

Why “Trane Technologies”?

Elevating Trane as our enterprise name will harness the powerful brand we’ve already built in a way that can empower the entire organization. The word “technologies” allows us to celebrate our commitment to the technological innovations that will lead us into the future.

The company name change is subject to shareholder approval and is expected to be effective around the completion of its Reverse Morris Trust transaction in early 2020.

What is the meaning behind the name Trane Technologies?

Global megatrends are pushing climate issues to the forefront of the world’s concerns, and Trane Technologies demonstrates our commitment to take action — with our powerful innovation, our strong customer focus, and our leading brands. We stand ready to address climate challenges to create a more sustainable world.
