In addition to a personal statement, you may also share a copy of your resume with the scholarship committee. Unless you request otherwise, this information may be shared with the scholarship donor.

The scholarship committee will consider applicants for all available upper division scholarships. However, please review the complete list of upper division scholarships (<http://uakron.edu/ud-scholarship>) and indicate if there are any specific scholarships for which you feel you are uniquely qualified and why you should be considered for that assistance.

Only upper division law students are eligible to receive these awards (FT students must have 28 credit hours completed, PT students must have 19 credit hours completed to be considered upper division). Scholarship awards will be applied toward fall and spring semester tuition only (not summer). 2017 spring start students may apply now and awards for spring start students will be distributed in the spring 2018 semester.
