Department of Justice Legal Outreach/Recruitment: The Department of Justice ("Justice") is committed to providing persons with disabilities every opportunity to be hired and advanced on the basis of merit. Justice is committed to using all available hiring authorities—including 5 C.F.R. § 213.3102(u) (commonly known as "Schedule A")—to hire qualified persons with targeted disabilities. In addition, Justice has identified resources that will aid it in its ability to attract qualified candidates with targeted disabilities who have a specific interest in working for the federal government.

One such resource is Bender Consulting Services (Bender). Bender is a company that has been retained by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to recruit, screen, and direct candidates with disabilities to federal agencies for a variety of positions, including attorney jobs. Bender maintains an electronic registry of potential candidates who have targeted disabilities and have been certified as job-ready. When filling an attorney vacancy, every office within Justice is now required to consult the Bender Registry to identify qualified attorney candidates.

Potential attorney candidates with disabilities interested in getting on the Bender Registry should submit their resume to resume@benderconsult.com. Information about Bender and the Bender Registry is accessible at www.benderconsult.com. If you have any questions about the Bender Registry please contact the Bender Consulting Services directly. If you have any questions about the Department of Justice's outreach initiatives designed to attract qualified individuals with targeted disabilities, please contact our Special Counsel for Disability Resources Allison Nichol at (202) 307-6387 or at Allison.Nichol@usdoj.gov

LexisNexis - As part of our ongoing services for Akron Law alums, the Career Planning & Placement Office has requested that our law school alumni continue to have access to LexisNexis for job search activities. LexisNexis has provided us with a Custom ID and Password for our law school alumni. If you would like this ID and password information, please contact Jeanne Kennedy at jeanne2@uakron.edu or 330-972-5321 and she will give it to you. All previous Alumni Career IDs and passwords expired on January 1, 2012. Please note that this new log-in information is only to be used for job search activities and application to the LexisNexis ASPIRE program.

New Jersey – Foreclosure Law Clerk – New Jersey Judiciary

AkronLawJobs Job No. 3546 - Deadline: July 17, 2012.

Term: August 1, 2012 – August 13, 2012

Position #12-49-15-063622

The New Jersey Judiciary is seeking a recent law school graduate with strong communication and analytical skills for immediate appointment as a Foreclosure Law Clerk to be assigned to the General Equity Presiding Judge for Mercer County. The selected candidate will perform specialized technical work in the Office of Foreclosure, including screening and review of foreclosure pleadings, motions, and other case filings for legal sufficiency and accuracy, as well as preparation of written reports, writs, orders, and other court documents to prepare foreclosure cases for final disposition and support entry of a final judgment.

EDUCATION: Foreclosure Law Clerks must have graduated from a law school approved by the American Bar Association by the time of their law clerk appointment.

The Judiciary's law clerkship program is intended for recent law school graduates who have not yet engaged in the practice of law. Selected candidates will be required to provide an official, final law school transcript, not a photocopy, which includes the date of graduation from their law school at the time of hire. Excellent writing and analytical skills are essential.

MEDIATION TRAINING: It is helpful to have completed a course in mediation prior to the start of the clerkship. Under Court Rule, all trial court law clerks who will serve as mediators must first complete the Judiciary sponsored 12-hour mediation training or the equivalent. Applicants selected for clerkships can request a waiver from attending the Judiciary's training program at the start of the court term by providing documentation that confirms that they successfully completed an approved alternative dispute resolution course.

AUTHORIZATION TO WORK: US citizenship is not required. Selected candidate must be authorized to work in the US according to Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations.

To Apply: Minorities, women, individuals with disabilities and other protected class members are encouraged to apply. Applicants should submit a cover letter and current resume complete with announcement number, both day and evening telephone numbers and e-mail address by July 17, 2012 to: Announcement # 12-49-15, Judiciary Personnel Office, Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex, P.O. Box 989, Trenton, NJ 08625 – OR -

Recruitment.Mailbox@Judiciary.state.nj.us. If you are responding to more than one Notice of Vacancy, please submit a copy of your resume/cover letter for each posting. Please include the announcement number in the subject line of your email submission.
