.

Prerequisite: permission. Consideration of topics in modern inorganic chemistry such as coordination compounds, chemistry of the solid state, representative elements, nonaqueous solvents, organometallic compounds, homogeneous catalysis.

Prerequisite: permission. Topics in advanced organic chemistry such as natural products, heterocyclic compounds, photochemistry.

Prerequisite: permission. Subject from modern physical chemistry.

Prerequisites: 264, 266, 314, 316 or permission. Study of topical subjects of current interest. Chemistry of macromolecules encompassing organic, inorganic or physical chemistry aspects and including laboratory work where applicable. Lectures and/or laboratory.
3150:715 SPECIAL TOPICS: BIOCHEMISTRY
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Consideration of topics in biochemistry such as isoenzymes and disease, genetic engineering, membrane structure and functions and recent developments in field.

3150:783,4 PHYSICAL ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I, II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 264 and 314 completed recently or permission of instructor. Corequisite for 783 is 610. Consideration of physical-chemical principles that determine course of an organic chemical reaction; discussion of reactive intermediates.

3150:786 THEORETICAL ORGANIC CHEMISTRY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 784. Application of modern quantum chemistry and thermodynamics to problems of organic chemistry.

3150:899 DOCTORAL RESEARCH CHEMISTRY
1-16 credits
Open to qualified student accepted as a candidate for degree of Doctor of Philosophy in chemistry. Supervised original research undertaken in organic, inorganic, physical, analytical or biochemistry.

3200: Classics

3200:189 MYTHOLOGY OF ANCIENT GREECE
3 credits
Myth, legend and folklore in ancient Greece, with some attention to religion (Olympian deities, Orphism, etc.) and the transmission of Greek myth to Rome and the West. No foreign language necessary.

3200:313 ARCHAEOLOGY OF GREECE
3 credits
The ruins and monuments of Greece; history reconstructed by examination of the material remains. No foreign language necessary. Required of majors.

3200:314 ARCHAEOLOGY OF ROME
3 credits
The ruins and monuments of Rome, history reconstructed by examination of the material remains. No foreign language necessary. Required of majors.

3200:381 THE LITERATURE OF GREECE
3 credits
Major writers of Ancient Greece and their influence on later European literature. No foreign language necessary. Required of majors.

3200:392 THE LITERATURE OF ROME
3 credits
Major writers of Ancient Rome and their influence on later European literature. No foreign language necessary. Required of majors.

3200:401,2/501,2 EGYPTOLOGY
3 credits each
(May be repeated with change of subject)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Classical Egyptian (standard hieroglyphic of Eighteenth Dynasty); history and antiquities of Egypt as far as Roman occupation.

3200:404,5/504,5 ASSYRIOLOGY
3 credits each
(May be repeated with credit with another cuneiform language)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The Akkadian language; history and antiquities of Mesopotamia.

3200:407,8/507,8 ANCIENT NEAR EASTERN ARCHAEOLOGY
3 credits each
(May be repeated with credit with change of subject)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Palestine, Mesopotamia, Asia Minor, adjacent lands; Old Testament in light of material evidence.

3200:450/550 SELECTED TOPICS IN ANCIENT CULTURES
3 credits
(May be repeated with change of subject)
Varied offerings in literature, art and archaeology and religion. No foreign language necessary.

3210: Greek

3210:121,2 ELEMENTARY GREEK
4 credits each
Sequential. Standard language of Hellenistic times with some attention to Modern Greek.

3210:223,4 INTERMEDIATE GREEK
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 121.2. A survey of readings of the less difficult authors such as Homer, certain dialogues of Plato, Herodotus, Xenophon, New Testament or the like.

3210:303,4 ADVANCED GREEK
3 credits each
(May be repeated with a change of subject)
Tragedy, comedy, philosophy, history, lyric poetry, prose composition or epigraphy.

3210:497,8/597,8 GREEK READING AND RESEARCH
3 credits each
(May be repeated with credit with change of subject)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Homer, Sophocles, Plato or the like.

3220: Latin

3220:121,2 ELEMENTARY LATIN
4 credits each
Sequential. Some attention to development of Romance languages, especially Italian.

3220:223,4 INTERMEDIATE LATIN
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 121.2. A survey of readings of the less difficult authors such as Pliny, Caesar, Plautus, Cicero’s Letters or equivalent material.

3220:303,4 ADVANCED LATIN
3 credits each
(May be repeated for credit with change of subject)
Prerequisite: 223,4 or equivalent. Satirists, dramatists, philosophers, religious writers, lyric and elegiac poets, medieval writers.

3220:497,8/597,8 LATIN READING AND RESEARCH
3 credits each
(May be repeated for credit with change of subject)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Generally Latin epigraphy, prose composition or philology; numismatics or certain other archaeological topics may be offered.

3250: Economics

3250:100 INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMICS
3 credits
May not be substituted for 201,2, 244. Economics primarily considered in a broad social science context. Adequate amount of basic theory introduced.

3250:201,2 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS
3 credits each
Sequential. Economic activity in modern industrial society, preparation for responsible participation in process of shaping public policy. No credit to a student who has received credit in 244.
3250:224 INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMIC ANALYSIS
3 credits
For engineering majors. Intensive introduction to analysis of modern industrial society and formulation of economic policy. Structure of economic theory and its relation to economic reality. No credit to a student who has completed 201:2.

3250:248 CONSUMER ECONOMICS
3 credits
Spending habits of American consumers; influences affecting their spending decisions, personal finance, budget planning, saving programs, installment buying, insurance, investments, housing finance.

3250:330 LABOR PROBLEMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Labor economics, principles and public policy. Study of structure of labor market and impact unions have on labor management relations.

3250:333 LABOR ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 330. Theoretical tools used in analysis of problems of labor in any modern economic system. Emphasis given to examination of determinants of demand for and supply of labor.

3250:380 INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION AND PUBLIC POLICY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Role of industrial structure and firm conduct in performance of industry and way in which entrust policy is designed to provide remedies where performance is unsatisfactory.

3250:380 MONEY AND BANKING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 202: Institutions of money, banking and credit, monetary expansion and contraction, public policies affecting this process, development of our money and banking system.

3250:385 ECONOMICS OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND THE ENVIRONMENT
3 credits
Prerequisites: 100, 202, 244 or permission. Introduction to economic analysis of use of natural resources and economics of environment. Problems of water and air pollution, natural environments, natural resource scarcity, conservation, economic growth.

3250:389 ECONOMICS OF ENERGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2 or permission of the instructor. Frame of economic theory applied to analyze the energy sector. Theoretical issues relating energy with inflation, economic growth and public policy will also be examined.

3250:400 MACROECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2. Changes in national income, production, employment, price levels, long-range economic growth, short-term fluctuations of economic activity.

3250:405 PUBLIC FINANCE
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2. Tax systems and other sources of revenue of federal, state and local governments; changing patterns of public expenditures; fiscal policy and debt management; economic effects of public policy.

3250:406/506 STATE AND LOCAL PUBLIC FINANCE
3 credits
Prerequisite: 410; recommended 405. Examines economic rationale and problems for provision of goods and services by different governmental units. Considers alternative revenue sources and special topics.

3250:410 MICROECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Advanced analysis of consumer demand, production costs, market structures, determinants of factor income.

3250:420 MATHEMATICAL ECONOMICS I
3 credits

3250:421 MATHEMATICAL ECONOMICS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 420:520 or permission. Use of calculus and linear algebra to dynamic economic analysis; solution techniques; some significant dynamic models from literature.

3250:426 STATISTICAL APPLICATIONS IN ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2, 6500:321:2, or the equivalent or permission. Techniques of making forecasts as basis for decisions in business and government as well as for verification of hypotheses.

3250:430/530 HUMAN RESOURCE POLICY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 330. Comprehensive overview of dimensions of human resource policy; issues in human resource development, allocation, maintenance and utilization.

3250:431/531 LABOR AND THE GOVERNMENT
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2, 330. Development of public policy for control of industrial relations, from judicial control of Nineteenth Century to statutory and administrative controls of World War II and postwar periods.

3250:432 THE ECONOMICS AND PRACTICE OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2, 330. Principles and organization of collective bargaining, collective bargaining agreements, issues presented in labor disputes and negotiations, union status and security, legal standards, etc.

3250:435/535 THE DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN CORPORATE STRUCTURE
3 credits

3250:440/540 SPECIAL TOPICS: ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Opportunity to study special topics and current issues in economics.

3250:450 COMPARATIVE ECONOMIC SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2. Systems of economic organization, ranging from theoretical extremes of unregulated private enterprise to that of Marxist communism.

3250:460/560 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING FOR UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Basic problems in economic development. Theories of development. Government planning for development. Trade and development of underdeveloped countries. No credit for graduate majors in economics.

3250:481 PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 201:2, 486. International trade and foreign exchange, policies of free and controlled trade, international monetary problems.

3250:475/575 DEVELOPMENT OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Evolution of theory and method, relation of ideas of economists to contemporary conditions.

3250:481/581 MONETARY AND BANKING POLICY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 380, 400. Control over currency and credit, policies of control of central banks and governments. United States Treasury and Federal Reserve System.

3250:488 GHETTO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201:2. Stresses careful study of question of economic planning and development at urban level, in response to pervasive phenomena of urban ghetto structures.
Graduate Courses

3250:800 FOUNDATIONS OF ECONOMIC ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate standing. Determination of national income, employment and price level; aggregate consumption, investment and asset holding; decision problems faced by household and firm. Partial equilibrium analysis of competition and monopoly and general equilibrium analysis. May not be substituted for 602, 603, 611, or applied toward the 30 graduate credits required for M.A. in economics.

3250:802 MACROECONOMIC ANALYSIS I
3 credits
Construction of static macroeconomic models. Analysis predominantly in terms of comparative statics with only relatively brief mention of dynamic models.

3250:803 MACROECONOMIC ANALYSIS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 602. Macrodynalc economics and stability analysis of closed and open Keynesian systems. Inclusive coverage of post-Keynesian theories of economic growth.

3250:808 PUBLIC FINANCE
3 credits

3250:810 FRAMEWORK OF ECONOMICS ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate standing. Development of theoretical and analytical framework for decision making. Discussion of applications of the framework to situations concerning demand, cost, supply, production, price, employment and wage.

3250:811 MICROECONOMIC THEORY I
3 credits

3250:812 MICROECONOMIC THEORY II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 611. Continuation of 611. Covers multimerk equilibrium, general equilibrium and welfare economic theory, applications in public choice and applied welfare theory.

3250:815 INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 611 or permission. Examines link between market structure, firm conduct and economic performance. Measurement and effects of monopoly power, industrial concentration and changes.

3250:816 ANTITRUST ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 615 or permission of instructor. Economic rationale behind legislative and judicial decisions affecting mergers, vertical, horizontal restraints, monopolization, collusion, price discrimination.

3250:817 THE ECONOMICS OF REGULATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 615 or permission of instructor. Examines rationale, methods and success of government regulation of public utility, transportation and communications industries.

3250:820 APPLICATIONS OF MATHEMATICAL MODELS TO ECONOMICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: calculus, intermediate microeconomics or permission of the instructor. Review of selected topics of differential and integral calculus and their application to economic analysis. Theory of optimization in production and consumption; static macroeconomic models. Analysis of growth and stability.

3250:821 APPLICATION OF LINEAR MODELS IN ECONOMIC ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: intermediate microeconomics. Review of selected topics of linear algebra, application to economic theory. Static open and closed input-output tables, dynamic models, consumption technology and theory of demands, linear programming, general equilibrium analysis.

3250:828 STATISTICS FOR ECONOMETRICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: elementary differential and integral calculus, 620 or permission. A review of statistical theory and its application to research in economics. Emphasis on estimation and hypothesis testing as a prelude to econometrics.

3250:827 ECONOMETRICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 526 or equivalent. Formulation of functional relations among economic variables suitable for statistical estimation from observational data and construction of multiequation econometric models and methods of estimation.

3250:829 SEMINAR IN RESEARCH METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. A seminar in the research use of applied mathematical economics or econometrics. Emphasis is on individual development of a theoretical proposition or research statement, its empirical examination and policy implications.

3250:833 THEORY OF WAGES AND EMPLOYMENT
3 credits
Analytical approach to integration of economic theory with observed labor market phenomena. Discussion of wage and employment theories, effects of unions, collective bargaining theories and effects of government regulation.

3250:834 COLLECTIVE BARGAINING
3 credits
Economic issues and implications involved in hours of work, employment and unemployment, and the impact of trade unions upon basic institutions of a free private enterprise economy.

3250:835 LABOR LAW
3 credits
Evaluation of labor relations laws. Public policy affecting public, private worker organizations; collective bargaining; strikes, picketing.

3250:836 COLLECTIVE BARGAINING II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 635 or permission of instructor. Examination of process of negotiation. Course core is an actual contract negotiation. Student decides on issues, positions and tactics, then negotiates contract.
3250:517 LABOR LAW II
3 credits
Intensive study of selected aspects of current labor legislation affecting employer-employee relationship. Special focus on arbitration law, public sector bargaining law and employment discrimination.

3250:539 PUBLIC EMPLOYEE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 635 or permission of instructor. Examination of unique problem of public employees under collective bargaining agreements. Focus on legal framework, tripartite nature of negotiations and special situations facing public employees.

3250:594 SEMINAR ON ECONOMIC GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
Review of main theories of economic growth since age of classical economics. Problems in development of emerging countries. Discussion of aggregative macro models of capital formation, investment, technology and external trade.

3250:655 SEMINAR ON ECONOMIC PLANNING
3 credits
Types, methods and applications of planning. Planning for growth. Application of input-output, linear programming, computer simulations and other statistical and mathematical methods of planning.

3300:480 HONORS IN ENGLISH
2 credits
Prerequisites: senior standing and permission. Directed studies in individual and group sessions to encourage independent reading and thought, based on series of readings arranged by instructor.

3300:481 HONORS IN ENGLISH
2 credits
Prerequisites: senior standing and permission. Directed studies in individual and group sessions to encourage independent reading and thought, based on series of readings arranged by instructor. 480 and 481 may be taken once each.

3300:482 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT IN ENGLISH
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisites: senior standing in Honors Program and approval of honors preceptor; open only to English majors enrolled in Honors Program. Independent study leading to completion of senior honors thesis or other original work.

3300:489/589 SEMINAR IN ENGLISH
2-3 credits
(May be repeated with different topics)
Special studies, and methods of literary research, in selected areas of English and American literature and language.

3300:490/590 WORKSHOP IN ENGLISH
1-3 credits
(May be repeated with different topics)
Group studies of special topics in English. Cannot be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in English; for elective credit only.

3300:498 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Directed study in a special field of interest chosen by student in consultation with instructor.

Graduate Courses

3300:800 TEACHING COLLEGE COMPOSITION PRACTICUM
1 credit
Prerequisite: teaching assistantship. Orientation and weekly analysis of teaching rationale and practice, limited to teaching assistants in the Department of English.

3300:815 SHAKESPEAREAN DRAMA
3 credits
Concentrated study of several Shakespearean plays with emphasis on historical, critical and dramatic documents pertinent to development of Shakespeare's art.

3300:816 SHAKESPEARE'S CONTEMPORARIES IN ENGLISH DRAMA
3 credits
Readings in such playwrights as Lyly, Greene, Marlowe, Jonson, Beaumont, Fletcher, Webster, Middletown and Ford in contemporary writings relevant to theory and practice of drama.

Graduate Courses

3350:438/538 WORLD METROPOLITAN AREAS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 236 or permission. Comparative analysis of metropolitan regions. Urbanism, land use, housing, transportation, population and role of cities in economic development in different cultures.

3350:440/542 THEMATIC CARTOGRAPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 240 or permission. Principles and techniques used in thematic mapping. Stresses use of maps to indicate certain characteristics of classes of information both qualitative and quantitative.

3350:444/544 MAP COMPILATION AND REPRODUCTION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 240 or permission. Production of new/improved maps from existing maps, aerial photographs, surveys, new data and other sources. Includes special cartographic considerations for photography, lithography and printing.

3350:447/547 INTRODUCTION TO REMOTE SENSING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 240 or permission. Study of aerial photography and non-photographic imagery developed by radar, thermal, multispectral and satellite scanners. Emphasis on use in geographical, geological, biological and engineering research.

3350:448/548 AUTOMATED COMPUTER MAPPING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 240 or permission. Study of computer-assisted map compilation and execution. Emphasis on integration of computer and cartographic skills and techniques. Problems adapted to specialized interests of student.

3350:449/549 ADVANCED REMOTE SENSING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 447/547 or permission. Current research in remote sensing. Applications in study of man's cultural and biophysical environment. Practice in planning, design, execution and interpretation of remote sensing studies.

3350:481/581 GEOGRAPHIC RESEARCH METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 12 credits in geography. Techniques in geographic research. Library resources, techniques of professional writing.

3350:483/583 SPATIAL ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 481/581 or permission. Analysis of mapped statistical surfaces. Principles for use of map as model for statistical evidence, prediction, hypothesis testing.

3350:490/550 WORKSHOP IN GEOGRAPHY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Group studies of special topics in geography.

3350:495/555 SOIL AND WATER FIELD STUDIES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210 or permission. Properties, origins and uses of major soil and water regime landscapes. Stresses relationships between soil and the hydrological cycle, urbanization, suburbanization and agriculture. Field trips required.

3350:498/598 FIELD RESEARCH METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 481/581 or permission. Field work enabling student to become competent in collecting, organizing and analysis of data while carrying out field research projects.

3350:499 HONORS RESEARCH IN GEOGRAPHY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of department honors coordinator, honors student only. Exploration of research topics and issues in contemporary geography. Selection of research topic and writing of research paper in proper scholarly form under direction of faculty member.

3350:689 THESIS RESEARCH
2 credits
(May be repeated twice)
Prerequisite: permission of department head. Supervised original research.

3370: Geology

3370:100 EARTH SCIENCE
3 credits
Introduction to earth science for non-science majors. Survey of earth in relation to its physical composition, structure, history, atmosphere, oceans, and relation to solar system and universe.

3370:101 INTRODUCTORY PHYSICAL GEOLOGY
4 credits
Comprehensive survey of minerals, rocks, structures and geologic processes of solid earth. Laboratory.

3370:102 INTRODUCTORY HISTORICAL GEOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 101. Geologic history of earth, succession of major groups of plants and animals interpreted from rocks, fossils. Laboratory.

3370:200 ENVIRONMENTAL GEOLOGY
3 credits
Analysis of geologic aspects of man's environment with emphasis on geologic hazards and environmental impact of society's demand for water, minerals and energy.

3370:201 EXERCISES IN ENVIRONMENTAL GEOLOGY
1 credit
Prerequisite or corequisite: 200. Recognition, evaluation of environmental problems related to geology through field, laboratory exercises and demonstrations which apply concepts from 200.

3370:202 GEOLOGY OF THE NATIONAL PARKS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 100 or 101. Geologic setting of major national parks, interpreted in terms of geological principles and processes which shaped them in past and/or currently affect them, including the rock cycle, evolution of landscapes and plate tectonics.
3370:210 GEOMORPHOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101. Landforms of the earth. Emphasis on origins, geologic processes and distributions. Laboratory.

3370:230 MINERALOGY
3 credits each semester
Prerequisites: 101 and 3150:132. Study of morphological crystallography and general mineralogy. Laboratory emphasis on mineral recognition. Concentration in either "A" Crystallography or "B" Physical-Chemical-Descriptive Mineralogy. Student may earn credit for both "A" and "B," a maximum of six credits. Laboratory.

3370:233 PETROLOGY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 230. Megasopic identification, classification, origin concepts of igneous, sedimentary, metamorphic rocks. Laboratory.

3370:271 OCEANOGRAPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101. Introduction to physical processes, geologic history and development of marine areas.

3370:324 SEDIMENTATION AND STRATIGRAPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 102. Introduction to processes and environments of sedimentation and stratigraphic principles employed in examination of sedimentary strata. Hand specimens and sequences of sedimentary strata studied. Laboratory.

3370:350 STRUCTURAL GEOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 101 or permission. Origins and characteristics of folds, joints, joints and rock cleavage. Structural features of sedimentary, igneous and metamorphic rocks. Laboratory.

3370:380 INTRODUCTORY INVERTEBRATE PALEONTOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 102 or permission. Introductory course emphasizing morphology and evolution of major invertebrate groups with consideration of practical applications of paleontology. Laboratory.

3370:395 FIELD METHODS IN GEOLOGY
2 credits
Prerequisites: 101 and 102 or permission. Use of geologic field equipment including Brunton compasses, alidades and plane tables, stereoscopes and aerial photographs.

3370:404/504 ASTROGEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:222, 3650:292 or permission. Relations of planet earth to the solar system and universe. Analysis and implications of data from lunar and space probes.

3370:410/510 REGIONAL GEOMORPHOLOGY OF NORTH AMERICA
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101, 102, 210 or permission; recommended: 350. Examination of physiographic provinces of North America emphasizing structure, tectonic setting, stratigraphy and processes responsible for landforms in each province. Laboratory.

3370:411/511 GLACIAL GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210 or permission. Causes and effects of Pleistocene expansion of polar ice masses with emphasis on glacial deposits and world climatic changes.

3370:425/525 STRATIGRAPHY
3 credits
Prerequisites or corequisites: 360, 324 or permission. Nomenclature: sedimentary facies; fossils in subdivision of the rock record and correlation; geologic time, time-rock and rock units. Field studies.

