AkronLawJobs No. 8606 Overview: The City of Chicago Law Department is seeking an attorney for the position of Assistant Corporation Counsel (ACC) in its Employment Litigation Division. The Employment Litigation Division defends the City of Chicago and public officials against allegations of discrimination as well as other civil rights and employment law violations brought by prospective, current, and former employees. The following information should not be considered exhaustive. Interested applicants should read the full posting found at www.cityofchicago.org/careers (Job Number: 288339).
Qualifications: Graduation from an American Bar Association (ABA) accredited law school with a Juris Doctor degree in or before 2010, and admission to the Illinois Bar (or eligible for admission on motion to the Illinois Bar pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 705). Ideal candidates will possess the following: a minimum of five years of experience in federal and/or state court litigation, preferably in employment litigation; experience with trials and drafting pleadings; experience with motion practice and presenting oral arguments; experience conducting discovery and taking/defending depositions; negotiation and settlement experience; exceptional research skills; superior writing and communication skills; the ability to work well with others; demonstrated history of exhibiting leadership and initiative on assigned tasks; the ability to organize, prioritize, monitor and control workflow deadlines; and demonstrated history of good judgment.
How to Apply: There is a two-step application process for this position. All application materials are due on or before July 27, 2017.
Step Two: In addition to the on-line application, and regardless of whether such materials were uploaded with your on-line application, the following materials must be submitted in hard copy to City of Chicago Department of Law’s Legal Recruiter, 30 North LaSalle Street, Suite 1640, Chicago, IL 60602:
Cover letter that (1) includes the position title and job number as noted on the posting; and (2) specifically identifies how you meet the minimum qualifications and have the knowledge, skills, and abilities listed below; Resume; Law school transcript (official or unofficial); Two writing samples; and Current printout from the Illinois ARDC website at www.iardc.org (or your admitted state bar’s equivalent).
Failure to submit all materials will result in your application not being considered for the position.
NOTE: The foregoing materials must be submitted in person (interoffice delivery of application materials will not be accepted) or received via U.S. Mail or another similar mailing method (e.g., FedEx, UPS, DHL) at the address noted above on or before July 27, 2017. Please do not submit references with your hard copy materials. Please do not send to us any materials other than those we have specifically requested above.
DEADLINE: July 27, 2017

Harrisburg, PA–Research and Writing Specialist–Federal Public Defender's Office Harrisburg, PA
AkronLawJobs No. 8534 Overview The Federal Public Defender for the Middle District of Pennsylvania is seeking an experienced Research and Writing Specialist for its Capital Habeas Unit. This is a full-time attorney position located in Harrisburg. The Capital Habeas Unit represents death-sentenced prisoners in federal habeas corpus proceedings. Duties: The Research and Writing Specialist provides advanced legal research and writing services and litigation assistance to staff attorneys working in the Unit, who are representing clients in federal capital habeas corpus proceedings. The Specialist duties include knowledge of the latest developments in habeas corpus and criminal
Philadelphia, PA – Public Interest Law Fellowship – Independence Foundation

Duties: Through the Fellowship Program, the Foundation funds the compensation and employment benefits for accomplished young lawyers who have decided to direct their considerable talents to public interest service. The Foundation requires that the focus of all Fellowship work be on direct representation of disadvantaged clients. The Foundation also assists the Fellows in repayment of their often substantial educational loans. Independence Foundation Public Interest Law Fellowships provide support for law school graduates, outgoing judicial law clerks and attorneys who are currently employed and who want to work in the public interest for a legal services organization that qualifies for 501(c)(3) organization and provides legal services to individuals who are disadvantaged, including the elderly, the disabled, the homeless or those deprived of their civil or human rights.

Qualifications and Time Limit: JD and a member of the Pennsylvania State bar in good standing. The application must be made within five years of law school graduation. The duration of the Fellowship is one year. Fellowships may be renewed for one additional year if requested by the Fellow and approved by the Foundation Board of Directors and the sponsoring organization. All Fellows will be required to submit quarterly written reports of their Fellowship activities. Fellows who wish to renew their Fellowships for the second year must apply for renewal and submit an accounting of their first year and a recommendation from their sponsoring organization.

Salary and Benefits: Effective in the fall of 2017, each Fellowship will provide the Fellow an annual salary in the amount of $52,000, plus the cost of health care benefits, disability insurance, and employer's withholding taxes as compensation for full-time employment. These amounts will be paid on a quarterly basis directly to the sponsoring organization. The Foundation will not pay the cost of pension benefits or any fringe benefits, such as employment-related travel expenses. In addition, each Fellowship will provide for those Fellows who owe student loans an amount equal to the amount due and payable on such loans during the term of the Fellowship up to a maximum amount of $10,000 in each Fellowship year. This amount will be paid on a quarterly basis directly to the employing organization. The Fellow shall be an employee of the organization and not the Foundation. To the extent that amounts paid under the Fellowship Program are deemed taxable, the Fellow shall be responsible for such tax obligations.

Grants will be made to sponsoring organizations only. Therefore, before the final application is due, a legal services organization that will sponsor the applicant must be identified. The potential sponsoring organization must be a legal services organization serving the disadvantaged whose work has been funded previously by Independence Foundation. It must have its principal office in Philadelphia, Delaware, Montgomery, Bucks, or Chester County, Pennsylvania. A Fellowship applicant must propose a public interest law project that he or she will implement if granted a Fellowship. A public interest law project typically consists of developing a new substantive area of legal practice or type of legal service which is consistent with the sponsoring organization's overall mission but in which the organization has generally not Previously engaged. However, in rare instances, Fellowships are granted to support public interest law projects that do not involve developing a new area of practice, but rather consist of the development of a new approach that more effectively, innovatively, and comprehensively delivers a type of legal service the organization has previously attempted to provide. Fellowships will not be granted to fund either the prosecution or defense of criminal defendants. Moreover, although a Fellow may engage in some policy-based activities, a major component of a Fellow's anticipated work must consist of direct legal representation of disadvantaged clients. Direct representation may include representation in litigation before either judicial or administrative forums or representation of clients in transactional matters.

