

Virtual update on NEH funding opportunities is March 5

Program staff at the National Endowment for the Humanities will provide a virtual funding opportunity update on Thursday, March 5, beginning at 1 p.m. EST/12 p.m. CST/11 a.m. MST/10 a.m. PST.

Julia Nguyen, Senior Program Officer in the Division of Lifelong Learning, and Daniel Sack, Deputy Director of the Division of Research, will share information about current grant opportunities, deadlines, and application requirements and offer suggestions for writing an application.

To register and receive the Zoom link for the one-hour online event, click here.

The update will focus on individual grant programs with April 8, 2026, application deadlines:

- Fellowships
- Fellowships for Advanced Social Science Research on Japan
- Public Scholars

It also will feature information about the education and media grant programs with June 25, 2026, application deadlines:

- Institutes for Higher Education Faculty
- Institutes for K-12 Educators
- Landmarks of American History and Culture for Higher Education
- Landmarks of American History and Culture for K-12 Educators
- Media Projects

The virtual update is presented by NEH in partnership with Fostering Opportunities through Collaborative University Synergies (FOCUS). FOCUS is a collaboration among research development professionals at Montana State University; University of Idaho; University of Nebraska-Lincoln; University of Nevada, Reno; and Utah State University.

Please send questions about the March 5 update to unlrd@unl.edu.