3370:432/532 OPTICAL MINERALOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 230 or equivalent. Introduction to petrographic microscope. Optical properties and identification of minerals in thin section and as crushed fragments. Laboratory.

3370:433/533 PETROGRAPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 432/532. Origin and petrogenesis of igneous, metamorphic and sedimentary rocks as determined by microscopic studies of textures and mineral assemblages in thin section.

3370:435/535 PETROLEUM GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 350 or permission; recommended: 324. Natural occurrences of petroleum. Characteristics, origin, entrapment and exploration methods.

3370:437/537 ECONOMIC GEOLoGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 350 and 433. Study of metallic and nonmetallic mineral deposits emphasizing paragenesis and exploration. Laboratory.

3370:441/541 FUNDAMENTALS OF GEOPHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:223 or permission and 3650:292. Fundamental concepts in solid earth geophysics, planetary physics, geodesy, and geomagnetism. Contributions of geophysics to recent major developments in geoscience.

3370:446/546 EXPLORATION GEOPHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:223, 3650:292 or permission. Basic principles and techniques of geophysical exploration with emphasis on gravimetric, magnetic, seismic and electrical methods and application to geological problems. Laboratory.

3370:450/550 ADVANCED STRUCTURAL GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 350 or permission. Fundamental and advanced concepts of structural geology with emphasis on current and developing concepts. Laboratory.

3370:463/563 MICROPALeOnTOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 360 or permission. Introduction to techniques of micropaleontology, evolution and paleoecology of selected microfossil groups. Laboratory.

3370:470/570 GEOCHEMISTRY
3 credits
Prerequisites: minimum of 12 credits in chemistry and geology or permission. Chemical systems of the earth, both open and closed, with emphasis on mineral-water relationships. Laboratory.

3370:474/574 GROUNDWATER HYDROLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101. Origin, occurrence, regimen and utilization of groundwater. Qualitative and quantitative presentation of geological and geochemical aspects of groundwater hydrology. Laboratory.

3370:490/590 WORKSHOP
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in geology. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in geology. May be used for elective credit only.

3370:495 FIELD STUDIES IN GEOLOGICAL STRUCTURES AND PROCESSES
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Field trip course emphasizing phases of geology not readily studied in Ohio. Includes pretrip preparation and post-trip examination. Student will bear trip expenses.

3370:496/596 GEOLOGY FIELD CAMP
6 credits
Prerequisites: 350 and permission; recommended: 230, 324, 395. Emphasis on collection, recording and interpretation of field data; detailed structural and stratigraphic field study.

3370:497 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT IN GEOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisites: senior standing in Honors Program, permission of department honors preceptor and major in geology or natural science. Independent research leading to completion of senior honors thesis or other original work under guidance of student’s honors project adviser.

3370:499 RESEARCH PROBLEMS
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Directed reading and research in an aspect of geology chosen by student in consultation with an instructor.

Graduate Courses

3370:606 REMOTE SENSING IN GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 3350:447/547 or equivalent. Techniques for analysis and processing of remotely sensed data from conventional and satellite sensing systems. Applications to local, regional and global geologic and environmental geology problems. Laboratory.

3370:610 APPLIED QUANTITATIVE GEOMORPHOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210. Quantification of geomorphic processes and associated landforms. Application of statistical methods and evaluation of validity of these methods. Examination of these methods in practical problems. Laboratory.

3370:623 SEDIMENTARY PETROLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 324 and 432/532 or permission. Detailed hand specimen and thin section examination of selected sedimentary suites, particularly with respect to mineralogy and texture. Laboratory.

3370:631 ROCKS AND MINERALS
4 credits
Prerequisites: 101 and permission. Intensive course integrating crystallography, mineralogy and petrology for the science teacher and graduate student from disciplines other than geology. Laboratory.

3370:632 IGNEOUS PETROLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 433/533. Origin and paragenesis of igneous rocks. Theory, petrochemistry and occurrences of major igneous rock types. Selected rock suites studied. Laboratory.

3370:633 METAMORPHIC PETROLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 433/533. Textures, chemistry of metamorphic reactions, phase diagrams and occurrences of metamorphic rocks. Selected rock suites studied. Laboratory.

3370:634 CLAY MINERALOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 432/532. Classification, identification, genesis of clay minerals, clay rocks; use, exploitation. Laboratory stresses methods of identification of clay minerals, analysis, petrogenetic interpretation of clay materials in suites of samples from the rock record. Laboratory.

3370:636 COAL GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101, 102; recommended: 324. Origin, composition and occurrence of coal with emphasis on depositional environments, coalification processes, exploration, evaluation and exploitation. Laboratory.

3370:638 ORE MICROSCOPY
2 credits
Prerequisites: 432/532, 437/537. Identification, study of ore minerals, their textures using reflected-light microscope. Discussion of diagnostic physical, optical properties of opaque minerals. Laboratory.

3370:639 NUCLEAR GEOLOGY
3 credits
(Two hour lecture, three hour laboratory)
Prerequisites: minimum of seven credits in chemistry, eight credits in physics, eight credits in calculus and eight credits in geology or permission. Discusses nature of radioactive and stable isotopes, their applications in geology, radioactive minerals, radioactive background and disposal of radioactive wastes. Nuclear analytical techniques will also be discussed; lecture, laboratory and field study.

3370:643 GEOSTATISTICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101, 3470:481/541 or an equivalent course in statistics. Application of statistical methods to geology and geophysics including tests of hypotheses, trend surface analysis, analysis of variance, nonparametric statistics and time series analysis.

3370:645 TERRESTRIAL HEAT FLOW
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101, and 3450:235 or permission. Techniques of measuring terrestrial heat flow; solutions of heat conduction equation, results of heat flow measurements, geophysical deductions and future of geothermal energy.

3370:650 GLOBAL TECTONICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 350, 441/541 or permission. Theoretical study of physical forces involved in formation and deformation of earth’s crust with emphasis on plate tectonics and associated diastrophic features.

3370:660 EVOLUTION AND THE FOSSIL RECORD
2 credits
Prerequisite: 360. Major features of evolution including rates and extinction using selected fossil groups as examples.

3370:674 ADVANCED GROUNDWATER HYDROLOGY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 474/574. Study of water table and artesian aquifers under steady and nonsteady state conditions. Collection and evaluation of field data with regard to theory. Water well and well field design. Laboratory and field work.

3370:675 GEOCHEMICAL METHODS OF PROSPECTING
2 credits
Prerequisites: nine credits of chemistry, nine credits of mineralogy and/or petrology; recommended: 537 and 570. Application of geochemical methods of analysis and interpretation to search for ore deposits; emphasis on stability, mobility and associations of elements in geologic environments. Laboratory.

3370:678 URBAN GEOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 210. 230 or permission. Problems of urbanization related to our finite resources and creation of wastes. Geologic hazards. Case histories. Application of geologic data to urban development.

3370:680 SEMINAR IN GEOLOGY
2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Selected topics with reference material from original sources.

3370:684 SELECTED TOPICS IN GEOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of eight credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Topics not regularly offered as formal courses, generally of classic or current importance. Entails lectures, readings, discussions and/or guided laboratory work.

3370:695 ADVANCED FIELD STUDIES
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Field trip course emphasizing phases of geology not readily studied in Ohio. Includes pretrip preparation, field observations and data gathering, posttrip examination and/or written report. Student will bear trip expenses.

3370:888 GRADUATE RESEARCH PROBLEMS
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Directed reading and research in an aspect of geology chosen by student in consultation with an instructor.

3370:889 THESIS RESEARCH
1-6 credits
Independent and original investigation. Must be successfully completed, report written and defended before a committee.
3400: History

3400:201 UNITED STATES HISTORY TO THE CIVIL WAR
4 credits
Survey of American history from Age of Discovery through colonization, and nation building to Civil War era.

3400:203 UNITED STATES HISTORY SINCE THE CIVIL WAR
4 credits
Survey of United States history from Civil War era to present.

3400:207 EUROPE: RENAISSANCE THROUGH THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY
4 credits
Survey from Renaissance, Reformation; development of nation states, religious wars, Age of Louis XIV and Enlightenment.

3400:208 EUROPE: NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES
4 credits
Survey of European history from French Revolution and Napoleon, Nineteenth Century "isms," formation of Germany and Italy, the two world wars, totalitarian dictatorship and postwar age.

3400:220 BLACK PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES
3 credits
Survey of social, economic, political and cultural history of Afro-Americans from Seventeenth Century to present.

3400:304 THE ANCIENT NEAR EAST
3 credits
Mesopotamia, Egypt; Israel, her neighbors to Persian Empire.

3400:305 GREECE
3 credits
Minoans and Mycenaeans; classical Greece to triumph of Macedon.

3400:308 ROME
3 credits
Rome and Hellenistic East to end of classical times.

3400:307 THE EASTERN ROMAN EMPIRE (324-1453)
3 credits
Byzantine culture and history from 324 to the fall of 1453.

3400:337 THE WEST IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNITED STATES
3 credits
Examination of westward movement from Revolution to closing of frontier; types of frontiers; impact of the West on nation's development.

3400:338 WOMEN IN THE UNITED STATES
3 credits
Changing roles, status, self-images and activities of women in context of American social, economic, political and intellectual movements.

3400:339 AMERICAN IMMIGRATION
3 credits
Examination of European migrants to American colonies and United States, their reasons for leaving Europe and coming to America, and their experience after arrival.

3400:340 PEACE, WAR AND MANKIND
3 credits
Historical examination of theories of war and peace, including study of leaders, groups and ideas for peace.

3400:350 SELECTED TOPICS IN HISTORY
3 credits
Includes experimental offerings such as those crossing subject or chronological lines, and subjects not listed in this Bulletin. See departmental office for current subject.

3400:391 INDIVIDUAL STUDY OR RESEARCH IN HISTORY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisite: permission. For individual study or research in history, including special projects, summer study tours or specialized training.
3400:421/521 AMERICAN COLONIES FROM EMPIRE TO INDEPENDENCE
3 credits
Colonial life between the Glorious Revolution and War of Independence, Anglo-French struggle for control of North America, development of British colonial institutions and of American independence.

3400:423/522 FOUNDING OF THE UNITED STATES
3 credits
The revolution and struggle for independence: creating a new nation from the Confederation to the Constitution and Federalist Era.

3400:424/524 NEW NATION AND THE JACKSONIAN ERA, 1801-1848
3 credits
Party formation and Jeffersonian politics; War of 1812 and Era of Good Feelings; westward expansion, Jacksonian Democracy, Whigs and Age of Reform.

3400:425/525 THE CIVIL WAR
3 credits
Slavery and causes of Civil War; politics and conduct of the war.

3400:426/526 THE CIVIL WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION
3 credits
Politics and conduct of the war. Reconstruction and the roots of Jim Crow mentality; emergence of an industrialized society.

3400:427/527 THE ORIGINS OF MODERN AMERICA
3 credits
United States from Reconstruction Era to World War I (1877-1920); emphasis on political responses to rise of an industrialized-urbanized society; the populist and progressive movements.

3400:428/528 THE UNITED STATES BETWEEN THE WORLD WARS
3 credits
World War I and Versailles; the 1920s, the Great Depression and the New Deal; World War II.

3400:429/529 RECENT AMERICA: THE UNITED STATES SINCE WORLD WAR II
3 credits
Nuclear age, cold war, foreign policy and domestic affairs to present. Social, political, constitutional, diplomatic, cultural and economic changes since 1945.

3400:430/530 AMERICAN ECONOMY TO 1900
3 credits
Survey of economic developments from colonial era including agriculture, commerce, labor. Special emphasis on business, labor.

3400:431/531 AMERICAN ECONOMY SINCE 1900
3 credits
Survey of economic developments since 1900; topics include agriculture, business and labor. Special emphasis on role of big business and evolution of monetary and fiscal policy.

3400:432/532 AMERICAN ENVIRONMENTAL HISTORY
3 credits
Utilization, conservation of natural resources from beginnings of American society to present; combination of economic, technological history of extensive treatment of public policy, environmental issues.

3400:433/533 OHIO
3 credits
Political, social, economic and intellectual history of Ohio, with special emphasis on Ohio's relationship to Old Northwest and to the nation.

3400:434/534 THE AMERICAN CITY
3 credits
Development of urbanization and its consequences from colonial period to present.

3400:435/535 AMERICAN FAMILY HISTORY
3 credits
Evolution of American family, colonial times to present, including developments in structure and roles of family members, and status of the aged. Exploration of methods for historical study of the family.

3400:436/536 EUROPE IN THE BAROQUE ERA
3 credits
Constitutional, diplomatic, cultural, intellectual and social developments of Seventeenth Century Europe.

3400:444/544 EUROPE IN THE FRENCH REVOLUTIONARY ERA
3 credits
Development of Revolution; Napoleon's regime and satellites.

3400:445/545 MEDIEVAL EUROPE, 400-1200
3 credits
Migration of peoples, Carolingian revival, renewed invasions; social, economic and intellectual stirrings leading to "birth of Europe."

3400:446/546 MEDIEVAL EUROPE, 1200-1500
3 credits
Middle Ages and the middle class; economic and political change, international wars, social unrest and religious currents.

3400:449/549 THE RENAISSANCE
3 credits
The European renaissance (1350-1600). Economic and political trends with special emphasis on intellectual and artistic developments.

3400:450/550 THE REFORMATION
3 credits
Europe in Sixteenth Century; its religious, cultural, political and diplomatic development; with special emphasis on Protestant, Anglican and Catholic reformations.

3400:451/551 NINETEENTH CENTURY EUROPE, 1815-1871
3 credits
Europe in the century of change; revolution, romanticism, industrialization, democratization, first wars of the industrial age.

3400:452/552 NINETEENTH CENTURY EUROPE, 1871-1914
3 credits
Socialism, imperialism, nationalism and the great war. The belle epoque and contemporary artistic and intellectual currents.

3400:454/554 TWENTIETH CENTURY EUROPE, 1914-1939
3 credits
Europe between world wars; Russian revolution, fascism and nationalism; plight of democracies.

3400:455/555 TWENTIETH CENTURY EUROPE SINCE 1939
3 credits
Europe in World War II, the cold war and attempts at unity.

3400:456/556 RUSSIA TO 1801
3 credits
Survey of Russian history from Kievan period to death of Paul I; emphasis on development of autocratic government, Russian culture, reigns of Peter and Catherine.

3400:458/558 RUSSIA SINCE 1801
3 credits
Survey of Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries. Special emphasis on problems of modernization, the revolution and development of communism.

3400:460/560 WAR AND WESTERN CIVILIZATION
3 credits
War and society in Europe, America and beyond from ancient world to present with special emphasis on period since 1740.

3400:470/570 ANGLO-SAXON AND MEDIEVAL ENGLAND
3 credits
Anglo-Saxon life, thought and institutions; the Norman Conquest; medieval life, thought and institutions to 1471.

3400:471/571 EARLY MODERN ENGLAND TO 1640
3 credits
Yorks and Tudors, transition from medieval to early modern times; Elizabeth and early Stuarts.

3400:472/572 EARLY MODERN ENGLAND, 1640-1783
3 credits
Conflict under the Stuarts and civil war; Restoration; Sensible Revolution and early Hanoverians. Politics, religion and society in Age of Aristocracy.

3400:473/573 ENGLAND SINCE 1783
3 credits
Agricultural and first industrial revolution; politics of reform and transition; the welfare state, society and war.
Graduate Courses

3400:822 READING SEMINAR IN ANCIENT HISTORY
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of ancient history, especially Greek and Roman periods.

3400:823 WRITING SEMINAR IN ANCIENT HISTORY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 622. Research and writing in selected topics of ancient history, particularly Greek and Roman eras.

3400:825 READING SEMINAR IN MEDIEVAL HISTORY
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of medieval European history.

3400:826 WRITING SEMINAR IN MEDIEVAL HISTORY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 625. Research and writing in selected topics of European medieval history from barbarian invasions through later Middle Ages.

3400:831 READING SEMINAR IN MODERN EUROPEAN HISTORY TO 1815
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials, major interpretations of early modern European history to Napoleonic era.

3400:832 WRITING SEMINAR IN MODERN EUROPEAN HISTORY TO 1815
4 credits
Prerequisite: 631. Research and writing in selected topics of early modern European history, occasionally including social, economic and intellectual subjects.

3400:834 READING SEMINAR IN MODERN EUROPEAN HISTORY SINCE 1815
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of modern European history since early Nineteenth Century.

3400:835 WRITING SEMINAR IN MODERN EUROPEAN HISTORY SINCE 1815
4 credits
Prerequisite: 634. Research and writing in selected topics of modern European history, occasionally including social, economic and intellectual subjects.

3400:840 READING SEMINAR IN HISTORY OF SCIENCE
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations in history of science.

3400:841 WRITING SEMINAR IN HISTORY OF SCIENCE
4 credits
Research and writing in selected topics in history of science.

3400:851 READING SEMINAR IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND AND THE EMPIRE
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of English and British imperial history.

3400:852 WRITING SEMINAR IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND AND THE EMPIRE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 651. Research and writing in selected topics of English and British imperial history.

3400:856 READING SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY TO 1885
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of American colonial and United States history to Civil War.

3400:857 WRITING SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY TO 1885
4 credits
Prerequisite: 666. Research and writing in selected topics of American history from colonial period to Civil War.

3400:859 READING SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY SINCE 1885
4 credits
Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of United States history since Civil War.

3400:870 WRITING SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY SINCE 1885
4 credits
Prerequisite: 669. Research and writing in selected topics of United States history since Civil War.

3400:877 READING SEMINAR IN LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY
4 credits
Prerequisite: two courses in Latin American studies or permission of instructor. Study of historical literature, sources of materials and major interpretations of Latin American history.

3400:878 WRITING SEMINAR IN LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 677. Research and writing in selected topics in social, cultural, diplomatic, intellectual and political history of Latin America.

3400:889 HISTORIOGRAPHY
3 credits
Study of historians, historical writings and interpretations through the ages. Required for master's degree if candidate has not had equivalent undergraduate or graduate course elsewhere.

3400:890 HISTORY TEACHING PRACTICUM
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate assistantship. Required of all graduate assistants each fall semester. Training and experience in college teaching of history under the supervision of an experienced faculty member. Credits may not be used to meet degree requirements.

3400:894 THESIS RESEARCH
3 credits
Research for Master of Arts degree thesis.
3400:897,8 INDIVIDUAL READING FOR M.A. STUDENT
1-4 credits each
(May be repeated for a total of 12 credits)
Directed reading to fit individual student programs. May be repeated, but no more than six credits may count toward the M.A. degree in history. Written permission of the instructor required.

3400:899 THESIS WRITING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 694. Writing of Master of Arts degree thesis.

3400:797,8 INDIVIDUAL READING FOR PH.D. STUDENT
1-6 credits each
Directed reading to fit individual student programs. May be repeated, but no more than 12 credits may apply toward the Ph.D. in history. Written permission of the instructor required.

3400:898 DISSERTATION RESEARCH
1-12 credits
Research for Doctor of Philosophy degree dissertation.

3400:899 DISSERTATION WRITING
1-12 credits
Prerequisite: 698. Writing of Doctor of Philosophy degree dissertation.

3450: Mathematics

3450:101-118 MODERN UNIVERSITY MATHEMATICS
1 credit each
A series of modules designed primarily for the non-physical science major to be taken after consultation with an adviser.

3450:101 ELEMENTARY ALGEBRA
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Real numbers, arithmetic operations, symbolism, word problems, linear, quadratic equations.

3450:111 ALGEBRA
1 credit
Prerequisite: one year of high school algebra or equivalent. Sets, signed numbers, algebraic expressions, factoring, exponents, radicals, binomial theorem.

3450:112 ALGEBRAIC FUNCTIONS AND GRAPHING
1 credit
Prerequisite: 111. Linear and quadratic functions and equations, complex numbers, inequalities, absolute value, ratio and proportions, graphing functions and inequalities.

3450:113 COMBINATORICS AND PROBABILITY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Permutations, combinations, sample spaces, events, simple, compound and conditional probability; Bernoulli trials, expectation and odds.

3450:114 MATRICES
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Nomenclature, operations, inverse, solution of n linear equations in m variables using elementary row operations.

3450:115 LINEAR PROGRAMMING
1 credit
Prerequisite: 114. Minimizing and/or maximizing a linear function subject to a system of linear inequalities (geometrically and simplex method); introduction to game theory.

3450:117 INTRODUCTION TO TRIGONOMETRY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Definitions of trigonometric functions, identities, solving right triangles, applications.

3450:118 TRIGONOMETRIC FUNCTIONS AND GRAPHING
1 credit
Prerequisite: 117. Graphing, identities, solving triangles, applications.

3450:121 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Cartesian coordinate system: rational, logarithmic, exponential functions; sequences, series, limits, definition of series.

3450:122 DIFFERENTIAL CALCULUS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 121. Differentiation of algebraic, logarithmic and exponential functions, higher derivatives, partial derivatives, applications.

3450:123 INTEGRAL CALCULUS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 122. Indefinite and definite integral differentials, change of variable, numerical integration, improper integrals, double integral.

3450:124 CALCULUS WITH TRIGONOMETRY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 118, 123. Differentiation and integration of trigonometric functions, trigonometric substitution, applications.

3450:127 COMPUTER SCIENCE TOPICS I
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in computer science.

3450:128 COMPUTER SCIENCE TOPICS II
1 credit
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics or subject areas of interest in computer science.

