EOS Wingsly School is an English Kindergarten with an after-school program for additional studies for students who are older. During the day, Korean Kindergarten and English Kindergarten programs take place. In the afternoon, older students come in for private tutoring, additional English language studies, or continuing English studies.

We are looking for teachers!

Starting Date: As soon as possible or end of February, 2020

Teaching Group: Kindergarten - Elementary (9-11 years of age)

Job Requirements:

- Female
- Bilingual Speaker (Fluency in Korean and English) OR
- Native English Speaker

Working Hours: Around 31 Hours (Total of 34 Classes),

Monthly Salary: 2.3 Million Korean Won (w2,300,000)

(Wages can be flexible depending upon your teaching experience at schools or other educational facilities)

Benefits:

- Private housing within walking distance to the school (approx.. 5 minutes)
- Health insurance (National pension)
- Round trip flight ticket to Korea
- 10 days of paid vacation
- Additional benefits can and will be discussed at time of interview/employment

Our facility is located in Suwon, South Korea. Suwon is the capital and the largest metropolis of the Gyeonggi province. It has a population close to 1.2 million people. There is a lively neighborhood within the immediate school area, it is three subway stops away from Suwon City Center, and is one bus ride away from Downtown, Seoul (You can be in Gangnam by bus within 40 minutes).

If you require more information, please do not hesitate to contact us at

soyoun0113@gmail.com

If you are interested in this position, please send us your resume to

soyoun0113@gmail.com

Sophia Ahn, Head Manager
Soyoun0113@gmail.com
EOS Wingsly School