

Share your economics research!
Spend the day at the Fed networking with peers and professional economists!

2014 Undergraduate Poster Exhibit

Presented by The University of Akron and the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Undergraduate college students are invited to present their research in economics. Federal Reserve economists, research analysts and faculty from area institutions will visit your poster exhibit to learn more about your research. A lunch speaker will answer your questions about careers in economics.

You could win!

1st place: $200 value gift card

2nd place: $150 value gift card

3rd place: $100 value gift card

Certificates of participation awarded to all presenters.

When

Friday, May 2, 2014 • 10:00 am - 2:00 pm
Continental breakfast and lunch provided

Where

Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland
1455 East Sixth Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114

Interested in presenting your research? There is no registration or entry fee.

1. Email Dr. Francesco Renna at frenna@uakron.edu by Friday, April 11.

The email must include:

- "Undergraduate Poster Exhibit" in the subject line
- Applicants full name, Title of the project, Name of the faculty sponsor and of the institution, Applicants graduation date
- 250-word abstract of your project.

2. Have your faculty sponsor email frenna@uakron.edu certifying the authenticity of your project.

3. Students whose research has been accepted will receive poster presentation guide by April 21.

Entrants must be current students or have graduated no earlier than summer 2013.

Family and friends are welcome to attend the exhibit if registered in advance. Exhibit participation by faculty advisors and Econ Club members is strongly encouraged!

To register or for more information, contact Jennifer Ransom, jransom@cleve.frb.org, 216-579-2025.