3450:131 NUMBER SYSTEMS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Ancient number systems, number bases, Euclidean algorithm, modular arithmetic.

3450:132 ELEMENTARY GEOMETRY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112. Definitions and measure of line segments, angles and triangles in Euclidean plane geometry; Hilbert's axioms.

3450:138 SYSTEMS OF MEASUREMENT
1 credit
English and metric systems of weights and measures. Troy, avoirdupois and apothecaries' systems.

3450:138 MATHEMATICS OF FINANCE
1 credit
Prerequisite: 112 or equivalent. Simple and compound interest; bank discount; ordinary annuities (present value, amount and rate), amortization, annuities, perpetuities.

3450:147 ELEMENTARY FUNCTIONS I
2 credits
Prerequisites: high school algebra and trigonometry. Real numbers, equations and inequalities, radicals, absolute value, relations and functions, linear and quadratic functions, system of equations, matrices and determinants, complex numbers.

3450:148 ELEMENTARY FUNCTIONS II
2 credits
Prerequisites: high school algebra and trigonometry. Exponential and logarithmic functions, exponential and logarithmic equations, trigonometric functions, reduction formulas; trigonometric identities, arithmetic and geometric sequences and series, mathematical induction.

3450:149 PRE-CALCULUS MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: three years of high school mathematics. Sets; number systems; absolute value; relations; functions; polynomial functions; determinants; systems of equations, inequalities; trigonometric functions, identities; exponential, logarithmic functions; complex numbers; infinite sequences, binomial theorem; mathematical induction.

3450:211,2 CALCULUS FOR THE LIFE SCIENCES
4 credits each
Prerequisite: 149 or equivalent. A calculus course for student majoring in the biological and health sciences. Functions, differentiation, exponential and logarithmic functions, applications of derivatives, trigonometric functions, integration, functions of several variables, differential and difference equations, vectors and matrices, probability.
3450:221 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY-CALCULUS I
4 credits
Prerequisite: 148 or 149. Real numbers, analytic geometry, limits, continuity, derivatives of algebraic functions, tangent and normal lines, extremum of functions, Rolle's theorem, mean value theorem, related rates, antiderivatives, definite integrals, areas, volumes, arc length.

3450:222 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY-CALCULUS II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 221. Derivatives of exponential, logarithmic trigonometric, inverse trigonometric, hyperbolic and inverse hyperbolic functions; methods of integration, moments, centroids, indeterminate forms, polar coordinates, vector algebra, cylindrical and spherical coordinates, vector valued functions, curvature.

3450:223 CALCULUS III
4 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Sequences, series, power series, Taylor and Maclaurin series, binomial series, functions of several variables, limits, continuity, partial derivatives, differentials, directional derivatives, maxima and minima, double and triple integrals, surface area.

3450:235 DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 223. Methods of forming and solving important types of differential equations. Analysis of models involving differential equations of first order and simple equations of second order.

3452:289 SELECTED TOPICS IN MATHEMATICS
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics of interest in mathematics.

3450:301 HISTORY OF MATHEMATICS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Origin and development of mathematical ideas.

3450:311 ABSTRACT ALGEBRA
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Introduction to groups, rings, integral domains; axiomatic foundation: natural, integer, rational, real, complex number systems.

3450:312 LINEAR ALGEBRA
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Study of vector spaces, linear transformations, matrices, determinants, inner products, the eigenvalue problem, quadratic forms and canonical forms.

3450:327 INTRODUCTION TO NUMERICAL METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 115, 123 and 3460:201. Introduction to numerical methods with applications to business, behavioral, social sciences. Topics: root finding, interpolation, quadrature and differentiation, numerical linear algebra, optimization. Does not meet major requirements.

3450:413/513 THEORY OF NUMBERS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222 or permission. Euclidean algorithm, unique factorization theorem, congruences, primitive roots, indices, quadratic residues, number-theoretic functions, Gaussian integers and continued fractions.

3450:414/514 VECTOR AND TENSOR ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 223. Vector algebra, calculus of scalar-vector, vector-scalar, vector-vector functions; integral theorems; coordinate transformations; cartesian, contravariant, covariant vectors, tensors; fundamental operations with tensors: differentiation of tensors; applications.

3450:415/515 COMBINATORICS AND GRAPH THEORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222 or permission. Introduction to basic ideas and techniques of combinatorial mathematics; properties of structures of systems.

3450:417/517 COMPUTATIONAL LINEAR ALGEBRA
3 credits
Prerequisite: 312 or equivalent. Computational techniques related to linear algebra. Topics include direct and iterative methods for solving eigenvalue problems and consideration of questions concerning stability of solutions.

3450:421,421.2 ADVANCED CALCULUS I AND II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 223. Real number system, sequences, series, set theory, continuity, differentiation, integration, partial derivatives, multiple integration, maxima and minima, convergence and uniform convergence, power series, improper integrals, transformations, line and surface integrals.

3450:425/525 COMPLEX VARIABLES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 223. Complex variables: elementary functions, differentiation and analytic functions, integration and Cauchy's theorem; power series and Laurent series; residue theorem; applications such as conformal mappings, inversion of integral transform.

3450:427/527 NUMERICAL ANALYSIS I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 223 and either 3460:201 or 4450:206. Mathematical analysis of numerical methods for interpolation, solution of algebraic equations, differentiation and integration, solution of ordinary differential equations and boundary value problems.

3450:428/528 NUMERICAL ANALYSIS II
3 credits

3450:431/531 SPECIAL FUNCTIONS AND OPERATIONAL CALCULUS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. Series solutions to differential equations; Bessel functions; orthogonal polynomials; self-adjoint boundary value problems and Fourier series; Laplace transforms; Fourier transforms.

3450:432/532 PARTIAL DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. First-order linear and quasi-linear equations; classical problems of mathematical physics; uniqueness of solutions; methods of solution using Fourier series and integral transforms.

3450:435/535 SYSTEMS OF ORDINARY DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 223. Analysis, solution of systems of equations, linear, nonlinear. Topics: stability theory, perturbation methods, asymptotic methods, applications from physical, social sciences.

3450:436/536 MATHEMATICAL MODELS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. Formulation and analysis of mathematical models in social and physical sciences. Analysis of deterministic and stochastic models. Topics may include stochastic processes, linear programming, graph theory, theory of measurement.

3450:441/541 CONCEPTS IN GEOMETRY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 222 or permission of instructor. Axiomatic treatment of both Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries. Other concepts included are finite geometry, transformations, constructions and inversions.

3450:442/542 PROJECTIVE GEOMETRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 222 or permission. Complex projective planes, duality, homogeneous coordinates, 1-1 correspondences, cross ratios, harmonic ranges, conics, quadrilaterals, quadrangles, applications to Euclidean geometry, quadric surfaces.

3450:445/545 INTRODUCTION TO TOPOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 312 or permission. Introduction to topological spaces and topologies, mappings, cardinality, homeomorphisms, connected spaces, metric spaces.

3450:481/581 NUMERICAL METHODS FOR SCIENTIFIC COMPUTATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 232 and either 3460:201 or 4450:206. Techniques for representing functions, approximating integrals and solving ordinary differential equations presented and implemented for the computer.

231
3450:491/591 WORKSHOP IN MATHEMATICS
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in mathematics and statistics. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in mathematics and statistics. May be used for elective credit only.

3450:497 INDIVIDUAL READING
1-2 credits
Prerequisites: senior standing and permission. Mathematics major only. Directed studies designed as an introduction to research problems, under guidance of selected faculty member.

3450:498 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:489 (honors). Directed study for senior student in the Honors Program who has completed 3450:489 (honors). An introduction to research problems in mathematical sciences under the guidance of selected faculty.

Graduate Courses

3450:801 INTRODUCTION TO ANALYSIS
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. An introduction to analysis to include differentiation and integration, maxima and minima, Lagrange multipliers, transformations, infinite series, line and surface integrals, improper integrals. May not be used to meet degree requirements for mathematical sciences majors.

3450:810 MATRIX ALGEBRA
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. Study of matrix theory and techniques concerning inverses, linear systems of equations, vector spaces, transformations, quadratic forms, the eigenvalue problem and canonical forms.

3450:811.2 ALGEBRAIC THEORIES I AND II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisites: 311, 312 or 610. In-depth analysis of algebraic theory - monoids, groups, rings, modules, vector spaces, lattices and algebra.

3450:821 FUNCTIONS OF A REAL VARIABLE I AND II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 422/522. Real number system, sets, limit theorems, semi and continuous functions, derivatives of functions, Borel sets and Baire functions, measure, measurable sets, measurable functions. Riemann, Lebesgue integration, multiple integration.

3450:825 ANALYTIC FUNCTION THEORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 422/522. Complex number system, holomorphic functions, continuity, differentiability, power series, complex integration, residue theory, singularities, analytic continuation, asymptotic expansion.

3450:827 Advanced Numerical Analysis I and II
3 credits each

3450:831 CALCULUS OF VARIATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 235. Problems with fixed and movable endpoints, problems with constraints, generalization to several variables, the maximum principle, linear time-optimal problems, the connective between classical theory and the maximality principle.

3450:832 Advanced Partial Differential Equations
3 credits
Prerequisite: 432/532 or permission. Existence, uniqueness and stability of solutions to general classes of partial differential equations.

3450:833 Advanced Topics in Mathematics
1-3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 422/522 or permission. Unconstrained and constrained optimization theory and methods in applied problems.

3460: Computer Science

3460:125 DESCRIPTIVE COMPUTER SCIENCE
1 credit
Computer literacy: terminology, methods, media for data representation, storage, elements of a computing system, data organization.
3480:126 INTRODUCTION TO BASIC PROGRAMMING
1 credit
Prerequisites: 125, 3450:112. Introduction to syntax and semantics of Basic language; assignment statement and arithmetic; control statements and loops, input/output.

3480:127 COMPUTERS IN TODAY'S WORLD
3 credits
Introduction to nature of computers and their capabilities. Special attention given to topics such as effects of computer on privacy, employment and education; ethics in computer community; potential for computer crime. Designed for nonmajors.

3480:201-5 INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES
2 credits each
Introduction to syntax and semantics of programming languages: assignment statement and arithmetic; control statements and loops, input/output, subprograms.

3480:201 INTRODUCTION TO FORTRAN PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:111 or 149 or equivalent.

3480:202 INTRODUCTION TO COBOL PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisites: 201 and 3450:111, 112, 113 or equivalent.

3480:203 INTRODUCTION TO APL PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisites: 201 and 3450:111, 112, 113 or equivalent.

3480:204 INTRODUCTION TO PL/I PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisites: 201 and 3450:111, 112, 113 or equivalent.

3480:205 INTRODUCTION TO PASCAL PROGRAMMING
2 credits
Prerequisites: 201 and 3450:111, 112, 113 or equivalent.

3480:210 INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER CONCEPTS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201. Method of representation of information on a digital computer: character representation, fixed point-floating point numbers; introduction to computer organization, algorithms and machine language programming: Boolean algebra, computer circuits.

3480:307 APPLIED SYSTEMS PROGRAMMING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 4450:306 Introduction to systems programming using OS/370, Job Control Language, loaders and compilers, utilities. Stresses actual systems programming.

3480:418/516 INTRODUCTION TO DATA STRUCTURES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 201. Standard data structures: stacks, queues, deques, trees, graphs, vectors, arrays, files, searching, sorting.

3480:418/518 INTRODUCTION TO DISCRETE STRUCTURES
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:312 and 4450:206 or 3450:114 and 3480:201. Introduction to a number of structures in algebra of particular use in student in computer science. Topics include algorithms and flow chart language, graphs and digraphs, trees, lattices and codes.

3480:420/520 STRUCTURED PROGRAMMING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 416. Techniques of block programming using a structured programming language, program readability, program verification and program design.

3480:425/525 INTRODUCTION TO SOFTWARE SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210. Introduction to software systems: operating systems, input/output systems, languages and their processors, memory management, software engineering principles.

3480:428/528 OPERATING SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210 and 4450:316. Introduction to various types of operating systems: batch processing systems, multiprogramming systems and interacting processes; storage management; process and resource control; deadlock problem. Course is independent of any particular operating system.

3480:430/530 THEORY OF PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 416. More advanced concepts underlying programming languages and their applications, formal definitions of programming languages, Backus Normal Form, semantics, compiler design.

3480:435/535 ANALYSIS OF ALGORITHMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 416. Design and analysis of efficient algorithms for random access machines; derivation of pattern classification algorithms.

3480:455/555 DATA COMMUNICATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210. Introduction to data communications, teleprocessing networks: codes, modes of transmission, errors, protocol.

3480:457/557 COMPUTER GRAPHICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210. Topics in vector graphics, scan line graphics, representations and languages for graphics.

3480:460/560 ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND HEURISTIC PROGRAMMING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 210, 416. Study of various programs which have displayed some intelligent behavior. Exploration of level at which computers can display intelligence.

3480:470/570 AUTOMATA, COMPUTABILITY AND FORMAL LANGUAGES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 418. Presentation of theory of formal languages and their relation to automata. Topics include description of languages, regular context-free and context-sensitive grammars; finite, pushdown and linear-bounded automata, turing machines; closure properties, computational complexity, stack automata and decidability.

3480:475/575 DATA BASE MANAGEMENT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 418. Fundamentals of database organization, data manipulations and representation, data integrity, privacy.

3480:489/589 TOPICS IN COMPUTER SCIENCE
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in computer science at an advanced level.

3480:491/591 WORKSHOP IN COMPUTER SCIENCE
1-3 credits
Group studies of special topics in computer science. May not be used to meet graduate or undergraduate requirements in mathematics, statistics or computer science.

3480:497/597 INDIVIDUAL READING IN COMPUTER SCIENCE
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Computer science major only. Directed studies designed as introduction to research problems, under guidance of designated faculty member.

3480:498 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:489 (honors). Directed study for senior student in the Honors Program who has completed 3450:489 (honors). An introduction to research problems in the mathematical sciences under the guidance of selected faculty.

3480:498/598 INDEPENDENT STUDY/honors
1-3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:498 or 3450:499. Directed study for selected students who have completed 3450:498 or 3450:499. May be repeated for a total of six credits.

3470: Statistics
3470:251-7 INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICS
Introduction to fundamental ideas of statistics at precalculus level including topics from the following:

- Hypothesis testing
- Confidence intervals
- Correlation and regression
- Analysis of variance
- Design of experiments
- Nonparametric methods

233
3470:251 DESCRIPTIVE STATISTICS AND PROBABILITY
1 credit
Prerequisite: one semester of college algebra or equivalent.

3470:252 DISTRIBUTIONS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 251.

3470:253 HYPOTHESIS TESTING (PARAMETRIC)
1 credit
Prerequisite: 252.

3470:254 HYPOTHESIS TESTING (NONPARAMETRIC)
1 credit
Prerequisite: 253.

3470:255 REGRESSION AND CORRELATION
1 credit
Prerequisite: 253.

3470:258 EXPERIMENTAL DESIGN
1 credit
Prerequisite: 253.

3470:257 TIME SERIES AND INDEX NUMBERS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 255.

3470:450/550 PROBABILITY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:221. Introduction to probability, random variables and probability distributions, expected value, sums of random variables, Markov processes.

3470:451,2/551,2 THEORETICAL STATISTICS I AND II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 3450:223. Elementary combinatorial probability theory, probability distributions, mathematical expectation, functions of random variables, sampling distributions, point and interval estimation, tests of hypotheses, regression and correlation, introduction to experimental designs.

3470:461/561 APPLIED STATISTICS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:223. Applications of statistical theory to natural and physical sciences and engineering, including hypothesis tests, regression, correlation, analysis of variance, nonparametric statistics, sampling, quality control and other selected topics.

3470:483/583 EXPERIMENTAL DESIGN I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 451 or 461. Fundamental principles: analysis of variance; crossed, nested designs; multiple comparisons; power considerations; randomized blocks, repeated measure designs, applications.

3470:484/584 EXPERIMENTAL DESIGN II
2 credits
Prerequisite: 463/563. Principles of confounding, Latin squares, fractional designs, analysis of covariance, split plot designs, applications to problems in applied fields.

3470:480/580 STATISTICAL COMPUTER APPLICATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:223 and one semester course in statistics or permission. Translation of statistical operations into computer languages, iterative procedures, generating data, Monte Carlo techniques, use of statistical packages.

3470:480/580 TOPICS IN STATISTICS
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics in advanced statistics, including quality control, reliability, sampling techniques, decision theory, advanced inference, stochastic processes and others.

3470:481/581 WORKSHOP IN STATISTICS
1-3 credits
(May be repeated with change of topic)
Group studies of special topics in statistics. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in mathematics and statistics. May be used for elective credit only.

3470:497 INDIVIDUAL READING
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisites: senior standing and permission. Directed studies in statistics designed as introduction to research problems under guidance of selected faculty member.

3470:498 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT
1-3 credits.
Prerequisite: 3450:489 (honors). Directed study for senior student in the University Honors Program who has completed 3450:489 (honors). An introduction to research problems in the mathematical sciences under the guidance of selected faculty.

Graduate Courses

3470:650 ADVANCED PROBABILITY AND STOCHASTIC PROCESSES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 651. Random walk, distributions, unlimited sequence of trials, laws of large numbers, convolutions, branching processes, renewal theory, Markov chains, time-dependent stochastic processes.

3470:651,2 MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS I AND II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: permission. Probability theory, random variables, probability distributions, expectation, limit theorems, large and small sample theory, theory of tests of hypotheses, point and interval estimation, nonparametric statistics theory, regression and correlation.

3470:655 LINEAR MODELS
3 credits
Corequisite: 652. General linear model in matrix notation, general linear hypothesis, regression models, experimental design models, analysis of variance and covariance, variance components.

3470:661,2 ADVANCED BEHAVIORAL STATISTICS I AND II
3 credits each
Sequel. Prerequisite: college-level algebra or equivalent. Descriptive statistics, probability distributions, hypothesis testing, estimation, nonparametric statistics, correlation, simple and multiple regression, experimental designs, factorial experiments, comparisons, nested designs, repeated-measure designs, randomized blocks, analysis of covariance, applications.

3470:665 REGRESSION AND CORRELATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: four credits of sequential statistics courses or equivalent. Analytical theory: least squares — matrix notation, methodology, multiple regression, orthogonal polynomials, correlation, partial correlation, stepwise regression, model building, response surfaces.

3470:666 NONPARAMETRIC STATISTICS-METHODS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 256, 662 or permission. Theoretical bases and relationships among various nonparametric techniques compared with parametric ones.

3470:667 FACTOR ANALYSIS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 601 or permission. Theory and techniques in identifying variables through use of factor analysis.

3470:668 MULTIVARIATE STATISTICAL METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 463/563, 662. Multivariate techniques including distance concept, Hotelling's T², multivariate ANOVA, regression and correlation, linear contrasts, factorial experiments, nested and repeat measure designs, Bonferroni X² tests, linear discrimination analysis, canonical correlation, application.

3470:689 ADVANCED TOPICS IN STATISTICS
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 652. Selected topics in statistics including concepts in order, statistics, advanced inference, sequential analysis, stochastic processes, reliability theory, Bayesian statistics and regression.
3470:397 INDIVIDUAL READING
1-2 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Prerequisites: graduate standing and permission. Directed studies in statistics under guidance of selected faculty member.

3480: General Mathematical Sciences
3480:300-2, 403 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credits
For cooperative education student only. Work experience in industry and business. Comprehensive written reports of the work experience will be required.

3500: Modern Languages
PLACEMENT PROCEDURES FOR NEW STUDENT
Student who has taken one year or less of a foreign language in high school should enroll in 101. Those who have taken more than one year of a foreign language in high school should take the placement test (Counseling and Testing, Ayer Hall 305). For placement in third-year courses or higher, department permission is required.

3500:101,2 BEGINNING MODERN LANGUAGE I AND II
4 credits each
(May be repeated for a different language)
Sequential. Reading, speaking, writing and listening comprehension; intensive drill in pronunciation; short stories, outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3500:201,2 INTERMEDIATE MODERN LANGUAGE I AND II
3 credits each
(May be repeated for a different language)
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, practice in reading, writing, speaking and listening comprehension; short stories, plays, novels on intermediate level.

3500:400/500 WORKSHOP
2 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in modern languages.

3500:498 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT IN MODERN LANGUAGES
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisites: senior standing in Honors Program and approval of honors preceptor. Open only to language major enrolled in Honors Program. Independent study leading to completion of senior honors thesis or other original work.

3520: French
3520:101,2 BEGINNING FRENCH I AND II
4 credits each
Sequential. Thorough study of sound system and basic structural patterns of French language, including oral practice and reading of simple prose. A placement test is required.

3520:201,2 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH I AND II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Audio-oral sections. Practice in reading, writing, speaking and listening comprehension. Grammar review, short stories, plays and novels on intermediate level. A placement test is required.

3520:207,8 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH I AND II READING OPTION
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Reading and translation of texts dealing with contrasting French and American customs, values and attitudes.

3520:301,2 FRENCH COMPOSITION AND CONVERSATION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Free composition, special attention to vocabulary and idioms, development of oral expression and conversational ability.

3520:305,8 INTRODUCTION TO FRENCH LITERATURE
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Survey of French literature from its origins to present, with lectures, reading and class discussion of representative works.