Each organization may sponsor only one applicant for a Fellowship in any year. However, an organization that currently employs an Independence Foundation Fellow may sponsor an applicant for a new Fellowship. No current employee of an organization may apply for a Fellowship at that organization.

IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE APPLICANT to secure a position with a potential sponsoring organization before submitting an application for a Fellowship. The SPONSORING ORGANIZATION must prepare a COMMITMENT LETTER for submission to the Foundation with the Application. The COMMITMENT LETTER must contain a brief description of the organization, including its structure, history, and public interest goals and activities; a representation that the organization is a qualified 501(c)(3) organization; a description of the public interest law project to which the applicant will be assigned if a Fellowship is granted; and, a commitment to employ the applicant in that position on a full-time basis, under the terms and conditions applicable to all similarly situated employees of the organization (except compensation), for a period of one year, subject to renewal for a further year upon the approval of both the Foundation and the sponsoring organization.

The SPONSORING ORGANIZATION must also complete the attached Benefits Worksheet, on which the organization must provide the requested information concerning the projected cost of benefits for the potential fellow, and provide a 501(c)(3) Tax-Exempt Status Qualifying Letter. When an application is considered by the Foundation, the worthiness of the proposed project's goals as well as the applicant's scholarship, character, and commitment to public interest law will be considered. A special Advisory Committee to the Foundation Board of Directors, consisting of both Foundation Board members and representatives of the legal community, will review all applications and make recommendations to the Foundation Board. The Board will make the final award of the Fellowships.

If awarded a Fellowship, applicants will be expected to devote their full time to Fellowship work for the duration of the Independence Foundation Fellowship.

How to apply: Apply HERE. Upload your Resume, OFFICIAL Law School Transcripts, Letter of Recommendation from a Law School Adviser, Letter of Recommendation from a Former Employer, Commitment letter from the Sponsoring Organization, and the Budget Worksheet from the Sponsoring Organization (found on the application page). If you experience technical difficulties and need assistance in submitting or accessing your online application, please contact Foundation Source, the online application system provider, at 1-800-839-5316 or premiersupport@foundationsource.com.

PLEASE USE EITHER INTERNET EXPLORER OR MOZILLA FIREFOX BROWSERS to complete this application. Some changes will not hold using Google Chrome or other browsers.

Deadline: September 25, 2017. Interviews with selected applicants will be conducted in late November. Fellows will be notified in mid-December.

Los Angeles, CA – Director, Alternative Dispute Resolution Program – University of Southern California

AkronLawJobs No. 8371 Overview: This is a full-time, fixed-term position. The initial contract term is three years, renewable for an additional one to three-year terms, based on funding. The position will report to the Law School’s Vice Dean for Administration.

Description: The Judge Judith O. Hollinger Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program prepares students to work in the field of arbitration and mediation, an area of law that continues to grow in importance. Through the program, students gain an in-depth knowledge of the complexities of ADR. The ADR program offers a wide range of arbitration and mediation courses, as well as hands-on practical experience through mediation clinics, practicums/externships, workshops and mock mediation/arbitration competitions. Through such courses, students become skilled in active listening, negotiation and creative problem-solving, all of which are highly relevant skills for any practicing attorney. The Center’s programs include conferences and symposia. Reasonable travel associated with Center programs can be expected. The Center hosts or sponsors annual events with the goal of bringing together leading academics, practitioners, and policymakers from across the country and around the world to discuss critical problems and challenges that exist within the realm of alternative dispute resolution. We are seeking a visionary leader with the desire to have a national impact on the critical and urgent conversations surrounding alternative dispute resolution. The ideal candidate must possess strong entrepreneurial skills and must be a self-motivated and well-organized, collaborative leader. Ability to manage sponsored projects and fundraise.

Duties: Candidates must possess excellent oral and written communication skills and must be willing to engage in external outreach and fundraising. Among other things, the Center Director will be responsible for the following duties: engage in strategic planning and establish policies, protocols, and procedures to govern the operation of the Center, including the management of an Advisory Board; direct day to day operations of the Center, including all its programming, administer the Center’s budget; hire and supervise the Center’s staff and oversee Center affiliated students as Center operations grow; create opportunities for students to benefit from the work of the Center, including developing new courses and research opportunities, as appropriate; work closely with faculty, both at the USC Gould School of Law and other law schools; ensure compliance with the requirements of any applicable endowment or grant agreement; advance and grow the Center through fundraising efforts with collaboration with the USC Gould School of Law’s development team and the Center’s faculty director.

Qualifications: J.D., M.B.A. or equivalent advanced degree; at least five years of successful legal practice with experience in alternative dispute resolution; demonstrated management or administration of programs or centers and organizational skills, with successful prior experience in fundraising or coordinating scholarly or professional conferences preferred; a strong record of established relationships with other business professionals and with professional organizations preferred.

Minimum Education: Master’s degree, Combined experience/education as substitute for minimum education;

Minimum Experience: 7 years;

Minimum Field of Expertise: Directly related program management experience. Expert knowledge of field, teaching experience and/or active in research.

Salary: The position offers a competitive salary and benefits package. For information regarding USC benefits, visit the following website: https://benefits.usc.edu/i-am/full-time/
