ZIPS CARE TOGETHER: URBAN AGRICULTURE EDITION

EXLC: 490:002 | T/TH 2-3:15pm

DR. CHRISTIN SEHER & MEGAN DELONG

Donations are so important to keep this farm running. You can help us to help others! Thank you X.

During this course students will explore economic, political, and philosophical tensions of philanthropy by focusing on a local issue of importance to Akron. Students will collaborate with community partners and have the opportunity to make a university funded direct donation to a nonprofit organization. This course provides a unique opportunity to learn about giving while making a direct impact on Akron.

The EX[L] Center for Community Engaged Learning, Bierce 168 | uakron.edu/exl