3520:306,10 FRENCH CULTURE AND CIVILIZATION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Audio-visual presentation with class discussions of French cultural heritage from its origins to present.
Conducted in French.

3520:312 INDIVIDUAL SUMMER STUDY ABROAD
2 credits
Prerequisites: 202 or equivalent and permission of instructor.

3520:313 FRENCH CIVILIZATION AS SEEN IN THE MOVIES
3 credits
Study and discussion of various aspects of French culture and civilization as characterized in movies.

3520:351,2 TRANSLATION: FRENCH
3 credits each

3520:401 FRENCH PHONETICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Intensive drill in pronunciation with correction and improvement of student's accent, emphasis on articulation, intonation and rhythm.

3520:403,4 ADVANCED FRENCH COMPOSITION AND CONVERSATION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or equivalent. Thorough analysis of syntax, morphology, phonetic principles and grammatical structure.

3520:407/507 FRENCH LITERATURE OF THE MIDDLE AGES
AND THE RENAISSANCE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of selected Medieval and Renaissance literary works. Conducted in French.

3520:411/511 SEVENTEENTH CENTURY FRENCH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of selected works in poetry, drama and novels. Conducted in French.

3520:415/515 EIGHTEENTH CENTURY FRENCH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of selected authors: emphasis on the philosophes. Conducted in French.

3520:419/519 NINETEENTH CENTURY FRENCH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of selected works pertaining to romantic, realistic and naturalistic movements. Conducted in French.

3520:427/527 TWENTIETH CENTURY FRENCH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of the most representative works of period. Conducted in French.

3520:450 EXPLICATION DE TEXTES
2 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Study of traditional French method of literary analysis based on passages of representative authors from selected periods of French literary history.
Graduate Courses

3520:401 ADVANCED FRENCH GRAMMAR
4 credits
Advanced study of normative French grammar with emphasis on syntax, morphology, grammatical structure and phonetic principles.

3520:403,4 ROMANCE AND APPLIED LINGUISTICS
4 credits each
History of French language from 642 to present. Second semester deals with application of linguistic research to teaching of French.

3520:407,8 SELECTED TOPICS IN THE MOVEMENT OF IDEAS IN FRENCH LITERATURE
4 credits each
Study of ideas instrumental in shaping French thought and culture.

3520:419,20 FRENCH CULTURE EXPRESSED IN LITERATURE
4 credits each
Anthropological approach emphasizing social and civic institutions, education, music and art, value systems and national characteristics.

3520:441 SEMINAR: FRANCOPHONE LITERATURE, CULTURE AND CIVILIZATION
2 credits
Study of various aspects of culture, civilization and literature of French expression outside of France.

3520:442 SEMINAR: THE IMAGE OF THE WOMAN IN FRENCH LITERATURE
2 credits
Study of the woman as characterized in French literature from Middle Ages to present.

3520:461 FRENCH TEACHING PRACTICUM
2 credits
Prequisite: teaching assistantship or permission. Orientation and practice of particular aspects of teaching language and culture. Periodic review and evaluation. Credits may not be applied toward degree requirement.

3520:497,8 INDIVIDUAL READING AND RESEARCH SEMINAR
1-4 credits each
Prequisite: permission. Independent study and research in specific areas. Considerable reading and writing required.

3520:499 THESIS WRITING
4 credits

3530: German

3530:101,2 BEGINNING GERMAN I AND II
4 credits each
Prequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, reading, writing, speaking, listening comprehension; intensive drill in pronunciation; short stories, outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3530:201,2 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN I AND II
3 credits each
Prequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, reading, writing, speaking, listening comprehension; short stories, plays, novels on intermediate level; outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3530:207,8 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN I AND II READING OPTIONS
3 credits each
Prequisite: 102 or equivalent. Reading of German texts in culture and civilization. Discussion in English. Translation and grammatical analysis. Not open to majors.

3530:210 TWENTIETH CENTURY GERMAN LITERATURE IN TRANSLATION
2 credits
Reading and discussion of works of Mann, Rilke, Hesse, Kafka, Benn, Brecht, Frisch, Durrenmatt, Borchert and Grass. May not be taken for credit toward the major in German.

3530:211 NINETEENTH CENTURY GERMAN LITERATURE IN TRANSLATION
2 credits
Reading and discussion of works of Kleist, Heine, Hebbel, Keller, Storm, Meyer and Hauptmann. May not be taken for credit toward the German major.

3530:252 AGE OF GOETHE IN TRANSLATION
2 credits
Reading and discussion of representative drama, prose and poetry of Lessing, Goethe and Schiller. May not be taken for credit toward the German major.

3530:301,2 GERMAN CONVERSATION AND COMPOSITION
3 credits each
Prequisite: 202 or equivalent. Advanced composition using German models, special attention to words and idioms, development of oral expression and conversational ability.

3530:305,8 INTRODUCTION TO GERMAN LITERATURE
3 credits each
Prequisite: 202 or equivalent. Introduction to study of German literature. Reading and class discussion of representative works. Conducted in German.

3530:311,2 TRANSLATION: GERMAN
3 credits each

3530:403,4 ADVANCED GERMAN CONVERSATION AND COMPOSITION
3 credits each
Prequisite: 302 or equivalent. Thorough analysis of syntax, morphological, phonetic principles and grammatical structure.

3530:406,7 GERMAN CULTURE AND CIVILIZATION
3 credits each
Prequisite: 302 or 306 or equivalent. Particular emphasis on customs, traditions, literary trends and artistic tendencies that constitute Germany's contribution to Western Civilization.

3530:419/519 THE AGE OF GOETHE I
3 credits
Prequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Enlightenment and generation of Sturm und Drang, including works of Wieland, Lessing, Kleistock, Herder, the young Goethe and others. Conducted in German.

3530:420/520 THE AGE OF GOETHE II
3 credits
Prequisite: 302, 306 or permission. Faust, selections from parts I and II. Ballads of Goethe and Schiller. Conducted in German.

3530:431/531 200 YEARS OF GERMAN DRAMA
3 credits
Prequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Representative works of major classical dramatists including Lessing, Goethe, Schiller, Klaist, Grilperz. Conducted in German.

3530:432/532 200 YEARS OF GERMAN DRAMA
3 credits
Prequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Representative works of the major dramatists, Buchner, Hebbel, Hauptmann and Wedekind. Conducted in German.

3530:435/535 GERMAN SHORT STORY
3 credits
Prequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of representative works of German romanticism, including those of Tieck, Klaist, E. T. A. Hoffman, Brentano, Eichendorff. Conducted in German.
3550: Italian

3550:101,2 Beginning Italian I and II
4 credits each
Sequential. Reading, speaking, writing and listening comprehension; intensive drill in pronunciation; short stories, outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3550:201,2 Intermediate Italian I and II
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, practice in reading, writing, speaking and listening comprehension; short stories, plays, novels on intermediate level; outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3550:207,8 Intermediate Italian I and II Reading Option
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Readings cover various aspects of Italian culture through the centuries, with particular emphasis on history, literature, art and contemporary Italian way of life as compared with American one.

3550:250 Genius of Italian Literature in Translation
2 credits
Reading and discussion of works of Dante, Petrarcha, Boccaccio, Ariosto, Machiavelli, Cellini, Tasso, Bruno, Pirandello De Filippo.

3550:301,2 Italian Composition and Conversation
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Italian composition using Italian models, special attention to words and idioms and development of oral expression and conversational ability.

3550:305,8 Introduction to Literature
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Introduction to study of Italian literature. Reading and class discussion in Italian of representative works.

3570: Russian

3570:101,2 Beginning Russian I and II
4 credits each
Sequential. Reading, speaking, writing, and understanding; intensive drill in pronunciation and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3570:201,2 Intermediate Russian I and II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, practice in reading, writing, speaking; short stories, novels on intermediate level; outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3570:207,8 Intermediate Russian I and II Reading Option
3 credits each
Sequential. Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Reading of texts in Russian dealing with culture of Russian-speaking people. Discussion of content of these texts in English along with review of grammar to extend necessary for accurate understanding of texts. Not open to majors.

3570:301,2 Russian Composition and Conversation
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Advanced composition using Russian models, special attention to words and idioms; development of oral expression and conversational ability.

3570:305,8 Introduction to Russian Literature
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Reading and class discussion in Russian of representative works.

3570:306,10 Russian Civilization and Culture
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Reading and discussion of Russian texts relating to developments in Russian civilization and culture.

3570:351,2 Translation: Russian
3 credits each

3570:403,4 Advanced Russian Composition and Conversation
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or equivalent. Thorough analysis of syntax, morphology, phonetic principles and grammatical structure.

3570:411,2 Scientific Russian
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Intensive reading of scientific articles in chemistry, physics, mathematics, biology and medicine.

3570:420,1 Russian Literature of the Nineteenth Century: Romanticism and Realism
3 credits each
Prerequisites: 301 or 302 or permission. Readings from representative authors such as Pushkin, Lermontov, Gogol, Turgenev, Dostoyevsky, Tolstoy, Gontcharov and others.

3570:427,8 Russian Literature of the Twentieth Century
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Reading and discussion of selected literary works from Gorky to Solzhenitsyn.

3570:439 Advanced Russian Syntax, Grammar and Conversation
3 credits
Prerequisite: 404 or equivalent. Advanced work in composition, translation into Russian and idiomatic use of the spoken language.

3570:497,8 Individual Reading in Russian
1-3 credits each
Prerequisite: permission.

3580: Spanish

3580:101,2 Beginning Spanish I and II
4 credits each
Sequential. Reading, speaking, writing and listening comprehension; intensive drill in pronunciation; short stories, outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.
3580:201,2 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH I AND II
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. Grammar review, practice in reading, writing, speaking and listening comprehension; short stories, plays, novels on intermediate level; outside reading and supplementary work in language laboratory.

3580:207,8 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH I AND II READING OPTION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 102 or equivalent. By permission only. Reading of texts in Spanish dealing with culture of Spanish-speaking people. Not open to majors.

3580:251 CONTEMPORARY SPANISH LITERATURE IN TRANSLATION
3 credits
Reading and discussion of representative works from Spain and Spanish-America's leading novelists, dramatists and thinkers. May not be taken for credit toward the Spanish major.

3580:201,2 SPANISH COMPOSITION AND CONVERSATION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 202 or equivalent. Advanced composition using Spanish models, special attention to words and idioms, development of oral expression and conversational ability.

3580:305,8 INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH AND SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or equivalent. Directed reading and discussion, in Spanish, of novels, short stories and drama in modern idiom of Spain, Puerto Rico and the 17 Spanish-American republics.

3580:311 SPANISH/SPANISH-AMERICAN CULTURAL EXPERIENCE
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Students' residence and/or independent study in Spanish-speaking country which results in demonstrable assimilation of country's culture may earn a maximum of two credits.

3580:351,2 TRANSLATION: SPANISH
3 credits each
3580:403,4 ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or equivalent. Thorough analysis of syntax, morphology, phonetic principles and grammatical structure.

3580:407/507 MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of representative works that mark beginnings of Spanish literature in poetry, prose and drama, with emphasis given to the major works: Cantar de Mio Cid, El Libro de Buen Amor, La Celestina and the ballads. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:408,10 LINGUISTICS
3 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or permission. Introduction to linguistics focusing on Spanish; includes phonemics; comparative and historical linguistics; traditional, structuralist and transformationalist theories of grammar, together with practical applications for Spanish majors.

3580:411/511 SPANISH LITERATURE OF THE GOLDEN AGE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or permission. Reading and discussion of representative novels and short stories with special emphasis on works of Miguel de Cervantes. Drama, poetry and essays of Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries studied. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:415/515 EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading, discussion and lectures. Study of Neoclassicism, Romanticism, Realismo, Naturalismo, the generation of 1898. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:419/519 TWENTIETH CENTURY SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of the most representative writers of Twentieth Century Spain. Representative poetry, drama, novels and short stories studied. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:422/522 SPECIAL TOPICS IN HISPANIC CULTURE
4 credits
(May be repeated)
Reading and discussion of significant works in literature or culture in Spain and Latin America not studied in other courses.

3580:423/523 SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Reading and discussion of representative Spanish-American literature from discovery to present time. Oral and written reports. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:427,8/527,8 SPANISH AND SPANISH-AMERICAN CULTURE AND CIVILIZATION
4 credits each
Prerequisite: 302 or 306 or permission. Emphasis on customs, traditions, literary trends and artistic tendencies that constitute Spain's specific contribution to Western Civilization. Study of Spanish-speaking world. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:471/571 SPANISH LANGUAGE READING PROFICIENCY
4 credits
Designed to develop proficiency in reading comprehension.

3580:497 INDIVIDUAL READING IN SPANISH
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission.

Graduate Courses

3580:801 SEMINAR ON MEDIEVAL SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits
Reading and discussion of monumental medieval literary works of Spain such as Poema de Mio Cid, El Conde Lucanor, El Libro de Buen Amor. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:805,6 SEMINAR IN HISPANIC LINGUISTICS
4 credits each
Advanced topics in comparative, historical and descriptive Hispanic linguistics studied from contemporary theoretical perspectives; includes practical applications.

3580:809,10 SEMINAR ON SPANISH LITERATURE OF THE GOLDEN AGE; SEMINAR ON EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits each
Reading and discussion of representative writers from Renaissance to late baroque period. Studies in essay, novel, theatre, poetry and phonetic writings. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:813 SEMINAR ON SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE
4 credits
Studies in representative writers preceding the "Boom." Reading and discussion of various genres and authors representing significant literary developments. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:817 SEMINAR ON TWENTIETH CENTURY SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE
4 credits
Reading and discussion of contemporary writers with emphasis on theatre, novel and short story. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:821 SEMINAR ON TWENTIETH CENTURY SPANISH LITERATURE
4 credits
Studies in representative present-day writers with analyses and discussions of novel, theatre, poetry and short stories. Conducted in Spanish.

3580:851 SPANISH TEACHING PRACTICUM
2 credits
Prerequisite: teaching, assistantship or permission. Orientation and practice of particular aspects of teaching Spanish language and culture. Student teaching experiences are periodically reviewed and evaluated. These credits may not be applied toward degree requirements.
3600: Philosophy

3600:101 INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Introduction to philosophic problems and attitudes through acquaintance with thoughts of some leading thinkers of Western tradition.

3600:120 INTRODUCTION TO ETHICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101. Introduction to problems of moral conduct through readings from the tradition and class discussions: nature of 'good', 'right', 'ought' and 'freedom.'

3600:131 COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS I: EASTERN
3 credits
Introduction to Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Confucianism, Taoism and Shinto.

3600:132 COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS II: WESTERN
3 credits
Introduction to Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

3600:170 INTRODUCTION TO LOGIC
3 credits
Introduction to logic and critical thinking. Includes such topics as meaning, informal fallacies, propositional logic, predicate and syllogistic logic and nature of induction.

3600:211 HISTORY OF ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
History and development of ancient Greek philosophy from pre-Socrates to Aristotle. Readings of primary sources in translation.

3600:216 AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: one course in philosophy or permission of instructor. Movement of ideas in America from Royce to present.

3600:223 VALUE THEORY
3 credits
Inquiry into man as an evaluator. Study of some principles and theories of value and their implications.

3600:224 SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: one course in philosophy or permission of instructor. Examination of images of man implied in major social and political philosophies in Western history. Special attention devoted to epistemological, methodological, ontological and axiological assumptions and consequences of these theories.

3600:232 PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION
3 credits
Prerequisite: two philosophy courses. Discussion, analysis of problems of theology, nature of religious experience, God's nature, existence: immortality, sin, faith, reason, holy revelation, redemption.

3600:250 PHILOSOPHY OF ART
3 credits
Prerequisite: 101 or permission. Introduction to major theories of nature of art and art object with readings and discussions of examples. Such thinkers as Plato, Aristotle, Schopenhauer, Lessing, Pater and Freud examined.

3600:280 SOPHOMORE TOPICS IN PHILOSOPHY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in philosophy at the sophomore level.

3600:312 HISTORY OF MEDIEVAL PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
History of Western philosophy from end of Roman Empire to Renaissance. Major philosophers studied include St. Augustine, St. Anselm, Peter Abelard, St. Thomas Aquinas, Duns Scotus and William of Ockham. Readings from primary sources.

3600:313 HISTORY OF MODERN PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Analysis of major philosophical issues of Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries from Descartes through Kant. Readings of primary sources in translation.

3600:314 NINETEENTH CENTURY PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Prerequisite: one course in philosophy or permission of instructor. Inquiry into philosophically significant ideas of Hegel, Marx, Schopenhauer, Mill, Kierkegaard and Nietzsche.

3600:332 DIALECTICAL MATERIALISM
3 credits
Prerequisite: 224 or permission of instructor. Includes Hegelian and other liberal emphasis as development in writings of Marx, Engels, Lenin and contemporary writers. Focus on metaphysics, social philosophy, philosophy of history, nature of man, ethics, aesthetics.

3600:374 SYMBOLIC LOGIC
3 credits
Prerequisite: 110 or permission of instructor. Detailed consideration of propositional and first-order predicate logic. Introduction to class logic, modal logics and axiomatics.

3600:380 JUNIOR TOPICS IN PHILOSOPHY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in philosophy at the junior level.

3600:390 JUNIOR HONORS COLLOQUIUM
3 credits
Prerequisite: junior standing in Honors Program or junior honors standing as philosophy major or permission of instructor or nomination by department faculty member. Selected readings, research, writing and defense of one or more philosophically projects. Preparation and foundation for Senior Honors Project in philosophy.

3800:411/511 LATER DIALOGUES OF PLATO
3 credits
Prerequisites: one introductory course and 211 or permission of instructor. Readings of dialogues in translation, commencing with Theaetetus including: Parmenides, Sophist, Statesman, Philebus.

3800:418/516 ANALYTIC PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 211, 212 and 313 or permission of instructor. Study of ideal and ordinary language movements in Twentieth Century British and American philosophy. Deals with such figures as Russell, Carnap, Ayer, Moore, Wittgenstein, Ryle and Austin.

3800:419/519 BRITISH EMPIRICISM
3 credits
Prerequisites: one introductory course and 313 or permission of instructor. Intensive analysis of selected major writings of Locke, Berkeley and Hume.

3800:421/521 PHILOSOPHY OF LAW
3 credits
Prerequisite: one course in philosophy or permission of instructor. Philosophical inquiry into the nature of law and legal institutions.

3800:422/522 CONTINENTAL RATIONALISM
3 credits
Prerequisite: one introductory course and 313 or permission of instructor. Intensive analysis of selected major writings of Descartes, Spinoza and Leibniz.

3800:424/524 EXISTENTIALISM
3 credits
Prerequisite: one introductory course in philosophy, 314 or permission of instructor. In-depth inquiry into the thought of Kierkegaard, Jaspers, Heidegger, Sartre, Tillich and other existentialists with their concern for man and his human condition.
3800:428/522 PHENOMENOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: one introductory course, 314 or permission of instructor. Inquiry into methodology of Husserl and Heidegger and their influence upon Western European and American thought.

3800:432/532 ARISTOTLE
3 credits
Prerequisites: 211, 212 and 313 or permission of instructor. Detailed study of Aristotle's metaphysics, philosophy of nature, philosophy of man and ethics. Taught in alternate years.

3800:434/534 KANT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 313 or permission of instructor. Study of Kantian system of thought and its relation to history of philosophy. Includes thorough investigation of one or more of Kant's philosophic works.

3800:444/544 PROBLEMS IN PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
Prerequisites: two courses in philosophy or permission of instructor. Thorough, critical examination of one major philosophical problem.

3800:482/562 THEORY OF KNOWLEDGE
3 credits
Prerequisite: three courses in philosophy. Examination of nature of knowledge; theories of perception, conception and truth, problem of induction and relation of language to knowledge.

3800:484/564 PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101, 170 or permission of instructor. Nature of scientific inquiry, types of explanation, laws and causality, theoretical concepts and reality. Also considers critics of hypothetical-deductive view of science, e.g., Hanson and Kuhn.

3800:471/571 METAPHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 211, 212 and 313 or permission of instructor. Theories about ultimate nature and ultimate explanation of reality. Uses readings from classical and contemporary sources.

3800:480/580 SEMINAR
3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor.

3800:481/581 PHILOSOPHY OF LANGUAGE
3 credits
Prerequisites: 101 and 170 or permission of instructor. Contemporary philosophies about nature of language and its relation to reality and human thinking. Includes discussion of views of linguists such as Chomsky.

3800:490 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT IN PHILOSOPHY
1-6 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 390 or senior standing in Honors Program or senior honors standing in philosophy major or permission of instructor or nomination by department faculty member. Research leading to completion of senior honors thesis involving original work under faculty supervision.

3800:497/597 INDIVIDUAL STUDY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: completion of required courses for philosophy major or permission of instructor and department head. Directed independent study of philosophy, philosophy or philosophical problem under guidance of selected faculty member. Subject matter determined by selected faculty member in consultation with student. Graduate credit requires significant additional work which may include an additional research paper.

Graduate Courses

3800:615 SEMINAR: HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of 12 credits)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Study in philosophical works of one major philosopher.

3800:626 ETHICAL THEORY
3 credits
Examination of problems related to conduct and decision making in light of the Western tradition as well as contemporary insights of positivism, phenomenology, existentialism, logical analysis, naturalism and pragmatism.

3800:876 LOGICAL THEORY
3 credits
Advanced topics in logic such as modal logics and axiomatics. Recommended for law student, as logic of normative systems is treated. It is suggested that a graduate student be familiar with material covered in a course like 374 before taking this course.

