Whether you’re coming back to school and managing a family, planning to start a family or find yourself unexpectedly pregnant, the University of Akron has many resources for you to consider. We want to assist you in your multiple roles, including student and parent.

ON CAMPUS RESOURCES

Adult Focus
Schrank Hall North, Room 260, 330-972-5793.................................http://www.uakron.edu/uaaf/
Academic support services for adult learners, including anyone assuming multiple life roles, such as student and parent. Adult Focus also can share a child care referral list.

Academic Adviser
You can find your Academic Adviser or Advising Office contact information on Zipline. Your Adviser can help you discuss classes that will be the right fit for you. Communicating with your instructors early and often will also help you be successful.

Center for Child Development
Childcare center affiliated to UA. Open year round. There can be a waiting list, so it’s recommended you contact them as soon as you’re interested.

Counseling Center
Simmons Hall 306, 330-972-7082........................................http://www.uakron.edu/counseling/
This office offers free counseling, help with decision making and support groups for parents.

Financial Aid/Scholarships
Simmons Hall, 330-972-7032..............................................................http://www.uakron.edu/finaid/
Make sure you check with financial aid to see all scholarships that you’re eligible for and also check if scholarships are listed on your department’s website (i.e. an English major can check the Department of English’s website). Below are some additional Community Foundation and National Scholarship possibilities.
