Sociology / Criminology & Law Enforcement Degree:
Basic Requirements for Graduation

- Sociology/Criminology & Law Enforcement majors must complete the four core courses as indicated:
  - 3850:100 Introduction to Sociology 4
  - 3850:301 Methods of Social Research I (Fall) 4
  - 3850:302 Methods of Social Research II (Spring) 4
  - 3850:460 Sociological Theory 4
  (16)

- All Criminology/Law Enforcement majors must take the following substantive courses in Sociology for a total of 35 credits:
  - 3850:330 Criminology
  - 3850:433 Sociology of Deviant Behavior
  - 3850:441 Sociology of Law
  - 3850:320 Social Inequalities
  - 3850:431 Corrections
  - 3850:495 Field Internship (for 4 credits)

The major code for a B.A. in Sociology/Criminology & Law Enforcement is 385007BA

For more information contact:
Buchtel College of Arts & Sciences Academic Advising
College of Arts & Sciences Building, Room 448
330-972-7880 or bcasadvising@uakron.edu

---

1 While every effort is made to provide accurate and up-to-date information, The Sociology Department reserves the right to change, without notice, statements herein which include, but are not limited to courses, programs, services, schedules, course availability, or other matters. Programs may be modified due to limited resources or facilities, unavailability of faculty, insufficient enrollment, or other reasons as deemed necessary.