Discrimination is Against the Law

The University of Akron complies with applicable Federal and State civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of any protected class. For more detailed information please visit our Affirmative Action policy.

The University of Akron will also provide requested accommodations such as:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
  - Qualified sign language interpreters
  - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services (for most common languages) to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
  - Qualified interpreters
  - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, please file a request with Michael Spayd, ADA Coordinator.

If you believe that The University of Akron has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of the protected classes listed in our policy, you can file a complaint with:
