3300: 371

Introduction to Linguistics

FALL 2020

Curious about language and how we use it in our daily and professional life?

Learn it

ONLINE

this fall semester!

In this online class, students build a solid foundation in Morphology (word structure)
Syntax (sentence structure)
Semantics (meaning of language)
Phonetics and Phonology (sounds and sound patterns in English) and Pragmatics (language use in context)

Required for an English Major, the TESL Certificate, and the Linguistics Certificate.

Applies to Education, Foreign Language, Communication, Sociology, Computer Science, and more!