THURSDAY, JUNE 24

1:00-3:00  Symposium: In Honor of William James.
Eugene Taylor (Institute for Global Communications) Discussant; Henderikus J. Stam (University of Calgary) Session Chair.
Michael Sokal (Worcester Polytechnic Institute) William James and the National Academy of Sciences.
Eric P. Charles (University of Pennsylvania) Psychology: Briefer Course... Revised?

3:00-3:15  Break.

3:15-4:45  Symposium: In Honor of William James: Experiments and Learning Theory.
Christopher Green (York University) Discussant; Michael Sokal (Worcester Polytechnic Institute) Session Chair.
Deborah Johnson (University of Southern Maine) In Search of the Self: Josiah Royce’s Psychological Research on Imitation.
David Clark (Independent) De-mythologizing Edwin R. Guthrie: A Review of Learning Theory Textbooks that Shaped Psychology’s Historical Consciousness.
José M. Gondra (University of the Basque Country, Spain) Building Bridges Between Learning Theory And Clinic: Neal E. Miller’s Experiments At Yale’s Institute of Human Relations Before World War II.

5:30-7:30  Poster Session/Reception.
David Devonis (Graceland University) Why is Louis Pasteur Not an Ancestor of the "Scientific" Within Scientific Psychology?
Wang Bo (Nanjing Normal University, China) Contemporary Marxist Psychology in China.
Wang Bo (Nanjing Normal University, China) Psychology in the Context of Political Economy.
Donald A. Dewsbury (University of Florida) My Camera; My Cheiron.
Eleni Karasavvidou (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece) The “Real” and the “Ideal” Self. A Monocultural Convention.
Floyd Rudmin (University of Tromsø, Norway) The Antecedents and Consequences of Kant's "Plan for Perpetual Peace."
7:30-7:45  Break.

7:45-8:45 Film night: Early Experiments with Film in American Psychology.
Arlie Belliveau (York University) The Unseen Films of Micromotion Studies.
Cathy Faye, Lizette Royer, David Baker (University of Akron) Film selections from the Walter and Catharine Cox Miles collection: An inside look at the uses of film in early twentieth-century American psychology.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25

8:30  Welcome.
Dr. Linda Le Mura, Provost and Academic Vice-President, Le Moyne College.

8:45-10:30 Paper session I (concurrent) European Psychology: German and Dutch Phenomenology.
Robert Kugelmann (University of Dallas) Session Chair.
David Robinson (Truman State University) How Should We Interpret Fechner's "Inner Psychophysics"?
William Woodward (University of New Hampshire) Lotze’s Gestalt Metaphysics in Light of the Hegel Renaissance.
Henderikus J. Stam & René van Hezewijk (University of Calgary & Open University, The Netherlands). The Early Roots of Phenomenological Psychology: The Influence of Max Scheler.

8:45-10:30 Paper session II (concurrent) On the Gain, Loss and Circuit of Psychological Knowledge.
Jill Morawski (Wesleyan University) Session Chair.
Jennifer Bazar & Jeremy Burman (York University) "Worthy of a Visit": The Changing Landscape of Asylum Tourism in the Nineteenth Century.
Jacy Young (York University) The Biologist as Psychologist: Early Questionnaire Research in American Psychology.
Ian Nicholson (St. Thomas University) The Conclusions Do Not Always Flatter: Stanley Milgram’s Private Assessment of the Obedience Experiments.
Michael Pettit (York University) Circulating Sexual Knowledge: The SPSSI Task Force on Sexual Orientation and the Contours of Activist Science.

10:30-10:45  Break.

10:45-12:15 Paper session III (concurrent) European Psychology: France, England and Ireland.
Deborah Johnson (University of Southern Maine) Session Chair.

Chris Renwick (University of York, England) L. T. Hobhouse and the Boundary Between Philosophy and Social Science in Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth-Century Britain.

Robert Kugelmann (University of Dallas) Psychoanalysis and Nationalism in Ireland in the 1920s: The Case of Edward Boyd Barrett.

10:45-12:15 Paper session IV (concurrent) New York and Social Theory.

Larry Stern (Collin College) Session Chair.

