Teaching About Racial Inequities in American Schools

Wednesday October 11th, 5:15-6:45pm
Zook Hall, Room 108
The University of Akron

Join expert faculty from the LeBron James Family Foundation College of Education in an impromptu town hall forum to discuss the rationale, and meaningful instructional practices, best suited to engage youth in difficult conversations about race, racial inequities, and social justice in the elementary, middle, and high school classroom. Guests invited include:

- Dr. Francis Broadway, Professor, Curr. & Instructional Studies Dept.
- Dr. Bridgie A. Ford, Professor, Curr. & Instructional Studies Dept.
- Dr. Denise Stuart, Professor, Curr. & Instructional Studies Dept.
- Dr. John E. Queener, Professor, Department of Psychology
- Dr. Nidaa Makki, Associate Professor, Curr. & Instructional Studies Dept.
- Dr. Brad Maguth, Associate Professor, Curr. & Instructional Studies Dept.