Teaching the Holocaust: The Economics & Science of Hate
Summer 2019 Study Abroad to Poland & Germany
5500:480 (Undergraduate) & 5500:562 (Graduate)
Sponsored by the H.K. Barker Center for Economic Education

Description: This course prepares students to understand and teach the difficult and complex topics of the Holocaust and genocide. Participants gain valuable experiential learning opportunities and access to resources for instructional use in grades 7-12. Tenets of economic and science education help frame the study of the Holocaust in the course.

When:  Departing June 19; returning June 30, 2019
Where:
➢ Berlin, Germany (Unter den Linden, Reichstag, Brandenburg Gate, Kurfürstendamm, Remains of the Berlin Wall, Haus der Wannsee-Konferenz Memorial, Tour of Old Jewish Quarter)

Total Cost: 12 days for approximately $2,000, not including airfare and tuition. Costs include in-country transportation, lodging (double accommodations), all breakfasts and 10 dinners, tour and entrance fees to attractions, on-site faculty supervision, and all tips and gratuities.

$500 Scholarships Available to Qualified Teachers and Education Majors!

Apply Now!
https://goo.gl/forms/tUROqPuXcJnAgWxN2
*Applications due Dec. 30, 2018

For more information, contact Dr. Brad Maguth at bmaguth@uakron.edu or Dr. Gary Holliday at gh30@uakron.edu