

Continuation of Group Life Insurance coverage

While you are no longer eligible for life insurance as an active employee with The University of Akron, you do have the opportunity to continue your life insurance with Minnesota Life, a Securian company. Premiums are paid directly to Minnesota Life and coverage is issued with no medical examination. Premiums may be higher than those paid by active employees.

Coverage election must take place within 31 days of your last day of employment to be eligible. For information, please log onto www.lifebenefits.com/continue to review your options on continuing your coverage through portability or conversion, calculate the rates, and obtain the necessary forms.
