Teaching Economics Through Children’s Literature

Grades 1-7

Feb. 9th from 10 a.m. - 12p.m

The University of Akron

Sponsored by The Barker Center for Economic Education in the LeBron James Family Foundation College of Education

Teacher Workshop Completers Earn a $25 Gift Card!

Register Now

Children are never too young to start learning economics and you’ll be amazed how many economic concepts you’ll find in popular children’s stories. How about using The Three Little Pigs to teach students about scarcity, trade-offs, opportunity cost and decision making as well as productive resources? Or Dr. Seuss’s What Pet Should I Get? to teach decision making? Lesson provided are based on popular children’s books and are aligned to Ohio’s Academic Learning Standards.

REGISTER NOW

Contact: barkercenter@uakron.edu

www.uakron.edu/barkercenter