Larry Nichols (West Virginia University) Merton as Sociological Theorist: Early Themes, 1934-1939.

Kenneth Feigenbaum (University of Maryland University College) The Arendt-Riesman Correspondence.

12:15-1:30 Lunch.

1:30-3:30 Film and Discussion Herskovits and the Heart of Blackness.

Kevin Yelvington (University of South Florida) Discussant; Nadine Weidman (Harvard University) Session Chair.

3:30-3:45 Break.

3:45-5:30 Symposium: Other Boasians: Mead, Fortune, Montague and Wolf.

Kevin Yelvington (University of South Florida) Session Chair.

Gerald Sullivan (Collin College) A Case of (Mis)Fortune: Reo Franklin Fortune, Margaret Mead, Science and the End of a Marriage.

Nadine Weidman (Harvard University) Ashley Montagu: Boasian and Biological Determinist.

John S. Gilkeson Jr. (University of Arizona) From Cultural Ecology to Cultural History: Eric R. Wolf and The People of Puerto Rico.

Paul Shankman (University of Colorado) Margaret Mead and the 1960s: Image and Reality.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26.

8:15-9:45 Paper Session VI (Concurrent) Animals

Don Dewsbury (University of Florida) Session Chair.
Anne C. Rose (Pennsylvania State University) Animal Cousins: Emotion in American Comparative Psychology between the World Wars.
Gabriel Ruiz & Natividad Sanchez (Universidad de Sevilla, Spain) Animals on the Couch: Creative Partnerships between Pavlovians and Psychoanalysts in America.
Patrick Drumm (Ohio University Lancaster) A Curious Story of Bats in World War II: Donald R. Griffin’s Discovery of Echolocation, His Recommendation to Weaponize Bats in the War Against Japan, and the Fate of Project X-Ray.

8:15-9:45 Workshop (Concurrent) “Those Greatest of All Mysteries, Facts”: Methods from the History of Comparative Religions Applied to Archival Investigation in the History of American Psychology.
Eugene Taylor (Institute for Global Communications) Workshop Leader.

9:45-10:00 Break.

10:00-11:30 Paper session V Dehumanizing the "Other:" Science and Practice.
Fredric Weizmann (York University) Session Chair.
Andrew Winston (University of Guelph) Domestication and Degeneration: Konrad Lorenz the Aesthetics of Antisemitism.
Leila Zenderland (California State University, Fullerton) Chicago Sociology in Nazi Germany: The Case of Willy Gierlichs.
Leslie Baker (University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon) Rethinking Canadian Eugenics from an Eastern Perspective: Nova Scotia’s 1927 Training School Act and its Eugenic Implications.

11:30-1:00 Lunch.

1:00-2:30 Keynote Address.
Gerald Sullivan (Collin College) Session Chair.
Frederick W. Gleach (Cornell University) The Americanist Tradition in Anthropology as an Interdisciplinary Locus.

2:30-2:45 Break.
2:45-4:15  Paper Session VII  Technology
William Woodward (University of New Hampshire) Session Chair.
Stephen M. Underwood (University of New Hampshire) Social Scientists’ Ambivalent Reception of Radio in the 1920’s: Between Application and Handwringing.
David Schmit (Saint Catherine’s University) Early Mesmerism in America, 1784-1810.

4:15-4:30  Break.

4:30-5:00  Book Award.
David Robinson (Truman State University) Session Chair.
John Carson (University of Michigan) Recipient.

5:00-6:15  Business Meeting.

6:45  Banquet.

SUNDAY, JUNE 27

8:30 -10:00  Paper Session VIII  Psychology Elsewhere.
Adrian Brock (University College, Dublin, Ireland) Session Chair.
Grace Davie (Queens College, City University of New York) Poverty Knowledge in South Africa: How Social Surveys Shaped Radical Politics.

10:00-10:15  Break

10:15-12:00  Paper Session IX  Memory and Historiography.
Miki Takasuna (Tokyo International University, Japan) Session Chair.
Elissa Rodkey (York University) The Historiographic Dilemma of Medieval Psychology: What Can Memory Teach Us?
Adrian Brock (University College, Dublin, Ireland). Presentism and Diversity in the History of Psychology

Revised: 20100413