GRADUATE STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF AKRON

The university offers a wide range of graduate programs at both the master's and doctoral level and provides substantial resources for graduate study. Bierce Library, for example, contains over 2 million books, audio-visual materials, and archival resources, and subscribes to more than 4,500 periodicals. Because of the university's extensive support services, moreover, graduate students can participate in or use such organizations and facilities as Graduate Student Government, the Arts and Sciences Careers Program, and the Office of International Programs.

The material contained in this handbook focuses on the English Department specifically. It is assumed that graduate students will familiarize themselves with The University of Akron Bulletin: Graduate Edition, the Graduate Assistant Program Handbook, and the International Student Handbook. Copies of all of these manuals can be obtained online (at www.uakron.edu/gradsch) or from the Graduate School Office (Polsky Building 467). They provide current, detailed information about fee schedules, admission and registration procedures, and other university policies relevant to graduate students.

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM IN ENGLISH

The English Department offers a master's program in English and an MFA in Creative Writing, offered jointly with Cleveland State University, Kent State University, and Youngstown State University. Our programs enroll approximately 80-90 students, many of whom are nontraditional in their academic, social, and cultural backgrounds. Most graduate courses in English meet once or twice weekly in the late afternoon or evening, and on Saturday, for scheduling convenience and efficiency. Online options are also available. Since the master's degree is Akron's terminal degree in English, more attention is devoted to it than in some universities where the doctorate is the terminal degree. Faculty are accessible, and graduate assistants participate in the governance of the English Department by electing a representative to attend faculty meetings.

Students have the opportunity to submit written work for literary prizes every spring as well as apply for various English scholarships. The Department hosts the Society of Akron Graduate English Scholars for students, runs a journal of creative writing for students, and sponsors an open mic night featuring poetry and fiction readings by students.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The English Department requires for acceptance into the M.A. program a B.A. in English, a minor in English, or other suitable course preparation.

To qualify for full admission, a student must meet the Graduate School requirement of a minimum overall GPA of 2.75 for four years or 3.0 over the last two years. The application must be completed online at the following website: https://app.applyyourself.com/?id=uakron-g. Applicants must request that official transcripts of undergraduate and, if applicable, graduate work be sent to the Graduate School. A nonrefundable application fee is also required. Applications should be received at least six weeks prior to registration, which may occur in the fall, spring, or summer terms. To qualify for provisional admission, the Graduate School requires a minimum overall GPA of 2.5 over four years or 2.75 over the last two years. A student whose GPA falls below 2.75 or who lacks the B.A. in English may be granted deferred admission and given post-baccalaureate status, which is a probationary category.

Applicants to the NEOMFA in Creative Writing must be accepted by the Graduate School at The University of Akron or one of the other three participating universities. They must also submit three letters of recommendation, transcripts, and a writing portfolio. The portfolio will be reviewed by an admissions committee of members from all four universities.

Applicants using The University of Akron as a "gateway" school for the MFA must additionally satisfy the requirements for the M.A. program listed above.

For those students admitted to the NEOMFA program, up to nine credits from previously uncompleted graduate degrees may be accepted for transfer credit. Of the nine elective credits, up to six may be from advisor-approved courses not solely restricted to graduate students.

REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In addition to the requirements for admission stated above, students whose native language is not English must meet the following requirements:

1) Take the TOEFL exam (Test of English as a Foreign Language), score at least 580 on it, and have the score sent directly to the English Department by the Educational Testing Service (photocopies of scores are not acceptable).

2) Take the TSE exam (Test of Spoken English), score at least 240 on it, and have the score reported to the English Department as explained in No. 1.

3) Submit a 250-500 word description of English courses taken at the college level, making certain that the description refers to the authors covered in the courses and to the subject matter of those courses.

4) Submit an additional writing sample, if requested.