3800:880 SEMINAR
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of nine credits)

3800:899 SEMINAR: THESIS SUPERVISION
2 credits
(May be repeated)

3650: Physics

3650:130 DESCRIPTIVE ASTRONOMY
3 credits
Qualitative and nonmathematical introduction to subjects of astronomy and astrophysics, intended primarily as a first science course for student not majoring in physical science.

3650:133 MUSIC, SOUND AND PHYSICS
3 credits
Qualitative introduction to sound production, perception and reproduction, with emphasis on music.

3650:137 LIGHT: COLORS, CAMERAS AND PERCEPTION
3 credits
Introductory, qualitative course dealing with nature of light, and interaction of light with material objects to produce common visual effects.

3650:138 PROPERTIES OF LIGHT LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisite or corequisite: 137 or permission. Introductory laboratory dealing qualitatively and quantitatively with properties of light and interaction of light with material objects.

3650:141 PHYSICS, ENERGY AND MAN
3 credits
Introductory, qualitative course dealing with nature of energy including its availability, conservation and utilization by man. Energy resources, conversion efficiencies, environmental effects of energy production, recent developments.

3650:231 CONCEPTS OF PHYSICS I
4 credits
Prerequisites: high school algebra and trigonometry or 3450:149 as corequisite. General physics, emphasizing unifying concepts of physics such as conservation laws and symmetry principles. Newtonian mechanics, oscillations, waves.

3650:232 CONCEPTS OF PHYSICS II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 231. Electricity and magnetism, interference and diffraction of waves; nature of heat; space and time in theory of relativity; quantum mechanics of atomic phenomena; recent developments in study of elementary particles.

3650:251 PHYSICS FOR THE LIFE SCIENCES I
4 credits
Prerequisites: high school algebra, trigonometry or 3450:149 as corequisite or permission. Introductory course for professional work in biology and health professions and services. Emphasizes life science applications. Mechanics: laws of motion, force, torque, work, energy, power; properties to matter: gases, liquids, solids, fluid mechanics.

3650:282 PHYSICS FOR THE LIFE SCIENCES II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 261. Laws of thermodynamics, kinetic theory. Wave phoenomena: sound, light, optics; electricity and magnetism; atomic and nuclear physics; radioactivity.

3850:267,8 LIFE SCIENCE PHYSICS COMPUTATIONS I AND II
1 credit each
Corequisites: 261 (with 267); 262 (with 268). Optional companion courses to 267.2 provides additional computational experience in applications of physics to life sciences, emphasizing use of algebra and trigonometry. Particularly recommended for student with modest mathematical preparation.

3850:291 ELEMENTARY CLASSICAL PHYSICS I
4 credits
Corequisite: 3450:221. Introductory physics for student of science and engineering. Classical statics, kinematics and dynamics, as related to contemporary physics. Oscillations, waves, fluid mechanics. Vectors and some calculus introduced as needed.

3850:292 ELEMENTARY CLASSICAL PHYSICS II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 291. Thermodynamics from atomic point of view; basic laws of electromagnetism; mechanical and electromagnetic waves. Interference and diffraction; coherence; geometrical and physical optics.

3850:293,4 PHYSICS COMPUTATIONS I AND II
1 credit each
Corequisites: 291 (with 293); 292 (with 294). Optional companion courses to 291.2 provides experience in problem solving, and elaborates application of calculus to simple physical phenomena. Particularly recommended for a freshman, and for student with modest preparation in mathematics or physical sciences.

3850:301 ELEMENTARY MODERN PHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 292 or permission of instructor. Special relativity, introduction to quantum physics. Hydrogen atom and complex atoms, atomic spectra, topics in nuclear and solid-state physics.

3850:321 PHYSICS LABORATORY TECHNIQUES
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Design and fabrication of comprehensive survey of astronomy and astrophysics at intermediate level. Study of origin and evolution of major phenomena: sound, light, optics; electricity and magnetism; atomic and nuclear physics. Introduction to research-type projects in contemporary physics. Oscillations, waves, electromagnetic phenomena. Introduction to resonance techniques: scintillation spectroscopy, electron spin resonance, nuclear quadrupole resonance. Scintillation spectroscopy. Alpha and beta-ray spectroscopy.

3850:3850:410/510 ELECTRONICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 232, 262 or 292. Electron tubes, semiconductors, their utilization in circuits. Introduction to mathematical analysis of same.

3850:411,2/511,2 INTERMEDIATE LABORATORY I AND II
2 credits each

3850:420/520 OPTICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 232, 262, or 292 and 3450:223. Reflection, refraction; prisms, thin lenses, thick lenses, mirrors; waves and their propagation; interference and diffraction; diffraction gratings; polarization; emission of light; velocity of light; photometry; lasers.

3850:421/521 APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 411 or permission of instructor. Laboratory course stressing measurement and evaluation techniques as performed in industry and research. Mechanical, optical, thermal, electric and electronic measurements done, experimental design, calculation and reporting emphasized.

3850:430/530 STATISTICAL PHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 232, 262 or 292. Kinetic theory of gases, temperature; thermodynamic systems; work; ideal gases; laws of thermodynamics; entropy, reversibility and irreversibility; Carnot cycle; Kelvin temperature scale; change of phase.

3850:431/531 MECHANICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 292. Newtonian mechanics, conservation laws, planar statics and dynamics, motion of a particle or rigid body, universal gravitation, planetary orbits, Kepler’s laws, orbit perturbations, vibrational motions, moving frames of reference.

3850:436/536 ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM
3 credits
Prerequisite: 292 or permission of instructor. Electricity and magnetism at intermediate level. Electric and magnetic fields, electric potential, vector potential. Gauss’s law, divergence theorem, Stoke’s theorem, introductory vector analysis. Development of Maxwell’s equations.

3850:438/538 METHODS OF APPLIED PHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisite or corequisite: 421. Topics: design, performance, interpretation, reporting of physical measurements: the scientific method, measurements, their uncertainties, principles of experimentation, measurement devices, data resolution and analysis, inference.

3850:445/545 THEORETICAL MECHANICS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 431. Introductory vector analysis, motion of a system of particles, mechanics of continuous media, Lagrange's equations, Hamilton’s equations, inertia and stress tensors, rigid body rotation, Euler's equations, small vibration theory.

3850:448/548 ELECTROMAGNETIC THEORY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 436. Electromagnetic theory at advanced level including electrostatic fields, dielectrics, magnetic fields of steady currents, induction, magnetic energy. Maxwell's equations, electromagnetic waves, electromagnetic fields of moving charges, radiation.

3850:451,2/551,2 ADVANCED LABORATORY I AND II
2 credits each
Prerequisite: 412 or permission of instructor. Applications of electronic, solid-state devices, techniques to research-type projects in contemporary physics. Introduction to resonance techniques: nuclear magnetic resonance, electron spin resonance, nuclear quadrupole resonance. Scintillation spectroscopy, Alpha- and beta-ray spectroscopy.

</table>
602. Thorough development of ordinary wave mechanics; matrix formulation and unification in the more abstract Dirac formulation.

3850:882 QUANTUM MECHANICS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 681. Angular momentum, spin, Pauli matrices, Clebsch-Gordan coefficients, spin-orbit interaction, scattering theory, Born approximation, perturbation theory; time independent and time dependent, sudden and adiabatic approximations.

3850:894 ADVANCED NUCLEAR PHYSICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 602, 688. Quantum mechanics applied to nucleus. Interaction of radiation with nucleus, nuclear scattering, nuclear reactions; energy levels of nuclei.

3850:895 SOLID-STATE PHYSICS I
3 credits

3850:896 SOLID-STATE PHYSICS II
3 credits

3850:899 SPECIAL PROBLEMS IN THEORETICAL PHYSICS
1-4 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Intended to facilitate expansion of particular areas of interest in theoretical physics, by consultation with faculty member and independent study beyond available coursework.

3850:900 SPECIAL PROBLEMS IN EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS
1-4 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission. Intended to encourage development of experimental techniques in selected areas, under faculty supervision.

3855:981 SEMINAR IN THEORETICAL PHYSICS
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission.

3855:982 SEMINAR IN NMR SPECTROSCOPY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission.

3850:606 MULTIVARIATE TECHNIQUES IN SOCIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 603 and 604, or permission; a sociology graduate student only. Methodological problems using advanced multivariate techniques in analysis of sociological data. Topics include nonexperimental causal analysis such as recursive and nonrecursive path analysis. (Same as KSU 82120)

3850:607 COMPUTER APPLICATIONS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES
3 credits
Prerequisite: Elementary statistics course or permission of instructor. Introduction to computers and their applications in social sciences. (Same as KSU 72214) Seminar.

3850:608 ADVANCED TECHNIQUES IN RESEARCH
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: Permission. Selected topics in advanced, multivariate statistical analysis and in strategies of sociological research. Emphasis on current trends and innovations in research techniques. (Same as KSU 82119) Seminar.

3850:609 ANALYSIS OF SOCIOLOGICAL DATA
3 credits
Prerequisite: 606 or permission. Critical examination of data analytic techniques having particular relevance to research problems in sociology. (Same as KSU 82121) Seminar.

3850:611 SURVEY RESEARCH METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 603 and 604, or permission. In-depth study of design and administration of social surveys. (Same as KSU 82123) Seminar.

3850:612 EXPERIMENTAL AND QUASI-EXPERIMENTAL RESEARCH IN SOCIOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 603 and 604, or permission. Application of experimental and quasi-experimental methods in sociological research with special attention given to appropriate designs, statistical analyses and empirical literature. Seminar.

3850:813 SOCIOLOGY OF PROGRAM EVALUATION AND PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Program evaluation as it occurs in different social programs. Topics include history of evaluation, value assumptions, political dimensions, ethical issues, social change, use of experimentation and alternatives and the use for program development. (Same as KSU B2119) Seminar.

3850:814 QUALITATIVE METHODOLOGY
3 credits
Prerequisites: 603, 604 or permission. Theory, building and theory testing through the application of such techniques as participant-observation, open-ended interviewing, content analysis, historiography (diaries, records from churches, schools, social agencies, and other contemporary sources) and qualitative statistics. (Same as KSU B2122) Seminar.

3850:815 EPIDEMIOLOGIC METHODS IN HEALTH RESEARCH
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Designed to introduce the student to methods of developing and understanding information concerning the distribution of illness and injury in society and evaluations of interventions to reduce that burden.

3850:817 SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY
3 credits
Examination of major theoretical frameworks, concepts that form the foundation of sociological thought. Emphasis on contemporary sociological theory, its debt to classic works. (Same as KSU 72108) Seminar.

3850:818 THEORY CONSTRUCTION
3 credits
Study of rules and methods for constructing scientific theory. Emphasis on writings of scientists and philosophers of science and application of these ideas to development of sociological theories. (Same as KSU 72107) Seminar.

3850:819 ADVANCED CONCEPTUAL ANALYSIS
3 credits
Critical examination of concepts held fundamental in sociological diagnoses. Evaluation of them from logical, semantical and operational perspectives. Assessment of their utility to development of sociological theories. (Same as KSU 82106) Seminar.

3870:358 NEW WORLD PREHISTORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or 3850:100, or permission. Survey of prehistoric cultures of North, Middle and South America, beginning with peopling of Western Hemisphere and ending with European contact. Lecture.

3870:357 MAGIC, MYTH AND RELIGION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or 3850:100. Evolutionary transformations of magic and ritual into science and technology. Examination of animism, totemism and other forms of preliterate religions. Mana, taboo and other religious and social symbols. Lecture.

3870:387 ANTHROPOLOGICAL RESEARCH
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Individual study of problem areas of specific interest to an individual student under guidance of a faculty member.

3870:455/555 CULTURE AND PERSONALITY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or permission. Examination of functional and causal relationships between culture and individual cognition and behavior. Lecture.

3870:461/561 LANGUAGE AND CULTURE
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or permission. Examination of language structure and interaction of language, cognition and culture. Lecture.

3870:463/563 TYPES OF KINSHIP AND SOCIAL ORGANIZATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 150 or permission. Comparative structural analysis of non-Western systems of kinship and social organization in terms of status, role, reciprocal expectation, nomenclature, nuclear and extended households and other kinship groupings. Lecture.

3870:472/572 SPECIAL TOPICS: ANTHROPOLOGY
3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisites: 150 and permission. Designed to meet needs of student with interests in selected topics in anthropology. Offered irregularly when resources and opportunities permit. May include archaeological field school, laboratory research or advanced coursework not presently offered by department on regular basis.

3870:494/594 WORKSHOP IN ANTHROPOLOGY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in anthropology. May not be used to meet departmental undergraduate or graduate major requirements. May be used for elective credit only.

Graduate Courses

3870:551 SEMINAR IN ANTHROPOLOGICAL THEORIES AND METHODS
3 credits

3870:897 INDIVIDUAL INVESTIGATION
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor and head of department. Intensive reading and/or research in student's chosen field of interest. Regular conferences with instructor. Preparation of a research paper.

3940: Polymer Science

3940:301 INTRODUCTION TO ELASTOMERS
2 credits
Prerequisite: one year of organic chemistry or permission. History and preparation of natural rubber. Methods utilized for production of synthetic rubbers outlined. Laboratory experiments include compounding, processing, vulcanization and testing of rubber products.
INTRODUCTION TO PLASTICS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 301 or permission. Plastics industry and its manufacturing methods discussed. Plastics compounding for both thermoplastic and thermosetting materials discussed with emphasis on processing and testing as illustrated by laboratory experiments.

SPECIAL PROJECTS IN POLYMER SCIENCE
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: 302. Research projects of a limited scope for student training experience with a professor working in a specific field. The course would be designed to give the student the processes involved in outlining projects, setting up equipment, collecting and recording research data in a scientific manner.

POLYMER SCIENCE
4 credits
Prerequisite: 3150:314 or 3650:301, or permission. Principles of polymerization processes and relationships between molecular structure and physical behavior of polymers. Molecular weight distributions of macromolecules discussed and methods of determining molecular weights utilized.

MOLECULAR STRUCTURE AND PHYSICAL PROPERTIES OF POLYMERS I
2 credits
Prerequisite: 301 or 302 or permission. Interdisciplinary course involving the principles of chemistry and physics as brought to bear on relationships between molecular structure and chemical composition of macromolecules and their physical properties.

MOLECULAR STRUCTURE AND PHYSICAL PROPERTIES OF POLYMERS II
2 credits
Prerequisite: 411/511 or permission. Mechanical characterization of polymeric materials, the Boltzmann superposition principle and fracture. Experimental techniques involving stress-strain behavior, stress relaxation, creep, forced and free vibrations discussed.

MOLECULAR STRUCTURE AND PHYSICAL PROPERTIES OF POLYMERS III
2 credits
Prerequisite: 412/512 or permission. Deformation of bonded rubber units, the correspondence principle, time-dependent failure, mechanical properties of polymeric foams and design considerations discussed.

SEMINAR IN POLYMER SCIENCE
1-2 credits
New and unsolved problems of polymer science discussed from interdisciplinary view of material sciences. A student prepares one or more formal technical presentations related to chemical aspects of field.

MOLECULAR STRUCTURE AND PHYSICAL PROPERTIES OF POLYMERS LABORATORY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 413 or permission. Laboratory experiments involving the topics covered in the prerequisite courses.

EXTRUSION AND MOLDING
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or permission. Introduction of extrusion and molding processes for plastics. Theory of extrusion and molding processes and their application to the types of materials used, variations in equipment and the processing characteristics involved. Lecture and laboratory.

ADHESIVES AND COATING
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or permission. This course involves the fundamentals of adhesives and coatings technology. The chemical and physical properties of adhesives and coatings will be discussed and will be related to molecular structure. Specific materials, applications and testing procedures will be discussed and practical experience gained by experimentation in the laboratory.

COMPOSITES, CELLULAR STRUCTURES AND TIRE TECHNOLOGY
4 credits
Prerequisite: 302 or permission. The importance and science of composite structures will be taught and applied to the technology of foam and tire manufacture. Laboratory experiments will be used to illustrate the principles involved.

WORKSHOP IN POLYMER SCIENCE
1-3 credits
(May be repeated with permission)
Group studies on selected topics involving polymers. May not be used to meet undergraduate or graduate major requirements in polymer science. May be used for elective credit only.

Graduate Courses

SPECIAL PROJECTS IN POLYMER SCIENCE
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Research projects of limited nature assigned to student entering polymer science program. Intended to familiarize student with typical problems and techniques in this field.

INORGANIC POLYMERS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 3150:472/572 or 601 or permission. Survey course designed to broaden outlook of typical graduate student beyond chemistry and physics of carbon chains.

POLYMER SCIENCE LABORATORY
2 credits
Prerequisite or corequisite: 701, 3150:601 or permission of instructor. Laboratory experiments in synthesis, characterization, physical properties and processing and testing of polymers.

MASTER'S RESEARCH
1-6 credits
Prerequisite: permission. For properly qualified candidate for master's degree. Supervised original research in polymer science, under direction of faculty member, followed by submission of thesis.

POLYMER TECHNOLOGY I
2 credits
Prerequisite: 701 or permission of instructor. Rubber industry, rubber compounding and processing, vulcanization methods, physical testing, plastics preparation and compounding, manufacturing processes. Lecture/Laboratory.

POLYMER TECHNOLOGY II
2 credits
Prerequisite: 702 or permission of instructor. Flow properties, extrusion, calendering and milling, molding, mixing, bond operations, engineering properties, rubber springs, viscoelastic analysis design consideration. Lecture/Laboratory.

POLYMER TECHNOLOGY III
2 credits
Prerequisite: 703 or permission of instructor. Flow properties, extrusion, calendering and milling, molding, mixing, bond operations, engineering properties, rubber springs, viscoelastic analysis design consideration. Lecture/Laboratory.

MACROMOLECULAR CHAIN STRUCTURE
3 credits
Prerequisite: either 3150:314, 3650:301 or 4200:305 or permission. Chain-like structure of large molecules, fundamental theories of chemical conformation and statistical mechanics developed to degree that their applications to polymeric problems can be discussed.

MACROMOLECULAR CHAIN STRUCTURE
3 credits
Prerequisite: 708 or permission. Continuation of topics in 708 including experimental techniques used in elucidation of chain structure.

SPECIAL TOPICS: POLYMER SCIENCE
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Study of topical subjects of current interest in polymer science, encompassing chemistry, physics or engineering aspects of macromolecular substances and including laboratory work where applicable.

SPECIAL TOPICS: POLYMER SCIENCE
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Topics of current interest in polymer science, encompassing chemistry, physics or engineering aspects of macromolecular science.
3980:713 CHAIN STRUCTURE LABORATORY
2 credits
Prerequisite or corequisite: 706 or permission of instructor. Designed to apply principles discussed in 706 to laboratory determination of polymer structure.

3980:899 DOCTORAL RESEARCH IN POLYMER SCIENCE
2-16 credits
Open to properly qualified student accepted as candidate for degree of Doctor of Philosophy in polymer science, depending on availability of staff and facilities.

3980: Urban Studies

Graduate Courses

3980:390 WORKSHOP
1-3 credits
(May be repeated)
Group studies of special topics in urban studies. May not be used to meet graduate major requirements in urban studies. May be used for elective credit only.

3980:800 BASIC ANALYTICAL RESEARCH
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Examines basic framework of social science research methodologies and basic complementary statistical techniques, including probability and sampling most useful in urban studies.

3980:801 ADVANCED RESEARCH AND STATISTICAL METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 600. Extends study of social science to include more advanced research designs and multivariate statistical techniques.

3980:802 AMERICAN URBAN DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
Examination of major literature on processes of urbanization in United States and selected facets of urban institutional development.

3980:810 URBAN POLITICS
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Empirical analysis of urban political structure and major political problems.

3980:811 URBAN ADMINISTRATION
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Organization and management characteristics of various types of governmental units examined within framework of organization and management theory.

3980:812 NATIONAL URBAN POLICY
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Major federal policies that relate to urban problems examined in regard to policymaking processes, implementation and impact.

3980:814 ETHICS AND PUBLIC SERVICE
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Examination of the ethical problems and implications of decisions and policies made by those whose actions impact on the broad public. Case studies of decision making in both the public (government) and private (business and the professions) spheres are studied in relation to classical literature in ethical theory.

3980:820 SOCIAL SERVICES PLANNING
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. In-depth analysis of total social services requirements and various ways in which social services planning function is carried out in urban communities.

3980:821 URBAN SOCIETY AND SERVICE SYSTEMS
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Analysis of social bases of urban society: hierarchies, social problems, relationships to planning, public services.
3880:887 INDIVIDUAL STUDIES
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of four credits)
Directed individual readings or research on specific area or topic.

3880:700 ADVANCED RESEARCH METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: demonstrated use of statistical techniques at master's level or permission. Statistical methodologies used in doctoral and postdoctoral research. Examples drawn from both social and natural scientific methodologies with emphasis on urban problems. Independent and original research leading to better understanding of our complex urban environment. Attempts to develop new theories of urbanization encouraged.

3880:701 URBAN THOUGHT
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Critical examination of major ideas about the city from Aristotle to Twentieth Century and of impact of urbanization on society and public policy.

3880:702 BUREAUCRACY AND THE PUBLIC INTEREST
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Seminar designed to analyze public bureaucracy and public interest as central phenomena of contemporary public administration in urban America.

3880:703 PROGRAM EVALUATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Provides concepts for student in evaluation of programs, both external and internal, to work settings.

