Meeting Start: Stephanie Davis-Dieringer called the meeting to order at 9:02 AM. Agenda and August 2025 meeting minutes were adopted without objection. Welcome & New Members: Stephanie welcomed several new committee members, including: Dorothy Gruich Bethel (student representative) Jessica (student representative) Two additional student reps—Courtney and Laura—could not attend. A new dean (Debmalya) was expected but had not yet joined the call. Old Business Updates: 1. Mental Health Training Initiative Committee previously collected data through the October 2024 Healthy Minds Survey (students + employees). A new mental health awareness and resource training is being developed for employees. Training will focus on: Recognizing mental health concerns Understanding available campus resources Knowing what to do when a student or colleague may need help A subcommittee (including Stephanie, Lisa, others) is assembling and scheduling its first meeting. They would like to add a student representative to the subcommittee; Jessica volunteered during the meeting. Dorothy also later volunteered to join if additional members are needed. 2. Succession Planning Project Campus anticipates significant turnover in student-facing roles in the next 3–5 years. A succession planning subcommittee (Stephanie, Erin, HR representatives) is meeting regularly. The group is developing a framework and materials to distribute campus-wide in the next 6–7 months. Next subcommittee meeting is scheduled for Wednesday. Next Steps & Closing: Stephanie will send out the committee's updated goals within the next 30 minutes for review and edits. No additional discussion items were raised. Meeting adjourned at 9:25 AM — noted as a strong on-time start to the academic year.
