

Learn About Health Education Center on Saturday's 'Zips Unlimited'

Greta Lax, director of the Akron-Region Interprofessional Area Health Education Center, which is hosted on campus by the College of Health Professions, and Alaina Gent, student coordinator for Wellness Wednesdays, will guest on on the Saturday, Feb. 16, episode of "Zips Unlimited" on WZIP-FM. They will talk about the Wellness Wednesdays program, where they go to some Akron Metropolitan Housing Authority housing and meet with residents to provide information on topics relevant to them.

Also on the show will be Gary Neffenger, a graduate student in engineering, who will talk about two organizations — the American Society of Engineers and Crosswinds Ohio.

"Zips Unlimited" is a 30-minute radio show on 88.1 WZIP-FM, our student-run radio station, that airs from noon to 12:30 p.m. on Saturdays. It is hosted by WZIP General Manager Chris Keppler and Assistant Vice President of Alumni Relations Willy Kollman, and features guests talking about UA programs, opportunities and experiences, as well as the Akron area. You can also listen at www.wzip.fm or through the RadioFx app.