3880:704 IMPLEMENTATION OF PUBLIC POLICY
3 credits
Analysis of administrative process within public organizations, federal, state and local, in United States; emphasis on urban community.

3880:705 PLANNING STRATEGIES AND EVALUATION OF PLANS
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Analysis of urban planning policy issues and strategies for implementation in public policy formulation. Emphasis on use of planning process as integrative mechanism.

3880:706 URBAN TUTORIAL
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Intensive study of a particular approved field or topical area of urban studies with a tutor. Student enrolls in a total of 12 hours of tutorial credit and more than 12 only if tutorial field is changed, as approved by Committee on Doctoral Studies. In no case will a student enroll in more than three credits per term.

3880:899 DISSERTATION RESEARCH
3-15 credits
(May be repeated)
Open to properly qualified student accepted as candidate for Doctor of Philosophy degree. Student must register for at least three credits each semester until dissertation is accepted. Minimum of 15 credits required.
College of Engineering

4100: General Engineering

4100:180 ENGINEERING DESIGN
1 credit
Introduction of freshman engineering student to problem-solving techniques in engineering design. Required of all entering engineering freshmen in Evening College.

4100:201 ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT
2 credits
Interactions between energy production, consumption and environment. Case studies. Not for engineering, chemistry or physics majors.

4100:202 ATMOSPHERIC POLLUTION
2 credits

4100:300 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credit
Effective for Cooperative Education Program student who has completed sophomore year. Practice in industry and comprehensive written reports of this experience.

4100:301 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credit
Required for Cooperative Education Program student only. Practice in industry and comprehensive written reports of this experience. Offered spring semester of third year.

4100:302 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credit
Required for Cooperative Education Program student only. Practice in industry and comprehensive written reports of this experience. Offered fall semester of fourth year.

4100:403 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION WORK PERIOD
0 credit
Required for Cooperative Education Program student only. Practice in industry and comprehensive written reports of this experience. Offered summer after fourth year.

4200: Chemical Engineering

4200:120 ENGINEERING FUNDAMENTALS
1 credit
Prerequisite: 3150:132. Introduction to problem solving and format, computational exercise, dimensions, units physical measurements.

4200:200 MATERIAL AND ENERGY BALANCES
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:221 and 3150:134. Introduction to material, energy balance calculations applied to solution of chemical problems.

4200:305 MATERIALS SCIENCE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3150:133 and 3650:292 and junior standing. Structure, processing and properties of metals, ceramics and polymers. Special topics, such as composites, corrosion and wear.

4200:321 FLUID, THERMAL TRANSFER THEORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 200. Constitutive equations for momentum and energy transfer. Development of microscopic and macroscopic momentum and energy equations. Analogy and dimensions correlations. Problems and applications in unit operations of chemical engineering.

4200:322 THERMAL, MASS TRANSFER THEORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 321. Constitutive equations for mass transfer. Development of microscopic and macroscopic momentum, energy and mass transfer equations for binary systems. Problems and applications in unit operations of chemical engineering.

4200:325 EQUILIBRIUM THERMODYNAMICS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 200. Second law of thermodynamics, entropy, applications, comprehensive treatment of pure and mixed fluids. Phase and chemical equilibria, flow processes, power production and refrigeration processes covered.

4200:351 FLUID AND THERMAL OPERATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 321. Applications of fluid mechanics including piping, pumping, compression, metering, agitation and separations. Applications of heat transfer by conduction, convection and radiation to design of process equipment.

4200:352 TRANSPORT LABORATORY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 322. Experiments in fluid, heat and mass transfer. Data collection, analysis and reporting in various formats. Relationships to theory emphasized.

4200:353 MASS TRANSFER OPERATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 322, 325. Theory and design of staged operations including distillation, extraction, absorption. Theory and design of continuous mass transfer devices.

4200:354 OPERATIONS LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 353. Comprehensive experiments and analysis in combined heat and mass transfer, thermodynamics and reaction kinetics. Comprehensive reports.

4200:408 POLYMER ENGINEERING
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission or senior standing. Commercial polymerization, materials selection and property modification, polymer processing, applied rheology and classification of polymer industry.

4200:430 CHEMICAL REACTION ENGINEERING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 325. Non-equilibrium processes including chemical reaction mechanisms, rate equations and ideal reactor design applied to homogeneous and heterogeneous systems.

4200:435 PROCESS ANALYSIS AND CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 353 or 430. Response of simple chemical processes and design of appropriate control systems.

4200:441 PROCESS ECONOMICS AND DESIGN
4 credits
Prerequisite: 353. Economic evaluation of chemical plants including justification, profitability, capital investment and operating costs. Design of chemical process equipment.

4200:442 PLANT DESIGN
4 credits
Prerequisite: 441. Integration of process and equipment design for a total plant including justification, site selection and plant layout. Culminates with a case study or A.I.Ch.E. Student Contest Problem.

4200:461/561 SOLIDS PROCESSING
3 credits
Prerequisites: 321 and 353 or permission. Comprehensive problems in sedimentation, fluidization, drying and other operations involving mechanics of particulate solids in liquid and gas continua.

4200:463/563 POLLUTION CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 353 or permission. Air and water pollution sources and problems. Engineering aspects and methodology.

4300: Civil Engineering

4300:100 INTRODUCTION TO ENGINEERING
1 credit
- Introduction to civil engineering for freshman engineering students.
- Tasks and opportunities of civil engineer. Introduction to engineering problem-solving techniques. Required of all civil engineering freshmen.

4300:201 STATICS
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 201. Axial force, bending moment diagrams, axial stress and deformation, stress-strain diagrams, torsion; flexural stress, flexural shearing stress; compound stresses.

4300:202 INTRODUCTION TO MECHANICS OF SOLIDS
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 202 or permission. Study of strength of materials. Stress in simple structures and frames; virtual work analysis; moment area theorem; theorem of three moments; moment distribution for continuous beams and frames.

4300:230 SURVEYING
4 credits

4300:308 THEORY OF STRUCTURES
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 308. Stability and stabilities: statically determinate trusses and frames; approximate frame influence functions; moving loads; virtual work analysis; moment area theorem; theorem of three moments; moment distribution for continuous beams and frames.

4300:311 GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING
5 credits
- Prerequisite: 311 or permission. Study of strength of soils. Soil strength and limiting equilibrium. Slope stability. Design of foundation systems, retaining walls and sheet pile. Laboratory study of soil properties and behavior.

4300:322 WATER SUPPLY AND WASTEWATER DISPOSAL
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 322. Study of water treatment processes and methods. Characteristics of wastewater, wastewater treatment, wastewater treatment, sludge treatment and disposal, construction, finance, maintenance and operation of treatment facilities.

4300:341 HYDRAULIC ENGINEERING
2 credits
- Prerequisite: 341 or permission. Study of pipe networks, pumping stations and simple weirs.

4300:380 ENGINEERING MATERIALS LABORATORY
1 credit
- Prerequisite: 202. Study of laboratory instrumentation and standard techniques in testing of engineering materials. Data analysis.

4300:403 REINFORCED CONCRETE DESIGN
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 403. Ultimate strength analysis and design; compression steel; diagonal tension; stirrups; development length; one-way slab; T-beams; two-way slabs; columns; isolated and combined footings.

4300:404 ADVANCED STRUCTURAL DESIGN
3 credits
- Prerequisites: 401 and 403. Composite design; plate girders; plastic design; cantilever retaining walls; torsion in RC members; deflection of RC members; continuous girder bridge design.

4300:407 ADVANCED MECHANICS OF SOLIDS
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 202. Elastic torsion analysis twisting of noncircular bars and hollow members; bending of unsymmetrical sections; inelastic beam bending; beams of two materials; curved beams; shear center; strain transformation; yield criteria, skew bending; Castigliano's theorem; conjugate beam.

4300:414 DESIGN OF EARTH STRUCTURES
3 credits

4300:418/518 SOIL AND ROCK EXPLORATION
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 311 or permission. Site exploration criteria and planning. Conventional coring, sampling and in situ testing methods. Theory and application of geophysics and geophysical methods including seismic, electrical resistivity, gravity, magnetic and radioactive measurements. Air photo interpretation.

4300:420 ENGINEERING LABORATORY
2 credits
- Selected physical, chemical and bacteriological analysis of raw and treated water and wastewaters.

4300:421 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 421. Engineering aspects involved in control of environ- ment of citizens. Includes communicable disease control, air pollution, industrial hygiene, milk and food sanitation, radiological health, solid waste disposal.

4300:424 WATER-WASTEWATER LABORATORY
1 credit
- Corequisite: 322 or permission. Analysis of water and wastewater.

4300:425 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING LABORATORY
2 credits
- Selected physical, chemical and bacteriological analysis of raw and treated water and wastewaters.

4300:426/526 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING DESIGN
2 credits
- Analysis of various environmental control systems for water and waste water treatment. Economic analysis with use of computer programming for evaluation of various regional, metropolitan and urban areas to determine most economical system for water supply and pollution control.

4300:441 HYDRAULIC DESIGN
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 341. Collection and critical evaluation of hydraulic data related to actual design problem selected by instructor. Development and analysis of design alternatives. Preparation of reports.

4300:443/643 APPLIED HYDRAULICS
3 credits
- Prerequisite: 341. Review of design principles: urban hydraulics, stream channel mechanics, sedimentation, coastal engineering.

4300:445 HYDROLOGY
3 credits

4300:448 HYDRAULICS LABORATORY
1 credit
- Prerequisite: 341. Introduction to laboratory and field devices for hyd­ raulic measurements. Reduction and presentation of hydraulic data, individual assignments of model studies of hydraulic structures.
4300:450 URBAN PLANNING
2 credits
Historical developments in urban planning; urban planning techniques and patterns; comprehensive master planning studies; planning regulations; design problems; class projects; class project presentation.

4300:451 MATRIX ANALYSIS OF STRUCTURES
3 credits

4300:452 STRUCTURAL VIBRATIONS AND EARTHQUAKES
3 credits

4300:463 TRANSPORTATION PLANNING
2 credits
Prerequisite: 361. Theory and techniques for development, analysis and evaluation of transportation systems plans. Emphasis on understanding and using tools and professional methods available to solve transportation planning problems, especially in urban areas.

4300:484 HIGHWAY DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: 301. Step-by-step study of modern highway design techniques and construction practice.

4300:471 CONSTRUCTION ADMINISTRATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: senior standing or permission. Organization for construction; construction contracts, estimating, bidding, bonds and insurance. Construction financial management and supervision of construction, scheduling using critical path method.

4300:472 CONSTRUCTION ENGINEERING
3 credits
Prerequisite: senior standing or permission. Construction equipment selection and management. Techniques of various engineering construction operations including blasting, tunneling, concrete framework and dewatering.

4300:473 CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 380, 4200:335. Composition, structure and mechanical behavior of structural materials such as concrete, wood, masonry, plastics and composites. Discussion of applications and principles of evaluating material properties.

4300:474/574 UNDERGROUND CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 311. Description of practices and techniques of underground construction. Selection of proper method for individual job. Design of underground openings, support systems and linings.

4300:481 CIVIL ENGINEERING SYSTEMS
2 credits
Prerequisite: senior standing. Systems approach to civil engineering problems. Mathematical programming; project planning, scheduling and cost analysis; basic operations research methods; decision analysis. Management of engineering design of complex civil engineering projects.

4300:482 SPECIAL PROJECTS
1-2 credits
Prerequisites: senior standing and permission. Directed individual or group research or study in student's field of interest. Topic subject to approval by adviser.

4300:497 HONORS PROJECT
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program. Individual creative project or design relevant to civil engineering, supervised by faculty member of the department.

Graduate Courses

4300:601 ADVANCED MECHANICS OF MATERIALS
3 credits

4300:602 FUNDAMENTALS OF ELASTICITY, PLASTICITY AND VISCOELASTICITY
3 credits

4300:603 MATRIX ANALYSIS OF FRAMED STRUCTURES
3 credits

4300:604 DYNAMICS OF STRUCTURES
3 credits

4300:605 STRUCTURAL STABILITY
3 credits

4300:606 ENERGY METHODS AND ELASTICITY
3 credits

4300:607 PRESTRESSED CONCRETE
3 credits
Prerequisite: 404. Basic concepts. Design of double-tie roof girder; shear, development length; columns, piles; design of highway bridge girder: pretensioned, posttensioned; continuous girders; corbels; volume-change forces; connections.

4300:606 MULTISTORY BUILDING DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: 401. Floor systems; staggered truss system; braced frame design; unbraced frame design; drift indices; monocoque (tube and partial tube) systems; earthquake design; fire protection. Analysis by STRUDL.

4300:608 FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 202. Introductory development of finite element method as applied to various topics from continuum mechanics. Such areas as plane, axisymmetric and 3-D stress analysis; conduction, fluid mechanics, transient problems and geometric and material nonlinearity.

4300:611 FUNDAMENTALS OF SOIL BEHAVIOR
2 credits
Prerequisite: 311. In-depth examination of structure and fundamental physico-chemical and mechanical properties of engineering soils viewed as particulate matter.

4300:612 ADVANCED SOIL MECHANICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311. Study of mechanics of behavior of soil as continuum.
Principles of stress, strain, deformation, shear strength and pore water pressure as applied to mechanical behavior of soil masses.

4300:814 FOUNDATION ENGINEERING I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 311 or permission. Foundation bearing capacity and settlement analysis. Design of shallow and deep foundation systems. Pile driving and load test procedures and analysis. Theory and design of earth-retaining structures including retaining walls, tiebacks and bulkheads.

4300:815 FOUNDATION ENGINEERING II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 614 or permission. Soil-structure interaction theory and applications to underground structures including conduits, tunnels and shafts. Advanced foundation construction methods and problems in cladding dewatering, soil stabilization, underpinning and cofferdams. Slope stability analysis.

4300:816 ROCK MECHANICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 602 or permission. Mechanical nature of rocks; linear elasticity and application to rock problems; inelastic behavior or rocks; time dependence and effects of pore pressure; experimental characterization of rock properties; failure theory and crack propagation.

4300:820 SANITARY ENGINEERING PROBLEMS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 323. Application of both laboratory methods and theory to solution of sanitary engineering problems involving water pollution, stream regeneration, special industrial wastes, detergents and others.

4300:821 INDUSTRIAL WASTE TREATMENT
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Analysis of problems arising from industrial water pollution. Analysis of methods of treatment with specific applications and study of cost-effectiveness to meet water quality criteria.

4300:822 WATER TREATMENT PLANT DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Design of water treatment plants for potable, industrial and commercial uses. Development of water sources, treatment methods and financing used to design best practical methods in terms of cost-benefits.

4300:823 WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Application of theory and fundamentals to design of wastewater treatment plants. System design methods used for biological and chemical stabilization of wastewater to meet water quality criteria. Economic analyses made to determine best practical designs to be utilized.

4300:824 ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT OF WATER UTILITIES
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Comprehensive study of various functions of water utility and engineering management operations pertaining to distribution and complex processes. Fundamentals of responsibility and duties offered to a student seeking engineering fundamentals applicable to water utility systems.

4300:840 ADVANCED FLUID MECHANICS
3 credits

4300:844 OPEN CHANNEL HYDRAULICS
3 credits
Application of basic principles of fluid mechanics to flow in open channels. Criteria for analysis of uniform, gradually varied and rapidly varied flows. Study of movement and transportation of sediments. Design problems utilizing numerical techniques.

4300:845 APPLIED HYDROLOGY
3 credits
Discussion of water cycle such as precipitation, evaporation, stream flows, floods, infiltration. Methods of analysis and their application to studies of water demand, storage, transportation including mathematical modeling of urban runoff and statistical hydrology.

4300:846 COASTAL ENGINEERING
3 credits
Characteristics of linear and nonlinear wave theories, interaction of structures, waves; design analysis of shore, offshore structures. Movement, transportation of sediments in lake shore areas.

4300:861 ADVANCED ENGINEERING MATERIALS
3 credits
Selected topics on principles governing mechanical behavior of materials with respect to elastic, plastic and creep responses, stress rupture, low and high cycle and thermal fatigue. Failure theories and fracture phenomena in brittle and ductile materials. Crack propagation and life prediction of engineering materials.

4300:897 SPECIAL PROBLEMS
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Supervised research or directed individual study in student's major field. Topic selected by student, subject to approval by adviser.

4300:899 MASTER'S THESIS
1-6 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Research and thesis on some suitable topic in civil engineering as approved by department. Defense of thesis is by final examination.

4300:701 EARTHQUAKE ENGINEERING
3 credits

4700:702 PLATES AND SHELLS
3 credits

4700:703 APPLICATIONS IN PLASTICITY AND VISCOELASTICITY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 602. Formulation of boundary value problems in plasticity and viscoelasticity. Correspondence principle. Solution approaches to practical problems, e.g., problems with cylindrical and spherical symmetry, torsional and two-dimensional problems.

4700:704 FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSIS II
3 credits
Prerequisites: 609 and 720 or permission. Curved, plate, shell brick elements. Quasi-analytical elements. Quadrature formulas. Substructural or static and dynamic analyses. Solution algorithms for linear and nonlinear static and dynamic analysis. Computer program formulation. Review of large-scale production programs.

4700:705 FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSIS III
3 credits

4700:717 SOIL DYNAMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 614 or permission. Vibration and wave propagation theory relating to soils, soil-structures and foundations. Dynamic behavior of soils. Design of foundations for dynamic loading impact, pulsating and blast loads.

4300:757 SEEPAGE
2 credits
Discussion of parameters determining permeability of various soils. Analytical, numerical and experimental methods to determine two- or three-dimensional movement of groundwater. Unsteady flows.
4400: Electrical Engineering

4400:101 ENGINEERING DESIGN
1 credit
Introduction of freshman engineering student to problem-solving techniques. Required of all electrical engineering freshmen.

4400:231 CIRCUITS I
3 credits

4400:232 CIRCUITS II
3 credits

4400:230 BASIC ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
4 credits
Prerequisite: junior standing in engineering; corequisite: 3450:235. Covers fundamental aspects of electrical circuits, electronics and electrical machinery. Not open to all electrical engineering majors.

4400:333 CIRCUITS III
3 credits

4400:334 CIRCUITS IV
3 credits

4400:341 ELECTRICAL MEASUREMENTS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 231. Study of DC and AC meters and bridges. Evaluation of errors involved in measurements.

4400:344 INSTRUMENTATION
3 credits
Prerequisites: 343, 382. Analysis and characteristics of transducers, indicating instruments and recorders used in electrical measurements.

4400:353 ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELDS I
4 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:223. Static and dynamic fields treated on vector basis with Maxwell's equations in point and integral forms. Dynamic electromagnetic fields with applications including particle dynamics and propagation equations.

4400:359 TRANSMISSION LINES AND NETWORKS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 382. Steady state and transient analysis of distributed parameter circuits. Low and high frequency applications. Networks for transmissions.

4400:361 PHYSICS OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES
3 credits

4400:382 ELECTRONIC CIRCUITS
4 credits
Prerequisites: 232, 343, 361. Equivalent circuits for electronic devices. Time and frequency domain analysis. Rectification, voltage and power amplification, feedback, oscillators, linear IC's.

4400:383 SWITCHING AND LOGIC
4 credits
Prerequisites: 343, 361. Analysis of computer circuits. Introduction to use of Boolean algebra and mapping techniques in analyzing switching circuits. Sequential circuits.

4400:371 CONTROL SYSTEMS I
3 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 361. Introduction to servomechanisms and feedback. Modeling and response of feedback control systems. Stability of linear systems. Experiments include analog simulation and basic servomechanism.

4400:380 ILLUMINATION
2 credits
Fundamentals of illumination and principles underlying specifications and design for adequate electrical lighting.

4400:361 ENERGY CONVERSION I
3 credits
Prerequisites: 231, 353. Sources of energy, principles of energy conversion, thermodynamic limitations. Electric energy from fossil fuel. MHD, nuclear energy. Solar energy, hydro, wind, geothermal energy. Transformers.

4400:382 ENERGY CONVERSION II
4 credits

4400:383 APPLICATION OF MOTORS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 382. Apparatus and circuits for control of electric motors. Calculation of accelerating and decelerating time and duty cycles. Selection of motors for various applications.

4400:387 ADVANCED MACHINERY
3 credits

4400:381 PROBLEMS
1-3 credits
(May be taken more than once)
Prerequisite: permission of department head. Select comprehensive problems, supervised discussion and computation periods.

4400:421/2 ENGINEERING ECONOMY
421-3 credits, 521-2 credits
Prerequisites: 3250:244 and senior standing. Engineering economy for civil engineering students.

4400:445 COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 353, 355, 362. Communications systems, equipment, noise, modulation, antennas, propagation, electronic communication circuits; frequency standards generation; communication satellites.

4400:446 ELECTRONIC SYSTEMS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 445. Study of specific state-of-the-art electronic systems: primary and secondary radio, telemetry systems, video systems, data communications, navigational systems.

4400:447 RANDOM SIGNALS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 333. Applications of set theory, discrete and continuous sample spaces; probability, random variables, distribution functions.
density functions, stochastic processes, random signals, system function, power spectrum and correlation functions.

4400:445 COMMUNICATION THEORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 447. Spectral analysis and Fourier transforms; random variables and processes; amplitude, frequency and pulse modulation; representations of noise in modulation; threshold in frequency modulation, data transmission; communication system and noise calculations.

