Meeting Start The August 25th Talent Development & HR UC Committee meeting was called to order at 9:05 AM. One change was made to the agenda: adding discussion of goals for the 2025–2026 academic year. The agenda (with this addition) and July 2025 meeting minutes were adopted without objection. Old Business 1. Mental Health Training Initiative Based on findings from the October 2024 Healthy Minds Survey—which showed high levels of anxiety and mental health concerns among both students and employees—the committee is developing a mental health training module for employees. A subcommittee has been formed to design the training. Campus wide individuals connected to Dean of Students, Counseling & Testing, Psychology, and the survey's design team. Goal: produce a demo version by January. The training is expected to resemble existing mandatory modules (e.g., hazing, Title IX). Estimated length: under one hour, focused on: Recognizing signs of mental health issues Understanding campus resources Responding appropriately when a student or colleague might need support Stephanie invited additional volunteers for the subcommittee. Additional Suggestions (Erin Makarius) Erin shared two opportunities: The HR Advisory Board conference on mental health in the workplace (October 23), featuring a consultant-led workshop. Faculty, staff, and employees may attend for free. A potential collaborator: Steve Kaufman, who is teaching a training and development course. His class may provide support or ideas. Closing After updates and suggestions, the meeting concluded at 9:22am
