Strive Toward Excellence Program

The University of Akron * Firestone Fellows

Parent/Guardian Statement

I understand that as a parent/guardian of a Firestone Fellows student, I have special responsibilities. If my student is admitted into the Firestone Fellows Strive Toward Excellence Program, I agree to the following:

1. To encourage my child to abide by the rules and regulations of the Firestone Fellows Strive Toward Excellence Program and to participate in the various planned activities.

2. To participate with my student in the Mandatory Program Workshops held during the academic school year.

3. To follow through on staff recommendations/requirements regarding my student.

4. To encourage my student to attend college and to excel in the classroom in middle school and high school.

5. To encourage my student to enroll in college-preparatory courses in school.

6. To enroll my child in an Akron Public School for high school to qualify for either Upward Bound Classic or Upward Bound Math Science. I understand that when he/she graduates from the eighth grade, he/she will then move into either the Upward Bound Classic or Upward Bound Math Science Program at The University of Akron and will be expected to abide by their rules and regulations. Failure to do so, will result in the loss of all future STEP benefits.

7. That my student must attend the six-week summer program and the summer trip each summer of middle school.

8. I understand that by my student not completing the program, he/she will have prevented another student from receiving this opportunity.

9. I understand that my students’ on-going enrollment in STEP is a privilege and not a right.
