PROFESSIONAL

Current Academic Appointment

The University of Akron School of Law, Akron, Ohio. Dean & C. Blake McDowell, Jr. Professor of Law, June 2017-present

- Provide executive oversight of all functions of the School of Law, a public law school with 430+ students, full-time and part-time divisions, three degree programs, 40 full-time faculty and staff, and an annual budget of $10 million; part of a diverse urban public university with five degree-granting colleges and 20,000 students.
- Regularly teach constitutional law, civil procedure, and a Lawyers as Leaders seminar.
- Reduced general fund expenditures by 18% from FY2017 to FY2020. The School of Law runs a budget surplus despite holding tuition steady below $25,000 for resident and non-resident students.
- Substantially improved entering student credentials Fall 2018 to Fall 2021 (median LSAT up two points, top quartile LSAT up three points, UGPAs higher at every quartile).
- Introduced enrollment initiatives including: Blended Online Part-Time JD program; Summer (May) Start option; GRE admissions policy. 2020 new JD enrollments up 30% vs. 2019 with comparable credentials and greater diversity.
- Successfully applied for $300,000 LSAC “PLUS” diversity pipeline program grant; have hosted summer immersion program since 2018. Akron Law became a founding member of Ohio Legal Diversity Consortium in 2020. Self-identified minority student population in 2020 entering JD class is 18.5%, nearing historic highs.
- Utilized existing resources to institute three- or four-year wrap-around bar prep and academic success program in partnership with BarBri (including post-grad bar review course) at no additional cost to students. Fifteen percent increase in first-time pass rate in July 2019 Ohio bar vs. previous year. February 2019 and 2020 Ohio first-time pass rates highest among public law schools in the state.
- Despite budget reductions, hired four new full-time tenured or tenure-track faculty members in three years; searching for a fifth in fall 2020. Appointed three new endowed McDowell Professors.

- Partnered with Ohio Governor DeWine and Ohio State University Moritz College of Law to pilot a unique Expedited Pardon Project, developed and administered by our Re-entry Clinic.
- Secured a $240,000 grant to expand our Small Entrepreneur and Economic Development (SEED) Clinic operations, providing entrepreneurial education and start-up legal counseling to undergraduate students at area colleges.
- Retained a professional communications consultant using donated funds. Substantially increased positive media mentions. Significantly upgraded content, functionality, and appearance of School of Law website. Generated high-impact admissions and promotional materials.
- In first two years, increased annual fundraising by 24%. Number of annual gifts increased by 54%. Secured four major gifts, bequests, or grants of $200,000 or greater.

PERSONAL

I was born and raised in western Michigan. I live in Hudson, Ohio with my wife (a development researcher for a nonprofit organization) and Dingo, our MinPin-Pomeranian mix. My nonprofessional interests include photography, travel, cooking, watching Major League Baseball and college sports, collecting vinyl records (especially jazz), re-learning the piano, and enjoying modern architecture and design.