FINANCIAL AID

Graduate Assistantships

Graduate assistantships in the Department of English are awarded on a competitive basis. Applications for fall appointments will be accepted until February 1. M.A. students may renew assistantships for a second year, and M.F.A. students may renew twice, for a total of three years of support. Along with the application form and letter of application, applicants for assistantships must submit a clean copy of a writing sample in the form of a typed essay completed in a college course (5-10 pages), two letters of recommendation, and scores from the general section of the Graduate Record Examination. All assistantship application materials must be submitted on paper. Please mail (not email) all materials directly to the Graduate Coordinator in care of the English Department.

The letter of application should address:

1) why you are interested in the position
2) what prepares you for the position both as far as your work history and academic preparation, and
3) how your experiences and interests would contribute to the program's academic atmosphere

Graduate assistants must enroll as full time graduate students (9 credit hours per semester). They may not be employed outside the university for more than 8 hours per week. Assistantships pay for tuition and most fees as well as a nine month stipend of $8755. Most of our graduate assistants are teaching assistants and are required to attend a one week pre-term orientation, take a teaching practicum, and teach one section of composition per semester.

Scholarships

First year tuition scholarships may also be available. Also, the Bauer Scholarship Fund provides financial aid in the form of a substantial, renewable yearly grant to one or more outstanding graduate students. For more information, contact the Graduate Coordinator, Dr. Hillary Nunn at nunn@uakron.edu

Other Financial Aid Issues

All such questions can be answered by the Financial Aid Office at 800.621.3847 or 330.972.7032. The Financial Aid office email is finaid@uakron.edu.

TRANSFER CREDIT
Students transferring to The University of Akron from accredited colleges or universities may receive graduate credit for courses in which an A or a B was awarded (a grade of B- is not transferable), provided that the credits were earned within the six-year limit of studies for the M.A. and the M.F.A. in English.

No more than one-third of the credits required for the M.A. in English may be transferred to The University of Akron. A maximum of 9 credits from a previously uncompleted degree can be applied to the NEOMFA. Students will have six years from the date of their earliest transferred credit to complete all coursework for both the M.A. and NEOMFA.

Transfer credits will not be posted on the student's academic record until at least 12 credits have been earned at The University of Akron and a grade point average of 3.0 or better has been attained. Students must have prior approval from the Graduate Coordinator in order to transfer credits from another institution or another department within the university.

Degree Requirements for The Master of Arts English

The M.A. in English provides students with a strong practical and theoretical grounding as they prepare to move forward into careers or into graduate and professional schools. Students will learn 1) advanced methods for deeper study of literatures written in English, 2) the fundamentals of Composition as a discipline, and 3) practical writing skills through courses in professional and rhetorical writing. Courses will place texts within wider cultural and multicultural debates. Through assigned writings, students will articulate informed viewpoints on real-world issues and practice various forms of professional and critical writing, learning to interpret texts in contexts ranging from academic debate to the contemporary classroom to a variety of professional settings.

Admission Requirements
In addition to the graduate application and official transcripts applicants must submit a statement of purpose to The Department of English by mail or email at englishsa2@uakron.edu.

Degree Requirements

A minimum of 30 credits is required.

Core classes for all MA Students consist of the following 18 credits at the 600 level:
• 3300:611: Argumentation and Research Writing
• 3300:673: Theories of Composition
• 3300:665: Literary Criticism or 690: Critical Approaches to Literature
• Second 600-level literature course
• Professional Writing course (3300:689: Grant Writing or 3300:689: Professional Writing Theory and Practice)
• Capstone (3 credit hours): 3300:699: Thesis or 3300:698 Individual Reading in English where students complete a Portfolio based on the revision and presentation of 3-6 course artifacts, at least one of which is an academic paper.

Students must take 12 additional credit hours in English, selecting from classes listed in the Course Bulletin that are offered at either the 500 or 600-level.

Graduation Requirement: Candidates for graduation must see the Department of English Graduate Coordinator to complete the departmental Graduate Student Survey
Degree Requirements for the Northeast Ohio MFA in Creative Writing (NEOMFA)

The University of Akron, Cleveland State University, Kent State University, and Youngstown State University offer jointly the MFA in Creative Writing. This degree provides students with opportunities to develop their skills in writing, fiction, poetry, drama, and creative non-fiction. The MFA is the terminal degree. Through extensive practice in workshops and craft and theory courses, students will develop their creative writing abilities while also studying literature and completing a relevant internship.

