Oregon Department of Justice Honors Attorney Program: The Oregon Department of Justice Honors Attorney Program is designed to provide outstanding recent law school graduates-including those who are serving as judicial clerks or in government fellowships-with the opportunity to gain public law experience after law school. The term of appointment is two years. Participants are eligible to apply for permanent positions after completing their first year in the program. The recruitment is for positions beginning September 2013. The application requirements, process, and deadlines can be found at http://www.doj.state.or.us
Department of Justice Legal Outreach/Recruitment: The Department of Justice (“Justice”) is committed to providing persons with disabilities every opportunity to be hired and advanced on the basis of merit. Justice is committed to using all available hiring authorities—including 5 C.F.R. § 213.3102(u) (commonly known as “Schedule A”)—to hire qualified persons with targeted disabilities. In addition, Justice has identified resources that will aid it in its ability to attract qualified candidates with targeted disabilities who have a specific interest in working for the federal government.

One such resource is Bender Consulting Services (Bender). Bender is a company that has been retained by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to recruit, screen, and direct candidates with disabilities to federal agencies for a variety of positions, including attorney jobs. Bender maintains an electronic registry of potential candidates who have targeted disabilities and have been certified as job-ready. When filling an attorney vacancy, every office within Justice is now required to consult the Bender Registry to identify qualified attorney candidates.

Potential attorney candidates with disabilities interested in getting on the Bender Registry should submit their resume to resume@benderconsult.com. Information about Bender and the Bender Registry is accessible at www.benderconsult.com. If you have any questions about the Bender Registry please contact the Bender Consulting Services directly. If you have any questions about the Department of Justice’s outreach initiatives designed to attract qualified individuals with targeted disabilities, please contact our Special Counsel for Disability Resources Allison Nichol at (202) 307-6387 or at Allison.Nichol@usdoj.gov

LexisNexis - As part of our ongoing services for Akron Law alums, the Career Planning & Placement Office has requested that our law school alumni continue to have access to LexisNexis for job search activities. LexisNexis has provided us with a Custom ID and Password for our law school alumni. If you would like this ID and password information, please contact Jeanne Kennedy at jeanne2@uakron.edu or 330-972-5321 and she will give it to you. All previous Alumni Career IDs and passwords expired on January 1, 2012. Please note that this new log-in information is only to be used for job search activities and application to the LexisNexis ASPIRE program.

Job Announcements: Judicial Clerkships

Some judges have added new clerkship positions on OSCAR. For an update on new judges accepting judicial clerkship applications, please visit the OSCAR website (http://OSCAR.dcd.uscourts.gov/).

AkronLawJobs Job No. 3409 - Court Term: August 26, 2013 through August 31, 2014
Deadline: March 29, 2012 – Announcement 12-33
Requirements: - Law clerks must have graduated from a law school approved by the American Bar Association by the time of their law clerk appointment. The Judiciary’s law clerkship program is intended for recent law school graduates who have not yet engaged in the practice of law. Selected candidates will be required to provide an official, final law school transcript, not a photocopy, which includes the date of graduation from their law school at the time of hire. Excellent writing and analytical skills are essential.

MEDIATION TRAINING: It is helpful to have completed a course in mediation prior to the start of the clerkship. Under Court Rule, all trial court law clerks who will serve as mediators must first complete the Judiciary sponsored 12-hour mediation training or its equivalent. Applicants selected for clerkships can request a waiver from attending the Judiciary’s training program at the start of the court term by providing documentation that confirms that they successfully completed an approved alternative dispute resolution course.
LICENSE: Appointee will be required to possess a driver’s license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.

AUTHORIZATION TO WORK: US Citizenship is not required. Selected candidate must be authorized to work in the US according to Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations.

Information for Applicants - Approximately 480 clerkships are available. Of those, a limited number of clerkships exist for the Supreme Court, Superior Court Appellate Division, Superior Court Assignment Judges, Superior Court Chancery Division in general equity court, and in the Tax Court. Applicants interested in those positions should apply early during the hiring process. Most openings exist in the Superior Court Law Division in civil and criminal court, and Superior Court Chancery Division in family court. For additional information see the Judiciary’s website at www.judiciary.state.nj.us/lawclerks. Minorities, women, individuals with disabilities and other protected class members are encouraged to apply.

NOTE: Individuals who have served or are currently serving a trial court or Tax Court clerkship may be eligible to serve an additional one-year clerkship in the Appellate Division or Supreme Court.

Albany, NY - Judicial Clerkships – Supreme Court Appellate Division, Third Judicial Department
AkronLawJobs Job No. 3707 - The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, Third Judicial Department, is currently seeking applications for one-year clerkships in the Court’s Law Research Department, commencing in August 2013. The positions to be filled will be in either of the following titles and the titles utilized will depend, in part, on the qualifications of the applicants selected. Applicants should specify the position title or titles for which they wish to be considered. Individuals interested in applying for a clerkship with the Third Department should visit the Court’s website at http://www.nycourts.gov/ad3/EmploymentOpportunities.htm

Candidates graduating in the top 20% of their law school classes are also encouraged to apply. In addition, in filling either title, strong consideration will be given to candidates with exceptional records of academic achievement such as being a member of Law Review or graduating cum laude or magna cum laude. Positions available at the present time: approximately 8. Application must be postmarked or received by: September 19, 2012.

March 2013 – March 2014
Job Description - Magistrate Judge Debra Freeman is now accepting applications for a one-year judicial clerkship position that will commence in March 2013.
Qualifications - One or more years of legal experience (either in private practice or public interest) is considered a “plus,” although it is not required. Applicants should have a strong academic record. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Deadline: ASAP.

Attention 2013 Graduates -- Rochester, NY: AkronLawJobs Job No. 3326 - New York State Supreme Court, Appellate Division Fourth Department. Eight appellate court attorney positions will be open commencing August 2013. The positions are for a two-year term. Starting salary is approximately $64,834 for the first year and $76,195 after admission to the New York Bar. Applicants should be in the top 25% of their class with law review, moot court or other writing experience. Send resume, cover letter, transcript of law school grades and writing sample to Craig D. Peterson, 50 East Avenue, Suite 200, Rochester, NY 14604 before October 15, 2012.
