

12th Annual Ludy T. Benjamin Jr. Distinguished Lecture in Psychology

May 14, 2026

Sponsorship Opportunities

Because you have been a friend and supporter of the Cummings Center, we are happy to invite you to attend the 12th annual Ludy T. Benjamin, Jr. Lecture with our featured speaker, Dr. Kelly Lambert. She will share insights from her landmark research on experience-based neuroplasticity - the science of how our brains change in response to what we do, what we learn, and the environments we inhabit.

Support the Benjamin Lecture

Whether or not you can attend in person, please consider supporting the Benjamin lecture. This gathering is our signature event each year and your support allows us to host leading psychologists from across the country. All funds will support student attendance and help us host future lectures in this series.

All gold and silver sponsors will receive 2 dinner tickets, and bronze sponsors will receive one dinner ticket for the lecture. All sponsors will be listed in the event program, on the event screen, and in our annual newsletter. All table sponsors will have a special reserved table with 6 dinner tickets and acknowledgment at the event, in our newsletter, and in the event program.

Sponsoring a student - Your donation will be used to provide one complimentary dinner/lecture ticket for students.
