ONLINE TRAINING MODULE EVALUATION

MODULE TITLE: Improving Access: ADA for Search Committees

Thank you for completing this evaluation. Your responses assist HR Training & Development Services to continually improve the quality of training programs we present for you and your colleagues.

1. In regards to providing practical information, the overall quality of the module was:

   □ Excellent □ Above average □ Satisfactory □ Unsatisfactory

   Comments: _____________________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________

2. Did you feel the content of this workshop met your objectives, needs and expectations?

   □ Completely □ Mostly □ Somewhat □ Not at all

   Comments: _____________________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________

3. Did you find links to other documentation to be helpful in clarification of course content?

   □ Very Helpful □ Somewhat Helpful □ Of Little Help □ Not Helpful

   Comments: _____________________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________

4. Would you recommend this training session to others? □ Yes □ No

   Comments: _____________________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________

5. What other trainings would you like to see offered here at the University?

   _______________________________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________________________

Thank you for your time and attention to this evaluation. We value your comments.

Please mail this form to Training and Development Services +4732.