CRNA Educator of the Year!

Brian Radesic, School of Nursing contract professional and Director of the Nurse Anesthesia Program, was honored with the 2019 Ohio State Association of Nurse Anesthetists (OSANA) Educator of the Year award. CRNAs represent 2,100 certified registered nurse anesthetists in Ohio. The award is given by seven students that represent the student board of all anesthesia programs in Ohio. This year the OSANA Educator of the Year was solely voted on by the student board. Thank you Dr. Radesic for your impact on future CRNA’s!

Brian will receive this honor at the April 13 Annual Spring Conference in Dublin Ohio. The Ohio State Association of Nurse Anesthetists is a dynamic organization which advances nurse anesthesia practice through excellence in education, advocacy, knowledge, and member empowerment.

College of Health Professions colleagues congratulate Brian on this accomplishment!
