

Revised September 9, 2014

The Michael T. Hayes Military Veterans Textbook Fund

DESCRIPTION

The Michael T. Hayes Military Veterans Textbook Fund was created in August, 2014, with a gift from Mr. Michael T. Hayes. Candidates and/or recipients may be from any branch of the U.S. military. First consideration will be given to those who have returned from active duty. The purpose of the fund is to assist veterans in the purchase of required textbooks as they begin or resume their studies at The University of Akron.

PROTOCOLS AND PROCESS FOR DISTRIBUTION OF THE FUND

Application and approvals:

Requests for textbook assistance may be submitted online or in writing. They will be reviewed by a representative of the University's Military Services Center and shared with Mr. Hayes. Final approval will be made by the Office of Student Financial Aid. The amount and number of awards will vary, depending on the amount of funds available, and the need and number of qualified applicants.

Who qualifies as a student-veteran?

- Anyone with veteran status who has not been dishonorably discharged
- Undergraduate or graduate status, in good academic standing
- Full-time or part-time status, in good academic standing
