

John E. Mumper, MSSW, JD

Credentials: Attorney at Law (License #0005324) (inactive status)
Independent Social Worker (#I-0002840) (active status)

2005 - 2006 "Outstanding Professor of Summit College"
award recipient, The University of Akron

2012 Professor Emeritus, Community Services, The University of Akron

Retired from full time status as Professor of Community Services effective
June 1, 2012 after 35 years.

Current: Faculty Fieldwork Liaison, social work student interns (graduate & baccalaureate)

Past: 1977 - 2012 (retired 6/1/12)
Professor of Community Services, University of Akron
Courses: "Social Work Ethics"
"Social Needs & Services: Aging"
"Law for Social Workers"
"Techniques of Community Work"
"Introduction to Gerontological Services"
"Introduction to Community Services"
"Technical Experience: Community & Social Services"

1982 - present
Attorney (recently moved to inactive status)
Independent Social Worker (active status)
Social Work & Counselor Ethics Consultant
Public Speaker – Ethics and Risk Management for Counselors, Social Workers and Marriage & Family
Therapists

6/97 – 7/00
Magistrate, Summit County Court of Common Pleas
Juvenile Court Division
Private Custody Magistrate
Drug Treatment Court Magistrate

Education: 1982
Juris Doctor of Law, University of Akron (Akron, Ohio)

1975
Master of Science in Social Work
University of Louisville (Louisville, Kentucky)
Emphasis: Administration of Justice Systems

1974
Bachelor of Arts in Sociology: Social Work emphasis
University of Akron (Akron, Ohio)

Merit status: Consistently rated either Outstanding or Extraordinary.

Teaching evaluations: Consistently highly rated in student evaluations.

Continuing education: Attended many CEU and CLE seminars to maintain licensure as a social worker and attorney.

CEU presentations: Conducted many seminars on ethics over the years.

Areas of interest:

Professional: Ethics, mental health, stress management,
personal growth, wellness in aging

Personal: Meditation, engagement with the natural world, continuing education, spiritual wellness

E-mail: jmumper@uakron.edu

