

School of Social Work Faculty Member Honored

Dr. Richard Glotzer, Social Work Professor and Interim Director for the School of Nutrition & Dietetics, won the 2019 Certified Special Recognition award.

The award is for his work promoting and supporting the Certified Family Life Educator credential at The University of Akron, his work as a member of the original CFLE exam committee, and ongoing contribution to the creation of subsequent test forms.

The award will be presented at the CFLE reception at the November 2019 National Council on Family Relations' conference in Fort Worth, Texas.