4400:452 INTRODUCTION TO LASERS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 353. Introduction to basic concepts of laser (linear) action; emission processes and their role in laser action; types of lasers; presentation of generalized operating criteria.

4400:454 ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELDS II
3 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 356. Analysis, stability, surge protection and relaying.

3451/555 MICROWAVES
4 credits
Prerequisites: 353, 356. Dynamic fields, Maxwell's equation and wave equations. Field analysis of wave guides, microwave components, techniques and systems.

4400:484 PULSE ELECTRONICS
4 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 382. Wave shaping circuits, non sinusoidal waveform generation and relaxation circuits. Pulse transformers. Application of pulse and switching circuits.

4400:485/585 COMPUTER CIRCUITS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 363. Electrical circuit considerations in logic circuits; methods of sequential, threshold logic analysis, synthesis, development of computer arithmetic elements; memory, storage devices.

4400:487/587 SOLID-STATE DEVICES
2 credits
Prerequisite: 382. Static and dynamic behavior of p-n junction and junction transistors. Theory of avalanche and Zener breakdown. PNP, pnp transistor and Gunn effect oscillator.

4400:488 INDUSTRIAL ELECTRONICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 362, 382. Application of electronic devices at power levels. Intended for those specializing in power areas of electrical engineering rather than electronic areas.

4400:472/572 CONTROL SYSTEMS II
4 credits
Prerequisite: 371. State variable analysis, design of control systems. Discrete system, analysis, digital computer control. Experiments include hybrid, AC control system, digital computer control.

4400:480/580 SYMMETRICAL COMPONENTS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 382. Per unit method as applied to power system calculations. Fundamental principles of symmetrical components as applied to analysis of electrical circuits and machines.

4400:481 ELECTRICAL POWER SYSTEMS I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 382. Introduction to electricity utility load flow, fault analysis, stability, surge protection and relaying.

4400:482 ELECTRICAL POWER SYSTEMS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 382, 392. Introduction to industrial power systems. Local generation, power factor correction, conductor selection code requirements, coordination of protective devices.

4400:497 HONORS PROJECT
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program, Individual creative project or design relevant to electrical engineering, supervised by faculty member of the department.

4400:498/598 TOPICS IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
1-2 credits
(May be taken more than once)
Prerequisite: permission of department head. Special topics in electrical engineering.

Graduate Courses

4400:431 CIRCUIT ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: standing. Operational methods, time domain analysis, state variable methods and linear techniques applied in circuit analysis. Realizability and synthesis of driving point impedance and transfer functions.

4400:441 RANDOM SIGNAL ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 447. Analysis, interpretation and smoothing of engineering data through application of statistical and probability methods.

4400:452 ADVANCED ELECTROMAGNETICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 440 or 541. Detection and estimation of signals in communication systems, linear and nonlinear systems with random inputs; narrow-band systems, mean squared-error filter, modulation and information theory.

4400:451 ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELDS
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate standing in electrical engineering. Introduction to advanced electromagnetic concepts at graduate level.

4400:455 MICROWAVES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 440, 450. Waveguides, microwave components, techniques and systems.

4400:484 PULSE ELECTRONICS
4 credits
Prerequisites: 333, 382. Wave shaping circuits, non sinusoidal waveform generation and relaxation circuits. Pulse transformers. Application of pulse and switching circuits.

4400:485/585 COMPUTER CIRCUITS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 363. Electrical circuit considerations in logic circuits; methods of sequential, threshold logic analysis, synthesis, development of computer arithmetic elements; memory, storage devices.

4400:487/587 SOLID-STATE DEVICES
2 credits
Prerequisite: 382. Static and dynamic behavior of p-n junction and junction transistors. Theory of avalanche and Zener breakdown. PNP, pnp transistor and Gunn effect oscillator.

4600:160 ENGINEERING DESIGN: MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
1 credit
Introduction to engineering profession. Engineering curriculum and programs of study. Introduction to the use of the digital computer.

4600:203 DYNAMICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 4300:231. Kinematics and dynamics of particles and rigid bodies. Principles of work, energy, momentum and impulse.

4600:230 THERMODYNAMICS I
4 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:221 and 3650:291. Basic concepts of thermodynamics. The pure substance, the system and first and second laws of thermodynamics. Entropy, availability, power cycles.

4600:301 THERMODYNAMICS II
3 credits

4600:309 THERMAL SCIENCE
2 credits
Prerequisites: 3450:222 and 3650:291. Credit not allowed for both 300 and 309. Introduction to first and second laws of thermodynamics, perfect gas relationships, equations of state, cycle analysis. Introduction to conduction, convection and radiation heat transfer.

4600:310 FLUID MECHANICS
3 credits

4600:315 HEAT TRANSFER
3 credits
Prerequisites: 305, 310, 160 or 4450:206. Fundamentals of heat transfer by conduction, convection and radiation.

4600:321 KINEMATICS OF MACHINES
3 credits
Prerequisites: 125, 203. Displacements, velocities, accelerations and introduction to forces in plane motion mechanisms. Introduction to design of gears, gear trains and cams.

4600:326 ANALYSIS OF MECHANICAL COMPONENTS
3 credits

4600:337 DESIGN OF MECHANICAL COMPONENTS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Application of stress analysis to design of fasteners, welds, springs, ball bearings and gears. Introduction to journal bearings and lubrication. Component design projects.

4600:340 ENGINEERING ANALYSIS
3 credits

4600:380 MECHANICAL METALLURGY
2 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Structures of common metallic materials and study of their macroscopic mechanical behavior. Phase changes and heat treatment. Failure analysis.

4600:393 INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINES LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisite: 301. Study of application and performance in reciprocating and rotary engines.

4600:394 COMPUTER METHODS LABORATORY
1 credit
Prerequisites: 3450:226, 4450:206 or 4600:160. Application of digital computers to solution of typical problems in heat transfer, fluid dynamics, machine design, kinematics, strength of materials, elasticity and vibrations and dynamics.

4600:400 THERMAL SYSTEM COMPONENTS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 301, 310, 315. Performance analysis and design of basic components of thermal energy exchange and conversion systems. Components studied include heat exchangers, pumps, compressors, turbines and expansion engines.

4600:401 DESIGN OF ENERGY SYSTEMS
2 credits
Prerequisites: 400, 460. Analysis and design of systems for energy exchange. Performance of energy system components and their integration into complex practical systems. Design project required.

4600:410/410 HEATING AND AIR CONDITIONING
3 credits
Prerequisites: 301, 315. Thermodynamics of gas mixtures. Design and selection of air conditioning equipment. Control of gas mixtures, heating, cooling and humidity.

4600:411/511 COMPRESSIBLE FLUID MECHANICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 301, 315. Topics from fields of internal combustion engines, cycle analysis, modern conversion devices.

4600:418/518 HEAT TRANSFER PROCESSES
3 credits
Prerequisite: 315. Analysis, design of extended surfaces. Natural convective, combined modes of heat transfer and heat transfer with a change of phase. Heat transfer in magnetohydrodynamic systems.

4600:422/522 EXPERIMENTAL STRESS ANALYSIS I
2 credits
Prerequisites: 336 or 4300:202. Experimental methods of determining stress or strain: brittle lacquer, strain gages, photoelasticity.

4600:426/526 INDUSTRIAL NOISE CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 431 or permission. Theory of propagation, transmission and reflection of plane waves. Psychological acoustics. Noise control regulations and criteria. Techniques of identification, instrumentation and control of noise sources.

4600:430/530 MACHINE DYNAMICS
3 credits
Prerequisites: 403, 321, 160 or 4450:206. Dynamic analysis of components and machines, dynamic forces and reactions. Balancing, rotor dynamics, space kinematics and kinetics of rigid bodies.

4600:431/531 MECHANICAL VIBRATIONS I
3 credits
Prerequisites: 303 and 3450:235. Undamped, damped and forced vibrations of systems having one or two degrees of freedom.

4600:440 CONTROL SYSTEMS
3 credits

4600:442/542 INDUSTRIAL AUTOMATIC CONTROL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 440 or equivalent. Operation of basic control mechanisms. Study of mechanical, hydraulic, pneumatic, fluidic control systems, including application areas. Tuning of control devices for optimum performance of system. Case studies on control applications from industry, e.g. boilers, furnaces, process heaters.

4600:443/543 OPTIMIZATION METHODS IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 360. Development and method of solution of optimization problems in mechanical engineering. The use of dynamic programming and operational research methods for optimization including computer utilization and applications.
Graduate Courses

4600:401 DYNAMICS OF VISCOUS FLOW I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 310 or equivalent. Derivation and solution of equations governing annular viscous flow. Applications include unsteady state and transient noise.

4600:446 CONDUCTION HEAT TRANSFER
3 credits
Prerequisite: 315 or equivalent. Study of one-, two- and three-dimensional heat conduction. Development of analytical techniques for analysis and design.

4600:461 CONVECTION HEAT TRANSFER
3 credits
Prerequisite: 315 or equivalent. Heat transfer from laminar to turbulent external, internal flows. Convective heat transfer at high velocities. Heat transfer to liquid metals; high Prandtl number fluids.

4600:480 CONCEPTS OF DESIGN
3 hours
Prerequisite: 4111511. Derivation of equations for multi-dimensional variability, inventiveness. Tools of decision making, engineering economics, reliability, optimization. Case studies.

4600:482 PRESSURE VESSEL DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: 321, 431, 460. Detailed mechanical design project and case studies.

4600:485 MECHANICAL ENGINEERING PROBLEMS
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Investigation of a project by individual or small student groups. Detailed formal report required.

4600:488 SPECIAL TOPICS
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Brief description of current content to be announced in schedule of classes.

4600:497 HONORS PROJECT
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program, Individual creative project in thermal science, mechanics or design relevant to mechanical engineering, supervised by faculty member of the department.

4600:498 EXPERIMENTAL INVESTIGATION IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
1-2 credits
Individual, independent laboratory investigations in areas relevant to mechanical engineering. Student suggests project and makes appropriate arrangements with faculty for supervision.
4600:842 SYSTEM ANALYSIS AND CONTROL DESIGN
3 credits
Prerequisite: 440 or equivalent. Uniform methods of modeling and response analysis, controllability and observability, stability theory and analysis of linear and nonlinear engineering processes. Design of feedback controls for optimum performance for multivariable real-time control application.

4600:860 POLYMER PROCESSING
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Study of process engineering in polymer conversion industry, emphasizing analytical treatment of heat transfer, mass flow, mixing, shaping and molding of polymeric materials.

4600:891 DESIGN OF RUBBER COMPONENTS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 337 or equivalent. Principles of design of elastomeric products, emphasizing analytical treatments of elastic behavior and mechanisms of failure of resilient mountings, springs, seals, bearings and tires.

4600:897 SPECIAL TOPICS
1-4 credits
Prerequisite: permission. For qualified candidates for graduate degree. Supervised research in student's major field of training or experience. Credit dependent upon nature and extent of project as determined by adviser and department head.

4600:899 MASTER'S THESIS
1-4 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser. Supervised research in a specific area of mechanical engineering.

4600:704 FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSIS II
3 credits

4600:705 FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSIS III
3 credits

4600:710 DYNAMICS OF VISCOUS FLOW II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 610. Introduction to turbulence. Turbulence modeling and turbulent boundary layers. Practical methods of solution of boundary layer problems. Transition process.

4600:719 ADVANCED HEAT TRANSFER
3 credits
Prerequisites: 615, 616. Topics include nonhomogeneous or nonlinear boundary value problems of heat conduction, heat transfer with melting, solidification and sublimation, heat transfer in porous systems and hydrodynamically and thermally unsteady convection.

4600:723 APPLIED STRESS ANALYSIS II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 623. Continuation of 623. Development of approximate solution techniques including finite elements, method of weighted residuals (Rayleigh-Ritz, Galerkin, Trefftz, colocation, least squares, etc.) and finite differences.

4600:726 NONLINEAR CONTINUUM MECHANICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 622. Finite deformation and strain, stress, constitutive equations, strain energy functions. Solution of finite deformation problems in hyperelasticity, coupled thermoviscoelasticity and plasticity, electroelasticity and micropolar theories.

4600:730 MECHANICAL VIBRATIONS III
3 credits
Prerequisite: 630. Continuation of 630. Analysis of continuous vibrating systems, using separation of variables, energy, variational, Rayleigh-Ritz and other approximate techniques. Concepts and solutions of integral equations as applied to continuous systems.

4600:731 RANDOM VIBRATIONS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 630 or equivalent. Stationary random processes and their transmission through linear time-invariant discrete and continuous vibrating systems. Analysis of random data and interaction between mechanisms of failure.

4600:741 OPTIMIZATION THEORY AND APPLICATIONS
2 credits
Prerequisite: permission. Theory of optimization in engineering systems, development and method of solution of optimization problems for physical processes, large systems. Use of dynamic programming, operational research methods for system optimization, control.

4600:753 ADVANCED METHODS IN ENGINEERING ANALYSIS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 3450:235 or equivalent. Applications of finite difference and finite element methods, variational methods, integral methods and similarity transforms to engineering problems in heat transfer, fluid mechanics and vibrations.

4600:790 ADVANCED SEMINAR IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
1-4 credits
(May be repeated for a total of nine credits)
Prerequisite: permission of department head. Advanced projects and studies in various areas of mechanical engineering. Intended for student seeking Ph.D. in engineering degree.

4600:998 PRELIMINARY RESEARCH
1-15 credits
Prerequisite: approval of Advisory Committee. Preliminary investigation of Ph.D. dissertation subject.

4600:999 DOCTORAL DISSERTATION
1-15 credits
(May be taken more than once)
Prerequisite: approval of Advisory Committee. Original research by Ph.D. candidate.

4980: Construction Technology

4980:351 CONSTRUCTION QUALITY CONTROL
2 credits
Prerequisites: 2980:237 and 238 or permission. Designed for owners, contractors or consultant personnel directly concerned with quality control in construction industry.

4980:352 FIELD MANAGEMENT
2 credits
Prerequisites: 2980:222, 245, 133 or permission. Planning, scheduling and controlling of field work within time and cost constraints.

4980:354 FOUNDATION CONSTRUCTION METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2980:234. Soil mechanics and soils exploration as related to construction. Foundation construction methods and practice in the interest of safety and suitable economy.

4980:356 SAFETY IN CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
The purpose of this course is to explain what creates hazards and why, and to suggest where to anticipate trouble in each phase of the work as it progresses.

4980:361 CONSTRUCTION FORMWORK
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2980:234 or permission. Introduction to design and construction of field structures. Emphasis on design and construction of formwork and temporary wood structures.
4980:453 LEGAL ASPECTS OF CONSTRUCTION
2 credits
Study of business of contracting and sub-contracting and legal problems therein such as breach, partial performance, payment, insolvency, subsurface. Review of AIA standard contracts and construction industry rules of arbitration.

4980:462 MECHANICAL SERVICE SYSTEMS
3 credits
Introduction to materials and equipment used in mechanical heating, ventilating, air conditioning, water and waste systems.

4980:463 ELECTRICAL SERVICE SYSTEMS
3 credits
Introduction to materials and equipment in electrical and acoustical systems of buildings. Includes illumination, electrical sources, materials and distribution, acoustical problems and materials.

4980:465 HEAVY CONSTRUCTION METHODS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 2980:232 or 4300:472 Management techniques in planning, estimating and directing heavy construction operations.
510: Educational Foundations

510:150 INTRODUCTION TO PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION
3 credits (8 clinical hours, 10 field hours)
Nature and purpose of education in United States. Emphasis on social, historical and philosophical foundations of public education and on roles of professional educator.

510:220 HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Study of principles underlying intellectual, emotional, social and physical growth and development of human organisms; and of learning process with implications for instructional procedures.

510:258 SMALL GROUP INSTRUCTION
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of three credits)
Prerequisite: 250 and 3756:100 or their equivalent and permission of instructor. Study of student-centered group leadership skills for facilitating classroom cognitive learning. Student exposed to basic literature related to student-centered style, trained in appropriate observational techniques and provided practice in leading small instructional groups.

510:326 LEARNING AND INDIVIDUALIZED INSTRUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 250. Behavioral approach to learning and the management of students. Emphasizes design of instructional sequences using behavioral analysis of objectives in both cognitive and psychomotor domains.

510:350 EDUCATIONAL MEASUREMENT AND EVALUATION
3 credits (8 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: junior standing. Methods of measurement and evaluation applied to learning and instruction. Emphasis on development and coordination of instructional objectives and measurement techniques with instructional procedures.

510:410 AUDIO-VISUAL EDUCATION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 250. Acquaints student with audio-visual equipment and materials and their respective utilization techniques. Includes equipment operation, nonprint material evaluation and media preparation.

510:412/412 DESIGN AND PRODUCTION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS
3 credits
Prerequisite: senior standing. Design, production and preparation of media materials. Includes overhead projection transparencies, audio recordings, slide sequences and opaque materials. The student is offered project choices.

510:414/414 ORGANIZING AND SUPERVISING EDUCATIONAL MEDIA PROGRAMS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 410 or permission of the instructor. Procedures for planning, organizing and evaluating educational media programs. Includes media facilities and services and will be examined.

510:420/420 INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER BASED EDUCATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: graduate or senior standing. Techniques for developing, implementing and evaluating computer based education will be learned. Participants will work with instructional paradigms and instructional computing languages. Both the hardware and software considerations associated with current applications will be examined.

510:430 SENIOR HONORS PROJECT: FOUNDATIONS
1-6 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program and permission of student's preceptor. Carefully defined individual study demonstrating originality and sustained inquiry.

510:440 PROBLEMS IN EDUCATION
2 credits (12 field hours)
Prerequisite: senior status. Involves student in analysis and critical approach to problems of education as a social undertaking in light of history and philosophy of education.

510:460 SPECIAL TOPICS: EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATIONS
1-4 credits
(May be repeated with a change in topic)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Group study of special topics of critical, contemporary concern in professional education.

510:500, 1, 2, 590, 1, 2 WORKSHOP
7-3 credits each
Individual work under staff guidance on curriculum problems, utilization of community resources, planning of curriculum units.

510:999 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of department head and instructor. Specific area of study determined in accordance with student's program and professional goals.

Graduate Courses

510:800 PHILOSOPHIES OF EDUCATION
3 credits
Examination of basic philosophical problems underlying broad educational questions that confront society. Provides foundation for understanding of questions of modern society and education.

510:802 COMPARATIVE AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION
3 credits
Comparative study of selected national school systems with reference to forces that shape their characteristics. Different theoretical approaches used in study of comparative education also investigated.

510:804 TOPICAL SEMINAR IN THE CULTURAL FOUNDATIONS OF EDUCATION
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Issues and subjects related to study of educational institutions, theories and ideas. Different topics will be offered from section to section.

510:818 ADULT EDUCATION
2 credits
Survey course for teachers and administrators. Historical background including influences and their relation to developments in the field. Emphasis on background and social value of current programs.

510:828 BEHAVIORAL BASES OF EDUCATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 250 or equivalent. Introduction to scientific study of learning and development. Student required to study current theories, research in areas of learning, development, motivation, instruction.

510:826 SEMINAR: EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 250 or equivalent. In-depth study of research in selected areas of learning, development, evaluation and motivation.

510:830 TOPICAL SEMINAR IN COMPUTER BASED EDUCATION
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 420/520. Advanced topics related to development, implementation, research and evaluation in C.B.E. Student involvement emphasized, required. Knowledge of a programming language.
5100:306 SEMINAR: EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY
3 credits
Practices and trends in educational communications and technology including centers, learning stations, programmed learning, educational television and computer-assisted instruction.

5100:840 TECHNIQUES OF RESEARCH
3 credits
Research methods and techniques commonly used in education and behavioral sciences; preparation of research reports. Includes library, historical, survey and experimental research and data analysis.

5100:842 TOPICAL SEMINAR IN MEASUREMENT AND EVALUATION
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 350 or 3750:410/510. Topics of current interest and need will be emphasized. The student will develop extended competence with contemporary measurement and evaluation techniques.

5100:895 FIELD EXPERIENCE: MASTER'S
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of department head, instructor. Area determined in accordance with student's program and professional goals.

5100:897 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of department head, instructor. Specific area of study determined in accordance with student's program and professional goals.

5100:999 RESEARCH IN EDUCATION
1-4 credits
Prerequisite: permission of department head, instructor. In-depth study of research problem within humanistic and behavioral foundation.

5100:701 HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN AMERICAN SOCIETY
3 credits
Historical development of education in American social order, with special emphasis on social, political and economic settings.

5100:703 SEMINAR: HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF HIGHER EDUCATION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 600. History and philosophy related to genesis and development of higher education in the Western world, with special emphasis given to higher education's development in United States.

5100:705 SEMINAR: SOCIAL-PHILOSOPHICAL FOUNDATIONS OF EDUCATION
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: 600 or equivalent. Inquiry into selected ideological, economic and philosophical factors affecting educational development in United States and other countries.

5100:721 LEARNING PROCESSES
3 credits
Study of principles underlying classroom learning processes with particular emphasis on teaching as means of modifying pupil behavior, cognitive, motor, social and affective.

5100:723 TEACHER BEHAVIOR AND INSTRUCTION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 600. Intensive survey of theoretical and empirical literature involving teacher and conceptions of instruction. A student reports on theory, empirical research and applications in areas of individual interests.

5100:741 STATISTICS IN EDUCATION
3 credits
Statistical methods and techniques used in field of measurement and by research workers in education.

