Merit Evaluation Criteria

DEFINITIONS:

Academic year: Beginning on the first day of the first summer session and concluding with the day prior to the first day of the following year’s first summer session.

Unsatisfactory: Number of points faculty member presents in each area in order to achieve school director’s final rating of “0 - 1” (see table below each merit area).

Satisfactory: Number of points faculty member presents in each area in order to achieve school director’s final rating of “2” (see table below each merit area).

Meritorious: Number of points faculty member presents in each area in order to achieve school director’s final rating of “3” (see table below each merit area).

Outstanding: Number of points faculty member presents in each area in order to achieve school director’s final rating of “4” (see table below each merit area).

Extraordinary: Number of points faculty member presents in each area in order to achieve school director’s final rating of “5” (see table below each merit area).

A. Academic Unit Merit Process

1. This school shall formulate and adopt faculty criteria for merit evaluations by majority vote of bargaining unit faculty. These current criteria were adopted by majority vote of the school bargaining unit faculty on March 23, 2018. Any subsequent modifications may be accomplished through a majority vote of the school bargaining unit faculty. The school director, dean, and Office of Academic Affairs must also approve these criteria.

2. The default weighting for each merit criteria area adopted by faculty with different classifications shall be:

   (a) Tenure track (TT) bargaining unit faculty: Teaching 60%, Research 30%, Service 10%. However, each faculty member, including probationary faculty members, may elect to choose a different weighting scale to accurately reflect his/her work of the academic year. The weighting scale must include a minimum of 10% for each category. Any alternate scale that differs from the default weighting outlined above shall be decided in consultation with the school director, and with the faculty member providing a rationale.

   The initial decision about the weighting scale shall be made at the beginning of the academic year, prior to the second Friday of Fall semester.
1. When probationary faculty members select individual weightings, they should do so with consideration of issues relating to progression toward tenure/promotion.

2. In semesters or years when a faculty member is on leave (e.g., Professional Development Leave), and he/she did not teach and/or perform service activities, but did produce research, under the categories of teaching and service he/she will receive either a "Satisfactory" (2) rating or his/her actual earned merit score, whichever is higher.

(b) Non-tenure track (NTT) bargaining unit faculty: merit will be rated as stipulated in Letters of Offer/Appointment, for example:

Teaching 100% (0% service and 0% scholarly activity, unless additional accomplishments are included at the faculty member’s discretion as outlined below).

In addition to teaching accomplishments, required for submission as part of merit self-assessment applications, any NTT faculty may also submit evidence of service and/or scholarly activity in their merit self-assessment reports even if such activities are not assigned in the most recent letter of appointment. Credit for such additional activities shall be awarded to the same fashion as for tenure-track faculty per these merit evaluation guidelines but cannot be substituted for evaluation of any service and/or research/scholarship duties assigned in the letter of appointment. If a NTT faculty submits service and/or scholarly activity accomplishments for consideration during a merit application, those accomplishments shall be subject to director discretionary points (i.e., at the director’s discretion) awarded in a particular/applicable category not captured in the standard school merit criteria.

B. Merit Review Procedures

The school director shall conduct an annual evaluation of every bargaining unit faculty member in accordance with the school’s adopted criteria.

1. In preparation for the school director’s evaluation, all members of the bargaining unit who wish to apply for merit shall submit to the director a report of their teaching, scholarship, and service, as applicable based on the guidelines in A.2.a and A.2.b above, from the preceding academic year (summer, fall, and spring semesters). The bargaining unit faculty member may include, in addition to any materials required by the CBA, whatever material will provide evidence of successful teaching, scholarship, or service.

2. Merit materials will be considered on an annual basis.

3. Publications can be counted only once either while “in press” (accepted for publication but not yet delivered) or when in print, but not both. This is to reflect that the faculty member’s success is measured by the official promise to publish his/her work, and the length of time it takes for the publisher to get the work out is not under the faculty member’s control. The faculty member must provide a dated proof of acceptance from an editor/publisher, subject to verification. If the work is not subsequently published, the faculty member will have the merit points earned for its acceptance deducted from the appropriate year's merit evaluation.

4. Points system: A maximum of 5 points can be accumulated in each category. The school director will provide a written evaluation and assign a ranking of "Unsatisfactory" = 1, "Satisfactory" = 2, "Meritorious" = 3, "Outstanding" = 4, or "Extraordinary" = 5. While the bargaining unit faculty member may present their case using the following system, the school director shall assign the ranking from 1-5 to each area of teaching scholarship, and service.

C. Merit Criteria

1. Scholarship

A Satisfactory (2) rating means that the faculty member is advancing the body of knowledge in his/her field as described below. Evidence of this scholarship will be maintenance of at least graduate faculty category 1 status. For the first two years of service, if this status is not already met, the faculty member will merit as "Satisfactory" (2) rating if he/she submits drafts of articles showing a significant degree of progress towards this status. The publication of works that grant graduate faculty status will still merit the additional points noted below. Scholarship can be represented by research, development, and innovative and creative works. The bargaining unit faculty member shall use these point values and make his/her case presentation to the school director.