Admission Requirements
Must be accepted by the Graduate School at The University of Akron or one of the other three participating universities. Applicant must also submit three letters of recommendation, transcripts, and a writing portfolio. The portfolio will be reviewed by an admissions committee with members from all four universities. Applications must be submitted by January 15.

Degree Requirements

Students must complete the following courses among the participating universities:

Grade Requirements for Graduate Degrees

Students are expected to maintain a 3.0 average, which is the minimum average required for graduation. Failure to maintain a 3.0 will cause the student to be placed on probation and may result in dismissal from the program.
Graduate Certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language

Dr. Grace Zhang, Coordinator
wz23@uakron.edu

This program is intended for both native and non-native speakers of English who seek training in the teaching of English as a second language (ESL) and wish to obtain an initial qualification to teach ESL/EFL (English as a foreign language) in educational settings other than public schools in Ohio or in countries outside the United States. For Ohio qualification in teaching ESL in the Ohio public school system, see the TESOL Endorsement requirements in the College of Education section of the graduate bulletin.

The program is designed to introduce the student to the central issues in the theory and practice of teaching English to non-native speakers through courses in modern and applied linguistics, in second language pedagogy and in related disciplines.

Students who do not have English as a native language must demonstrate adequate proficiency in English with a valid TOEFL score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79 (internet-based) or a valid IELTS score of 6.5 or higher.

The awarding of this certificate is not contingent upon completion of a degree program. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required. Graduate students must apply for the Certificate program through the Graduate School.

All students who wish to pursue the TESL certificate should meet with the certificate coordinator director to discuss the program and availability of courses.

The certificate requires the completion of a minimum of 18 credit hours of coursework, including five core courses and one elective course.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN LITERATURE
330010GC

Hillary Nunn, Ph.D., Coordinator
nunn@uakron.edu

To add to the dimensions of the traditional disciplines, the University has established interdisciplinary and interdepartmental programs of study. In addition to a major, the student may elect to pursue one of these programs.

Upon completion of any interdisciplinary or interdepartmental program of study, a statement will be placed on the student’s permanent record indicating the area of concentration.

The certificate indicating the area of concentration will be awarded when the student completes requirements for a degree unless otherwise specified.

Requirements
To be eligible for the graduate certificate in literature, a person must be admitted to the University as a graduate student (with either full or provisional status). An eligible person interested in the program should contact the Graduate Director in the Department of English.

Of the five required courses (15 credits), two must be core courses, Chaucer and Shakespearean Drama; four of the five courses must be at the 600-level; and one must be in American literature.

Core Courses:
3300:506 Chaucer* 3
3300:615 Shakespearean Drama 3

All students who wish to pursue a certificate program must apply for admission to the certificate program through the Graduate School regardless of whether or not they are current graduate students. More information can be found at the Graduate School Website: http://www.uakron.edu/gradsch/apply-online/certifiprog.dot
ADVISING

Students are assigned an academic advisor, normally the Graduate Coordinator, and students are expected to consult with the advisor before registration for each semester. The department, in cooperation with the Arts and Sciences Careers Program, also offers career and job-search advising and information.

THE GRADUATE FACULTY

The graduate faculty has a strong commitment to both research and teaching. The members of the graduate faculty have published many books (critical studies, textbooks, short story and poetry collections, and bibliographies) in addition to scholarly articles, and reviews. Faculty routinely present papers at scholarly and professional meetings. The department has involvement in professional Journals: Rubberrtop Review, an annual collection of creative writing, is edited by graduate students. Graduate faculty members serve as editors and consultants for The University of Akron Press, and for a variety of journals. Faculty members have also won numerous grants. Three times since 1980 the Alumni Association's Outstanding Teacher award has gone to a member of the department.