5100:743 ADVANCED EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 741. A second course on quantification in behavioral sciences. Includes testing of statistical hypotheses, experimental design, analysis of variance and nonvariance, factor analysis and introduction to nonparametric statistics.

5100:788 RESEARCH PROJECT IN SPECIAL AREAS
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of department head and instructor. Critical and in-depth study of specific problem or educational foundations.

5100:801 RESEARCH SEMINAR
3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisites: 640 and 741; permission of department head and instructor. Intensive study of research methods applicable to education. Emphasis on developing a dissertation proposal.

5100:887 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-4 credits
(May be repeated for a total of eight credits)
Prerequisite: permission of department head and instructor. Specific area of inquiry within humanistic and behavioral foundations of education determined in advance by student and faculty adviser.

5200: Elementary Education

5200:100 STUDENT PARTICIPATION: OBSERVATION
1 credit (30 field hours) (credit/noncredit)
Planned field experience emphasizing tutorial settings in reading and other curricular areas.

5200:141 HANDICRAFTS IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
2 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: 7100:191. Broad range of experiences through manipulation of various craft medium which enriches curriculum.

5200:200 STUDENT PARTICIPATION
1 credit (30 field hours) (credit/noncredit)
Prerequisite: 100. Planned field experience emphasizing field settings where student works with small groups in classroom.

5200:205 CHILDREN'S LITERATURE
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Survey of materials for children in prose, poetry and illustrations from early historical periods to modern types: criteria of selection and methods of presentation critically examined.

5200:300 STUDENT PARTICIPATION
1 credit (30 field hours) (credit/noncredit)
Prerequisite: 200. Planned field experience where student works in both small and large group settings in elementary school.

5200:310 INTRODUCTION TO EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 7400:265. Core course for early childhood education. Provides background information, defines roles and goals within field of early childhood education.

5200:311 CURRICULUM FOR PRESCHOOL LEARNING CENTERS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 310. Curricular and instructional techniques in mathematics, science, language arts, social studies and music examined with emphasis on early learning as foundation for later growth.

5200:312 INTRODUCTION TO EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 310. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus, or to develop materials for use by learner.

5200:313 CURRICULUM FOR PRESCHOOL LEARNING CENTERS — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 311. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus, or to develop materials for use by learner.
520:321 ART FOR THE GRADES
2 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: 141. Art requirements in elementary grades. laboratory work to give teachers knowledge of materials and mediums and aids in handling them.

520:330 EARLY ELEMENTARY EDUCATION I
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5100:250. First of two courses designed to introduce student specifically to primary-aged child and his learning style.

520:331 EARLY ELEMENTARY EDUCATION II
3 credits
Prerequisite: 330. Curriculum needs of primary-aged child.

520:332 SCIENCE FOR THE ELEMENTARY GRADES
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: 5100:250. For a prospective elementary school science teacher. Development of a point-of-view toward science teaching and study of methods of presenting science material.

520:334 TEACHING ART IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
2 credits
Prerequisites: art education major, junior standing; elementary education majors, 141 and 321. Visual arts in elementary schools. Art education concepts with studio orientation including history of art education, developmental stages, curriculum and organization, methods, evaluation and research and practical participation.

520:335 TEACHING THE LANGUAGE ARTS
5 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisites: 250 and 5100:250. Course for elementary teacher stressing methods and materials for skills development, and trends in various language arts.

520:336 TEACHING OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
3 credits (15 clinical hours)

520:337 TEACHING OF READING
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisites: 255 and 5100:250. Elementary reading program, together with modern methods of teaching reading at various levels.

520:338 THE TEACHING OF SOCIAL STUDIES
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: 5100:250. Social studies in elementary school and varied means of implementing program.

520:339 PRINCIPLES OF DIAGNOSTIC TEACHING OF READING
3 credits (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: 337. Nature of reading problems in classroom setting. Methods and materials employed in corrective reading program by teacher.

520:340 EARLY ELEMENTARY EDUCATION I — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 330. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop materials for use by learner.

520:341 EARLY ELEMENTARY EDUCATION II — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 339. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop materials for use by learner.

520:343 SCIENCE FOR THE ELEMENTARY GRADES — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 333. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop materials for use by learner.

520:344 TEACHING ART IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL — LABORATORY
1 credit
Corequisite: 334. Provides an opportunity for art education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop procedures for use by learner.

520:348 TEACHING ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS — LABORATORY
1 credit (2 clinical hours)
Corequisite: 336. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop materials for use by learner.

520:349 PRINCIPLES OF DIAGNOSTIC TEACHING OF READING — LABORATORY
1 credit (2 field hours)
Corequisite: 339. Provides an opportunity for teacher education student to implement techniques described in accompanying methods course with learner in the field, learner on campus or to develop materials for use by learner.

520:350 MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION: CONCEPTS, PROGRAMS AND PRACTICES
3 credits
Designed to provide teacher education student with knowledge, skills and attitudes which will enable them to model behavior and implement curricular programs consistent with the concept of cultural pluralism.

520:350 NURSERY SCHOOL LABORATORY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 7400:265. Concentrated study and experience in nursery school programming under direction of supervising teachers.

520:365 COMPREHENSIVE MUSICIANSHIP FOR THE ELEMENTARY CLASSROOM TEACHER
4 credits (25 clinical hours)
Designed to afford a prospective classroom teacher the opportunity to develop individual musical skills in creativity, performance and listening as means of enhancing teaching through use of music.

520:395 FIELD EXPERIENCE
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser, department head. Independent field work in area selected by student's adviser, based on student's needs.

520:403 STUDENT TEACHING SEMINAR
1 credit (15 clinical hours)
Prerequisite: senior standing. In conjunction with Student Teaching. Synthesis of contemporary problems encountered during student teaching experience. Exchange of ideas regarding role of new teacher entering profession.

520:411 CREATING TECHNIQUES FOR EXPLORING CHILDREN'S LITERATURE
2 credits
Prerequisite: 286. Examination of techniques for interpretation of children's literature including storytelling, creative dramatics, reader's theatre and choral speaking.

520:430 SENIORS HONORS PROJECT: ELEMENTARY 1-6 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: senior standing in Honors Program and permission of student's preceptor. Carefully defined individual study demonstrating originality and sustained inquiry.
5200:435/535 ACTIVITIES TO INDIVIDUALIZE SOCIAL STUDIES
2 credits
Prerequisite: 338. Development of materials and activities (learning games, simulation games, simulations, learning stations, programed field trips and map activities) to provide teacher with variety of techniques in order to develop an individualized, student-involved social studies program.

5200:436/536 GEOMETRY AND MEASUREMENT IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Trends in geometry and measurement instruction in elementary school. Procedures for development of important geometric concepts and measurement skills.

5200:437/537 STRUCTURE OF THE NUMBER SYSTEM IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Applied and advanced topics in mathematics education in elementary school. Thorough investigation of number system presently being taught in elementary school.

5200:438/538 MATERIALS AND LABORATORY TECHNIQUES IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Applied mathematics: Construction and application of mathematical models. Procedures for development of important mathematical concepts through the laboratory approach.

5200:439/539 PROPERTIES OF NUMBERS IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 336. Investigation of those number properties that help explain how laws of arithmetic work. Procedures for development of important arithmetic concepts and computational skills.

5200:440/540 CONTEMPORARY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SCIENCE PROGRAMS
2 credits
Prerequisite: 333. Contemporary elementary science programs critically analyzed and their procedures developed and implemented in university classroom.

5200:451 ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
3 credits
Evaluation of recent trends and practices in elementary education. Required for those converting from other certificates.

5200:480 SPECIAL TOPICS: ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
1-4 credits
(May be repeated with a change in topic)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Group study of special topics of critical, contemporary concern in professional education.

5200:490,1,2,3/590,1,2,3 WORKSHOPS
1-3 credits each
Elective workshop for elementary education major who would pursue further refinement of teaching skills. Emphasizes demonstrations of teaching techniques and development of suitable teaching devices.

5200:494/594 EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTES
1-4 credits
Special courses designed as in-service upgrading programs, frequently provided with the support of national foundations.

5200:495 STUDENT TEACHING
4-8 credits (322 field hours)
Prerequisite: senior standing and 300. Planned teaching experience (in elementary school) selected and supervised by Office of Educational Field Experience.

5200:497 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. Specific area of curriculum investigation pertinent to elementary education as determined by student's academic needs.

Graduate Courses

5200:620 LITERATURE FOR YOUNG CHILDREN
2 credits
Literature for children ages 2-6 examined in depth in terms of value and purpose; methods and techniques for presenting it to children; variety and quality of books available.

5200:630 ELEMENTARY SCHOOL CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION
2 credits
Application of findings of recent research to curriculum building and procedures in teaching.

5200:631 TRENDS IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
2 credits
Prerequisites: graduate standing and 630. Investigation of innovative programs, organizational patterns and new curricula currently operational in elementary schools including analysis of use of these innovations in relation to teaching/learning process.

5200:640 THEORY AND PRACTICE IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
2 credits
Comparative analysis and evaluation of purposes and procedures of mathematics programs for elementary schools with application of findings to instructional methods and materials.

5200:641 DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT OF PERFORMANCE DIFFICULTIES IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MATHEMATICS
2 credits
Examination of implications of contemporary mathematics learning theory on diagnostic-remedial process.

5200:645 PROBLEMS IN ELEMENTARY SCIENCE EDUCATION
2 credits
Examination of influence of new curricular designs in elementary science. Emphasis on inquiry, investigation and discovery and their impact on total elementary school curriculum.

5200:650 EDUCATION AND THE YOUNG CHILD
2 credits
Content centered on educational settings of young children from birth through five years.

5200:655 INDIVIDUALIZED INSTRUCTION: LEARNING STYLE IDENTIFICATION AND RESOURCE PRESCRIPTION
3 credits
Prerequisites: permission of instructor and 630. Individual learning style characteristics, practical approaches in individualization of instruction, multisensory resource development and prescription.

5200:695,6,7 FIELD EXPERIENCE: MASTER'S
1-2 credits each
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. On-the-job experience related to student's course of study.

5200:698 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. Selected areas of independent investigation as determined by adviser and related to student's academic needs.

5200:699 RESEARCH IN EDUCATION
1-4 credits
Prerequisites: 5100:640 and permission of adviser and department head. In-depth research investigation. Student must be able to demonstrate necessary competencies to deal with research problems in elementary education.

5200:732 SUPERVISION OF INSTRUCTION IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
2 credits
Supervisory role of elementary principal and other supervisory personnel.

5200:780 SEMINAR IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
2 credits
(May be repeated)
Intensive examination of following areas of elementary school instruction: children's literature, curriculum development, language arts, mathematics, reading, science, social studies, early childhood, critical analysis of children's literature.
5200:791 RESIDENCY SEMINAR
2 credits
One-hour weekly meeting for elementary doctoral student in residence.

5200:799 RESEARCH PROJECTS IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
1-2 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. In-depth investigation of specific problem pertinent to elementary education.

5200:805, 6, 7 FIELD EXPERIENCE FOR ELEMENTARY DOCTORAL STUDENT
1-2 credits each
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. Designed to help student preparing to teach methods course at college level.

5200:898 INDEPENDENT STUDY
1-3 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits)
Prerequisite: permission of adviser and department head. Selected areas of independent investigation as determined by adviser and related to student's academic needs.

5200:899 DISSERTATION
1-20 credits
Prerequisite: permission of adviser, department head. Study and in-depth analysis of a research problem in elementary education.

5250: Reading

5250:341 LABORATORY PRACTICUM IN READING
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:339. Laboratory experience with classroom, small groups and individual situations. A student diagnoses, implements procedures and follows prescribed reading improvement practices.

5250:411/511 MATERIALS AND ORGANIZATIONS FOR READING INSTRUCTION
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:339. Professional problems of selection and evaluation of reading materials and classroom organizations explored.

5250:440/540 DEVELOPMENTAL READING IN THE CONTENT AREAS — ELEMENTARY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:337 or permission of instructor. Nature of reading skills relating to content subjects. Methods and materials needed to promote reading achievement in content subjects by the elementary classroom teacher.

5250:441/541 LANGUAGE AND ITS RELATIONSHIP TO READING IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:337 or permission of the instructor. An overview of the linguistic field in the teaching of reading in the elementary school. A discussion of major linguistic principles for classroom application in grades K-6.

5250:442/542 TEACHING READING TO CULTURALLY DIFFERENT LEARNERS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:337 or by permission of the instructor. The course is designed to provide a student with knowledge, skills and attitudes which will enable employment of effective methods of teaching reading to culturally different learners, and/or learners whose language patterns are non-standard.

5250:480 SPECIAL TOPICS: ELEMENTARY READING INSTRUCTION
1-4 credits
(May be repeated with a change in topic)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Group study of special topics of critical, contemporary concern in professional education.

Graduate Courses

5250:880 TRENDS IN READING INSTRUCTION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:335 or 5300:425. Survey course designed to update reading background of student who has not had a recent course in reading.

5250:891 DIAGNOSIS AND CORRECTION OF READING PROBLEMS
5 credits
Prerequisite: 680. Relation of growth to reading development and reasons for retardation. Implementation of diagnostic and corrective techniques by developing case studies in supervised setting.

5250:892 CLINICAL PRACTICES IN READING
5 credits
Prerequisite: 681. Nature and etiology of reading difficulties experienced by selected children. Supervised practices and independent work with children in conjunction with staff from other disciplines.

5250:893 READING DIAGNOSIS FOR SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS AND SUPPORT PERSONNEL
3 credits
Prerequisite: 5200:630 or permission of instructor. This course will survey developmental reading and its relationship to reading difficulties. Formal and informal procedures for diagnosing disabled readers and a discussion of prescriptive strategies will be included.

5250:892 ADVANCED STUDY AND RESEARCH IN READING INSTRUCTION
3 credits
Survey of research comparison and evaluation of programs, design and development of projects in reading through group individual study.

5250:893 SUPERVISION AND CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT IN READING INSTRUCTION
3 credits
Relate to total curriculum; procedures for developing reading program in all curriculum areas; examination of children's literature and related instructional reading by supervisors and consultants.

5300: Secondary Education

5300:285 ORIENTATION TO SECONDARY EDUCATION
1 credit (10 clinical hours)
Corequisite: 275. An orientation to the goals and objectives of the department's teacher preparation program. Student should gain a clear understanding of the nature and purpose of training in secondary post-secondary education.

5300:275 EXPLORATORY EXPERIENCES IN SECONDARY EDUCATION (SOPHOMORE)

2 credits
Designed to teach school administrator communication development for media in order to take full advantage of potentialities of radio, TV and films for message impact.

7800:888 STUDIES IN COMMUNICATION MEDIA: RADIO
3 credits each
Emphasis on production, message design and impact analysis. These courses designed to give the student an opportunity to experiment with new production and message concepts.

7800:887 STUDIES IN COMMUNICATION MEDIA: TELEVISION

7800:886 STUDIES IN COMMUNICATION MEDIA: FILM

7800:997 GRADUATE RESEARCH IN MASS MEDIA-COMMUNICATION
1-6 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits) Prerequisite: 7800:600 and approval of project prospectus one term prior to undertaking the project. Performance of research on problems found in mass media-communication.

7800:899 RESEARCH AND THESIS
1-6 credits
(May be repeated for a total of six credits) Prerequisite: permission of department head.

7700: COMMUNICATIVE DISORDERS

7700:100 MANUAL COMMUNICATION I
4 credits
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Study of different communication systems employed by the deaf: characteristics, similarities and differences. Introduction to Amesan as a language.

7700:110 INTRODUCTION TO SPEECH DISORDERS
3 credits
Overview of various types of speech disorders; their incidence, etiology and characteristics. Basic concepts and principles underlying speech pathology.

7700:111 INTRODUCTION TO PHONETICS
2 credits
Introduction to International Phonetic Alphabet, and overview of articulatory phonetics.

7700:120 INTRODUCTION TO AUDIOLOGY/AURAL REHABILITATION
3 credits
Introduction to field of audiology including physics of sound, anatomy and physiology of auditory system, measurement of hearing impairment, nature and causes of hearing disorders and habilitation of persons with hearing impairment. (Not open to a communicative disorder major.)

7700:121 PSYCHO-SOCIAL ASPECTS OF DEAFNESS
3 credits
Prerequisite: 120. The effects of deafness on the emotional, social, motor and intellectual development of the individual; the effects of deafness on interpersonal relationships.

4 credits
Prerequisite: 222. Introduction to acquisition of speech and language hearing and prelingually deaf children. Principles and techniques in language assessment and instruction will be covered. (Not open to major in communicative disorders.)

7700:230 SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
Prerequisite: 130 or permission. Study of language development including acquisition of comprehension and production of phonology, syntax and semantics. Approaches to use of language in learning and thinking.

7700:240 AURAL REHABILITATION
4 credits
Prerequisite: 140. Introduction to philosophy and methods of aural rehabilitation for children and adults. Includes methods of speech reading, auditory training, speech conservation, hearing aid use and combined visual and auditory approaches.

7700:241 PRINCIPLES OF AUDIOMETRY
3 credits
Prerequisite: 140. Introduction to psychoacoustic principles which underlie basic audiometric tests; principles of speech audiometry, masking and impedance audiometry.

7700:250 OBSERVATION AND CLINICAL METHODS
2 credits
Prerequisite: to be taken concurrently with 321. Introduction to clinical procedures, analysis of preparation and structure essential to a successful therapy session and observation of therapy within several different settings.

7700:260 MANUAL COMMUNICATION IV
3 credits
Prerequisite: 200. Further practice in developing expressive and receptive skills in Amesan. In-depth study of expressive and receptive translation of linguistic components of manual communication systems of the deaf. Survey of current research in manual communication.

7700:271 LANGUAGE OF SIGNS I
3 credits
Expressive and receptive skills in manual communication; introduction to various sign systems; philosophy of total communication and orientation to aspects of deafness; conversational sign language and developing speed and comprehension of fingerspelling skills. Laboratory.
7700:321 SPEECH PATHOLOGY I
4 credits
Prerequisites: 110 and 210. Study of disorders of articulation, voice and stuttering including etiology, symptomatology, evaluation and therapeutic procedures.

7700:322 SPEECH PATHOLOGY II
4 credits
Prerequisites: 110 and 3100:264. Study of organically based speech disorders: cleft palate, cerebral palsy, aphasia and dysarthria including etiology, symptomatology, evaluation and therapeutic procedures.

7700:330 LANGUAGE DISORDERS
4 credits
Prerequisite: 230. Etymology, identification, evaluation, intervention, remediation of symbolic, cognitive, interpersonal language disorders of children. Disorders viewed as correlates or sequelae of central nervous system dysfunction or emotional disturbance.

7700:340 AUDIOLOGIC EVALUATION
2 credits
Prerequisite: 241. "Test battery" approach to audiology explored: techniques of case finding and handling of difficult-to-test cases; competency with all tests in the battery required.

7700:350 CLINICAL PRACTICUM: ARTICULATION
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of two credits)
Prerequisites: 250, 321. Supervised clinical practicum in articulation. Emphasis on therapy procedures, diagnostic techniques and preparation of reports.

7700:351 CLINICAL PRACTICUM: LANGUAGE
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of two credits)
Prerequisites: 250, 330. Supervised clinical practicum in language. Emphasis on therapy procedures, diagnostic techniques and preparation of reports.

7700:352 CLINICAL PRACTICUM: AURAL REHABILITATION
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of two credits)
Prerequisites: 240, 250. Supervised clinical practicum in hearing rehabilitation. Emphasis on therapy procedures, diagnostic techniques and preparation of reports.

7700:370 LANGUAGE OF SIGNS I
1 credit
Prerequisite: 271 or permission of instructor. Advanced work in signs and fingerspelling with emphasis on additional sign vocabulary acquisition and development of expressive and receptive skills. Stress on continued skill building in conversing with deaf adults.

7700:430530 ASPECTS OF NORMAL LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
May not be taken by a major in communicative disorders. Introduction to acquisition and development of comprehension and production of language — phonologically, semantically and syntactically. Relates language acquisition to perceptual development of child and looks at function of language in individual, family and school.

7700:450 INTRODUCTION TO SPEECH AND HEARING DIAGNOSTICS
3 credits
Prerequisite: senior status. Introductory course devoted to discussion of role of speech and hearing clinician in differential diagnosis. Emphasis on case history taking and administration of standardized and informal procedures in diagnosis of communicative disorders.

7700:451 CLINICAL PRACTICUM: DIAGNOSTIC AUDIOLOGY
1 credit
(May be repeated for a total of two credits)
Prerequisites: 250, 340. Supervised clinical practicum in hearing diagnostics. Diagnostic procedures, preparation of reports.

7700:46056 SPEECH AND HEARING DISORDERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS
2 credits
May not be taken by a major in communicative disorders. Nature, causes and treatment of speech, hearing and language disorders in public schools. Special reference to role of classroom teacher in identification and referring student with suspected problems and in working with school clinician.

THE UNIVERSITY OF AKRON IS AN EQUAL EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT INSTITUTION operating under non-discrimination provisions of Titles VI, VII, IX and Executive Order 11246, Vocational Rehabilitation Act Section 504, and Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Act as related to admissions, treatment of students, and employment practices.

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of race, color, sex or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

This non-discrimination policy applies to all students, faculty, staff, employees and applicants.

Complaint of possible discrimination should be referred to Richard Neal, Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity Officer
Lisle M. Buckingham Center for Continuing Education 66
