Personal Statement—REQUIRED

The personal statement may expand on your application or reveal a side of yourself not expressed on your application. It may include, but need not be limited to 1) how a law school education will further your personal and professional goals; 2) significant personal accomplishments; and 3) special circumstances, if any, that you wish the admissions committee to know as it reviews your file. Avoid clichés, grammatical errors, typographical errors, and plagiarism. The personal statement should be typed and should be no longer than two pages.

If you have overcome special challenges such as economic hardship, educational deprivation, physical disability, discrimination, assimilation to a different culture/society, or any other disadvantage, please check the following box and describe those challenges in your personal statement. Yes, I have overcome special challenges.

Bar Exam Clearance Requirements

Check “No” or “Yes” to the following questions. Please explain each “Yes” response according to the guidelines listed below. We strongly recommend that you submit this documentation in an attached document in order for your application to be processed in a timely fashion, and a decision on your application returned more quickly.

- No Yes 1. Have you ever been arrested (even if the arrest record was expunged)?
- No Yes 2. Have you ever been charged with and/or convicted of any criminal offense, including minor traffic violations and any matters that have been expunged?
- No Yes 3. Have you ever had any license denied, suspended, or revoked?
- No Yes 4. Have you ever been on probation, suspended, dismissed, or been the subject of disciplinary action by any school for any reason other than grade deficiency?
- No Yes 5. Have you ever been discharged or asked to resign from employment?

If you checked “Yes” to any of the above questions, please include SPECIFIC information that includes the following:

1. Date of incident and your age at the time of the incident
2. Parties involved
3. Description of incident
4. Result (expunged, dismissed, probation, arrest, incarceration, etc.)
5. Degree of misdemeanor or felony and code section (Ohio Revised Code or other state or city code involved)
6. Photocopy of official court documentation, if applicable
7. Information related to post-sentence events (pardon, etc.)

Vague statements are NOT acceptable. Failure to fully disclose may result in dismissal.

Significant Nonacademic Experience (Optional)

If you would like the Admissions Committee to consider any significant nonacademic experience (e.g., volunteer work, employment history, academic honors or awards, extracurricular activities, etc.) when reviewing your application, please include an attachment with your application. This attachment may take the form of a list, a resume, or a cover letter. Please limit attachments to written statements only and to a reasonable length, as the Admissions Committee may potentially review more than 2,000 applications in a given application cycle.

Letters of Recommendation (Optional)

While recommendation letters are optional, the Admissions Committee STRONGLY SUGGESTS that applicants have recommenders submit these on their behalf. Letters may be from instructors, employers, colleagues, or others. Letters of recommendation should come from appropriate sources. For example, applicants who are currently enrolled in an academic program are strongly encouraged to submit letters from instructors, and applicants who have been out of college for a number of years but have significant work experience should seek letters from employers, colleagues, or clients.

If recommendation letters have not been received, but the application form and personal statement have been received, the admissions committee will review the file. Therefore, applicants are strongly encouraged to ask recommenders to write recommendations and provide them in a sealed, signed envelope so that they may be sent in with the application form or shortly thereafter.

Admissions Survey Questions (Optional)

The following survey questions are optional. If you are admitted to The University of Akron School of Law, your responses to these questions will be used to match you more appropriately with student, faculty, and alumni contacts. These questions will not be used by the Admissions Committee to aid in making an admission decision on your application file.
