PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

October 2008 – Present

Associate Clinical Professor of Law
Assistant Director, Legal Clinic

Clinics Taught

Reentry Clinic

Clemency Project

The Clemency Project prepares pardon petitions to the Ohio governor. The clinic assists ex-offenders who are ineligible to their convictions sealed by the court. Volunteer law students staff the clinic.

CQE Clinic

The CQE Clinic is a walk-in clinic staffed by volunteer law students. It assists ex-offenders with the online application for a Certificate of Qualification for Employment. The clinic collaborates with the Summit County Common Pleas Court and the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction.

Expungement Clinic (April 2013 to Present)

An adjunct faculty member manages the Expungement Clinic. I supervise the adjunct faculty member. The clinic assists clients with court process to criminal convictions. Volunteer law students staff the clinic.

Human Trafficking

The Human Trafficking clinic assists victims of human trafficking with expungement of their convictions. Volunteer law students staff the clinic

Reentry Clinic Recognition

Reentry Clinic Fundraising

Secured the following funding to support the Reentry Clinic:

- May 2016: 18-month $100,000 Juvenile Reentry Assistance Program Grant from Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Yearly: $25,000 grant from City of Akron
- Yearly: $25,000 grant from Summit County Department of Job and Family Services

Civil Practice Clinic. The clinic assists low-income clients with housing issues. The clinic is a multidisciplinary clinic staffed by law students and social work students. The clinic is a collaborative effort with the local legal aid organization.

Civil Practice Clinic Recognition

2010 Community Legal Aid Volunteer Law Firm of the Year

Social Justice Lawyering Clinic. The clinic identifies and works on social justice projects that will impact the community.

Appellate Practice Clinic. The clinic represents clients in appeals to the Ohio Ninth District Court of Appeals.

Community and Pro Bono Publico Service Coordinator

Co-coordinate a program that requires all law students to complete, for graduation, 30 hours of pro bono and community service. I assist law students with obtaining community service and pro bono placements. I also coordinate the annual law school community service event - Akron Law Cares.

Site Supervisor, Law and Leadership Institute (2009-2015)

Supervised a statewide pipeline program that encourages minority and disadvantaged students to attend law school. Approximately 70 high school students attended the Akron Law and Leadership program.

March 1999 – October 2008

Staff Attorney, Housing Unit
Community Legal Aid Services, Inc.

Represented clients in housing cases and expungement cases. Representation included appearances at court and administrative agencies. Conducted community presentations on a variety of legal topics.

Major Projects:

Akron Municipal Court Project: Worked collaboratively with Akron Municipal Court judges and personnel to establish a bi-weekly clinic directed to attendees sued for credit card debt or for eviction.

Clemency Project: Began a project in an eight-county region to assist low-income clients with seeking a pardon from the governor of Ohio.

Financial Information and Legal Education (FILE): Developed a financial literacy power point and presentation aimed at low-income people who faced impediments to self-sufficiency. Sought and achieved a grant from the city of Akron to support the program.

Social Welfare Practitioner Training: Organized and presented a landlord-tenant training for all social welfare practitioners in eight-county region. Purpose of presentation was to educate social welfare practitioners on landlord-tenant issues faced by their clients.

October 1996-
August 1998

Staff Attorney, Housing Unit
The Legal Aid Society of Columbus

Represented clients who were facing eviction or foreclosure in Municipal and Common Pleas courts.

October 1995-
October 1996

Contract Work
Denver, Colorado

Prepared projects on a contract basis. Projects included a capital appeal to the California Supreme Court; a capital state habeas to the California Supreme Court; a double murder appeal to the Colorado Court of Appeals; death penalty motions' practice for Colorado trial court; a capital habeas brief to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals; and briefs to Ohio Appellate Courts.

August 1993-
May 1995

Chief Appellate Counsel
Death Penalty Section

Ohio Public Defender Commission

Supervised eleven attorneys involved in litigating capital cases on direct appeal and in the state post-conviction process in the Ohio courts. Represented clients before the Ohio Courts of Appeals and the Ohio Supreme Court. Also represented clients in the Federal District Court, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. Provided legal assistance to attorneys throughout Ohio involved in capital trials and appeals. Recruited, interviewed, hired, and trained new employees for the Death Penalty Section.

October 1992-
August 1993

Supervisor
Death Penalty Section
Ohio Public Defender Commission

Supervised, on an interim basis, a staff of thirty-seven attorneys, mitigation specialists, criminal investigators and support personnel involved in representing clients convicted of capital crimes. Provided legal assistance to trial and appellate attorneys representing capital clients throughout Ohio. Represented clients in state direct appeals process and state post-conviction.

March 1990 -
October 1992

Chief Appellate Counsel
Death Penalty Section
Ohio Public Defender Commission

Supervised eight attorneys and two law clerks involved in direct appeals of capital cases in Ohio courts. Represented clients before the Ohio Courts of Appeals, Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court. Provided legal assistance to attorneys throughout Ohio involved in capital appeals. Recruited, interviewed, hired, and trained new employees for the Death Penalty Section.

November 1986 -
March 1990

Assistant State Public Defender
Ohio Public Defender Commission

Represented clients in state direct appeals and in state post-conviction cases. Reviewed transcripts, identified issues, prepared strategy and drafted motions, appellate briefs and post-conviction petitions.

September 1986 -
December 1986

Adjunct Professor
University of Akron School of Law

Instructed approximately thirty students in Legal research, analysis and writing in Basic Legal Communications. Taught approximately twenty students' appellate brief writing and oral argument skills in Intermediate Legal Communications.
