Clinic History and Mission

The clinic is part of the Department of Counseling, operating on The University of Akron campus. Since 1986, the clinic has provided a wide array of counseling services to the Greater Akron area and its surrounding communities.

Our Clinic missions are:

» To provide high-quality, low-cost mental health services to the Greater Akron area.
  • Counseling services are provided to individuals of all ages, couples, families and/or groups.

» To provide state-of-the-art, graduate-level training in mental health care.
  • Under the supervision of qualified faculty members, graduate students receive a broad range of mental health training experiences, including assessment and evaluation, clinical diagnosis, treatment planning, case consultation and diverse approaches to counseling/therapy.

Counseling services include, but are not limited to:

» Communication and relationship improvement
» Depression and anxiety
» Premarital and couples counseling
» Family development and parenting skills
» Career exploration and planning
» Academic improvement for children/adolescents
» Resolution of grief/loss
» Anger management
» Stress reduction and relaxation
» LGBT and lifestyle empowerment and advocacy
» Self-esteem and self-confidence building
» Personal understanding and growth

Persons seeking services will not be discriminated against based on age, sex, gender identity, race, ethnicity, physical exceptionalities, culture, religion, nationality, socioeconomic status or sexual orientation.
