

Lisa Kidd Hunt

Executive Vice President, International Services Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.

Lisa Kidd Hunt is Executive Vice President of International Services for Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., where she leads global products and services along with four broker dealers outside the United States, and drives strategic initiatives for the firm.

Hunt has worked in the securities industry for 33 years, the past 27 with Charles Schwab. She has extensive general management, sales and client service, and product experience and always focuses on driving profitable long-term growth while creating more meaningful outcomes for clients.

Hunt was the 2018 Chairperson of the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA), and currently serves as Chair Emeritus. Prior to that industry appointment, Hunt led International Services and Business Initiatives for Schwab, including launching a social media program for the firm's relationship management and business development employees.

Previously, Hunt served as the head of Schwab's branch network and acquisition delivery, leading over 2,000 employees in more than 325 branches and the acquisition delivery group.

Before that, she served as EVP, Schwab Investor Development and focused on providing Retirement and Stock Plan Services participants a path for financial fitness through world class service and advice.

Hunt also served high net worth investors as Senior Vice President of Schwab Private Client and led Local Marketing, Sales Training and Relationship Support. Prior to joining Schwab in 1992, she worked as a municipal bond trader.

Hunt received her bachelor's degree in finance with an emphasis in economics from the Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland. She is a fellow with the International Women's Forum and has participated in executive leadership programs at Harvard Business School and Cambridge University, and is a current participant in The Securities Industry Institute. In addition to serving on the SIFMA Board of Directors, Hunt serves on the Board of Directors of the SIFMA Foundation. Hunt is the Chair for the advisory board of the Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland, and a former board member of EBRI.
